DEPARTMENT OF YOUTH AUTHORITY

FOREWORD

This Directory of Justice Agencies is published by the Department of the Youth Authority as a service to California justice agencies statewide. This edition lists most county offices that deal with California adult and juvenile offenders such as superior and juvenile courts, probation departments, public defenders, district attorneys, sheriffs' offices, and welfare departments. City police departments and victim/witness programs are also included, as well as state, federal and private agencies that provide for adult and youthful offenders.

By working at the state level, the Youth Authority seeks to help the many diverse, locally-based agencies which constitute the statewide criminal justice network to do the best possible job of serving the public. With this in mind, the Directory will hopefully assist justice agencies to communicate with one another more effectively and efficiently.
