1. BASIC INFORMATION

Purpose of the Funding

The Office of Justice Programs (OJP) is committed to advancing work that furthers the U.S. Department of Justice's (DOJ) mission to keep our country safe and secure and uphold the rule of law and protect the rights of American citizens. OJP provides federal leadership, funding, and other critical resources to directly support law enforcement, combat violent crime, protect American children, provide services to American crime victims, and address public safety challenges, including human trafficking and the opioid crisis.

This is a notice of funding opportunity (NOFO) for the OJJDP FY 2026 Family Treatment Court Program. This opportunity will support state and local courts, units of local government, and federally recognized Tribal governments to establish new, or enhance existing, family treatment courts to ensure the provision of substance use treatment and other services that improve child, parent, and family outcomes. Family treatment courts serve parents who require treatment for a substance use disorder and who encounter and are engaged with the child welfare system because of child abuse, neglect, or other parenting issues. Family treatment courts provide intensive judicial monitoring and interventions to treat parents' substance use and/or co-occurring mental health disorders.

This NOFO funds two categories:

- Category 1: Establishing New Family Treatment Courts. Category 1 will support the implementation of new family treatment courts to provide parental substance use disorder (SUD) treatment services, including screening, assessment, case management, recovery support services, and program coordination to family treatment court participants.
- Category 2: Enhancing Family Treatment Courts. Category 2 will support the expansion of parental SUD treatment services in existing family treatment courts.

Any court that receives funds under this program may not permit participation by any individual who is charged with or has committed a violent offense.¹ Funding will be immediately suspended if DOJ determines that an individual who is charged with or has committed a violent offense is participating in any program funded under this funding opportunity. The family treatment court should collaborate with entities (e.g., courts, programs, and partners) in structuring the participants' treatment under this program with any participant with pending criminal cases, supervised by probation, or participating in diversion programming. Family treatment courts must meet all applicable requirements provided for at 34 U.S.C. 10611 et. Seq., including:

- Continuing judicial supervision over individuals under the jurisdiction of the court with substance abuse conditions, including individuals with co-occurring substance abuse and mental health conditions, who are not individuals who are charged with or have committed a violent offense.
- Coordination with the appropriate state or local prosecutor and the applicable agency attorney (i.e., child welfare agency).

The integrated administration of treatment adjustments, complementary service modifications, or therapeutic measures.

Although the authorizing statute requires participant payments for treatment and restitution, recipients may not impose a fee on a client participant at a level that would interfere with the client's participant's rehabilitation. See 34 U.S.C. 10611(a)-(b). Applicants should include in their application provisions for determining if these costs would interfere with a client's participant's rehabilitation recovery or graduation.

Consistent with the authorizing statute, 34 U.S.C. 10611(c), family treatment court programs must require mandatory periodic drug testing that is accurate and practicable. Each participant must be tested for every controlled substance that the participant has been known to abuse and for any that the court may require. The courts must impose treatment adjustments, complementary service modifications, therapeutic measures, or whenever a participant fails a drug test.

Provide a long-term strategy and detailed implementation plan that shall provide for the consultation and coordination with appropriate state and local prosecutors, particularly when program participants fail to comply with program requirements. Explain the inability to fund the program adequately without federal assistance.

Describe the methodology that will be used to evaluate the program.

See the Eligible Applicants section for eligibility details.

2. ELIGIBILITY

Eligible Applicants

The types of entities that are eligible to apply are:

Government Entities

- State governments
- County governments
- City or township governments
- Native American Tribal governments (federally recognized)

Category 1: Establishing New Family Treatment Courts grants are available to jurisdictions that are ready to implement a new family treatment court. These grants are for jurisdictions where either no family treatment court currently exists, or a family treatment court has been operational for less than 1 year. Jurisdictions may already have other types of drug or treatment courts (such as adult drug courts or mental health courts).

Category 2: Enhancing Family Treatment Courts grants are available to jurisdictions with a fully operational family treatment court. Courts applying for funding under Category 2 must be fully operational for at least 1 year, as funding is intended to enhance services of existing family treatment courts. OJJDP encourages applicants to partner with community service providers, if applicable and appropriate.

Cost Sharing (Match) Requirement: This NOFO requires cost sharing (match). See Program Description: Cost Sharing \(Match\) Requirement for details on the cost sharing (match) calculation and what types of contributions are acceptable. If your application does not include the required cost sharing, it will be deemed ineligible for funding.

Limit on Number of Applications: You may submit more than one application under Category 1 and Category 2 if each application proposes a different project.

If a project will be carried out by two or more entities (project partners), only one entity may submit the application. The other entities (project partners) must be proposed as subrecipients rather than co-applicants. An entity may be proposed as a subrecipient in more than one application. For additional information regarding subawards, see the Application Resource Guide
