To the Members of the Supreme Court of Louisiana
To the Members of the Board of Governors of the Louisiana State Bar Association

Ladies and Gentlemen:

The Judicial Council presents for your study its annual "complete detailed report" (as required by rule) of judicial activity in the past year.

This report describes with numbers the never-ending effort of the judiciary to meet the needs of the people. Figures merely measure volume. Time, alone, will measure quality.

The reports of the Judicial Administrator, the Judicial College, the Judiciary Commission and the Law Library of Louisiana further describe our efforts to improve the quality of the judicial product.

Sincerely,

John A. Dixon, Jr.

THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL

During 1986, the Judicial Council of the Supreme Court of Louisiana continued its work of evaluating requests for new judgeships. Three new judgeships were recommended for the Third Circuit Court of Appeal. While the 1986 legislature agreed with the need, they were unable to fund new judgeships due to the lack of funds.

Legislation passed in 1986, formulated by the Appellate Delay/Court Reporting Subcommittee, chaired by Judge Cleveland Marcel (Retired), made the court rather than the court reporter the owner of the notes taken by the reporter; the reporter remains the custodian of the notes. The legislation also sets the length of time that court reporters must keep the notes (civil, 5 years; criminal, indefinitely).

The Judicial Planning Committee of the Judicial Council, chaired by Associate Justice James L. Dennis has numerous subcommittees which were extremely active in 1986.

The Science and Technology Subcommittee, Chaired by Judge Leon Ford, III, and staffed by Ronald Wm. Stritzinger, sponsored, with the Louisiana Court Administrators Association, a workshop on courtroom security; is studying the application of computer aided transcripts for statewide use; and is planning a program on in-house incarceration.

Judge Salvadore T. Mule, Chairman, and his Juvenile Courts Subcommittee continues work on formulating a new juvenile code for the state and is working, with the help of Dr. Hugh Collins of the Judicial Administrator's Office, on devising criteria for determining the need for new juvenile court judgeships.

Mr. Richard Knight, Esq., Chairman of the Courts Community Relations Subcommittee has reported the distribution of a brochure for all court personnel on how to deal with the public in a courteous and effective manner. The subcommittee, staffed by Paulette Holahan, has also formulated requirements for a bill to be introduced in the legislature relative to juror notification and has planned a seminar for court personnel. Work continues on a juror orientation video cassette.

A constitutional amendment changing the method by which ad hoc judges are appointed for courts of limited and special jurisdiction, recommended by the Committee on Appointments of Ad Hoc Judges, Chaired by Associate Justice Harry T. Lemmon, passed the legislature but was defeated when presented to the voters for ratification.

Judge Gerald P. Fedoroff's Subcommittee on Time Standards for District Courts is drafting legislation which would specify time limits (after filing) within which an attorney must move for trial, settle, or have the case dismissed. Without this legislation, the subcommittee does not feel that judges can adequately enforce time standards.

The annual survey of the district judges conducted by Paulette Holahan for the Judicial Planning Committee again reported judge's concerns with security, space, funding, a need for additional law clerks, and funding for indigent defender programs. Surfacing this year was an often expressed concern for the length of time required for conducting voir dire.

Chief Justice John A. Dixon, Jr. created the following committees: Committee on the Funding of Court Reporters, Chaired by Judge Alfred A. Monsour; Committee to Set Time Standards for Courts of Appeal, Chaired by Judge James C. Gulotta; Committee to Study Methods to Deal with Frivolous Litigation, Chaired by Mr. M. Truman Woodward, Esq.; and the Committee to Study Small Claims Courts Legislation, Chaired by Judge Darrell D. White.

The Judicial Council of the Supreme Court of Louisiana was established in 1950 and received its first funding by the State legislature in 1954.

The Judicial Administrator Reports

EUGENE J. MURRET
Judicial Administrator

Financial problems of local government, and consequently of local courts, reached the crisis stage in several parishes of the state. In Orleans Parish, the trial courts of general, limited, and juvenile jurisdiction were faced with closing one day a week or cutting the workdays short for the last quarter of the year due to a shortfall of city revenues. Following litigation by the judges, stopgap revenues were found and court operations were curtailed only very briefly. However, the City has underfunded these courts for the new year, the probable result of which may be a new crisis down the road.

In St. Landry Parish, home of the 27th Judicial District Court and two city courts (Opelousas and Eunice), the governing police jury authority has reduced public and court employees salaries and operating expenses by 22%, and has initiated a lawsuit to have its action judicially ratified. The response of the judges is that proper funding of the courts is mandated by law and takes priority over discretionary funding of various projects by the local government.

The Louisiana Police Jury Association which funded the St. Landry Parish suit as a test case, said that the fiscal problems there and in New Orleans are only the first symptoms of a statewide fiscal crisis for local governments. The state's depressed economy and curtailment of Federal and state revenue sharing to local governments are the main causes for inadequate local government funds.

The St. Landry Parish lawsuit brought to the fore a problem for courts when sued, i.e. the need for legal counsel. When the several elected public official agency heads are also made defendants, it presents a problem to the Attorney General as to whether he can represent all defendants including the court. Private counsel from the area are not the answer since the law now requires recusal of a judge or judges from other cases brought by such counsel during the representation. It has been suggested that the judicial branch might fund a permanent staff attorney to represent courts and judges when sued. This is the practice in some states.

A solution to the funding problems of local courts and local governments may lie in an alliance between the Police Jury Association and the Judges associations, joining forces to support new sources of revenue for the state funding of the district courts (which are properly state rather than local courts). This would free up local funds heretofore dedicated to district courts, and allow local governments to adequately fund other local services and ward courts.

In December the Judicial Budgetary Control Board held hearings on requests for $44.7 million in state funding for FY 1987-88. The Supreme Court reviewed the recommended reductions by the Board and made additional cost savings. In January, Chief Justice Dixon delivered to the Governor a unified judicial branch budget request of $43.1 million. The figure represents a modest increase of 7.2% over the current year and constitutes less than 1% (.63%) of the $6.8 billion budget for all of state government. For the first time, a separate appropriations bill for the judicial branch will be filed with the Legislature.

The constitutional amendment authorizing the Supreme Court exclusively to provide by rule for the appointments of lawyers as ad hoc and pro tempore judges in courts of limited and special jurisdiction failed statewide ratification by a narrow margin. Legislative sponsors will renew the effort in 1987. The work of a similar study committee relative to appointments of lawyers as magistrates in mayors' courts is in abeyance pending the outcome of the renewed effort described above. The present method creates strong pressure because some candidates want to use the appointment as a springboard to the elective judiciary.

Federal lawsuits challenging the method of electing judges in Louisiana are pending in Baton Rouge and New Orleans. Black minority plaintiffs contend that selection by division of court for a jurisdiction dilutes their vote and is contrary to the Voting Rights Act. The relief sought is single-member districts or, in the alternative, single-shot elections. The issue of whether Section 2 of the Act is applicable to the judiciary has never been presented to a Federal appellate court.

By coincidence the newly-formed Louisiana Organization for Judicial Excellence is marshaling membership support for a legislative effort at nonpartisan (merit) selection of judges. LOJE and the Federal lawsuit plaintiffs have found a common interest and are joining forces to change the constitutional method for selecting judges.

The annual survey of district judges conducted by Paulette Holahan of my staff shows increasing concern about the time-consuming process of selecting juries. Other principal problems continue to be inadequate space, security, and funding. A Committee on Juror Use and Management, chaired by Justice Luther F. Cole will review the ABA Standards and recommend helpful changes to our statutes and rules.

The committee to develop time standards for processing cases in district courts, chaired by Judge Jerry Fedoroff and staffed by Dr. Hugh Collins, is collecting data concerning processing times for civil cases in eleven district courts. Based on this data, the committee will recommend standards for civil case processing times to the Judicial Council. The committee is developing an educational seminar and will work with selected courts to begin implementation of the standards.

The committee to develop time standards for the courts of appeal, chaired by Judge Jimmy Gulotta and staffed by Dr. Hugh Collins, has collected detailed statistics concerning the processing time for appeals to the courts of appeal. In addition, the committee has reviewed the legal and systemic impediments to speeding up the processing of appeals. The committee expects to recommend standards to the Judicial Council in April.

LOUISIANA JUDICIAL COLLEGE 1986 ANNUAL REPORT

During 1986, the Judicial College continued its efforts to improve judicial education. The major thrust of its efforts, as in previous years, was through seminars and educational programs, and the publication of benchbooks for Louisiana judges and their court personnel.

The Judicial College provided the educational programs at these meetings: Joint Meeting of the City and Juvenile Judges, 47 judges attended; The Annual Spring Judges' Conference, 228 judges attended; The Annual Fall Judges' Conference, 217 judges attended; The Annual Fourth and Fifth Circuit Judges' Conference, 40 judges attended; The Louisiana City Clerks of Court Association Meeting, 60 attended.

The Judicial College also sponsored three special seminars for Louisiana judges during the year. The conferences, and attendees, were: Evidence and Trial Procedures for Louisiana Judges, 76 judges attended; Handling Child Support Seminar, 62 attended; the Annual "Louisiana Tort Law: Problems and Perspectives" Seminar, 75 judges attended this program, dedicated to the memory of the late Albert Tate, Jr., judge of the Third Circuit Court of Appeal (1954-1970) and justice of the Louisiana Supreme Court (1970-1979). Justice Tate was serving as a judge of the United States Fifth Circuit Court of Appeal at the time of his death in 1986.

Outstanding legal scholars, including law faculty, judges and attorneys, served as faculty at the various programs. Speakers included Professor Daniel J. Meador of the University of Virginia, Professor Dan Dobbs of the University of Arizona, Professor David Owen of the University of South Carolina, and Professor Jean C. Love of the University of California at Davis.

During 1986, the College completed the production of the Louisiana Juvenile Judges' Benchbook, a joint project with the Louisiana Juvenile Judges Association. It currently is in its second printing.

The College also completed publication of the first Louisiana Judicial Law Clerk's Manual. The manual was distributed, without cost, to all Louisiana judges who have law clerks.

Several other publications are in progress, including a City Judges' Benchbook, a Civil Judges' Benchbook, pattern civil jury instructions, and a handbook for Louisiana clerks of court.

In other efforts to keep judges abreast of recent developments, the Judicial College published a criminal law newsletter, and distributed copies of 1986 legislative acts having immediate impact upon pending cases.

Ivydell Cordin, Administrative Assistant to the College since 1983, retired in July, 1986. She has been succeeded by Billie Bennett.

LAW LIBRARY OF LOUISIANA 1986 ANNUAL REPORT

As automation continues to invade every aspect of our lives, those of us who work in and benefit from law libraries find ourselves increasingly relying upon and being influenced by computers. During 1986 all three of the major functions performed by our staff--public service, technical services, and administration--experienced changes because of computer applications.

Usage of our Westlaw computer-assisted legal research service by Louisiana attorneys continued to thrive during 1986. The library's facility still provides the only "public terminal" in the state, serving both "walk-in" and telephone requests. More than 400 searches were performed for patrons by our reference librarian Randal Owen and cataloging/reference librarian Janice Shull. In response to a price increase by the West Publishing Company, the per-minute cost of each search had to be raised slightly to $4.00.

New computer equipment has increased the efficiency of our technical service operations. A new M-300, and IBM personal computer with built-in (OCLC) software, not only facilitates access to the cataloging and interlibrary-loan information in the OCLC data base, but it also enables us to receive data during off-hours at much cheaper rates.

The M-300 operates as any other IBM personal computer, including word processing, affording many administrative applications.

Unfortunately, the 1985/86 fiscal year statistics show that the library has been unable to add significant numbers of new titles because of its static book budget. The total expenditures of state and self-generated funds of books, periodicals, and legal continuations (loose-leaf services, supplements, etc.) was almost exactly the same as the previous year's, $241,421. Only 6 percent of that total purchased new titles, while the remaining 94% supplemented or updated existing ones. Approximately $12,000 worth of subscriptions--had to be cancelled. Not unexpectedly, 1986 acquisitions statistics were down from last year's by about 25%. A net gain of 1,483 volumes, including 263 new book titles and 14 new serials titles, bring our collection of materials in bound paper format to 115,500 volumes. The addition of 11,703 microfiche (many of which are government depository items), with a standard equivalent of 1,950 volumes, gives us a microform collection of 11,435 volumes. The grand total comprises approximately 127,000 volumes.

The continuing loyalty of the Friends of the library has not only resulted in more than $10,000 in contributions for books and educational programs during 1986, but is also welcome evidence of the significance which our patrons attach to the library's mission. During the four year history of the Friends $45,500 has come into the treasury.

Staff members participated actively during the year in professional and educational programs sponsored by the AALL and its divisions. Director Carol Billings was installed as president of the Southeastern Chapter of AALL. She was also elected vice-chair/chair-elect of the State, Court and Country Law Libraries Special Interest Section of AALL. Janice Shull was a panelist on a program dealing with cataloging problems at the AALL national convention. For the New Orleans Chapter of AALL Betty Kern holds the board position of past president, Janice Shull chairs the Membership Committee, and Carol Billings is Scholarship Chairman. Randal Owen, Diane Thompson and the aforementioned staff members are all involved in committee work for the Southeastern Chapter.

THE JUDICIARY COMMISSION OF LOUISIANA 1986 ANNUAL REPORT

Complaints

During the year 1986 the Commission received 72 complaints against judges and justices of the peace, and 16 complaints were pending from 1985. These complaints included alleged violations of Canon 2, "A Judge Should Avoid Impropriety and the Appearance of Impropriety in All His Activities," and Canon 5, "A Judge Should Regulate His Extra-Judicial Activities to Minimize the Risk of Conflict with His Judicial Duties"; allegations of misconduct in exercising judicial discretion, misuse of judicial office, unethical conduct, misleading and deceptive campaign advertising, among others, were filed by litigants, interested citizens, and by the Commission's own motion.

Dispositions

During the year 1986 the Commission disposed of 70 complaints. These complaints were either closed because of insufficient evidence of judicial misconduct or otherwise resolved to the satisfaction of the Commission; 56 preliminary investigations were ordered and conducted; three formal hearings were held, one of which resulted in a recommendation for a one-year suspension of a judge from judicial office without pay, now pending before the Supreme Court. Eighteen cases are still pending at the beginning of 1987.

STATISTICAL APPENDIX

INTRODUCTION TO THE STATISTICAL SECTION

The statistical information in this section was compiled from data submitted to the Judicial Administrator's Office by the various courts of Louisiana during calendar year 1986.

In 1986, there were 2,671 filings in the Supreme Court. The filings in 1986 were 35.4% greater than the filings 10 years earlier. When compared with the 1985 filings, the 1986 filings represent a 7.3% increase.

In 1986, there were 6,711 total filings in the Louisiana courts of appeal. This represents an increase of 206.6% over the filings 10 years earlier. Total filings in 1986 were 9.7% greater than in 1985. The average time interval from the filing of a civil appeal to its disposition was 401 days in the First Circuit, 213 days in the Second Circuit, 394 days in the Third Circuit, 266 days in the Fourth Circuit, and 172 days in the Fifth Circuit. The average time interval from the filing of a criminal appeal to its disposition was 220 days in the First Circuit, 229 days in the Second Circuit, 245 days in the Third Circuit, 295 days in the Fourth Circuit, and 182 days in the Fifth Circuit.

During the past 10 years, the combined civil and criminal filings in the district courts in Louisiana have increased by 38.5%. During 1986, there were 187,145 civil filings in the district courts, an increase of 6.3% over 1985. During 1986, there were 277,072 criminal filings in the district courts, a decrease of 20.1% when compared to 1985. (Preliminary indications are that this decrease is due to a sharp decline in the number of traffic tickets issued.) Civil jury trials increased by 10.4% when compared to 1985 and criminal jury trials increased by 2.6% when compared to 1985.

In 1986, there were 641,120 filings in Louisiana's city and parish courts. This represents a 1.3% increase over 1985. In addition, the 1986 filings are 13.5% higher than the filings 10 years earlier.
