INTRODUCTION

The Virginia Department of Criminal Justice Services is designated by the Secretary of Transportation and Public Safety to serve as a state resource center for crime prevention information.

To facilitate coordination and information dissemination, the department has prepared this directory which provides practitioners and interested Virginians with a means to identify and share crime prevention resources.

The directory provides an opportunity for crime prevention programs to match their project needs with resources which are available on the national, state and local levels. It also provides individuals the names of others they may contact to share and exchange ideas on crime prevention topics.

While many agencies and organizations actively engaged in crime prevention have been identified, not all have been identified. There are many professional, civic and social groups working primarily at the local level which have an interest in crime prevention. The majority of these groups can be identified by contacting your local law enforcement agency.

Please contact the Department of Criminal Justice Services if you would like to make any changes or additions to the Crime Prevention Resource Directory.

PRIMARY CRIME PREVENTION ORGANIZATIONS IN VIRGINIA

VIRGINIA CRIME PREVENTION CENTER
DEPARTMENT OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE SERVICES
805 EAST BROAD STREET
RICHMOND, VIRGINIA 23219
(804) 786-4000

Description

The Virginia Crime Prevention Center is housed within the Department of Criminal Justice Services (DCJS) and is the DCJS focal point for crime prevention activities. The center is an active member of the National Crime Prevention Council which promotes its activities through its "McGruff" Crime Dog Campaign.

Resources and services provided by the center are many and varied, and can be of tremendous assistance to any department, civic group or community interested in initiating or enhancing crime prevention services. The following resources and services are provided by DCJS through the center.

Staff

The following individuals are the staff members assigned to the center:

Patrick D. Harris - Crime Prevention Coordinator (804) 786-8467
Bruce A. Twyman - Public Awareness Coordinator (804) 786-7810

Technical Assistance

Crime Prevention Center staff are available to provide technical assistance to departments interested in starting or expanding crime prevention services. Personnel are available to go on site at no cost to the locality. To request crime prevention technical assistance please direct inquiries on official agency stationery to:

Richard N. Harris, Director
Department of Criminal Justice Services
805 East Broad Street
Richmond, Virginia 23219

Training

Currently, the Crime Prevention Center is working through the Hampton Roads Academy of Criminal Justice in Hampton and the Central Virginia Criminal Justice Training Center in Lynchburg to provide basic, advanced and specialized crime prevention training for law enforcement officers and private citizens. The training is available at no cost and in-service credit may be awarded for law enforcement personnel.

For more information contact:

Hampton Roads Academy of Criminal Justice
(804) 722-2847

Central Virginia Criminal Justice Training Center
(804) 528-0415

If the training at either of these locations does not meet your needs, you may contact the Crime Prevention Center about other training opportunities.

Other Services

The Crime Prevention Center has established several agreements with the Virginia Crime Prevention Association to expand crime prevention services. The current areas of interest are citizen involvement, youth crime prevention and business and industry involvement. If you are interested in any assistance in these areas (technical assistance, training, resources), contact the Crime Prevention Center staff or:

Harold A. Wright
Virginia Crime Prevention Association
Post Office Box 6942
Richmond, VA 23230
(804) 747-9193

Program Guides

Single copies of the following crime prevention guides are available upon request at no cost.

Neighborhood Watch	Model Crime Prevention Policy
Security Surveys	Crime Prevention Resource List
Public Awareness	Crime Prevention Through Environmental Design
Crime Prevention for Business and Industry
Virginia Crime Prevention Resource Directory

Brochures

The following crime prevention brochures are available in quantities dependent upon department size: 1-10 officer department, 500 copies; 11-50 officer department, 1,000 copies; 51-100 officer department, 1,500 copies; over 100 officers, 2,000 copies.

Neighborhood Watch	Home Security
Sexual Assault	Business Security

McGruff Costumes

McGruff costumes are available on loan at no cost to civic groups and law enforcement agencies. We ask that you pay the return postage if borrowed by mail.

The costume is the hard head Disney-type. The kit includes the head and paws; you provide the trenchcoat.

Call the Crime Prevention Center to reserve a McGruff costume. Reservations should be made approximately one month before the date needed.

The Crime Prevention Center and DCJS maintain an extensive library. This specialized collection includes books, journals, newsletters, special reports, movies, slides and video cassettes. You may visit the library or you may contact the center for assistance in researching a particular topic.

Newsletter

The Crime Prevention Center publishes the Crime Prevention Update every other month. The newsletter provides a brief review of national and state crime prevention activities and issues, recent civil liability cases involving crimes and crime prevention, crime prevention resources and crime prevention training opportunities and events. The newsletter is available at no cost.

POST OFFICE BOX 6942
RICHMOND, VA 23230
(804) 747-9193

Description

Founded in 1978, the Virginia Crime Prevention Association (VCPA) is an incorporated, non-profit organization dedicated to the prevention of crime. The Association is a state-wide organization whose membership includes local and state law enforcement officers, government officials, educators, private security representatives, business and community leaders, and concerned citizens. The Association has regional chapters in the Central, Northern, Southwestern, and Tidewater areas of Virginia. Members are served by a Board of Directors and an executive director.

Staff

The Executive Director of the Association is:

Harold A. Wright (804) 747-9193

Services

The VCPA provides a variety of services to its members and services to the residents of Virginia in compliance with agreements with the Department of Criminal Justice Services.

Technical assistance, training and resource assistance is available in the areas of citizen involvement in crime prevention, youth crime prevention, business and industry involvement in crime prevention and many other areas.

Meetings

The VCPA holds its annual membership/training/awards meeting in May. The annual meeting is moved annually amongst the four regional associations with the VCPA.

The VCPA also holds an annual Statewide Neighborhood Watch Conference in August to coincide with National Nite Out. This meeting is typically held in Richmond.

Awards

The VCPA presents crime prevention awards in four categories. These awards are presented annually during the May meeting. Awards are presented in the following categories:

Citizenship Award

Professional Service Award

Private Industry Award

O. W. Cundiff Crime Prevention Service Award

Publications

The VCPA distributes a quarterly newsletter which provides an update on recent crime prevention activities. The VCPA also publishes the Virginia Crime Prevention Journal twice a year. The Journal consists of nearly 100 pages of information on recent crime prevention trends and issues.

CRIME PREVENTION PROGRAM
DEPARTMENT OF STATE POLICE
POST OFFICE BOX 27472
RICHMOND, VA 23261
(804) 323-2130

Description

The State Police Crime Prevention Program serves to assist those law enforcement agencies and civic groups providing crime prevention services and to provide services in those areas where such services are not locally available. Each of the seven division officers and the fifty-two area offices have been set up as mini-crime prevention resource centers.

Staff

The coordinator of the State Police crime prevention program is:

Lieutenant Ken Paul (804) 323-2130

You may also contact the division or area office in your locality for assistance.

Resources

Brochures: Crime prevention brochures on a variety of topics are available in large quantities.

McGruff Costume: A McGruff costume is available at each of the seven division offices for loan; contact the division office in your area or State.

Displays: Portable crime prevention displays are available for loan to law enforcement agencies and are located in each of the seven division offices.

D.A.R.E.
(Drug Abuse Resistance Education)

The Department of State Police coordinates the activities and training for the D.A.R.E. program in Virginia. D.A.R.E. is a drug-abuse, education program taught in local schools by local and state police officers.

CRIME PREVENTION OBJECTIVE

CRIMINAL JUSTICE SERVICES BOARD

COMPREHENSIVE CRIMINAL JUSTICE PLAN FOR VIRGINIA

JUNE 1987

CRIME PREVENTION

OBJECTIVE: Continue and expand law enforcement-sponsored or supported programs that encourage the public to take an active role in preventing crime, that provide information leading to the arrest and conviction of offenders, that aid in the identification and recovery of stolen property, and that increase liaison with private industry in improving security.

STRATEGIES:

1. The Criminal Justice Services Board recommends that all law enforcement agencies assign at least one employee, full- or part-time, to plan and coordinate crime prevention activities.
2. The Criminal Justice Services Board recommends that all law enforcement agencies adopt written policy and procedure which establishes the agency's crime prevention component and defines the relationship between all of its organizational elements in pursuing crime prevention activities.
3. The Criminal Justice Services Board recommends that law enforcement agencies actively establish Neighborhood Watch programs and seek the active involvement of citizens in crime prevention activities.
4. The Criminal Justice Services Board recommends that every law enforcement agency include crime prevention concepts in the development or revision of zoning policies, building codes, firecodes, and residential and commercial construction building permits. Each law enforcement agency should actively participate in the local community planning process.

CRIME PREVENTION STANDARDS

COMMISSION ON ACCREDITATION FOR LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCIES

STANDARDS FOR LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCIES

AUGUST 1983

CRIME PREVENTION

Standards in this chapter relate to the prevention, resistance, and suppression of crime. Sub-chapters deal with, respectively, the organizational and administrative elements of crime prevention, and the operational considerations that should be brought to bear in establishing and maintaining crime prevention programs.

Beyond stating their commitment to crime prevention, law enforcement agencies should establish policies, goals, and objectives by which their commitment can be realized. In some agencies, the creation of a crime prevention component may be called for; in others. Designating an individual as responsible for crime prevention activities may suffice. In all agencies, it should be understood that all officers and components are responsible for achieving agency crime prevention goals, and should assist others in this regard. In addition, the use of nonsworn officers and the elderly should be encouraged and programs geared toward youth and youth groups developed.

Plans should be developed based on data indicating the types of crimes that pose the greatest threat to the community and where (geographically) criminal activity of this type is most prevalent. The plans behind specific crime prevention programs should be designed with evaluation in mind. More importantly, programs should be evaluated annually to determine if they have been effective in achieving stated goals.

The development of neighborhood watch groups should be fostered as should provision of security surveys; and other related services. Once established, neighborhood watch groups should not be allowed to "wither on the vine"; a maintenance plan should be established and adhered to. The harassment of citizens participating in such programs should be a chief concern of those responsible for maintenance activities.

45.1 ORGANIZATION AND ADMINISTRATION

45.1.1 A written directive states that the agency is committed to the development and perpetuation of community crime prevention programs.

Commentary: A firm commitment should be made by both the agency's chief executive officer and high ranking administrative staff to the concept of reducing crime through proactive crime prevention programs. Because a myriad of programs and approaches exist in the field of crime prevention, each agency will, of necessity, limit the scope of its activity to those programs and approaches that best suit its needs. For this reason, all officers, especially patrol officers engaged in field assignments, should be acquainted with the specific approach and techniques their agency has chosen to use.

45.1.2 A written directive establishes the agency's crime prevention component and defines the relationships between all organizational elements of the agency in pursuing crime prevention activities.

Commentary: Most law enforcement activities consist of reactive policing. No less legitimate, however, is the pursuit of the prevention of crime. The key to effective law enforcement lies in seeking a reasonable balance between the two broad mandates. The creation of a crime prevention component is a major step forward in achieving this balance. Preventing crime demands an integrated, coordinated agency response. Therefore, for a crime prevention component to meet its goals, it should maintain close ties with those components that support, and make possible, the furtherance of the crime prevention effort.

45.1.3 The agency has at least one employee whose responsibilities include planning and coordinating crime prevention activities.

Commentary: The fact that an agency is small, does not exempt it from seeking a reasonable balance between its reactive and proactive (crime prevention) functions. Small agencies may actually be better equipped to prevent crime owing to their officers' close personal ties with the community. The person responsible for crime prevention should possess a wide general knowledge of crime prevention theory and practice.

45.1.4 A written directive requires the crime prevention component to have access to foreign language specialists.

Commentary: The success of community crime prevention efforts is predicated on close interaction with the community. Without appropriate language capabilities, community interaction may be impossible in some cases.

45.2 OPERATIONS

45.2.1 A written directive establishes the agency's crime prevention priority programs and provides for the following:

- ° the targeting of programs by crime type and geographic area based on an empirical analysis of local crime data; and
- ° the evaluation of all crime prevention programs at least annually.

Commentary: The agency should establish priorities for action. Based on pertinent data, the agency should decide which crime type presents the greatest problem; where the problem is most severe or where crime prevention activities could be most productive; and what type of programs would be most effective in combatting the problem. In addition, after a thorough evaluation of both quantitative and qualitative elements of a program, a decision should be made regarding whether the program should remain functioning as is, should be modified, or should be discontinued.

45.2.2 A written directive requires the agency to assist in organizing crime prevention groups in residential areas targeted for such activity, as well as on request.

Commentary: Crime prevention groups should form the nucleus of any comprehensive crime prevention effort. All other services should be delivered as a complement to this one indispensable service. Crime prevention groups are generally comprised of 10 to 15 neighbors interested in mutual protection.

45.2.3 The agency promotes crime prevention programs for all citizens and proprietors in areas targeted for such activity.

Commentary: Of the many crime prevention programs that have been conceived and implemented, a few have been found to be almost universally successful in either reducing victimization rates or leading to the recovery of stolen property. Conducting security surveys, marking property indelibly, and disseminating information to the community on prevailing types of local crime are examples of activities that, when undertaken, can result in positive outcomes. It is the intent of this standard that such programs be conducted in areas targeted for crime prevention activity as well as on request.

45.2.4 A written directive requires the agency's crime prevention practitioner to maintain liaison with interested community groups.

Commentary: Communities are comprised of individuals with diverse interests. Crime prevention officers should attempt to incorporate in their plans and programs the interests of those in the community, including the business community, local citizens' organizations, local civic associations, private security agencies, and statewide associations.

45.2.5 A written directive requires the agency to provide crime prevention input into development and/or revision of zoning policies, building codes, firecodes, and residential and commercial construction building permits.

Commentary: The opportunity to be involved in this process is an integral element in ensuring that crime prevention concerns are addressed prior to construction. In many instances, the crime prevention component reviews, or is given the opportunity to review, site plans of residential and commercial construction or to comment upon proposed revisions to zoning or building codes. This review and recommendation process is facilitated by policy direction or by local ordinance, and the adoption of recommendations may be mandatory or voluntary.

MODEL CRIME PREVENTION POLICY

DEPARTMENT OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE SERVICES

MODEL POLICY AND PROCEDURES MANUAL FOR VIRGINIA LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCIES

GENERAL ORDER

Subject:

Crime Prevention Services

Number: 3-20	Effective Date:
Review Date:	Approved:
Amends/ Supercedes:	CALEA Stds: 45.1/45.2

POLICY

Crime prevention is the anticipation, recognition, and appraisal of crime risks and the initiation of action to remove or reduce such risks. The policy of the department is to promote crime prevention using all department employees in cooperation with the department's crime prevention unit to develop and implement procedures and programs which reduce the opportunity for or lessen the loss arising from crime.

PURPOSE

The purpose of this order is to set forth procedures for the delivery of crime prevention services.

PROCEDURES

1. Police officers, generally:
  - a. All officers upon request and when appropriate will provide knowledgeable, instructive advice to the public concerning steps which can be taken to reduce the opportunity for or lessen the loss from crime.
  - b. All officers upon request and when appropriate will conduct brief surveys of homes or small businesses and orally advise the owner or occupant of security strengths and weaknesses.
  - c. All officers shall be aware of and where appropriate offer their assistance to crime prevention activities taking place within their assigned patrol area such as: neighborhood watch, business watch, safe home and CB radio patrol.

- d. All officers shall make referrals to the appropriate resource either within or outside the department in response to crime prevention requests which exceed their knowledge or capability to accommodate.
- e. No officer or other employee of this department shall advise any person that the use of any crime prevention suggestion or program will prevent that person or any other person from becoming the victim of a crime, but will only lessen the probability of victimization.
- f. Crime prevention activities undertaken by police officers will be reported on daily activity reports or formally reported to the department's crime prevention unit.

2. Crime prevention unit:

- a. The department's crime prevention unit is responsible for developing, implementing and coordinating the department's crime prevention program. This assignment of responsibility does not relieve officers not assigned to the crime prevention unit of being aware of and involved in crime prevention procedures and activities.
- b. The crime prevention unit will request and study trends of crimes that are generally considered preventable and develop procedures and programs to reduce the opportunity or lessen the loss from crimes.
- c. The crime prevention unit will consult with line police officers, supervisory, and investigative personnel to gather information concerning trends in crime, and public and police response to them.
- d. Crime prevention unit personnel will develop an expertise in all phases of crime prevention including, but not limited to, the following areas:
  - 1) Security hardware
  - 2) Alarm/warning systems
  - 3) Lighting
  - 4) Basic construction practices
  - 5) Media relations
  - 6) Public speaking
  - 7) Use of volunteers

- e. The crime prevention unit will establish a working relationship with architects, developers, contractors, and others in the building trades to identify and correct practices used in the planning, design, and construction of any building and the space surrounding it which create the opportunity for crime.
- f. The crime prevention unit will contact and develop a working relationship with local building officials, community planners, and zoning officials to review plans for new construction or development within the community to identify and correct components of those plans which may create unwanted crime opportunities.
- g. The crime prevention unit will establish a working relationship with print and broadcast news media to promote and advertise crime prevention procedures and programs.
- h. The crime prevention unit will establish a working relationship with professional, civic and community groups to develop, promote and implement crime prevention programs.
- i. The crime prevention unit will establish a working relationship with other local, state, and national government and non-government crime prevention programs to exchange information on past, current and planned crime prevention activities.
- j. The crime prevention unit will coordinate with fire prevention personnel to insure that crime prevention procedures and programs do not compromise the intent of fire safety programs and to insure that fire safety programs do not compromise the intent of crime prevention programs.

PROGRAMS

1. Mandatory programs:

The crime prevention unit will develop, implement, and coordinate the following mandatory crime prevention programs:

- a. Neighborhood Watch (Business Watch) is the formal organization of residents to enable them to deter crime in their neighborhood by relying on their awareness of and concern for their fellow neighbors to detect or discourage suspicious or criminal activity.
  - 1) Requests to establish a neighborhood watch (business watch) will be forwarded to the crime prevention unit for action.

- 2) The crime prevention unit will make an introductory presentation to the interested neighborhood watch group, maintain contact with the group once established, and contact it at least every three months.
- 3) Homes wishing to participate in neighborhood watch also must participate in the security survey and Operation Identification programs.
- 4) The crime prevention unit will maintain a list of all neighborhood watch programs with names, addresses, and phone numbers of leaders and block captains.
- 5) The crime prevention unit will provide monthly crime reports to the neighborhood watch groups detailing the crimes which have been reported in their specific neighborhoods.
- 6) The crime prevention unit will make arrangements to introduce police officers to neighborhood watch groups in the areas which those officers patrol.

b. Security survey:

A security survey is an evaluation of the security strengths and weaknesses of a home or business and presenting that evaluation to the owner or occupant for correction.

- 1) Patrol beat officers are authorized to conduct brief surveys of homes or small businesses upon request or if there is an apparent need, time permitting. Only oral recommendations are to be made.
- 2) Requests for in-depth surveys with written recommendations are to be forwarded to the crime prevention unit. Surveys of any large structure or facility are to be conducted by the crime prevention unit.
- 3) The crime prevention unit will respond to perform security surveys on request but also will use crime analysis data to solicit security surveys in areas experiencing crime problems. At least 25% of all security surveys performed by the crime prevention unit will be solicited without specific requests.
- 4) All security surveys performed by officers are to be considered information offered to the police in the confidence that it would be kept secret and not considered information available through Freedom of Information Act Requests.
- 5) Officers making recommendations during security surveys will not recommend any particular brand name product or device.

c. Operation Identification:

Operation Identification is the retention of serial numbers or other identifying marks property owners use to assist in the identification and recovery of stolen property. When the property has no serial number, the owner is encouraged to permanently engrave the property in several places with an easily recognized and traced identification mark such as a driver's license or a Social Security number.

- 1) The crime prevention unit will establish procedures for the loan of engravers for persons wishing to identify their property.
- 2) Reports of stolen or lost property will not be accepted unless noted by the reporting officer where appropriate: the serial number, the OP ID Number (Operation Identification Number) or no identification number available.

d. Educational programs:

A variety of crime prevention educational programs are offered by the department to community groups. Programs on specific topics are: personal security, prevention of sexual assault, shoplifting, robbery prevention, child safety and others.

- 1) Requests for educational programs are to be forwarded to and handled by the crime prevention unit.
- 2) Programs can be conducted at the department or anywhere in the community for all age groups and interests.
- 3) The crime prevention unit can call upon the assistance of any member of the department to assist in presenting an educational program.

e. Site plan review

Site plan review is the review of site plans for new development or redevelopment to identify components of the plan which once implemented may create crime opportunities and to make reasonable recommendations to correct the crime related deficiencies in the plan.

- 1) The crime prevention unit is responsible for all site plan reviews.
- 2) The crime prevention unit will contact the community planning department and request that it be allowed to review development or redevelopment plans for security related strengths and weaknesses.

- 3) Crime prevention personnel will visit construction sites and informally inspect projects for security strengths and weaknesses and then make informal suggestions for improvements to the appropriate project officials.

e. Optional programs:

- 1) New crime trends - As crime trends change, the need for modified or new crime prevention programs develop. As new needs arise, new programs will be offered.
  - a) The crime prevention unit will stay well informed on new crime trends and plan new programs to meet the new needs.
  - b) The crime prevention unit will stay well informed of new or innovative crime prevention programs which address old crime problems in a new way or which address a completely new form of crime and plan new programs as needed.

f. Other programs:

There are many other crime prevention programs targeted at specific types of crimes. Many of these programs can be incorporated into public educational programs or neighborhood watch activities as needed. Some of these programs are:

- 1) Auto theft prevention
- 2) Child safety
- 3) Street lighting
- 4) Check fraud
- 5) Victim services
- 6) Elderly crime prevention
- 7) Bicycle theft

REPORTING

1. Recordkeeping:

The crime prevention unit will maintain up-to-date information on the following crime prevention activities for reporting and evaluation purposes.

a. Neighborhood watch

- 1) Number of neighborhood watch programs
- 2) Date specific neighborhood watch programs begun
- 3) Number of initial and follow up neighborhood watch presentations
- 4) Number of block captains
- 5) Names, addresses, and telephone numbers of neighborhood watch program leaders and block captains
- 6) Number of homes and businesses participating in neighborhood watch
- 7) Number and types of reports made to police by neighborhood watch participants
- 8) Number and types of arrests resulting from reports by neighborhood watch participants

b. Operation Identification

- 1) Number of times engraver loaned out
- 2) Number of victim property identifications and returns made through serial number tracing
- 3) Number of victim property identifications and returns made through Operation Identification number tracing
- 4) Number of arrests made through serial number tracing
- 5) Number of arrests made through Operation Identification number tracing

c. Security survey

- 1) Number of informal security surveys conducted by non-crime prevention personnel (residential and business)
- 2) Number of formal security surveys conducted by crime prevention personnel (residential and others)
- 3) Number of follow-up visits to site where security surveys were previously conducted
- 4) Rate of compliance to recommendations found during follow-up visit

- d. Educational programs
  - 1) Number and types of programs
  - 2) Number of attendees
- e. Site plan review
  - 1) Number of plans reviewed
  - 2) Number of sites visited
  - 3) Number and types of recommendations implemented
- f. New programs
  - 1) Number and types initiated
  - 2) Number of participants or attendees
- g. Other programs
  - 1) Number and types presented
  - 2) Number of participants or attendees

CRIME PREVENTION RESOURCE LIST

INTRODUCTION

THE CRIME PREVENTION RESOURCE LIST IS A COLLECTION OF PUBLIC AND PRIVATE ORGANIZATIONS THAT HAVE PUBLIC AWARENESS MATERIAL AVAILABLE FOR USE IN CRIME PREVENTION AND OTHER LAW ENFORCEMENT PROGRAMS. MUCH OF THE PUBLIC AWARENESS MATERIAL IS AVAILABLE AT NO COST OR AT LEAST A MINIMAL COST, FOR COST RECOVERY.

THE PUBLIC AWARENESS MATERIAL LISTED CAN BE OBTAINED BY TELEPHONING MOST OF THE ORGANIZATIONS, BUT MANY DO PREFER THAT A TELEPHONE REQUEST BE FOLLOWED UP WITH A REQUEST IN WRITING ON COMPANY OR AGENCY LETTERHEAD. IF IT CAN BE JUSTIFIED, SOME ORGANIZATIONS WILL PROVIDE GREATER QUANTITIES OF MATERIAL THAN WHAT IS LISTED HERE.

THIS LIST IS NOT INTENDED TO SERVE AS A COMPLETE LISTING OF ALL ORGANIZATIONS THAT OFFER PUBLIC AWARENESS MATERIAL AT NO COST OR MINIMAL COST. IT WAS DEVELOPED FROM A SURVEY OF ORGANIZATIONS WHICH HAVE BEEN IDENTIFIED AS SOURCES FOR PROMOTIONAL MATERIAL.

THE LIST WAS DEVELOPED AS A JOINT PROJECT BY THE VIRGINIA CRIME PREVENTION CENTER AND THE NATIONAL CRIME PREVENTION COUNCIL TO LOCATE CRIME PREVENTION PROGRAM RESOURCES FOR LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCIES AND CITIZENS GROUPS WHICH HAVE LIMITED RESOURCES TO OBTAIN CRIME PREVENTION MATERIALS.

IF YOU HAVE ANY QUESTIONS, CORRECTIONS, AND ESPECIALLY ADDITIONS TO THIS LIST, CONTACT EITHER:
