JUDICIAL CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED STATES
28 U.S.C. 331

§ 331 Judicial Conference of the United States

The Chief Justice of the United States shall summon annually the chief judge of each judicial circuit, the chief judge of the Court of International Trade, and a district judge from each judicial circuit to a conference at such time and place in the United States as he may designate. He shall preside at such conference which shall be known as the Judicial Conference of the United States. Special sessions of the conference may be called by the Chief Justice at such times and places as he may designate.

The district judge to be summoned from each judicial circuit shall be chosen by the circuit and district judges of the circuit at the annual judicial conference of the circuit held pursuant to section 333 of this title and shall serve as a member of the conference for three successive years, except that in the year following the enactment of this amended section the judges in the first, fourth, seventh, and tenth circuits shall choose a district judge to serve for one year, the judges in the second, fifth, and eighth circuits shall choose a district judge to serve for two years and the judges in the third, sixth, ninth, and District of Columbia circuits shall choose a district judge to serve for three years.

If the chief judge of any circuit, the chief judge of the Court of International Trade, or the district judge chosen by judges of the circuit is unable to attend, the Chief Justice may summon any other circuit or district judge from such circuit or any other judge of the Court of International Trade, as the case may be. Every judge summoned shall attend and, unless excused by the Chief Justice, shall remain throughout the sessions of the conference and advise as to the needs of his circuit or court and as to any matters in respect of which the administration of justice in the courts of the United States may be improved.

The Conference shall make a comprehensive survey of the condition of business in the courts of the United States and prepare plans for assignment of judges to or from circuits or districts where necessary. It shall also submit suggestions and recommendations to the various courts to promote uniformity of management procedures and the expeditious conduct of court business. The Conference is authorized to exercise the authority provided in section 372(c) of this title as the Conference, or through a standing committee. If the Conference elects to establish a standing committee, it shall be appointed by the Chief Justice and all petitions for review shall be reviewed by that committee. The Conference or standing committee may hold hearings, take sworn testimony, issue subpoenas and subpoenas duces tecum, and make necessary and appropriate orders in the exercise of its authority. Subpoenas and subpoenas duces tecum shall be issued by the clerk of the Supreme Court or by the clerk of any court of appeals, at the direction of the Chief Justice or his designee and under the seal of the court, and shall be served in the manner provided in rule 45(c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure for subpoenas and subpoenas duces tecum issued on behalf of the United States or an officer or any agency thereof. The Conference may also prescribe and modify rules for the exercise of the authority provided in section 372(c) of this title. All judicial officers and employees of the United States shall promptly carry into effect all orders of the Judicial Conference or the standing committee established pursuant to this section.

The Conference shall also carry on a continuous study of the operation and effect of the general rules of practice and procedure now or hereafter in use as prescribed by the Supreme Court for the other courts of the United States pursuant to law. Such changes in and additions to those rules as the Conference may deem desirable to promote simplicity in procedure, fairness in administration, the just determination of litigation, and the elimination of unjustifiable expense and delay shall be recommended by the Conference from time to time to the Supreme Court for its consideration and adoption, modification or rejection, in accordance with law.

The Attorney General shall, upon request of the Chief Justice, report to such conference on matters relating to the business of the several courts of the United States, with particular reference to cases to which the United States is a party.

The Chief Justice shall submit to Congress an annual report of the proceedings of the Judicial Conference and its recommendations for legislation.

REPORT OF THE PROCEEDINGS OF THE JUDICIAL CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED STATES

March 15, 1988

The Judicial Conference of the United States convened on March 15, 1988, pursuant to the call of the Chief Justice of the United States issued under 28 U.S.C. 331. The Chief Justice presided and the following members of the Conference were present:

Circuit Judges Boyce F. Martin, Jr. and Robert S. Vance, District Judge Richard M. Bilby, and Senior District Judge Walter T. McGovern attended all or some of the sessions of the Conference. Circuit Executives Steven Flanders (Second Circuit), Samuel W. Phillips (Fourth Circuit), Lydia Comberrel (Fifth Circuit), James A. Higgins (Sixth Circuit), Collins T. Fitzpatrick (Seventh Circuit), June L. Boadwine (Eighth Circuit), Francis L. Bremson (Ninth Circuit), Eugene J. Murret (Tenth Circuit), and Norman E. Zoller (Eleventh Circuit), and Circuit Executive-designates Vincent Flanagan (First Circuit) and John Hehman (Third Circuit) were also present.

Congressman Neal Smith, Chairman of the House Appropriations Subcommittee on Commerce, Justice, State, the Judiciary and Related Agencies, attended the Conference briefly and spoke on matters pending in the Congress of interest to the judiciary. The Attorney General of the United States, Honorable Edwin Meese III, and Solicitor General Charles Fried addressed the Conference on matters of mutual interest to the Department of Justice and the Conference. Circuit Judge Thomas J. Meskill, a member of the Conference's Budget Committee, briefed the Conference on the status of the judiciary's appropriations requests.

L. Ralph Mecham, Director of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts, attended the sessions of the Conference, as did James E. Macklin, Jr., Deputy Director; William R. Burchill, Jr., General Counsel; Robert E. Feidler, Legislative and Public Affairs Officer; Karen K. Siegel, Chief, Office of the Judicial Conference Secretariat; and David A. Sellers, Public Information Officer. Judge John C. Godbold, Director of the Federal Judicial Center, also attended the sessions of the Conference. Noel Augustyn (Administrative Assistant to the Chief Justice), Richard Schickele (Staff Counsel to the United States Supreme Court), and Judy B. Sloan (Judicial Fellow) were also present.

The Director of the Federal Judicial Center, Judge Godbold, presented a report on the activities of the Center.

REPORT OF THE DIRECTOR OF THE ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICE OF THE UNITED STATES COURTS

The Director of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts, L. Ralph Mecham, submitted to the Conference a brief report summarizing the workload of the federal judiciary during the calendar year 1987.

JUDICIAL BUSINESS OF THE COURTS

Mr. Mecham reported that during 1987, the number of cases appealed to the 12 regional courts of appeals rose nearly three percent to 35,700, due primarily to a substantial increase in appeals of state prisoner petitions. Although terminations increased four percent this year, they did not keep pace with filings and, consequently, the pending caseload rose two percent to 26,894 on December 31, 1987. Filings in the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit rose more than 18 percent to 1,406. The largest increases were in appeals from the Merit Systems Protection Board and from the U.S. district courts. Dispositions declined 30 percent, dropping below the level of filings. As a result, the pending caseload climbed seven percent to 674.

In the United States district courts, the number of civil filings declined for the second consecutive year, dropping more than four percent to 233,292 (an average of 406 civil cases per authorized judgeship). The largest decreases were in cases involving recovery of overpayments of veterans' benefits, asbestos personal injury product liability suits, and marine contract actions. Civil terminations declined at a faster rate than filings (down eight percent), resulting in a one percent increase in the pending caseload. On December 31, 1987, there were 247,107 civil cases pending in the district courts.

Criminal filings continued to increase, rising more than four percent to 44,335 (an average of 77 criminal cases per authorized judgeship). The increase in criminal filings was due primarily to substantial rises in prosecutions under the Drug Abuse Prevention and Control Act and for fraud. Criminal dispositions rose six percent but remained below the level of filings. Accordingly, the pending caseload climbed nearly five percent to 26,454 on December 31, 1987.

The rate of increase in the number of bankruptcy petitions slowed considerably during 1987. Total bankruptcy filings rose only eight percent to 574,849, compared to a 28 percent increase a year ago. Non-business bankruptcies rose ten percent, while business bankruptcies rose only one percent. Despite a 29 percent increase in terminations, the pending caseload grew five percent, reaching a record level of 819,726 on December 31, 1987.

Mr. Mecham also reported that as of March 1, 1988, there were 11 vacancies among the 168 judgeship positions authorized for the United States courts of appeals and 34 vacancies among the 575 authorized judgeship positions in the United States district courts.

JUDICIAL PANEL ON MULTIDISTRICT LITIGATION

A written statement filed with the Conference by the Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation indicated that during the six-month period ended December 31, 1987, the Panel centralized 122 civil actions pursuant to 28 U.S.C. 1407. Of that number, 46 were transferred for coordinated or consolidated pretrial proceedings with 76 actions originally filed in the transferee districts. The Panel denied transfer of 16 actions.

Since its creation in 1968, the Panel has centralized 16,173 civil actions for pretrial proceedings in carrying out its statutory responsibilities.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

The Executive Committee of the Judicial Conference reported that, since the last session of the Conference in September, 1987, the Executive Committee had addressed the following matters on the Conference's behalf:

NOTIFICATION

The Report of the Proceedings of the September 1987 Judicial Conference indicates that, in connection with its consideration of the report of the Committee to Study the Judicial Conference, the Conference approved the following principle (Conf. Rpt., p. 58):

When the Administrative Office recommends to a committee that a request submitted by a judge or court be rejected, the committee chairman should consider directing that the judge or court be notified in sufficient time to submit responsive material; similarly, when a committee votes to reject the request of a judge or court, the chairman should consider notifying the requester promptly.

Responding to the suggestion that the Judicial Conference intended to require notification rather than merely to suggest it, the Executive Committee established the following interim policy:

When the Administrative Office recommends to a committee that a request submitted by a judge or court be rejected, the Director should notify the judge or court promptly; similarly, when a committee votes to reject the request of a judge or court, the chairman should notify the requester promptly, unless there are compelling reasons for not doing so.

At its March 15, 1988, session, the Judicial Conference made the interim policy permanent.

JURISDICTION OF COMMITTEES; PROCEDURES FOR ASSEMBLING AGENDAS

Among the duties assigned the Executive Committee by the Judicial Conference in September, 1987 (Conf. Rpt., p. 57), were to review the jurisdiction of each Conference committee, and to establish and publish procedures for assembling agendas so that interested courts and judges will know how to get matters before the Conference and its committees.

On January 6, 1988, the Executive Committee published a report detailing the jurisdiction of each Conference committee, a list of all committee members (with their terms), and procedures for assembling agendas. Under the procedures, courts and judges desiring to have matters considered by the Conference may transmit their requests, in writing, to the Director of the Administrative Office (Attention: Office of the Judicial Conference Secretariat). The Director is delegated the responsibility of assigning matters to the appropriate committee and notifying the requesting court or judge of the committee assignment. If jurisdictional questions arise between committees, they will be resolved on a priority basis by the Executive Committee.

ALTERNATIVE HOURLY COMPENSATION RATES IN DEATH PENALTY HABEAS CORPUS CASES

In September, 1987 (Conf. Rpt., pp. 94-95), the Judicial Conference approved a special alternative maximum rate of $75 per hour, for both in- and out-of-court time, for representation in death penalty habeas corpus cases in the Northern, Central, and Eastern Districts of California. Effective November 6, 1987, the Executive Committee agreed to extend the $75 rate, in death penalty habeas corpus cases only, to the Southern District of California. See "Alternative Hourly Compensation Rates", infra p. 15.

APPROPRIATIONS FOR THE FISCAL YEAR 1988

The Executive Committee approved a spending plan for the appropriation "Salaries and Expenses" and supplemental appropriations requests for certain judicial accounts, both for the fiscal year 1988. See also "Appropriations for the Fiscal Year 1988", infra p. 10. Since expenditure levels vary from one month to the next, the plan was approved for the second quarter of the fiscal year, through March 31, 1988. An updated financial plan will be submitted to the Executive Committee in April, 1988.

COMMITTEE ON THE ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICE

The Committee on the Administrative Office reported that, at its organizational meeting, the Director and his senior staff provided a full and comprehensive educational briefing on the operations and programs of the Administrative Office. The Committee plans to meet in April, 1988, to develop an implementing strategy for its role in providing advice and support to the Administrative Office and in monitoring the agency's general performance.

COMMITTEE ON THE ADMINISTRATION OF THE BANKRUPTCY SYSTEM

RESOLUTION

Noting the superior effort of the Director of the Administrative Office and members of his staff in obtaining the enactment of legislation which sets the salary of bankruptcy judges and a ceiling on the salary of full-time United States magistrates at 92 percent of the salary paid United States district judges, the Judicial Conference adopted the following resolution:

Whereas, salary adjustments allowed bankruptcy judges and United States magistrates during 1987 were grossly inadequate with relation to the services performed by these judicial officers; and

Whereas, L. Ralph Mecham, Director of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts recognized the need to provide salary relief to bankruptcy judges and magistrates and solicited the support of the Judicial Conference of the United States to petition Congress for a more equitable salary increase; and

Whereas, at its March 1987 meeting the Judicial Conference unanimously resolved to seek immediate salary increases for bankruptcy judges and magistrates; and

Whereas, Robert E. Feidler, Legislative and Public Affairs Officer of the United States Courts and Denis Hauptly, counsel of that office, successfully achieved passage of legislation authorizing salary increases for bankruptcy judges and United States magistrates equivalent to 92 percent of the salary of United States District Judges;

Now therefore, be it resolved, that the Judicial Conference of the United States Committee on the Administration of the Bankruptcy System does hereby express to L. Ralph Mecham, Director, Robert E. Feidler, Legislative and Public Affairs Officer, and

Denis Hauptly, counsel, of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts, its deep appreciation and sincere gratitude for their initiative and untiring efforts in obtaining for bankruptcy judges and United States magistrates substantial pay increases and particularly recognizes the diligence and vigilance of Denis Hauptly throughout the entire legislative process;

Be it further resolved, that the Judicial Conference adopts this resolution as its own and orders it recorded in the Proceedings of the Conference.

ADDITIONAL JUDGESHIPS

Due to an unusual increase in bankruptcy filings, the Conference voted to recommend that Congress authorize one additional bankruptcy judgeship for the Eastern District of Texas.

DELINEATION OF RESPONSIBILITIES FOR CLOSING BANKRUPTCY CASES

In order to provide guidance to bankruptcy judges and clerks in the delineation of responsibilities for closing bankruptcy cases in the aftermath of the Bankruptcy Reform Act of 1978 (Public Law 95-598) and the Bankruptcy Judges, United States Trustees, and Family Farmer Bankruptcy Act of 1986 (Public Law 99-554), the Conference adopted the following policy statement:

The United States trustee program is being phased in across the country region by region. By statute, United States trustees appoint case trustees and supervise their performance. This includes the auditing of trustee reports and fees and the monitoring of trustee fiduciary responsibilities under the Bankruptcy Code and Rules.

When a United States trustee region becomes operational, it is expected that the United States trustee will assume, as soon as practicable, the full range of responsibilities contemplated by statute, including the auditing of case trustees' final reports and proposed orders of distribution. Absent unusual circumstances, the court in the exercise of its judicial discretion to close a case should be able to rely on the certification of the United States trustee, in the U.S. trustee's official capacity and as an officer of the court, that the case trustee has properly and fully administered the estate. Staff of the clerk's office should not be used routinely to perform or duplicate United States trustees' responsibilities.

COMMITTEE ON THE BICENTENNIAL OF THE CONSTITUTION

The Committee on the Bicentennial of the Constitution reported on its participation in the Bicentennial effort.

APPROPRIATIONS FOR THE FISCAL YEAR 1988

The Committee on the Budget reported that the fiscal year 1988 appropriation for the judiciary was signed into law as part of the government-wide "continuing resolution" (Public Law 100-202). New budget authority for the judiciary totals $1,329,934,000, as compared to the fiscal year 1988 request of $1,460,678,000 and the fiscal year 1987 appropriations of $1,259,708,000.

In February, 1988, the Executive Committee authorized the Director to submit a fiscal year 1988 supplemental appropriations request of $38,550,000 for the "Salaries and Expenses" appropriation, $10,853,000 for the "Defender Services" appropriation, $1,697,000 for "Court Security", and $3,033,000 for the "Administrative Office" account.

FUNDING NEW MAGISTRATES

Under previous arrangements for funding new magistrate positions, months would frequently pass before the positions could be filled, particularly during periods of continuing resolutions when new appropriations were unavailable. On the recommendations of the Magistrates and Budget Committees, the Judicial Conference agreed to make funding of new magistrate positions a priority, and authorized the Director of the Administrative Office to proceed at the beginning of each fiscal year with a determination as to whether the costs of the new positions could be absorbed and funding made available through reprogramming without disturbing ongoing programs.

REASSIGNMENT OF CERTAIN COSTS IN THE "SALARIES AND EXPENSES" APPROPRIATION

From time to time, Congress funds court projects while simultaneously reducing Administrative Office requests for personnel and funds necessary to support the same court projects. A typical example of this funding conflict is automation, where significant Administrative Office resources are expended for computer installation and operation in the courts. In order to permit the Administrative Office to continue carrying out these duties performed directly for the courts in connection with specific and definable projects without diverting resources from other ongoing projects, the Budget Committee authorized the Administrative Office to devise and implement a procedure permitting such services to be charged to the courts' appropriation, so long as the action complies with the law and congressional intent, and is cleared in advance with the Appropriations Committees of the Congress. The Budget and Executive Committees of the Judicial Conference are subsequently to be advised of any expenditures to be treated in this manner.

BUDGET DECENTRALIZATION

The Judicial Conference was advised that the pilot project for budget decentralization has been under way in the five pilot courts (Second Circuit Court of Appeals, and Southern New York, Western Washington, Northern California, and Arizona district courts) since the beginning of this fiscal year. Allocations of resources to the pilot courts are at the same levels as allocations planned for nonparticipating courts.

COMMITTEE ON CODES OF CONDUCT

The Committee on Codes of Conduct reported that since its last report, the Committee had received 32 written inquiries and issued 27 advisory responses. The Chairman also responded to 34 telephone inquiries that did not require reference to the Committee.

COMMITTEE ON COURT SECURITY

UNITED STATES MARSHALS SERVICE

The Committee on Court Security was established by the Judicial Conference in September, 1987, to oversee all court security matters. Among the most important of the new Committee's duties was to consider and make recommendations to the Conference on H.R. 3551, 100th Congress, the proposed "United States Marshals Service Act of 1987".

The Judicial Conference has previously supported certain aspects of H.R. 3551, including provisions to authorize the Attorney General to appoint "interim" United States marshals (March 1982 Session, Conf. Rpt., p. 19); to permit the Attorney General to set fees for the service of process (March 1981 Session, Conf. Rpt., p. 20); and to govern contracts for security guard or "perimeter security" services for court facilities (see the judiciary's annual budget requests since February, 1982). On the other hand, responding to a proposal which would have repealed 28 U.S.C. 569, under which the United States marshals "may, in the discretion of the respective courts, be required to attend any session of court", the September 1986 Conference (Conf. Rpt., p. 58) opposed any change in 28 U.S.C. 569.

After careful consideration, and noting that H.R. 3551 preserves intact the language of 28 U.S.C. 569, the Judicial Conference unanimously voted to support the bill, subject to two amendments developed by the Court Security Committee in coordination with the Director of the United States Marshals Service. First, the legislation should be amended specifically to include the following:

§ 566. Powers and duties

(a) It is the primary role and mission of the United States Marshals Service to provide for the security and to obey, execute and enforce all orders of the United States District Courts, the United States Courts of Appeals and the Court of International Trade.

In addition, observing that the bill would amend 28 U.S.C. 755 to permit bailiffs -- currently subject to a salary limit of $6 a day to be paid only for actual attendance on days when the court is in session or the judge or jury is present -- to be paid up to the rate of a GS-5 "from funds appropriated to the Courts", the Conference recommended that the amendment to section 755 be limited to eliminating the obsolete provision which establishes the $6 per day bailiff payment. As a result, bailiffs' salaries would not be fixed by statute and the judiciary's budget would be unaffected.

COMMITTEE ON CRIMINAL LAW AND PROBATION ADMINISTRATION

SENTENCING GUIDELINES TRAINING

In recognition of the fact that successful implementation of guideline sentencing depends substantially on training of the bench and bar, the Judicial Conference endorsed the Committee's suggestion that the district courts continue their guideline training efforts and sponsor programs that will also educate the bar, whose knowledge of guideline procedures is essential to effective implementation.

TRANSFER OF JURISDICTION AND SUPERVISION OF PERSONS ON SUPERVISED RELEASE

The Sentencing Reform Act of 1984 (Public Law 98-473) provides authority for courts to impose periods of supervised release following incarceration sentences. 18 U.S.C. 3583. While a period of supervised release serves many of the same purposes previously served by parole supervision, the period of supervision is set by the court at sentencing instead of by the Parole Commission, and responsibility for setting and modifying the conditions of release, and revoking supervision for a violation of the terms of release, rests with the sentencing court.

Section 3605 of title 18 permits courts to transfer jurisdiction of a supervised releasee to another court, as has been the case with probationers for many years. Upon being advised of the economic and administrative advantages of transfer of jurisdiction of persons under supervised release to the district where they are being supervised, the Judicial Conference voted to encourage courts mutually to consent to such transfers as provided by 18 U.S.C. 3605, particularly when a violation of the conditions of supervised release has occurred in the district of supervision.

COMPREHENSIVE CRIME CONTROL ACT OF 1984

At its September 1985 (Conf. Rpt., pp. 60-61) and March 1987 (Conf. Rpt., p. 26) sessions, the Judicial Conference endorsed amendments to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984 (Title II of the Comprehensive Crime Control Act of 1984, Public Law 98-473). While some of these proposals have been enacted in the Criminal Fines Improvement Act of 1987 (Public Law 100-185) and the Sentencing Act of 1987 (Public Law 100-182), others have not.

On the Committee's recommendation, the Conference re-endorsed an amendment to 18 U.S.C. 3563(a) to provide for exceptions to the requirement that, if probation is imposed for a felony, the sentence must include a fine, restitution, community service, or any combination of the three. In the Conference's view, there are limited cases in which this inflexible requirement would be counterproductive, and sentencing courts should have the authority to suspend the three mandatory conditions in circumstances where the defendant cannot comply with any of them.

In addition, the Conference agreed to recommend an amendment to title 18 to provide for monies to be made available from the Treasury to refund bail which had been erroneously forfeited and deposited in the Treasury. Section 3150(a) of title 18, which had previously provided this authority, was inadvertently omitted with the passage of Public Law 98-473.

COMMITTEE ON DEFENDER SERVICES

APPOINTMENTS AND PAYMENTS

The Committee on Defender Services submitted to the Conference a report on appointments and payments under the Criminal Justice Act (CJA) during the fiscal year 1987. The report indicated that of the $87,858,000 appropriated for the implementation of the CJA in the fiscal year 1987, $78,358,000 will be required to meet projected obligations, leaving a balance of $9,500,000 available for use in the fiscal year 1988.

During the fiscal year 1987, approximately 62,327 persons were represented under the CJA, compared to 59,324 persons during the fiscal year 1986, an increase of 5.1 percent. Of the 62,327 persons represented, 33,400, or 53.6 percent, were represented by federal public and community defender organizations, compared to 53.1 percent in the fiscal year 1986 and 52.4 percent in the fiscal year 1985.

The Conference authorized the Director of the Administrative Office to transmit the report to all chief judges, to all federal defender organizations, and to others who may request copies.

BUDGET REQUESTS - FEDERAL PUBLIC DEFENDERS

The Conference approved the supplemental budget request for the fiscal years 1988 and 1989 in the amounts of $30,128 and $40,655, respectively, for the Federal Public Defender Organization for the District of Colorado.

ALTERNATIVE HOURLY COMPENSATION RATES

Subsection (d)(1) of the Criminal Justice Act, as amended (18 U.S.C. 3006A(d)(1)), establishes hourly maximum rates of attorney compensation of $60 per hour for time expended in court, and $40 per hour for time reasonably expended out of court. The subsection also authorizes the Judicial Conference to establish an alternative hourly compensation rate, not to exceed $75 per hour, if the Conference determines that a higher rate is justified for a circuit or for particular districts within a circuit.

Effective with services performed on or after October 1, 1987, and subject to the availability of funds, the September 1987 Judicial Conference (Conf. Rpt., pp. 94-95) approved a temporary special alternative maximum rate of $75 per hour, for both in- and out-of-court time, for representation in death penalty habeas corpus cases in the Northern, Central, and Eastern Districts of California; effective November 6, 1987, the Executive Committee extended the temporary alternative rate to the Southern District of California. See also "Alternative Hourly Compensation Rates in Death Penalty Habeas Corpus Cases", supra p. 7.

On the recommendation of the Defender Services Committee, and subject to the availability of funds, the Judicial Conference established a special alternative rate of $75, for both in- and out-of-court time, for representation in federal habeas corpus death penalty cases only, at all court locations in the following districts:

Arizona
 California (Northern, Eastern, Central, and Southern) Idaho
 Kentucky (Eastern and Western) Montana
 Nevada
 Ohio (Southern)
 Oregon
 Pennsylvania (Western)
 Tennessee (Eastern, Middle, and Western) Washington (Eastern and Western)

In addition, subject to the availability of funds, the Judicial Conference established general alternative rates for both in- and out-of-court time in the amounts indicated for the following districts and court locations:

District	Amount/Location
Alaska	$75
Arizona	$70 [Phoenix and Tucson]
California, Central	$75
California, Eastern	$75 [Sacramento and Fresno]
California, Northern	$75
California, Southern	$75
District of Columbia	$75
Hawaii	$70
Michigan, Eastern	$75 [Detroit]
Nevada	$60 [Las Vegas and Reno]
New Jersey	$75
New Mexico	$75 [Las Cruces]
New York, Eastern	$75
New York, Southern	$75
Oregon	$60 [Portland]
Washington, Western	$75 [Seattle]

Since the projected cost of implementing the recommended special and general alternative rates is $9,765,000 in the fiscal year 1988, and $13,265,000 in the fiscal year 1989, the Defender Services Committee recommended priorities for implementation of the alternative rates and funding of death penalty resource center/community defender organizations (see "Death Penalty Resources Centers", below), which the Conference approved.

The Conference also amended the guideline on establishment of alternative hourly rates (paragraph 2.22(A)(2) of the Guidelines for the Administration of the Criminal Justice Act) to incorporate additional criteria, specifically provide for the establishment of special death penalty alternative rates, and exempt special death penalty rate applications from the requirement of conducting a survey.

DEATH PENALTY RESOURCE CENTERS

In order to address the adequacy of resources for providing representation in death penalty habeas corpus cases, a number of federal circuits and districts are taking steps to create cooperative resource center programs to provide assistance, guidance, information, and other services to eligible individuals and appointed attorneys involved in death penalty litigation at both the federal and state stages of the proceedings. The Defender Services Committee anticipates that state and other non-federal sources will ultimately provide about half the funding for these organizations, with the remainder to be furnished through grants under the Criminal Justice Act.

To date, the district courts of four states have agreed to designate resource centers as community defender organizations through the amendment of their district court plans to implement the CJA. These four proposed resource center/community defender organizations have submitted, and the Conference approved, the following grant requests for the fiscal years 1988 and 1989. The requests were approved subject to the availability of funds, and contingent upon each proposed organization obtaining the state and other non-federal funds which it had indicated were necessary to finance the state component of its proposed activities, and also contingent upon final approval of all necessary CJA plan amendments.

Criminal Justice Act Grants

	FY 1988	FY 1989
Georgia Appellate Practice and Educational Resource Center, Inc. [GA-N, M, & S]	$104,444	$267,275
Mississippi Capital Defense Resource Center [MS-N & S]	$ 82,175	$195,950
North Carolina Death Penalty Resource Center [NC-E, M, & W]	$ 33,915	$ 87,760
Capital Representation Resource Center of Tennessee [TN-E, M, & W]	$ 86,307	$167,634
TOTAL	$306,841	$718,619

A modified version of the "Grant and Conditions" which "traditional" community defender organizations are required to execute prior to receipt of grant funds was approved for use in conjunction with grants to death penalty resource center/community defender organizations and will be included as Appendix D of the Guidelines. Minor amendments to clauses 8 and 14 of the "Grant and Conditions" used by the traditional community defenders were approved as well.

ADVICE OF COUNSEL PRIOR TO PRETRIAL SERVICES INTERVIEW

The federal defenders have requested that the Judicial Conference amend the Guidelines for the Administration of the Criminal Justice Act to provide that, prior to being interviewed by a pretrial services or probation officer, a financially eligible defendant subject to proceedings under 18 U.S.C. 3142 et seq., should be afforded the opportunity to consult with counsel.

The Committee on Defender Services reported that, particularly with the advent of guideline sentencing, it shares the defenders' views that eligible defendants should be afforded an opportunity to confer with counsel prior to the pretrial services interview. However, the Committee believes that further consideration is warranted before an amendment to the Guidelines can be proposed, and it will seek the views of the Judicial Conference Committees on Criminal Law and Probation Administration and on the Administration of the Magistrates System on this matter. In the interim, the Committee recommended, and the Conference approved, the following statement for dissemination to the courts:

The Judicial Conference recognizes the importance of the advice of counsel for persons subject to proceedings under 18 U.S.C. 3142 et seq., prior to their being interviewed by a pretrial services or probation officer. Accordingly, the Conference encourages districts to take the steps necessary to permit the furnishing of appointed counsel at this stage of the proceedings to financially eligible defendants, having due regard for the importance of affording the pretrial services officer adequate time to interview the defendant and verify information prior to the bail hearing.

GUIDELINES

The Conference approved the following amendments to the Guidelines for the Administration of the Criminal Justice Act:

1. Numerous technical amendments to paragraphs 2.01, 2.12, and 2.22 to conform to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984 (Public Law 98-473), the Criminal Fine Improvements Act of 1987 (Public Law 100-185), and the Sentencing Act of 1987 (Public Law 100-182).
2. An amendment to paragraph 3.12 (C) to authorize the court to grant exceptions to the requirement for commercial duplication of transcripts in multi-defendant CJA cases, with respect to accelerated transcript services.
3. Amendments to paragraphs 2.27 (A) and 3.12 (A) concerning the appropriate forms for use in connection with payment for court authorized transcripts in CJA cases.
4. An amendment to paragraph 2.26 to eliminate the "1 hour travel time" rule.

RESOLUTION

In acknowledgement of his substantial contributions to the work of the Judicial Conference, the Conference adopted the following resolution honoring Judge Thomas J. MacBride:

On November 20, 1987, the Honorable William H. Rehnquist, Chief Justice of the United States, with sincere regret, acceded to Judge Thomas J. MacBride's request that he be relieved as Chairman of the United States Judicial Conference Committee to Implement the Criminal Justice Act.

The Chief Justice and the Judicial Conference acknowledge with deep appreciation Judge MacBride's long years and varied and valuable contributions in positions of leadership in the federal judiciary.

Over the course of his judicial tenure, Judge MacBride served as:

- o Chief Judge of the Eastern District of California from 1967 to 1979.
- o A member of the United States Judicial Conference Committee on the Administration of the Probation System from 1967 to 1968.
- o A member of the United States Judicial Conference from 1975 to 1978.
- o A member of the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court from 1979-1980.
- o A member of the United States Judicial Conference Committee to Implement the Criminal Justice Act from 1969-1987.
- o Chairman of the United States Judicial Conference Committee to Implement the Criminal Justice Act from 1979-1987.

In his capacity as a member and as Chairman of the Committee to Implement the Criminal Justice Act, Judge MacBride led the Federal Defender program through a period of remarkable but required growth necessitated by an increase in criminal appointments of counsel from approximately 30,000 in 1969 to more than 60,000 in 1987. During the period of his service on the CJA Committee the first Federal Defender organizations were created and their numbers grew to 66 headquarters and branch offices, providing representation in 47 federal judicial districts and 11 federal circuits. Even in times of particular fiscal austerity, Judge MacBride succeeded in securing the funds needed to ensure effective assistance of counsel and to build and maintain the exemplary Federal Defender program, which has enjoyed a reputation for providing a consistently outstanding level of representation and professional service to those charged with federal crimes and unable to afford counsel. His efforts also contributed to the funding and support of private panel attorneys, experts and others providing representational services under the Criminal Justice Act in each of the 94 federal judicial districts and 12 courts of appeals.

In addition, Judge MacBride devoted enormous energies, over a nine-year period, to the task of bringing about needed amendments to the Criminal Justice Act in the areas of attorney compensation and training.

Judge MacBride's commitment, enthusiasm, leadership, boundless energy, personal sacrifice and devotion to the administration of the federal judiciary, to the Federal Defender and assigned counsel program and to the cause of equal access to justice have earned and received the respect and admiration of all with whom he has served.

COMMITTEE ON FEDERAL-STATE JURISDICTION

DIVERSITY OF CITIZENSHIP JURISDICTION

Title IV of H.R. 3152, 100th Congress, the proposed "Court Reform and Access to Justice Act of 1987", contains two important provisions of interest to the judiciary: (1) the creation of multi-party, multi-forum jurisdiction; and (2) restrictions on diversity jurisdiction.

A. Although its provisions are complex, H.R. 3152 would permit the consolidation in federal district court of civil actions "arising out of the same transaction, occurrence, or series of related transactions or occurrences", in two general circumstances. Jurisdictional criteria for consolidation would be met where any party is a citizen of one state and any adverse party is a citizen of another state (minimal diversity), and if (1) a substantial part of the acts giving rise to the action occurred in two or more different states; or (2) any defendant resides in one state and (a) any other defendant resides in a different state, or (b) a substantial part of the acts giving rise to the action occurred in any other state. In order further to ensure that jurisdiction applies only to cases falling within the large mass-injury situation, this jurisdiction could be invoked only in an action for injury to person or property, and only then in three basic situations: (1) where 25 persons are alleged to have incurred damages of at least $50,000 per person; (2) where five persons are alleged to have incurred damages of at least $10,000 per person and the plaintiff cannot join all proper defendants to the claim in a state court, but can do so under this section; or (3) where five persons are alleged to have incurred damages of at least $10,000 per person, and any party to a civil action is subsequently sued in another court on a claim arising out of the same transaction.

The Conference approved in principle creation of federal jurisdiction that would rely on minimal diversity to consolidate multiple litigation in state and federal courts of cases involving personal injury or property damage and arising out of a single event, provided it is coupled with provisions that would otherwise narrow diversity jurisdiction. Although the Conference has repeatedly called for the abolition of diversity jurisdiction in its present form (see paragraph B, below), H.R. 3152, by contrast, would redirect diversity jurisdiction to serve a purpose that state courts are not able to serve, i.e., to facilitate the consolidation of scattered actions arising out of the same occurrence and thereby to promote more expeditious and economical disposition of such litigation.

B. At its September 1987 session (Conf. Rpt., p. 72), and without departing from prior recommendations to adopt more extensive restrictions on diversity of citizenship jurisdiction or to abolish it altogether, the Judicial Conference agreed to recommend that 28 U.S.C. 1332 be amended to increase the amount in controversy required to establish diversity jurisdiction from a sum that exceeds $10,000 to a sum that exceeds $50,000. Observing that H.R. 3152 includes language to increase the jurisdictional amount to $50,000, the Conference agreed to support that provision. The Conference also supported a recommendation of the Department of Justice to amend 28 U.S.C. 1332(c) to provide that a corporation shall be deemed to be a citizen of any state in which it is licensed or registered to do business. This objective standard would substantially reduce the extent of diversity litigation involving corporations.

APPEALS OF CIVIL ACTIONS

Title VII of H.R. 3152, 100th Congress, would substantially revise the existing statutory provisions governing civil and criminal appeals. Except to reaffirm its prior approval of elimination of the Enelow-Ettelson doctrine (September 1987 Session, Conf. Rpt., p. 70), the Conference voted to oppose a major revision at this time of the provisions of title 28 governing appeals. The subject matter of Title VII of H.R. 3152 was referred for further study to the Advisory Committee on Appellate Rules and the Committee on Federal-State Jurisdiction.

HABEAS CORPUS

The Conference, by a split vote, declined to approve a recommendation that, except for certificate of probable cause provisions previously disapproved in March, 1986 (Conf. Rpt., pp. 29-30), it support H.R. 1333, 100th Congress, the proposed "Habeas Corpus Reform Act of 1987".

CIVIL RICO

In September, 1987 (Conf. Rpt., pp. 75-76), the Judicial Conference reaffirmed an earlier recommendation that Congress promptly take steps to narrow significantly the scope of 18 U.S.C. 1964(c), which provides for civil actions under the Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act (RICO).

While H.R. 2983, 100th Congress, would not effect a significant narrowing of the scope of civil RICO, some positive impact on the federal civil RICO caseload could be expected from enactment of the legislation. Consequently, the Conference voted to support H.R. 2983, insofar as it would (a) enact a requirement that a defendant be convicted of "predicate acts" as a prerequisite to civil liability in certain cases under the Act; (b) eliminate treble damages and punitive damages in certain cases; and (c) provide for exclusive federal jurisdiction of civil damages actions under the Act (an appropriate limitation, since many of the predicate acts involve violation of federal criminal statutes exclusively enforced by federal courts).

PRODUCT LIABILITY

The Conference returned to the Committee on Federal-State Jurisdiction for further consideration a recommendation on H.R. 1115, 100th Congress, dealing with product liability issues.

ASBESTOS INFORMATION ACT

H.R. 2693, 100th Congress, would require a building owner who files a civil action relating to asbestos materials used in construction to attach to the complaint, to the extent not inconsistent with state law, regulations, or rule of court, detailed information concerning the nature and installation of the materials. Although observing that the bill may be considered by the Advisory Committee on Civil Rules for a determination of its impact on federal pleading, the Committee on Federal-State Jurisdiction recommended that the Judicial Conference support an amendment to the legislation to remove an ambiguity by providing that its pleading provisions will apply to a state court unless that state has by statute, regulation, rule, or order of court expressly provided otherwise. The Conference agreed to support the amendment.

BERNE CONVENTION IMPLEMENTATION ACT

S. 1301, H.R. 1623, and H.R. 2962, 100th Congress, are designed to effect adherence by the United States to the Berne Convention for the Protection of Literary and Artistic Works. The bills would amend the copyright laws in title 17 of the United States Code by omitting the requirement that notice of copyright be fixed to published works and, in the case of S. 1301, also omitting the requirement that a copyrighted work be registered before an action for infringement may be brought.

While taking no position on these bills, the Conference did agree to advise the Congress that, to the extent the bills delete the requirement of registration of a copyright as a prerequisite to litigation, there is likely to be increased difficulty in trying copyright cases.

STATE JUSTICE INSTITUTE

The Judicial Conference endorsed the reauthorization and funding of the State Justice Institute. See also March 1987 Session, Conf. Rpt., p. 19.

COMMITTEE ON INTERCIRCUIT ASSIGNMENTS

The Committee on Intercircuit Assignments reported that during the period August 15, 1987, through February 1, 1988, the Committee had recommended 64 intercourt assignments to be undertaken by 52 judges. Of this number, one was a retired associate justice of the United States Supreme Court, 17 were senior circuit judges, 11 were active circuit judges, 17 were senior district judges, four were active district judges, one was a senior judge of the Court of International Trade, and one was an active judge of the Court of International Trade.

Of the 64 assignments approved, 35 judges undertook 44 assignments to the courts of appeals, and 18 judges undertook 20 assignments to the district courts.

COMMITTEE ON THE JUDICIAL BRANCH

The Committee on the Judicial Branch reported on its activities in anticipation later this year of the impaneling of the Commission on Executive, Legislative and Judicial Salaries, the Commission's report to the President and, in early 1989, President Reagan's transmittal to Congress of his pay recommendations. The work of the Judicial Conference in support of judicial salary increases during this cycle is particularly important because, under existing law, this opportunity will mark the last occasion for meaningful salary reform (other than on an annual cost-of-living basis) until 1993. The Committee intends to submit to the 1988 Salary Commission documentation of the judiciary's compensation needs, focusing upon the significant erosion in purchasing power of judicial salaries since the "base line" year of 1969, when the mechanism of the Federal Salary Act of 1967, 2 U.S.C. 351 et seq., first became operational.

COMMITTEE ON JUDICIAL ETHICS

The Committee on Judicial Ethics reported that it has completed review of annual financial reports submitted for calendar year 1986 and continues to process responses to inquiry letters, initial, and termination reports. The Committee approved the automation of the processing of financial disclosure reports. The resultant system will enable more timely, accurate, and responsive assessments of filings and closing of cases.

COMMITTEE ON JUDICIAL IMPROVEMENTS

AUTOMATION

The Committee on Judicial Improvements reported on the status of automation activities in the courts.

The appellate information management system (NewAIMS) is operational in three circuits, and implementation in five additional circuits is under way. The bankruptcy court automation project (BANCAP) and the full civil docketing system (CIVIL) have been developed by the Federal Judicial Center, pilot tested, and transferred to the Administrative Office for implementation. The first version of the criminal full docketing system (CRIMINAL), which is being developed by the Administrative Office, was released to the pilot courts in January, 1988.

In order to cope with the training demands of implementing these full docketing systems as soon as possible, a BANCAP training and support center was approved in the Western District of Texas last year. The Committee reported that, in light of the transfer of CIVIL from the Judicial Center to the Administrative Office for implementation, and the anticipated completion of CRIMINAL by the end of the fiscal year, the Committee had approved the establishment of a similar CIVIL/CRIMINAL training center in the District of Arizona.

The judiciary hopes to make a major office automation procurement award late this fiscal year or early in the fiscal year 1989. Consequently, the judiciary is seeking $45,000,000 for office automation in the fiscal year 1989. The Committee will establish priorities for the installation of office automation equipment at its next meeting in June, 1988.

COMPUTER-ASSISTED LEGAL RESEARCH

Among the most frequent of requests received by the Administrative Office is one for access to computer-assisted legal research (CALR) in judges' chambers. While it has long been contemplated that CALR would become available in chambers under the office automation program (see above, "Automation"), the Conference was advised that a good number of chambers are presently equipped with hardware, either government-provided or privately owned, which without upgrading is capable of accessing CALR through purchase of modems and installation of telephone lines. Under favorable contract terms with the Mead Data Central Corporation, LEXIS can therefore be immediately installed in appropriately equipped chambers at relatively minor expense without waiting for the office automation plan to commence. (Since the judiciary's contract with the West Publishing Company does not include these favorable terms, WESTLAW cannot be made available in chambers at this time.)

On the recommendation of the Committee, the Judicial Conference approved guidelines for the expansion of CALR into chambers. Under the guidelines, the chambers of judicial officers (circuit and district judges, including senior judges, bankruptcy judges, and full-time United States magistrates) would be eligible to receive LEXIS if the existing hardware can access it without upgrade, provided that the judicial officer can identify $1,000 of lawbook continuation/subscription material to be cancelled; an additional $500 of continuation/subscription material would need to be cancelled for each additional personal computer in chambers to be accessed. Certain exemptions are built into the guidelines to ensure that hard copies remain available at all locations.

VIDEOTAPING COURT PROCEEDINGS

The Judicial Conference authorized the videotaping of the trial in In re Washington Public Power Supply System Securities Litigation, MDL 551 (all cases), provided that the videotape does not constitute the official court record and there is no public access to the tapes.

TRAVEL REGULATIONS FOR JUSTICES AND JUDGES

In order to allow district judges to be reimbursed for attending the investiture ceremonies of bankruptcy judges and United States magistrates in their districts, and to reimburse bankruptcy judges and magistrates for attending investiture ceremonies for district judges, bankruptcy judges, and magistrates, the Judicial Conference amended subparagraph B.1.e.(2) of the travel regulations for justices and judges to read as follows:

- (2) District Judge, Bankruptcy Judge, or Magistrate. Only a circuit justice, the chief judge of the Court of Appeals (and such circuit judges as designated by the chief judge), district judges of the same district court, and bankruptcy judges or magistrates of the same district court (with the approval of the chief district judge) may receive reimbursement of travel expenses to attend the investiture of a newly-appointed district judge, bankruptcy judge, or magistrate.

The Conference also approved the following new paragraph D.1.c. to the travel regulations in order to permit judicial officers to use purchase orders to procure lodging, or lodging and meals:

- c. Payment of Lodging, or Lodging and Meals, by Purchase Order. Judges who are required to attend Judicial Conference Committee meetings or the Circuit Judicial Conferences and must obtain more costly lodging than would otherwise have been obtained may have their lodging procured directly by the use of a purchase order. Such lodging procured in this manner shall be done by purchase order issued by the Clerk of Court. When such direct billing procedures are used, a per diem allowance of $33 may be claimed, or the traveler may itemize meals and other allowable subsistence expenses up to a daily maximum of $50. This method of procurement may also be used to procure meals when billings for attendees at the meeting or conference are based on the American Plan. In this instance, only a minimal daily subsistence allowance should be authorized, generally not in excess of $5.

Nothing in this subparagraph shall authorize purchase orders and/or reimbursement exceeding the maximum level of reimbursement authorized by subparagraphs 1.a. and 1.b. of this paragraph, except that for the purposes of this subparagraph, United States bankruptcy judges and magistrates may elect the alternative expense allowance level established in subparagraph 1.a.3.

Use of a purchase order under the new regulation (1) would entitle subordinate judicial officers to receive lodging and meals having an actual expense of subsistence not to exceed 150 percent of the established per diem rate for the location or up to $150 per day, whichever is higher (an option Article III judges currently enjoy); and (2) would, in some locations, allow travelers to avoid the payment of costly local lodging taxes.

UNITED STATES CLAIMS COURT

The United States Claims Court was created in 1982 as an Article I court in the judicial branch. Last year, the Chief Judge of the Claims Court proposed that the Court be removed from the Article III system and placed "under its own administration, like other Article I courts". At its September 1987 session (Conf. Rpt., p. 68), the Judicial Conference determined not to object to the creation of an Article I Claims Court outside of the judicial branch.

S. 1608, 100th Congress, the "United States Claims Court Improvement Act of 1987", would amend title 28 "as it pertains to the structure of the United States Claims Court." Although the Conference was not unsympathetic to the Claims Court's desire to be independent of the Judicial Conference and the Administrative Office for administrative purposes, the Conference was of the view that further fact-finding was necessary to determine whether S. 1608 could achieve this goal without adversely affecting the availability of resources for the remainder of the judiciary. The Conference accordingly voted to refer the bill to the Executive Committee, for a determination of the appropriate committee(s) with jurisdiction to conduct this further fact-finding.

INCREASES IN FEE SCHEDULES

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. 1930(b), the Judicial Conference amended the Schedule of Additional Fees for the United States Bankruptcy Courts to establish a $500 fee for filing a petition ancillary to a foreign proceeding under 11 U.S.C. 304. The Conference also approved an amendment to the preamble to the bankruptcy fee schedule to expand the exemption from payment for services rendered "on behalf of the United States" to include services rendered "to bankruptcy administrators appointed under Public Law 99-554, section 302(d)(3)(I)."

AMENDMENTS TO THE JURY SELECTION AND SERVICE ACT

In September, 1985 (Conf. Rpt., pp. 83-84), and in September, 1987 (Conf. Rpt., p. 96), the Judicial Conference recommended that Congress approve several technical amendments to the Jury Selection and Service Act, 28 U.S.C. 1861 et seq. At this session, the Conference agreed to support an additional amendment to the Act to eliminate the automatic excuses from service now granted to members of fire and police departments and to public officials.

JUROR QUALIFICATION QUESTIONNAIRE

In response to the suggestion of a chief district judge that the current version of the juror qualification questionnaire does not enable information regarding Hispanic ethnicity to be gathered satisfactorily, the Judicial Conference revised the questionnaire to inquire as follows:

To assist in ensuring that all people are represented on juries, please indicate which of the following applies to you. Nothing disclosed will affect your selection for jury service.

- ☐ Black
- ☐ White
- ☐ American Indian
- ☐ Asian
- ☐ Other (specify)

Are you Hispanic? ☐ Yes ☐ No

MACHINE READABLE QUALIFICATION QUESTIONNAIRE

In March, 1987 (Conf. Rpt., p. 39), the Judicial Conference authorized the District of New Mexico to use a machine readable form of the juror qualification questionnaire previously approved by the Conference under 28 U.S.C. 1869(h). In September, 1987 (Conf. Rpt., p. 96), the Conference authorized the expanded use of the questionnaire in the Middle District of Florida, the Western District of Texas, and such other districts as the Committee on Judicial Improvements designates. The Committee advised the Conference that it had approved the participation in the optical scanner experiment of the Central District of California, the Eastern and Southern Districts of New York, and the Northern District of West Virginia.

The Judicial Conference agreed to grant discretion to the courts participating in the experimental test of optical scanning equipment to use the equipment officially to process juror qualification questionnaires.

PLACES OF HOLDING COURT

Under 28 U.S.C. 462, the Director of the Administrative Office, with the approval of the appropriate circuit judicial council, may provide chambers for circuit judges only at statutorily designated places of holding district court or elsewhere in federal facilities. When a circuit judge resides and maintains his or her official station in a community with no federal facilities or with federal facilities filled to capacity, the judiciary must go to Congress to seek affirmative legislation to have that community designated as a place of holding district court in order that private leased space may be acquired for circuit judge chambers.

Since the existing statutory scheme has the potential of defeating both congressional and Judicial Conference policy against the proliferation of places of holding court, the Judicial Conference voted to recommend that 28 U.S.C. 462(c) be amended to permit the Director of the Administrative Office to furnish chambers for circuit judges at any location, with the approval of the judicial council of the circuit.

COMMITTEE ON JUDICIAL RESOURCES

JUDGESHIP VACANCIES

Judgeship vacancies place significant burdens on the courts by increasing the workloads of those judges available for duty and diminishing the courts' ability to discharge their responsibilities. Accordingly, the Judicial Conference:

1. Noted the adverse effect on the courts and litigants attributable to vacancies in Article III judgeship positions and considers all such vacancies "judicial emergencies".
2. Urged all judges nearing retirement to notify the President and the Administrative Office as far in advance as possible of a change in status -- if possible, six to twelve months before the contemplated date of change in status.

3. Agreed that greater effort should be made to publicize the deleterious effect such vacancies have on the administration of justice.

QUALITY STEP INCREASES

The Judiciary Salary Plan (JSP) authorizes an increase in a step within a pay grade as a means of recognizing exceptional service by an employee. The JSP permits an employee to receive such a "quality step increase", or QSI, no more than once every three years.

Noting that the executive branch, which has a similar provision in its personnel regulations, allows an employee to be awarded a QSI not more than once a year, the Conference amended the JSP to provide that "No more than one quality step increase may be granted to an employee within a period of 52 consecutive calendar weeks." The Conference premised its approval on full compliance with existing JSP requirements that limit such increases to exceptional performance of all major duties in a sustained manner that substantially exceeds the normal requirements for the position, and gives promise of continuing.

The Conference recognized that there may be a natural tendency routinely to grant quality step increases, particularly in small staff situations where the judge or supervisor is in constant contact with staff. That practice is to be avoided, for if annual QSIs are awarded automatically, their function as rewards for exceptional performance will be lost, and the judge or supervisor will be deprived of this valuable management tool for encouraging exceptional performance.

RETENTION OF STAFF UPON THE DEATH OR INCAPACITY OF A JUDGE

Current policy authorizes the automatic retention of chambers staff of a deceased or incapacitated judge for 30 days, with an extension for an additional 60 days upon request by the court. Since the need for continued staff in these circumstances depends on a number of factors characteristic of the court, e.g., geographical distribution of court facilities, procedures used in case allocations when a judgeship is vacant, etc., the Conference voted to allow for the extension of staff, in 90- to 120-day increments beyond the current 90-day maximum, upon certification by the affected court to the Director of the Administrative Office that such additional staff resources are necessary.

ADDITIONAL COURT REPORTERS

The Judicial Conference approved an additional court reporter position in the Eastern District of Virginia.

CLASSIFICATION OF SUPPORTING PERSONNEL

On the recommendation of the Committee, the Judicial Conference approved the reclassification of deputy circuit librarians from JSP-12 to JSP-13, and the reclassification of secretaries to United States magistrates from JSP-10 to JSP-11. The Conference declined to increase the salaries of principal secretaries to metropolitan district court chief judges.

With regard to the procedures for classifying principal secretaries to circuit chief judges at the JSP-12 level (see September 1987 Session, Conf. Rpt., p. 65), the Conference agreed that:

1. Upon relinquishment of the office of a circuit chief judge, the principal secretary to that former circuit chief judge who has been increased in grade to a JSP-12 due to the assignment of exceptional circuit-wide duties, shall be reduced to the grade level of a circuit judge's secretary, at that step of the grade that would otherwise have been achieved absent the promotion to JSP-12.
2. The criterion to be used to assure adequate experience when a circuit chief judge's secretary is to be promoted to the grade of JSP-12 is three years as secretary to a circuit judge.

COURT INTERPRETERS ACT

At its September 1982 session (Conf. Rpt., p. 73), the Judicial Conference recommended amendments to the Court Interpreters Act, 28 U.S.C. 1827. S. 1867, 100th Congress, includes an additional series of amendments to the Act, upon which the Conference took the following positions:

1. Opposed a requirement that eight unspecified languages be certified for interpreter services in the courts. Discretion on the part of the judiciary, both as to which languages should be so certified, and how many, is desirable.
2. Opposed a proposal to require, in every instance, electronic sound recording of interpretations in court proceedings. The decision to record interpretations should be left to the discretion of the presiding judicial officer.
3. Supported a proposal that prepayment for interpreting services may be made at the court's discretion, with the court assigning costs to, and collecting costs from, the parties.
4. Supported a proposal to provide a schedule of uniform fees for interpreting services.

BOARD OF CERTIFICATION

The Judicial Conference agreed to propose legislation to eliminate the Board of Certification, 28 U.S.C. 332, and the certification function. The standards for the position of circuit executive contained in section 332(f), i.e., experience in administrative and executive positions, familiarity with court procedures, and special training, would be retained.

COMMITTEE ON THE ADMINISTRATION OF THE FEDERAL MAGISTRATES SYSTEM

COST-OF-LIVING ADJUSTMENTS FOR PART-TIME MAGISTRATES

Heretofore, the cost-of-living adjustments which have been administratively applied automatically to full-time magistrates have not applied automatically to part-time magistrates; rather, a specific resolution of the Conference has been necessary to approve application of cost-of-living increases to the salaries of part-time magistrates. Almost invariably, those same adjustments, in percentage terms, have been forthcoming, through separate Conference action. Finding no reason for excluding part-time magistrates from the cost-of-living adjustment granted automatically to full-time magistrates (and other government employees), the Conference agreed that part-time magistrates, including those in combination positions who perform part-time magistrate duties for additional compensation, shall henceforth be granted the same cost-of-living adjustments (in percentage terms) as are extended to full-time magistrates, effective at the same time as the adjustments for full-time magistrates. The adjustments in the salaries of part-time magistrates will be implemented by the Director of the Administrative Office unless otherwise directed by the Judicial Conference.

MAGISTRATES' SEAL OF OFFICE

Under 28 U.S.C. 638(c), the Director of the Administrative Office "shall furnish to each United States magistrate . . . an official impression seal in a form prescribed by the [Judicial] conference." The Conference approved the Committee's recommendation that the seal of the district court be prescribed as the seal for magistrates' use.

CHANGES IN MAGISTRATE POSITIONS

After consideration of the report of the Committee and the recommendations of the Director of the Administrative Office, the district courts, and the judicial councils of the circuits, the Conference approved the following changes in salaries and arrangements for full-time and part-time magistrate positions. Unless otherwise indicated, these changes are to be effective when appropriated funds are available.

FIRST CIRCUIT

Massachusetts:

Continued the part-time magistrate position at Cape Cod National Seashore for an additional four-year term but decreased the salary of the position from $5,335 to $4,269 per annum.

Maine:

Converted the part-time magistrate position at Bangor to a full-time position.

THIRD CIRCUIT

New Jersey:

Continued the part-time magistrate position at Atlantic City for an additional four-year term at the currently authorized salary of $2,134 per annum.

Pennsylvania, Eastern:

Increased the salary of the part-time magistrate position at Allentown from $4,269 to $7,588 per annum.

FOURTH CIRCUIT

West Virginia, Southern:

Continued the part-time magistrate position at Beckley/ Bluefield for an additional four-year term at the currently authorized salary of $36,250 per annum.

SIXTH CIRCUIT

Tennessee, Western:

Authorized a part-time magistrate position at Jackson at a salary of $21,225 per annum.

EIGHTH CIRCUIT

Iowa, Southern:

Continued the part-time magistrate positions at Des Moines and Burlington for additional four-year terms at the currently authorized salaries of $36,250 and $4,269 per annum, respectively.

South Dakota:

Continued the part-time magistrate position at Rapid City for an additional four-year term at the currently authorized salary of $36,250 per annum.

NINTH CIRCUIT

Alaska:

1. Authorized a part-time magistrate position at Anchorage at a salary of $36,250 per annum;
2. Continued the part-time magistrate position at Juneau for an additional four-year term and increased the salary of the position from $3,201 to $9,722 per annum;
3. Continued the part-time magistrate position at Ketchikan for an additional four-year term at the currently authorized salary of $2,134 per annum; and
4. Continued the part-time magistrate position at Kodiak for an additional four-year term and increased the salary of the position from $2,134 to $3,201 per annum.

Arizona:

Increased the salary of the part-time magistrate position at Grand Canyon National Park from $24,070 to $27,390 per annum.

California, Central:

1. Continued the part-time magistrate position at Santa Barbara for an additional four-year term but decreased the salary from $9,722 to $7,588 per annum;
2. Continued the part-time magistrate position at Oxnard (or Ventura) for an additional four-year term at the currently authorized salary of $9,722 per annum; and
3. Continued the part-time magistrate position at Barstow (or Victorville) for an additional four-year term and increased the salary from $4,269 to $7,588 per annum.

Idaho:

Increased the salary of the part-time magistrate position at Coeur d'Alene from $9,722 to $16,127 per annum.

Oregon:

Increased the salary of the part-time magistrate position at Pendleton from $3,201 to $4,269 per annum.

TENTH CIRCUIT

New Mexico:

1. Authorized a third full-time magistrate position to serve the district at Albuquerque;
2. Continued the part-time magistrate position at Clovis (or Portales or Roswell) for an additional four-year term at the currently authorized salary of $5,335 per annum; and
3. Continued the part-time magistrate position at Sante Fe for an additional four-year term and increased the salary from $2,134 to $4,269 per annum.

Oklahoma, Eastern:

Continued the part-time magistrate position at Muskogee for an additional four-year term at the currently authorized salary of $36,250 per annum, but discontinued the position upon the appointment of the new full-time magistrate at Muskogee or on October 1, 1988, whichever comes first.

Oklahoma, Western:

Authorized a part-time magistrate position at Altus at a salary of $2,134 per annum.

COMMITTEE ON PACIFIC TERRITORIES

The Committee on Pacific Territories reported on its activities to secure enactment of legislation previously supported by the Judicial Conference to authorize certiorari to the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit from certain cases decided by the High Court of American Samoa (September 1987 Session, Conf. Rpt., pp. 96-97) and to permit federal judges to sit in the courts of countries with which the United States has a Compact of Free Association (March 1987 Session, Conf. Rpt., p. 39). The Committee also reported that the United States will host the Judicial Conference of the South Pacific in Hawaii in the Spring of 1989.

COMMITTEE ON RULES OF PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE

RULES AMENDMENTS

The Committee on Rules of Practice and Procedure reported that on August 1, 1987, in the absence of congressional action, amendments to the Civil, Criminal, and Bankruptcy Rules approved by the Conference at its September 1986 session (Conf. Rpt., pp. 67-68) took effect. Amendments to the Federal Rules of Evidence, also approved by the Conference in September, 1986, took effect on October 1, 1987, failing congressional action.

The Office of the Law Revision Counsel, U.S. House of Representatives, identified a number of technical errors in some of these amendments. After reviewing these errors, the Committee submitted to the Conference appropriate amendments to correct them, accompanied by Advisory Committee Notes explaining that they are purely technical in nature. The Conference approved the amendments, and transmitted them to the Supreme Court for consideration, with the recommendation that they be approved by the Court and transmitted to the Congress pursuant to law.

COMMITTEE ON SPACE AND FACILITIES

LONG-RANGE PLANNING

Recognizing the need to establish long-range planning for the courts' space and facilities requirements, the Judicial Conference voted to direct the courts to develop such long-range plans for facilities and space requirements. The Conference also directed the Committee on Space and Facilities to review and approve instructions to be submitted by the Administrative Office for the courts' use in developing the plans.

COURTHOUSE MANAGEMENT

On the recommendation of the Committee, the Judicial Conference approved a pilot program in which a court assumes the responsibility of managing its courthouse under a delegation of authority from the General Services Administration, under the following conditions:

1. An assessment of each building's condition will be performed and used in making decisions on the terms of delegations of authority and funding arrangements that may be established.
2. Each pilot court must have adequate staff and otherwise be prepared to manage its building before the delegation of authority is effected.
3. Each pilot court that assumes buildings management responsibilities will work with the Administrative Office to develop a method for evaluation of the results of the pilot.
4. All delegations of authority for the courts are to be signed by the Director of the Administrative Office in accordance with his statutory responsibilities, when he is satisfied that it is proper to do so.

The Northern District of Alabama, which is currently managing its new courthouse under a delegation of authority from GSA, will continue to do so as part of this pilot program. The Committee recommended, and the Conference approved, the Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit and the District Courts in Southern Florida and Western Washington as potential participants in the pilot program.

PROCEEDINGS UNDER JUDICIAL CONDUCT AND DISABILITY ACT

The Judicial Conference, by unanimous vote, authorized the Secretary of the Conference to execute and issue to the Speaker of the House of Representatives a certificate providing as follows:

CERTIFICATE

TO THE SPEAKER, UNITED STATES HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES:

The Judicial Conference of the United States, acting pursuant to section 331 of title 28, United States Code, does hereby certify as follows:

1. On February 11, 1988, the Judicial Council of the Fifth Circuit certified to the Judicial Conference, as provided by 28 U.S.C. 372(c)(7)(B), that United States District Judge Walter L. Nixon, Jr., of the Southern District of Mississippi has engaged in conduct which might constitute one or more grounds for impeachment under Article I of the United States Constitution.

2. The Judicial Conference has exercised its authority under 28 U.S.C. 372(c)(8) to consider the certificate of the Judicial Council of the Fifth Circuit. In so doing, the Judicial Conference had before it certified official records of judicial proceedings manifesting as follows:

On March 31, 1986, Judge Nixon was convicted of two counts of violating section 1623 of title 18, United States Code.

On January 19, 1988, Judge Nixon's conviction became final upon denial of a petition for writ of certiorari by the Supreme Court of the United States.

3. Pursuant to Rule 1 of the Rules for Processing of Certificates from Judicial Councils that a Judicial Officer Might Have Engaged in Impeachable Conduct, the Judicial Conference considers no additional investigation by the Conference itself to be appropriate. It is apparent that the certification by the Judicial Council is premised entirely upon a judgment of conviction in a criminal case and that the judgment has become final. As provided in 28 U.S.C. 372(c)(8), the Judicial Conference concurs in the determination of the Judicial Council that Judge Nixon has engaged in conduct which might constitute one or more grounds for impeachment under Article I of the Constitution.

4. Consideration of the impeachment of Judge Nixon may be warranted.

There are attached the certificate of the Judicial Council of the Fifth Circuit to the Judicial Conference, a letter, dated February 26, 1988, to the Judicial Conference of the United States from the Acting Chief Judge of the Fifth Circuit, and certified copies of the judgment and commitment order of the United States District Court for the Southern District of Mississippi entered on March 31, 1986; the judgment of the United States Court of Appeals of the Fifth Circuit on April 30, 1987, affirming the judgment of the District Court, supported by opinions issued on April 30, 1987, affirming the judgment and on September 8, 1987, denying Judge Nixon's petition for rehearing and suggestion for rehearing en banc; and an order of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated January 19, 1988, denying the petition for writ of certiorari filed by Judge Nixon.

Executed this 15th day of March, 1988.

Secretary

*The Chief Justice and Judge Charles Clark were not present and did not participate in the deliberations of the Judicial Conference with respect to the subject matter of this certificate. Judge L. T. Senter, Jr., though present, did not participate.

MEMORIAL RESOLUTIONS

Noting the death of Judge Carl McGowan, the Judicial Conference adopted the following resolution:

The Judicial Conference of the United States notes with sadness the death of Carl McGowan on December 23, 1987, in Washington, D.C.

Appointed in 1963 by President John F. Kennedy, Carl McGowan served with distinction as a member of the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit for almost 25 years, completing his last sitting with the Court only a few months before his death. He acted as Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals for several months in 1981, just prior to taking senior status. In his two-and-one-half decades on the Court, Judge McGowan authored nearly 500 opinions, all of them illumined by clear reason, lucid expression, sure wisdom, and often a surprising wit. His patrician intelligence was a perfect match for his democratic soul. Judge McGowan's service on the Court spanned a time of turbulence and change for the country and for the Court. The issues he dealt with included the Watergate prosecutions, the Nixon tapes, the Pentagon Papers, the redefining of the rights of criminal defendants, the restructuring of administrative law, and key challenges to separation of powers principles. At all times he was a revered colleague steadfastly moving the Court toward common ground.

Born in Hymera, Indiana, Carl McGowan was a Dartmouth and Columbia Law School graduate, a World War II naval officer, a distinguished private practitioner, a Professor of Law at Northwestern University Law School, and Counsel to Governor Adlai Stevenson of Illinois. A master of politics and government, he was the quintessential legal realist; a precisionist in thought and word, his scholarly pragmatism permeated the Court's jurisprudence throughout his tenure.

Outside the Court, Judge McGowan maintained a lively presence in the wider world of his profession. He was a member of the governing Councils of the American Law Institute and the Administrative Conference of the United States. He also served as the United States Judicial Conference liaison to the Administrative Conference and on several of the Judicial Conference's key committees. In his latter years, he worked hard to bring order into the chaos of law clerk recruitment practices. He was also Chairman of the American Bar Association's Committee on Standards of Judicial Administration, and a Director of the Salzburg Seminar. A model of intellectual brilliance, invincible spirit, startling wit, impregnable integrity and a beloved colleague and mentor, he will be sorely missed in our ranks.

The members of the Judicial Conference convey their deepest sympathies to Judge McGowan's family and request that this Resolution be sent to his widow, Jody McGowan, as a sign of our affection and respect.

Noting the death of Judge Edward Weinfeld, the Conference adopted the following resolution:

The United States Judicial Conference notes with deep sadness the death of Judge Edward Weinfeld on January 17, 1988 in New York City. Judge Weinfeld had served on the bench of the Southern District of New York since August 14, 1950 and was, at the time of his death, the senior active district judge in the United States.

During his long tenure he had earned the reputation in his home community and throughout the nation as a trial judge without peer. The scholarship and depth of thought of his opinions were such that they were generally regarded as authoritative and ranked in persuasiveness with the decisions of appellate courts. His habit of starting the work day at dawn became legendary. The combination of his high professional competence, industry and courtesy caused him to be widely admired by lawyers and judges.

Judge Weinfeld was born in New York City on May 14, 1901. He was educated in the New York City public school system and attended New York University Law School directly out of high school, receiving his LL.B. at the age of 20 in 1921, and an LL.M. in 1922. He practiced as a single practitioner from 1924 to 1950. His pre-judicial career included wide public service. He was Chief Counsel of the New York State Legislative Committee to investigate bondholders committees, a delegate to the New York State Constitutional Convention of 1938, and served under Governor Herbert H. Lehman as New York State's first Housing Commissioner. Thereafter he acted as Director of War Housing for the New York State War Council, and was President of the National Housing Conference and of the National Association of Housing Officials. He was extremely active in the affairs of his university, serving as President of the New York University Board of Trustees of the Law Center Foundation and as a life member of the Board of Trustees of New York University, from which he received an honorary LL.D. in 1970.

Judge Weinfeld served as a member of the Judicial Panel on Multi-District Litigation for the 10-year period 1968-1978 and was appointed by the Chief Justice to serve as a member of the Commission on the Bankruptcy Laws of the United States from 1971 to 1973. He was Chairman of the Judicial Conference Committee on the Administration of the Bankruptcy System from 1967 to 1979 and had been a member of the Committee since 1956.

Within the weeks before his death, Judge Weinfeld became the first recipient of the Henry J. Friendly Medal awarded by the American Law Institute and was selected by the Mayor of New York City to receive the LaGuardia Medal, New York City's highest award.

The members of the Judicial Conference convey their sympathy to his widow Lillian, his daughters Ann and Fern and his grandchildren, and ask that this Resolution be sent to them as a mark of the Conference's profound respect and high esteem.

ELECTIONS

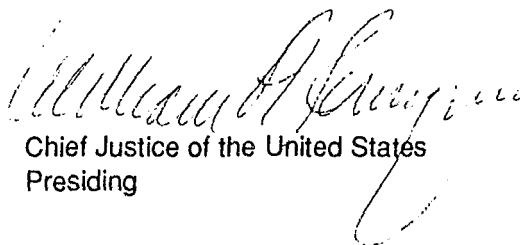

The Conference reaffirmed the Executive Committee's elections to membership on the Board of the Federal Judicial Center of Judge David D. Dowd of the Northern District of Ohio (vice District Judge David Mazzone) and Judge J. Clifford Wallace of the Ninth Circuit (vice Justice Anthony Kennedy). The Conference also elected Judge Collins J. Seitz of the Third Circuit to membership on the Board of Certification for Court Executives, vice Judge Jack Miller.

FUNDING

All of the foregoing recommendations which require the expenditure of funds were approved by the Conference subject to the availability of funds, and subject to whatever priorities the Conference might establish for the use of available resources.

RELEASE OF CONFERENCE ACTION

The Conference authorized the immediate release of matters considered at this session where necessary for legislative or administrative action.

Circuit Judges Richard S. Arnold, Stephanie K. Seymour, and Harlington Wood, Jr.; District Judges Richard M. Bilby, Juan M. Perez-Gimenez, William W. Schwarzer, and Morey L. Sear; Senior District Judge Walter T. McGovern; and Claims Court Judge Loren A. Smith attended all or some of the sessions of the Conference. Circuit Executives Steven Flanders (Second Circuit), John Hehman (Third Circuit), Samuel W. Phillips (Fourth Circuit), Lydia Comberrel (Fifth Circuit), James A. Higgins (Sixth Circuit), Collins T. Fitzpatrick (Seventh Circuit), June L. Boadwine (Eighth Circuit), Francis L. Bremson (Ninth Circuit), Eugene Murret (Tenth Circuit), Norman E. Zoller (Eleventh Circuit), and Linda Finkelstein (District of Columbia Circuit), and Circuit Executive-designate Vincent Flanagan (First Circuit) were also present.

The Attorney General of the United States, Dick Thornburgh, and Solicitor General Charles Fried addressed the Conference on matters of mutual interest to the Department of Justice and the Conference.

L. Ralph Mecham, Director of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts, attended the sessions of the Conference, as did James E. Macklin, Jr., Deputy Director; William R. Burchill, Jr., General Counsel; Robert E. Feidler, Legislative and Public Affairs Officer; Karen K. Siegel, Chief, Office of the Judicial Conference Secretariat; and David A. Sellers, Public Information Officer. Judge John C. Godbold and Charles W. Nihan, Director and Deputy Director of the Federal Judicial Center, also attended the sessions of the Conference, as did Noel Augustyn (Administrative Assistant to the Chief Justice) and Richard Schickele (Staff Counsel to the United States Supreme Court).

REPORT OF THE DIRECTOR OF THE ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICE OF THE UNITED STATES COURTS

The Director of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts, L. Ralph Mecham, submitted to the Conference the Annual Report of the Director for the year ended June 30, 1988. The Conference authorized the Director to release the Annual Report immediately in preliminary form and to revise and supplement the final printed edition.

JUDICIAL BUSINESS OF THE COURTS

Mr. Mecham reported that during the year ended June 30, 1988, the number of cases appealed to the 12 regional courts of appeals rose almost seven percent to 37,524, due to increases in all sources of appeals except civil cases involving the U.S. government. Dispositions, while increasing by four percent, still did not reach the level of filings, so pending cases increased by six percent to 27,644 on June 30, 1988. Filings in the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit fell four percent to 1,296, due primarily to a decrease in Merit Systems Protection Board appeals. Dispositions declined 15 percent, but still outnumbered filings. As a consequence, the pending caseload fell six percent during the year, to 658.

In the United States district courts, the number of civil filings increased after two years of declines in filings. The year's increase, which was less than one percent, reflected a level of 239,634 new civil cases. The largest increases were in social security disability cases and recovery of defaulted student loans. The number of civil cases disposed of almost equaled filings this year, resulting in an increase in the pending caseload of less than one-half of one percent. On June 30, 1988, there were 244,242 civil cases pending in the district courts.

Criminal case filings continued the increase begun in 1981 with a three percent increase. Case filings rose to 44,585, which is an average of 78 new criminal cases for each district court judgeship. Criminal case terminations, which had been on the rise for the last seven years, decreased less than one percent this year. As a result, the pending caseload increased almost 10 percent to 27,733 on June 30, 1988.

Bankruptcy petitions filed increased almost six percent to 594,567. This is substantially less than last year's 17 percent increase and the record increase of 31 percent in 1986. Nonbusiness filings rose 10 percent this year while business filings fell by nearly 17 percent. Terminations increased over 22 percent, but fell short of filings by almost 7,000 petitions. On June 30, 1988, the pending bankruptcy caseload increased one percent over the previous year, to 815,497.

Mr. Mecham also reported that as of September 14, 1988, there were 10 vacancies among the 168 judgeship positions authorized for the United States courts of appeals, and 27 vacancies among the 575 authorized judgeship positions in the United States district courts.

REPORT OF THE DIRECTOR OF THE FEDERAL JUDICIAL CENTER

The Director of the Federal Judicial Center, Judge John C. Godbold, reported to the Conference on behalf of the Judicial Center on the following matters:

- o The Annual Report of the Center is in a new format, designed to be more readable and to serve as a better means of communicating information to the members of the Conference and to other readers.
- o Training for guideline sentencing is on hold until the Supreme Court decides the guideline sentencing case pending before it (United States v. Mistretta, 682 F. Supp. 1033 (W.D. Mo. 1988), cert. granted, 43 Cr.L. 4065, No. 87-1904, June 13, 1988); after that decision, there will be a reassessment of what additional training, if any, is needed.
- o The weighted caseload study of district courts is under way in 29 courts. A time and weighted caseload study of bankruptcy courts has been requested by Congress, and in turn requested of the Judicial Center by the Judicial Conference Committee on the Administration of the Bankruptcy System. The design of the study is completed and has been pilot tested by six judges. The first wave of testing is expected to begin in October.

- o With respect to small computers, the Judicial Center is pursuing ways to acquaint judges and their staffs with the capacity of computers obtained for in-chambers use, ways to assist judges in determining what services they want from their in-chambers computers, ways to list software available to accomplish purposes desired by judges, and ways to assist judges in their acquisition of software.

JUDICIAL PANEL ON MULTIDISTRICT LITIGATION

A written statement filed with the Conference by the Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation indicated that during the period July 1, 1987 through June 30, 1988, the Panel centralized 862 civil actions pursuant to 28 U.S.C. 1407. Of that number, 358 were transferred for coordinated or consolidated pretrial proceedings with 504 actions originally filed in the transferee districts. The Panel denied transfer of 25 actions.

Since its creation in 1968, the Panel has centralized 16,788 civil actions in pretrial proceedings in carrying out its statutory mandate.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

The Executive Committee of the Judicial Conference reported that, since the last session of the Conference in March, 1988, the Executive Committee had addressed the following matters on the Conference's behalf:

APPROPRIATIONS FOR THE FISCAL YEAR 1988

On April 15, 1988, the Executive Committee approved a spending plan for the appropriation "Salaries and Expenses" for the third quarter of the fiscal year 1988, and a revised listing of supplemental appropriations requests for certain judicial accounts. Language-only supplementals (no new appropriations) were also authorized for submission to Congress (a) to provide for reimbursement of administrative expenses of the National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986 by the United States Claims Court from the special fund established to pay judgments awarded under the Act; (b) to provide the judiciary with authority to transfer funds between the "Salaries and Expenses" appropriation for the courts and the appropriation for the Administrative Office for services performed on behalf of the courts by the Administrative Office; and (c) to provide for salary increases for the Deputy Director of the Federal Judicial Center and the circuit executives to Level IV of the Executive Schedule. The Executive Committee also agreed to implement during the fiscal year 1988 Conference-approved recommendations to establish four death penalty resource centers (subject to congressional approval of a reprogramming request) and, effective April 15, 1988, to provide for the payment under the Criminal Justice Act of $75 per hour for in- and out-of court attorney time in death penalty habeas corpus cases.

Subsequent events relating to non-CJA funding necessitated Executive Committee or Judicial Conference reconsideration of the funding levels for each of the four resource centers whose implementation had been authorized by the Executive Committee in April, 1988. Two of the centers (Mississippi and North Carolina) chose to delay their start-up dates until the fiscal year 1989 and to present revised funding requests for regular Judicial Conference consideration in September, 1988. See "Death Penalty Resource Centers", infra pp. 73-74.

On July 19, 1988, the Executive Committee approved a spending plan for the "Salaries and Expenses" appropriation for the fourth quarter of the fiscal year 1988, and approved the fourth quarter FY 1988 expenditure from the "Defender Services" appropriation of approximately $130,000 to fund the remaining two death penalty resource centers whose implementation previously had been authorized (Georgia and Tennessee), and an additional death penalty resource center (Louisiana). The $130,000 authorization was contingent upon congressional approval, subsequently granted, of a request for reprogramming of the necessary funds.

On August 24, 1988, the Executive Committee reallocated certain fourth quarter automation expenditures, and authorized the expenditure of an additional $1,700,000 in FY 1988 funds, previously intended to be carried over into the fiscal year 1989, for the purchase of Unisys computer hardware.

APPROPRIATIONS FOR THE FISCAL YEARS 1989 AND 1990

In July, 1988, in accordance with its usual practice, the Committee on the Budget compiled budget estimates for the fiscal year 1990 to include all judiciary requirements. However, taking into account congressional realities in a period of severe fiscal restraints, the Budget Committee voted to present for Judicial Conference approval an "alternative" budget, below the total level of funding requested by elements within the judiciary, to increase chances of a successful presentation of the request to the Congress.

At its August 24, 1988 meeting, the Executive Committee addressed the question of whether the Budget Committee had exceeded its jurisdictional mandate in proposing the alternative budget, and concluded that while the Budget Committee should advise the Conference on the level of appropriations that should be sought, the recommendation on where actual cuts should occur should be made by the Executive Committee, pending further consideration of the matter by the full Judicial Conference. The Executive Committee requested that the chairman of the Budget Committee meet with the chairs of the committees affected by a less than fully funded budget (the "line" chairs), to agree on an alternative submission for presentation to the Executive Committee and the Conference. Such a consensus was reached, and approved by the Executive Committee on September 13, 1988 and the Conference on September 14, 1988. See "Appropriations for the Fiscal Year 1990", infra p. 64.

The Executive Committee requested that a similar process to that followed with respect to the FY 1990 budget submission (i.e., "line" chairs and the Budget Committee fashioning a consensus for presentation to the Executive Committee) be followed for spending plan decisions on execution of the fiscal year 1989 budget.

UNITED STATES CLAIMS COURT

In March, 1988 (Conf. Rpt., p. 29), the Judicial Conference voted to refer S. 1608, 100th Congress, the "United States Claims Court Improvement Act of 1987", to the Executive Committee, for further referral to the appropriate Conference committee(s) to determine whether the legislation would allow the Claims Court to be independent of the Judicial Conference and the Administrative Office for administrative purposes without adversely affecting the availability of resources to the judiciary. See also September 1987 Session, Conf. Rpt., p. 68. The Executive Committee referred S. 1608 jointly to the Budget Committee for a review of budgetary considerations, and to the Committee on Federal-State Jurisdiction for a review of the appropriate place of the Claims Court in the federal system. See also "United States Claims Court", infra pp. 67, 76.

The Executive Committee declined a request from the Chief Judge of the Claims Court for full membership on the Judicial Conference pending final Conference resolution of this matter.

MISCELLANEOUS ACTIONS

The Executive Committee agreed to the appointment of a subcommittee of the Executive Committee to study increases in fees as a means of increasing funds available for judiciary needs; referred to the Committee on the Judicial Branch an American Bar Association resolution on evaluation of federal judges; approved a recommendation of the Committee on the Administration of the Bankruptcy System for the creation of an additional bankruptcy judgeship in the District of Alaska, and authorized transmittal of implementing legislation to the Congress; advised the Chief Justice of its consensus that, as a policy matter, circuits should have the option of electing either active or senior district judges to membership on the Judicial Conference; authorized the Administrative Office to seek amendments to leave-sharing legislation to provide for judicial branch administration of a leave-sharing program for judiciary employees; and recommended that the Chief Justice appoint an ad hoc committee to review recommendations from other Judicial Conference committees concerning the introduction of "cameras in the courtroom".

COMMITTEE ON THE ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICE

INVESTIGATIVE SERVICES BY THE ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICE

In the last few years, the Administrative Office has received an average of seven complaints per year from court employees, the General Accounting Office, and others, alleging waste, fraud, or abuse by judicial branch employees. The matters in question have been forwarded to the appropriate court of appeals or district court with an offer of agency assistance. The Director of the Administrative Office asked the Committee to consider whether this investigative assistance should continue.

On the recommendation of the Committee, the Judicial Conference authorized the Director to continue to provide investigative assistance, with available resources, to a circuit judicial council or court, upon request of the council or chief judge of the court in which the services are to be performed. The delivery of these investigative services will be under the direct supervision of the Director or Deputy Director, and does not affect any services required to be provided by statute.

INDEMNIFICATION OF JUDICIAL OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES SUED IN THEIR OFFICIAL CAPACITIES

After studying the problems of judicial liability and indemnification in the wake of Forrester v. White, 484 U.S. ___, 108 S.Ct. 538 (1988), and Westfall v. Erwin, 484 U.S. ___, 108 S.Ct. 580 (1988), the Committee recommended and the Judicial Conference approved the following guidelines for indemnification of judicial officers and employees to be published in Volume I-C of the Guide to Judiciary Policies and Procedures:

Section V

Indemnification

5.1 The Administrative Office may indemnify the defendant judiciary officer or employee for any verdict, judgment, or other monetary award which is rendered against such officer or employee, provided that the conduct giving rise to the verdict, judgment, or award was taken within the scope of employment and that such indemnification is in the interest of the United States, as determined by the Director or his or her designee.

5.2 The Administrative Office may settle or compromise a personal damages claim against a judiciary officer or employee by the payment of available funds at any time, provided the alleged conduct giving rise to the personal damages claim was taken within the scope of employment and that such settlement or compromise is in the interest of the United States, as determined by the Director or his or her designee.

5.3 Absent exceptional circumstances as determined by the Director or his or her designee, the Administrative Office will not entertain a request either to agree to indemnify or to settle a personal damages claim before entry of an adverse verdict, judgment, or award.

5.4 To request indemnification to satisfy a verdict, judgment, or award entered against an officer or employee, the officer or employee shall submit a written request, with appropriate documentation including copies of the verdict, judgment, award, or settlement proposal if on appeal, to the General Counsel, who shall thereupon submit the request with a recommended disposition to the Director for decision.

5.5 Any payment under this section either to indemnify an officer or employee or to settle a personal damages claim shall be contingent upon the existence of adequate appropriated funds available for the operations of the employing court or office.

The Conference also voted to support H.R. 4358, 100th Congress, and its successor, H.R. 4612, bills to make the Federal Tort Claims Act the exclusive remedy for common law tort claims against federal officers and employees.

COMMITTEE ON THE ADMINISTRATION OF THE BANKRUPTCY SYSTEM

INTERCIRCUIT ASSIGNMENTS OF BANKRUPTCY JUDGES

The Bankruptcy Amendments and Federal Judgeship Act of 1984 (Public Law 98-353) authorizes the temporary transfer of an active bankruptcy judge to any other judicial district upon the approval of the judicial council(s) of the circuit(s) involved. 28 U.S.C. 155(a). To facilitate the assignment of bankruptcy judges across circuit lines and to provide accurate statistical information on the effectiveness of intercourt assignments in the bankruptcy system, the Judicial Conference approved the following guidelines for intercourt assignments of bankruptcy judges:

1. A bankruptcy judge has responsibility to provide assistance, first, to the district in which the judge is appointed, second, to the other judicial districts within the judge's own circuit, and third, to judicial districts outside the judge's circuit.
2. The assignment of bankruptcy judges from their official duty stations determined by the Judicial Conference shall be on the basis of the need of the borrowing court as certified by the chief judge of the borrowing circuit.

3. The chief judge of the borrowing circuit shall be entitled to full access to all pertinent information concerning the borrowed bankruptcy judge and to discuss the assignment with the judges of the lending district or circuit.
4. A circuit lending a bankruptcy judge on an inter-circuit assignment may not concurrently borrow a bankruptcy judge from another circuit.
5. A circuit borrowing a bankruptcy judge on an inter-circuit assignment may not concurrently lend a bankruptcy judge to another circuit.
6. The "lender-borrower" rules may be relaxed in situations in which a bankruptcy judge has been disqualified, of retired bankruptcy judges who have been recalled into active service pursuant to 28 U.S.C. 155(b), or in other situations if approved by the affected circuit councils.
7. On an inter-circuit assignment, bankruptcy judges may take either a law clerk or a secretary; reimbursement for additional supporting personnel is not permitted. The judicial district to which a bankruptcy judge is temporarily assigned is expected to furnish any additional supporting personnel needed.
8. The circuit borrowing a bankruptcy judge from a district in another circuit shall forward a copy of the certificate of need, the consent of the lending circuit to inter-circuit assignment, and an order setting forth the term of the temporary assignment to the chief district and bankruptcy judges of the lending district and to the Director of the Administrative Office who shall compile statistics on inter-circuit assignments.

SELECTION AND APPOINTMENT OF BANKRUPTCY JUDGES

At its September 1984 session (Conf. Rpt., pp. 70-71), the Judicial Conference approved regulations for the selection and appointment of bankruptcy judges. At this session, to reflect a change in the law made by the Bankruptcy Judges, United States Trustees, and Family Farmer Bankruptcy Act of 1986 (Public Law 99-554), the Conference amended section 1.01 of the regulations ("Minimum Qualifications") to provide that admission to the bar of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico constitutes eligibility for service as a bankruptcy judge.

RECALL TO SERVICE OF RETIRED BANKRUPTCY JUDGES

Regulations governing the ad hoc recall to service of retired bankruptcy judges were adopted by the Judicial Conference in March, 1985 (Conf. Rpt., p. 22), and amended in September, 1987 (Conf. Rpt., p. 82).

At the suggestion of a chief circuit judge, the Judicial Conference amended section 7 of the regulations to provide that a chief circuit judge considering the recall of a retired bankruptcy judge from another circuit is permitted to have full access to all pertinent information concerning the retired bankruptcy judge, and to discuss the recall assignment with the judges of the circuit and district where the retired bankruptcy judge had served. The Conference also approved a technical amendment to section 8 of the recall regulations to correct an internal inconsistency arising from the September, 1987 amendment.

BANKRUPTCY ADMINISTRATOR REGULATIONS

On recommendation of the Committee, the Judicial Conference amended the Regulations Governing the Establishment, Duties, and Functions of Bankruptcy Administrators, approved by the Conference in September, 1987 (Conf. Rpt., p. 81), (a) to confirm that a bankruptcy administrator's oversight responsibility, as it relates to monitoring the activities of creditors' and equity security holders' committees, is not dependent on prior court authorization, except as to convening and presiding at creditors' committee meetings (section 2.01(d)(3)); and (b) to authorize the bankruptcy administrator to monitor the sufficiency of applications for interim compensation and reimbursement of actual, necessary expenses (section 2.01(i)(5)).

ADDITIONAL JUDGESHIPS

Due to unusual increases in bankruptcy filings, the Conference voted to recommend that Congress authorize one additional bankruptcy judgeship for the Western District of Texas, and to ratify the Executive Committee's recommendation that Congress authorize one additional bankruptcy judgeship for the District of Alaska. See also "Miscellaneous Actions", supra p. 57.

MEMORIAL RESOLUTION

Noting the death of Bankruptcy Judge G. William Brown, a member of the Bankruptcy Committee, the Conference adopted the following resolution:

The Judicial Conference of the United States with great sadness notes the death of Chief Bankruptcy Judge G. William Brown on August 13, 1988.

During his six years on the bench of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of Kentucky, Judge Brown was greatly admired by judges and attorneys alike. In addition to his duties as the Chief Judge of a busy court, he assumed many important responsibilities on behalf of the national bankruptcy system. He had served with uncommon distinction since 1984 on the Committee on the Administration of the Bankruptcy System. An active and dedicated member, Judge Brown was serving as Chairman of two subcommittees and was a member of two others at the time of his death. He performed additional service as a member of a special task force to improve the efficiency of the bankruptcy courts. In all these undertakings, he exhibited an unerring perceptiveness, a quiet dedication to duty, and consistently wise judgment.

Judge Brown, a native of Louisville, served for two years in the United States Marine Corps. He received both a Bachelor of Science in Law and a Juris Doctor degree from the University of Louisville. Prior to his appointment as a bankruptcy judge in 1982, Judge Brown practiced law for nineteen years, during seventeen of which he also served as an exemplary standing chapter 13 trustee.

Judge Brown was the embodiment of integrity, dedication, and excellence. On the bench, he was always in control of the courtroom but was unfailingly courteous and open minded. These qualities were recognized recently by the Louisville Bar Association which honored his contribution to the judicial system by naming him Judge of the Year for 1987.

The judges of the Judicial Conference of the United States convey their deepest sympathy to Judge Brown's children, Julie, Stephen, and Christina, and request that this resolution be sent to them in recognition of our profound respect and abiding esteem.

COMMITTEE ON THE BICENTENNIAL OF THE CONSTITUTION

PARTIAL FUNDING OF INTERNATIONAL APPELLATE JUDGES CONFERENCE

The Conference approved a proposal of the Bicentennial of the Constitution and International Appellate Judges Conference Committees, to allocate $300,000 from the judiciary's bicentennial appropriation to the International Appellate Judges Conference Committee. These funds will be used toward the expenses of the Fifth International Appellate Judges Conference, scheduled to be held in Washington, D.C., in September, 1990.

COMMITTEE ON THE BUDGET

SUPPLEMENTAL APPROPRIATIONS FOR THE FISCAL YEAR 1989

As of the Judicial Conference session on September 14, 1988, the judiciary's appropriations act for the fiscal year 1989 had not yet been approved. However, based upon House and Senate Appropriations Committee actions to date, it was apparent that appropriations would fall considerably short of the minimal funding levels identified by the Executive Committee as required to maintain current services. Accordingly, the Conference authorized the Director of the Administrative Office to submit to the Congress a request for supplemental appropriations for the fiscal year 1989 for "pay costs", and program supplementals for "Salaries and Expenses", "Defender Services", "Fees of Jurors and Commissioners", and "Court Security". The Conference also authorized the Director to amend the requests because of any new legislation, action taken by the Judicial Conference, or any other reason the Director considers necessary and appropriate.

APPROPRIATIONS FOR THE FISCAL YEAR 1990

As noted at pages 55-56 ("Appropriations for the Fiscal Years 1989 and 1990"), the Executive Committee concurred in the Budget Committee's judgment that submission of a less than fully funded budget request for the fiscal year 1990 could increase the judiciary's chances of a successful presentation of that request to the Congress. Consequently, it was agreed that both total requirements, and an "alternative" level, would be presented. The Executive Committee further agreed that the recommendation to the Conference on where actual cuts should occur should be made by the Executive Committee, pending Conference establishment of a priority-setting mechanism within the judiciary.

With regard to the FY 1990 submission, the Executive Committee requested that the Budget Committee and the "line" committee chairs affected by a less than fully funded budget, fashion an alternative submission for presentation to the Executive Committee and the Conference. Such a consensus was fashioned and, by unanimous vote, the Executive Committee and the Conference concurred in a revised alternative budget submission for the fiscal year 1990. This alternative budget would fully fund all activities at least at the fiscal year 1988 level and, in addition, include all additional positions requested but funded at 25 percent, anticipating delays in hiring. New program initiatives which are included are also funded at 25 percent of annual costs. This budget does defer requesting funds to implement an ungraded salary system for law clerks (see also "Implementing Judiciary Salary Plan Modifications in the Fiscal Year 1989", infra pp. 65-66).

The Director of the Administrative Office was authorized to amend the budget estimates because of new legislation, action taken by the Judicial Conference, or for any other reason the Director considers necessary and appropriate.

REGISTRY FEES

On the recommendations of the Budget, Bankruptcy, and Judicial Improvements Committees, the Judicial Conference amended the miscellaneous fee schedules for the appellate, district, and bankruptcy courts to assess a charge of up to three percent for the handling of registry funds, contingent upon language being included in legislation to make these fee revenues available directly for use by the judiciary.* Such charges will be assessed from interest earnings, and in accordance with a detailed fee schedule to be issued by the Director of the Administrative Office after consultation with the Clerks' Advisory Committee and the Chairmen of the Judicial Conference Committees on Judicial Improvements and Bankruptcy Administration. The Director was empowered to exempt certain registry items from any fees altogether and to assess charges at any level lower than three percent should he deem a higher charge inappropriate.

IMPLEMENTING JUDICIARY SALARY PLAN MODIFICATIONS IN THE FISCAL YEAR 1989

A. The Judicial Conference agreed to implement in the fiscal year 1989 the following Judiciary Salary Plan (JSP) modifications approved by the Conference at its September 1987 (Conf. Rpt., pp. 62-65) and March 1988 (Conf. Rpt., pp. 32-33) sessions:

- o increases to JSP-12 for principal secretaries to chief circuit judges after three years as secretary to the chief, and upon a showing of exceptional circuit-wide duties;
- o reclassification of secretarial positions in senior staff attorneys' offices to JSP-7 and JSP-9, court recorder operator positions to JSP-8, intake positions in clerks' offices to JSP-8, probation and pretrial services clerical positions to JSP-7, deputy circuit librarians to JSP-13, and magistrates' secretaries to JSP-11;
- o substitution of one year for the three-year service requirement at the next lower salary level for promotion of career law clerks to grade JSP-13, and increase in the target grade level of career law clerks to JSP-14; and
- o modification to the quality step increase plan to provide that such increases may be approved annually (provided that such increases require exceptional performance of all major duties in a sustained manner that substantially exceeds the normal requirements of the position and gives promise of continuing).

Reprogramming authority will be requested from Congress, as necessary.

B. At its March 1987 (Conf. Rpt., p. 8) and September 1987 sessions (Conf. Rpt., pp. 62-63), the Conference voted to remove the present JSP-9, JSP-11, and JSP-12 salaries for "elbow" law clerks, pro se law clerks, and staff attorneys from the graded JSP, and pay new appointees to these positions $25,400, $33,000, and $36,500, respectively, subject automatically to any future comparability increases. As is customary with Conference approval of matters requiring the expenditure of additional resources, approval was "subject to the availability of funds", and the September 1987 Conference (Conf. Rpt., p. 63) specifically noted that the ungraded system would be funded in the fiscal year 1989 "only to the extent that these increases are included in the fiscal year 1989 budget for this purpose." Since Congress will not fund the system in FY 1989, and since the projected cost of the ungraded system exceeds $13,000,000 -- an amount far too great to be absorbed, given the current budgetary constraints -- the Conference declined to implement the ungraded system during the fiscal year 1989.

BUDGET DECENTRALIZATION

In September, 1987 (Conf. Rpt., p. 77), the Judicial Conference approved implementation of a five-court, three-year pilot budget execution decentralization project. At this session, the Conference continued its expansion of the role of local courts in managing their operating budgets by approving two complementary budget decentralization proposals. The first, a pilot project authorizing appellate and district courts to formulate annual financial plans utilizing balances in annual allocations and 75 percent of the savings from positions held vacant in order to purchase equipment or make other necessary expenditures, was approved for the remainder of the fiscal year 1988 and the fiscal year 1989, for Eleventh Circuit courts only. The second proposal would allow any court organization to elect to keep a position or positions vacant for the time required to accumulate from foregone salary payments sufficient funds to purchase personal computers. Effective October 1, 1988, this "Personal Computer Purchases with Personnel Lapses Program", as approved, establishes a salary level of $20,700 to calculate the savings regardless of the grade of the unfilled position, and reserves 25 percent of the savings for a contingency fund for the judiciary's emergency requirements.

UNITED STATES CLAIMS COURT

In September, 1987 (Conf. Rpt., p. 68), the Judicial Conference determined not to object to the creation of an Article I United States Claims Court outside of the judicial branch. However, as noted supra p. 56 ("United States Claims Court"), the March 1988 Conference (Conf. Rpt., p. 29) referred S. 1608, 100th Congress, a bill intended to establish an independent Claims Court, to the Executive Committee, for further referral to determine whether the legislation would allow the Claims Court to be independent of the Judicial Conference and the Administrative Office without adversely affecting the availability of resources to the judiciary. The Executive Committee referred the legislation jointly to the Budget and Federal-State Jurisdiction Committees.

On recommendation of the Budget Committee, the Judicial Conference voted to recommend that there be no change in the United States Claims Court budget process, and that the Claims Court's budget should remain in the judiciary's "Salaries and Expenses" appropriation. The Conference also agreed that the Claims Court should have more representation in the Judicial Conference system than it has at present. See also "United States Claims Court", infra p. 76.

COMMITTEE ON CODES OF CONDUCT

The Committee on Codes of Conduct reported that since its last report, the Committee had received 32 written inquiries and issued 28 advisory responses. The Chairman also responded to 59 telephone inquiries that did not require reference to the Committee.

CODES OF CONDUCT

In September, 1986 (Conf. Rpt., pp. 66-67), the Judicial Conference revised the Code of Conduct for United States Judges to remove gender-specific language. At this session, the Conference struck additional gender-specific references in the Code for Judges and in the "Commentary" and "Compliance" sections, and made other technical changes to the Code. The Conference also approved revisions to the Codes of Conduct for Clerks of Court, Probation Officers, Circuit Executives, Staff Attorneys, and Law Clerks, to eliminate gender-specific language, and to make "practice of law" and "participation in professional organizations" provisions uniform. All Codes of Conduct will henceforth appear in a new Volume II of the Guide to Judiciary Policies and Procedures retitled, "Codes of Conduct for Judges and Judicial Employees".

Certain Judicial Conference resolutions are published in the binder containing the Code of Conduct for United States Judges (Vol. II of the Guide, noted above). The Conference rescinded resolutions "B" (relating to judges serving as officers or directors of educational, religious, civic, and charitable organizations; see October 1971 Session, Conf. Rpt., p. 68) and "G" (relating to the taking of photographs and the broadcasting of judicial proceedings; see March 1979 Session, Conf. Rpt., pp. 24-25), on the basis that such matters are more comprehensively covered by Canons 4, 5, and 3A(7) of the Code of Conduct for United States Judges.

COMMITTEE ON COURT SECURITY

ELECTRONIC MONITORING OF COURTROOMS FOR SECURITY PURPOSES

At the request of the United States Marshals Service, and on recommendation of the Committee, the Judicial Conference approved a proposal to improve judicial security substantially by allowing the Marshals Service to monitor courtroom proceedings by closed circuit video equipment. No tape recordings may be made.

The Conference considered, and declined to approve, a suggested amendment to Canon 3A(7) of the Code of Conduct for United States Judges, to add a fourth exception "for security surveillance" to the prohibition on cameras in the courtroom.

WEAPONS IN COURTROOMS

In order to improve court security, the Judicial Conference voted to recommend that each court issue an order regulating the possession of firearms or weapons in the courtroom.

COMMITTEE ON CRIMINAL LAW AND PROBATION ADMINISTRATION

HIV GUIDELINES

The Judicial Conference authorized the Committee to promulgate to probation and pretrial services officers guidelines for investigating and supervising offenders who have been exposed to the human immunodeficiency virus (HIV). The guidelines call for case plans for supervision of individuals exposed to HIV; supervision standards; instructions concerning self-disclosure of HIV infection to third parties; use of public health auspices and an individual's consent to disclose infection status to third parties; notification to the U.S. Marshal when a violator's warrant is issued and to the health care provider or the halfway house or jail facility; use of consent forms; disclosure of HIV exposure to the court during the pretrial and presentence investigation phases; dissemination of educational material on HIV; and development of an HIV resource officer in each probation and pretrial services office.

DRUG TESTING FOR PROBATIONERS

H.R. 4406, 100th Congress, would amend title 18, United States Code, to provide for mandatory random drug testing of federal probationers. On the Committee's recommendation, the Conference voted to recommend against enactment of the bill, on the ground that existing law is adequate to permit testing of probationers where there is a reasonable suspicion or previous history of drug abuse.

SENTENCING GUIDELINES REPORT

28 U.S.C. 994(o) provides that certain organizations, including the Judicial Conference, must at least annually submit to the United States Sentencing Commission "a written report commenting on the operation of the Commission's guidelines, suggesting changes in the guidelines that appear to be warranted and otherwise assessing the Commission's work." It would appear that the first of these reports is due on November 1, 1988. However, in view of the uncertainty of the constitutionality of the guidelines, and the judiciary's relatively little experience with guideline sentencing to date, the Judicial Conference endorsed the filing of a limited annual report to the Commission.

COMMITTEE ON DEFENDER SERVICES

APPOINTMENTS AND PAYMENTS

The Committee reported that in the first half of the fiscal year 1988, approximately 30,000 persons were represented under the Criminal Justice Act, compared to approximately 28,000 in the first half of the fiscal year 1987, an increase of 7.1 percent. Of these 30,000 persons represented, 16,956, or 56.5 percent, were represented by federal public and community defender organizations. This represents a 7.6 percent increase over the 15,765 cases received during the same period in the fiscal year 1987.

BUDGET REQUESTS - FEDERAL PUBLIC DEFENDER ORGANIZATIONS

The Conference approved supplemental budget requests for federal public defender organizations for the fiscal year 1989 as follows:

California, Eastern	$ 217,194
Colorado	53,513
Connecticut	34,218
Florida, Northern	155,296
Florida, Middle	231,185
Kansas	81,156

Minnesota	66,574
New Jersey	74,270
New Mexico	52,041
North Carolina, Eastern	112,234
Oregon	72,126
Pennsylvania, Middle (proposed separate organization)	114,957
Tennessee, Middle	86,088
Texas, Southern	45,425
Washington, Western/Alaska	103,109
West Virginia, Southern	18,300
 TOTAL	 $1,639,542

The Conference also approved budget requests for the fiscal year 1990 for the federal public defender organizations as follows:

Arizona	$1,442,773
California, Northern	1,894,555
California, Eastern	1,547,413
California, Central	2,593,699

Virgin Islands	762,635
Washington, Western/Alaska	1,342,900
West Virginia, Southern	310,538
 TOTAL	 $35,295,029

Observing that the Fifth Circuit Judicial Council had approved the establishment of a federal public defender organization for the Northern District of Texas, the Conference also approved funding for this proposed organization for the fiscal years 1989 and 1990 in the amounts of $973,545 and $873,037, respectively.

The Committee will entertain requests for supplemental funding if workload increases or other factors warrant reconsideration of funding needs.

*Of this amount, $101,737 is for costs associated with the establishment of a branch office in Hyattsville.

NOTE: As a result of the Conference's approval of the submission of a less than fully funded budget request for the fiscal year 1990, the Defender Services appropriations request for FY 1990 was reduced by $3,000,000. The projected savings will be generated through savings in personnel compensation and transcript costs.

GRANT REQUESTS - COMMUNITY DEFENDER ORGANIZATIONS

The Conference approved supplemental sustaining grants for the fiscal year 1989 for the following community defender organizations:

Federal Defenders of San Diego, Inc., California, Southern	$175,195
Federal Defender Program, Inc., Georgia, Northern	116,827
Legal Aid & Defender Assn. of Detroit, Federal Defender Division, Michigan, Eastern	77,746
The Legal Aid Society of New York, Federal Defender Services Unit, New York, Eastern & Southern	265,530
TOTAL	$ 635,298

The Conference also approved sustaining grants for the fiscal year 1990 for the six community defender organizations as follows:

Federal Defenders of San Diego, Inc., California, Southern	$2,372,147
Federal Defender Program, Inc., Georgia, Northern	921,560
Federal Defender Program, Inc., Illinois, Northern	1,159,793
Legal Aid & Defender Assn. of Detroit, Federal Defender Division, Michigan, Eastern	1,107,382

The Legal Aid Society of New York, Fedl. Defender Services Unit, New York, Eastern & Southern	3,731,855
---	-----------

Defender Assn. of Philadelphia, Federal Court Division, Pennsylvania, Eastern	1,061,061

-----------------	--------------

The Committee will consider requests for supplemental sustaining grants if workload increases or other factors warrant reconsideration of the approved sustaining grants.

DEATH PENALTY RESOURCE CENTERS

The Conference approved sustaining grants for the fiscal year 1989 for 12 death penalty resource center/community defender organizations as follows:

Alabama Capital Representation Resource Center [Alabama]	$235,840
Arizona Death Penalty Resource Center [Arizona]	180,000
California Appellate Project [California (N), (E), (C), & (S)]	545,693 *

The requests were approved contingent upon each organization securing the state and other non-CJA funds* which it had indicated were necessary to finance the state component of its activities, and also contingent upon final approval of all necessary CJA plan amendments. The Conference also (a) delegated to the Defender Services Committee the authority to approve revised grant requests of resource centers in amounts not to exceed the amount originally approved by the Judicial Conference for a particular fiscal year plus the amount of "start-up" costs, if any, approved for an earlier fiscal year; (b) approved an amendment to clause 16 of the "Grant and Conditions for Death Penalty Resource Center/Community Defender Organizations" concerning the expenditure of funds for expert services; and (c) approved for incorporation into the Guidelines for Administration of the Criminal Justice Act (CJA Guidelines), at paragraph 2.01 G, several measures contained in an American Bar Association resolution concerning representation in death penalty federal habeas corpus cases.

*With respect to the majority of such organizations, the proportion of CJA to non-CJA funding is approximately 60/40.

FUNDING PRIORITIES

In recognition of the possibility that the "Defender Services" appropriation might be insufficient to fund fully the anticipated level of CJA activities, the Conference established the following priorities for that appropriations account:

First priority category: Federal defender organizations, including traditional federal public and community defender organizations, as well as death penalty resource center/community defender organizations.

Second priority category: Panel attorney compensation.

Third priority category: Special alternative attorney compensation rates for death penalty cases.

ALTERNATIVE HOURLY COMPENSATION RATES

Subsection (d)(1) of the Criminal Justice Act, as amended (18 U.S.C. 3006A(d)(1)), establishes hourly maximum rates of attorney compensation of $60 per hour for time expended in court, and $40 per hour for time reasonably expended out of court. The subsection also authorizes the Judicial Conference to establish an alternative hourly compensation rate, not to exceed $75 per hour, if the Conference determines that a higher rate is justified for a circuit or for particular districts within a circuit.

Effective with services performed on or after the date funds are available for implementation, the Conference (a) established a special alternative rate of $75, for both in- and out-of-court time, for representation in federal habeas corpus death penalty cases only, at all court locations in the Northern District of Ohio, and the Middle and Southern Districts of Florida; and (b) extended the general alternative attorney compensation rate of $60 per hour for in- and out-of-court time which it had previously established for Portland, Oregon (March 1988 Session, Conf. Rpt., p. 16), to all court locations in the District of Oregon.

GUIDELINES

The Conference approved the following amendments to the Guidelines for the Administration of the Criminal Justice Act:

1. Amendments to paragraphs 2.30 and 3.06, and Appendices E and F, regarding interim payment of compensation under the CJA.
2. An amendment to paragraph 4.03 concerning federal defenders' discretionary authority to obtain investigative, expert and other services.

The Conference also disapproved a proposed amendment to paragraph 4.02 of the Guidelines recommending that the courts of appeals consider salary parity between federal public defenders and United States attorneys.

COMMITTEE ON FEDERAL-STATE JURISDICTION

UNITED STATES CLAIMS COURT

As noted supra pp. 56 and 67, the Executive Committee referred to the Federal-State Jurisdiction Committee the question of the appropriate place of the United States Claims Court in the federal system. On the Committee's recommendation, the Conference unanimously voted to recommend to the Congress that the Claims Court remain as a part of the judiciary within the policy structure of the Judicial Conference and the existing administrative structure.

The Conference deferred action until its March meeting on two specific recommendations to increase the Claims Court's participation in the Judicial Conference system, i.e., to designate the Chief Judge of the Federal Circuit to represent the Claims Court on the Conference, and to recommend that the Chief Justice consider the appointment of a Claims Court judge to the Committee on Judicial Resources.

DIVERSITY OF CITIZENSHIP JURISDICTION

28 U.S.C. 1332(a)(2) gives the district courts diversity jurisdiction over actions between citizens of a state and citizens or subjects of a foreign state; 28 U.S.C. 1332(a)(3) covers actions between citizens of different states in which citizens or subjects of a foreign state are parties.

Diversity jurisdiction exists under these provisions even though the alien may have been admitted to the United States as a permanent resident.

There is no reason why actions involving persons who are permanent residents of the United States should be heard by federal courts merely because one of them remains a citizen or subject of a foreign state or has not yet become a citizen of the United States. Accordingly, the Conference agreed to recommend that Congress amend 28 U.S.C. 1332(a) to treat a permanent resident alien as a citizen of the state of his or her domicile.

FOREIGN PRODUCT LIABILITY

S. 1996 and H.R. 3662, 100th Congress, would, among other things, enlarge the jurisdiction of the federal courts by modifying the complete diversity removal requirement of 28 U.S.C. 1441(b) to a minimal diversity removal requirement, for cases brought by a foreign claimant against a domestic defendant for injuries sustained abroad relating to the manufacture, purchase, sale, or use of a product outside the United States. Since there is no demonstrated need that justifies departure from existing diversity rules in such cases, the Conference opposed this aspect of the bills. The Conference also voted to advise Congress of its concern that the choice of law rule set out in the bills -- the law of the place of injury, in this case a foreign country -- would be impractical and difficult to administer.

PRODUCT LIABILITY

H.R. 115, 100th Congress, as reported by the House Committee on Energy and Commerce, would amend the Consumer Product Safety Act (15 U.S.C. 2051 et seq.) by adding, inter alia, provisions establishing standards for manufacturer and product seller liability, standards for punitive damages, periods of limitations, workers compensation offsets, and mandatory mediation. While most of the matters addressed in the legislation raise questions of legislative policy, some bear on judicial workload and the ability of trial judges to manage litigation, upon which comment by the judiciary would be appropriate.

On the recommendation of the Committee, the Conference agreed to recommend that Congress amend H.R. 1115 to give trial judges discretion to forego mediation in appropriate cases and to bifurcate a trial for the determination of punitive damages; to clarify that the same jury may be used in both phases of a bifurcated proceeding; and to bar removal of claims under the Act from state to federal court.

AVIATION ACCIDENTS

S. 473, 100th Congress, would regulate interstate commerce by providing for uniform standards of liability applicable to general aviation accidents. The bill, and its House companion, generally raise questions of legislative policy for the Congress. Of concern to the judiciary, however, is the fact that the legislation would extend federal jurisdiction to all general aviation accidents without reference to diversity of citizenship and without regard to the amount in controversy, and with an unlimited right of removal from state to federal court. Since this expansion is both unwarranted and unnecessary, the Conference opposed this enlargement of federal jurisdiction. In addition, to reduce the burden on federal courts and to preserve plaintiffs' choice of forum, the Conference voted to recommend that the bills be amended to bar removal of claims under the Act from state to federal court.

JURISDICTION OF THE FEDERAL CIRCUIT

The Judicial Conference endorsed an amendment to 28 U.S.C. 1292(d), proposed by the Department of Justice, to give the Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit exclusive jurisdiction to entertain an appeal from an interlocutory order of a district court granting or denying, in whole or in part, a motion to transfer an action to the United States Claims Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. 1631.

JUDICIAL REVIEW OF VETERANS CLAIMS

The Judicial Conference has consistently voted to recommend that review of decisions on veterans' claims for benefits should be conferred exclusively upon the Board of Veterans' Appeals or upon a new executive branch Article I court, noting that appellate review of the decisions of the Board of Veterans' Appeals, or a new executive branch court, by the district courts, courts of appeals and the Supreme Court, is most undesirable in view of the potential impact on the caseloads of these courts. The Conference has also noted that if Article III judicial review were deemed to be appropriate, it should be limited to constitutional issues and questions of statutory interpretation. E.g., September 1982 Session, Conf. Rpt., p. 65.

S. 2292, 100th Congress, focuses on review of regulations promulgated by the Veterans Administration and would provide review in the courts of appeals only of the validity of VA regulations governing loans, grants, or benefits. The regulations could be reviewed directly under the Administrative Procedure Act or by a claimant in a benefit proceeding; in the latter case, the validity of the regulation could be reviewed by a court of appeals, but court review would not extend to the claimant's entitlement to benefits and factual issues would not be subject to review "unless they raise a constitutional issue."

Since the approach taken in S. 2292 is consistent with prior Conference recommendations on judicial review of VA decisions in benefit cases, the Conference endorsed this legislation in principle.

EXPORT ADMINISTRATION ACT

H.R. 3973, 100th Congress, would provide for review in the Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit of certain civil penalty orders of the Secretary of Commerce under the Export Administration Act, 50 U.S.C. App. 2401-2420. Finding judicial review of such civil penalty orders to be unobjectionable, the Conference agreed to support such judicial review in principle.

REMOVAL OF ALIEN TERRORISTS

The Office of Management and Budget requested the views of the Judicial Conference on a Department of Justice draft bill to amend the immigration laws to provide a new method of removing from the United States aliens involved in terrorist acts. The bill would create a special court composed of five sitting district judges to hear proceedings for removal of alien terrorists (as defined in the bill), with multiple interlocutory appeals outside the main operation of the district court structure, to deal with a perceived special problem with international terrorists in the United States. Since no justification for this departure from traditional exclusion and deportation procedures has been demonstrated, the Conference opposed the legislation as placing an undue burden on the federal courts. The Conference also voted to recommend that OMB review the draft legislation carefully in view of the serious constitutional questions it raises.

COMMITTEE ON INTERCIRCUIT ASSIGNMENTS

The Committee on Intercircuit Assignments reported that during the period February 1, 1988, through July 31, 1988, the Committee had recommended 50 intercircuit assignments to be undertaken by 44 judges. Of this number, one was a retired associate justice of the United States Supreme Court, 10 were senior circuit judges, 13 were active circuit judges, 12 were senior district judges, five were active district judges, two were senior judges of the Court of International Trade, and two were active judges of the Court of International Trade.

Of the 50 assignments approved, 30 judges undertook 34 assignments to the courts of appeals, and 16 judges undertook 16 assignments to the district courts.

COMMITTEE ON INTERNATIONAL APPELLATE JUDGES CONFERENCE OF 1990

The International Appellate Judges Conference Committee reported on its activities in preparation for the International Appellate Judges Conference, tentatively set for September, 1990. The Committee is working in close cooperation with the Committee on the Bicentennial of the Constitution.

COMMITTEE ON THE JUDICIAL BRANCH

The Committee on the Judicial Branch reported that it has fixed its priority attention squarely upon the forthcoming review by the Commission on Executive, Legislative, and Judicial Salaries of pay rates for judges, the Congress, and Presidential appointees in the executive branch. Under the Federal Salary Act of 1967, as amended (2 U.S.C. 351, et seq.), the Commission must report to the President by December 15 as to the results of its review and its recommendation of the appropriate salary level for each office under its purview. The President then submits to Congress in early January his recommendations with respect to the exact rates of pay which he deems advisable for the covered offices and positions. These recommendations become the lawful salary rates for the affected positions unless both Houses of Congress enact a joint resolution of disapproval (which would have to be signed into law by the President) within the 30-day period commencing on the date when the President's pay recommendations are transmitted to Congress. This opportunity will mark the last occasion for meaningful salary reform (other than on an annual cost-of-living basis, if and when allowed by Congress), until 1993 at the earliest.

The Committee has been active in focusing the attention of White House officials on the judiciary's salary plight. Interested private groups, including the Federal Judges Association, the American Bar Association, the American College of Trial Lawyers, Common Cause, the corporate legal counsel, and the National Conferences of Bankruptcy Judges and of United States Magistrates, promise to be active in the effort to achieve meaningful salary relief.

COMMITTEE ON JUDICIAL ETHICS

The Committee on Judicial Ethics reported that, as of June, 1988, the Committee had received 2,220 financial disclosure reports and certifications for the calendar year 1987, including 981 reports and certifications from judicial officers and 1,239 reports and certifications from judicial employees.

COMMITTEE ON JUDICIAL IMPROVEMENTS

AUTOMATION

A. The Committee on Judicial Improvements reported that it had unanimously approved the Long Range Plan* for Automation in the United States Courts (1989 Update). In so doing, it reviewed the status of automation in the courts and the uncertainty of the current budgetary situation, and reaffirmed the following automation priorities:

1. In order to eliminate the substantial maintenance costs for the judiciary's aging DEC-10 mainframe computers, systems that off-load applications from the DEC-10s will receive top priority for development and implementation.
2. Recognizing that the Bankruptcy Court Automation Project (BANCAP) will be of inestimable value to the overburdened and paper-intensive bankruptcy courts, the second priority is the implementation of BANCAP.
3. Third in priority is implementation of other integrated case management (ICMS) systems in the appellate and district courts, and office automation to the extent funding is available. The data communications pilot project, and probation office automation follow.

In accordance with these priorities, the Committee selected courts for implementation of the CIVIL, CRIMINAL, and BANCAP systems for the fiscal year 1989 and early in the fiscal year 1990, resources permitting.

B. In 1987, the Court Administration Committee approved a comprehensive program to provide office automation at all levels of the judiciary over a three-year period, at a cost of approximately $120,000,000. Although the judiciary has sought funds to implement this program, Congress has not yet provided them. The judiciary remains fully committed to the comprehensive office automation program. However, until additional funding is forthcoming, in order to ensure that the limited available resources are disbursed equitably, the Committee adopted the following priorities for the emergency and scheduled replacement of office automation equipment:

1. Top priority for office automation equipment is the emergency replacement of word processing equipment in chambers that is certified by the judge to be failing and impossible to maintain (e.g., parts or service are unavailable, or machine cannot be kept in operation).
2. Any office automation funds available above the amount required for emergency replacement will be used to replace equipment for judges' secretaries on a machine-by-machine, court-by-court basis, starting with courts with the oldest average age of equipment in chambers.
3. Any additional funds for office automation may be used to provide one personal computer to be shared by law clerks in chambers where no government-furnished personal computers are available for law clerks.

New judicial officers, and those qualifying for purchase of office automation equipment under these priorities, will receive allocations of $6,000 if they have a single secretary, $10,000 if they have two secretaries, and $16,000 if they have three secretaries. They may purchase IBM-AT compatible personal computers from the judiciary-wide office automation contract when it is awarded in the fiscal year 1989 or, alternatively, may elect to purchase locally, so long as (a) applicable procurement statutes and regulations are complied with, and (b) the equipment meets the specifications set by the Committee. The $6,000, $10,000, and $16,000 allocations do not apply with respect to personal computers purchased under the decentralized budgeting pilot program, the Eleventh Circuit's program for management of financial resources, or the Personal Computer Purchases with Personnel Lapses program (see "Budget Decentralization", supra pp. 66-67).

RELEASE AND SALE OF COURT DATA

The judiciary generates a large volume of data which is of considerable interest and value to the bar and litigants, to the media, to scholars and government officials, to commercial enterprises, and to the general public. The courts and the Administrative Office are frequently requested to release or sell court data to individuals and organizations outside the court family, including a growing volume of requests from credit agencies and other commercial organizations desiring bankruptcy case information for purposes of resale.

On recommendation of the Committee, the Judicial Conference authorized an experimental program of electronic access for the public to court information in one or more district, bankruptcy, or appellate courts in which the experiment can be conducted at nominal cost, and delegated to the Committee the authority to establish access fees during the pendency of the program. Although existing law requires that fees collected in the experimental phase would have to be deposited into the United States Treasury, the fees charged for automated access services could defray a significant portion of the cost of providing such services, were the Congress to credit these fees to the judiciary's appropriations account in the future.

VIDEOTAPING COURT PROCEEDINGS

Under 28 U.S.C. 753, district judges may voluntarily use a variety of methods for taking the record of court proceedings, subject to guidelines promulgated by the Judicial Conference. At the request of a court that it be allowed to experiment with videotaping as a means of taking the official record, the Judicial Conference authorized an experimental program of videotaping court proceedings. Under the two-year experiment, which would include approximately six district courts (judges), in no more than two circuits, the courts of appeals would have to agree to accept as the official record on appeal a videotape in lieu of transcript or, in the alternative, the circuit must limit the production of transcript to be accepted on appeal to a very few pages. Participating judges would continue to utilize their present court reporting techniques (court reporter, electronic sound recording, etc.) during the experimental program.

The Conference designated the chair of the Committee on Judicial Improvements to seek approval of the Director of the Federal Judicial Center for the Judicial Center to design, conduct, and evaluate the experiment.

VIDEOCONFERENCING OF ARRAIGNMENTS AND HABEAS CORPUS CASES

The Committee reviewed two proposals for closed circuit television communication between federal courts and local jails, and recommended that the Judicial Conference authorize an experimental videoconferencing program. The Conference authorized the experimental use of videoconferencing of initial appearances and arraignments ("not guilty" pleas only), and of prisoner civil rights and habeas corpus cases.

Although these programs will benefit the judiciary through increased regularity and flexibility in court scheduling and reduced security risks, they will also substantially reduce prisoner transportation costs. Accordingly, the chair of the Committee on Judicial Improvements will explore the availability of funds for implementation of the pilot programs.

MISCELLANEOUS FEE SCHEDULES

In order to remedy an inadvertent omission when the miscellaneous fee schedules were comprehensively revised in 1987 (March 1987 Session, Conf. Rpt., pp. 11-17), the Conference added the following language to the miscellaneous fee schedules approved pursuant to 28 U.S.C. 1913 (courts of appeals), 1914 (district courts), 1926 (U.S. Claims Court), and 1930 (bankruptcy courts):

11. [or 12, 6, or 18, respectively] The court may charge and collect fees, commensurate with the cost of printing, for copies of the local rules of court. The court may also distribute copies of the local rules without charge.

The Conference also corrected the reference in the Language to Clarify Reopened and Converted Bankruptcy Code Cases, which follows the numbered items in the bankruptcy fee schedule, from 28 U.S.C. 1930(b) to 28 U.S.C. 1930(a).

TRAVEL REGULATIONS FOR JUSTICES AND JUDGES

In order to permit reimbursement of meal expenses incurred at a judicial officer's official station, if the meals are incidental to the judicial officer's attendance at, and necessary to full participation in, a meeting of a committee of the Judicial Conference, the Conference approved the following amendment to the travel regulations for justices and judges

(Vol. III, Chapter 15, section D.1.a.(5) of the Guide to Judiciary Policies and Procedures) (underlined language to be inserted):

- (5) A judge who is invited to attend a Circuit Judicial Conference or Judicial Conference committee meeting which is being held in the city where that judge's official station is located may be reimbursed for meals if such meals are incidental to the meeting, provided that the attendance of the judge at the meals is necessary to full participation in the business of the conference or committee meeting and that the judge is not free to partake meals elsewhere without being absent and missing essential formal discussions, lectures or speeches concerning the business of the conference or meeting. Reference to this paragraph D.1.a.(5) on any voucher claiming such meals will be considered sufficient documentation that the judge has met the criteria for payment of this item of subsistence. Under no other circumstances may judges claim subsistence at their official station.

PLACES OF HOLDING COURT

The Judicial Conference voted to support the designation of Watertown as a place of holding court for the Northern District of New York, and the deletion of Malone as a place of holding court for the same district. The Conference also agreed to support S. 2340 and H.R. 4552, 100th Congress, bills to amend 28 U.S.C. 89(b) and (c) to move three counties from the Southern District of Florida to the Middle District of Florida.

COMMITTEE ON JUDICIAL RESOURCES

ADDITIONAL JUDGESHIPS

The Judicial Conference reviewed the results of the 1988 biennial survey of judgeship needs conducted by the Committee on Judicial Resources, and its predecessor Subcommittee on Judicial Statistics, and voted to recommend the creation of 14 additional judgeships in the United States courts of appeals, and 37 additional permanent judgeships and 22 additional temporary judgeships in the United States district courts. The Conference notes that the Congress has not as yet acted on the Conference recommendations for additional judgeships resulting from the 1986 biennial survey. The recommendations which follow include all of the judgeships recommended by the Judicial Conference in 1986 for the courts of appeals. The recommendations for the district courts include 49 positions recommended by the Judicial Conference in 1986, but exclude 7 positions recommended in 1986 because the courts' recent workloads no longer support the positions or the courts have withdrawn their requests. The Conference also recommends that four positions presently authorized to serve more than one district be converted to serve a single district, that one position authorized to serve three districts be converted to serve two districts, and that six temporary judgeships be made permanent.

The Conference voted to recommend the creation of additional judgeship positions in the following United States courts of appeals:

Third Circuit	2
Fourth Circuit	4
Fifth Circuit	1
Eighth Circuit	2
Tenth Circuit	2
Eleventh Circuit	3
TOTAL	14

The Conference also voted to recommend the creation of additional permanent and temporary judgeships in the following United States district courts:

First Circuit:

Massachusetts	1 t/p*+1 temp.

Second Circuit:

Connecticut	2
New York (N)	1 temp.
New York (E)	1
New York (S)	1

Oklahoma (N)	1
Oklahoma (W)	2 + 1 temp. + 1 r/ single district + 1 r/dual district

Eleventh Circuit:

Alabama (N)	1 temp.
Florida (M)	1 + 1 temp.*

TOTAL	37 + 22 temp. + 6 temps. to be made perma- nent + 5 rovers to be redesignated.

*If, prior to enactment of judgeship legislation, the Congress should transfer three counties from the Southern to the Middle District of Florida, the recommendation would be for two additional permanent judgeships for the Middle District of Florida.

If the Congress were to eliminate diversity of citizenship jurisdiction, the request for district judgeships would be reduced from 59 (37 permanent and 22 temporary) to 13 (two permanent and 11 temporary).

FISCAL YEAR 1990 BUDGET REQUESTS FOR SUPPORTING PERSONNEL

The Judicial Conference reviewed requests for fiscal year 1990 positions for circuit executives' staffs, for staff attorney offices, and for the national court library system, and took the following actions (subject to the availability of resources):

1. Agreed to the conversion of 12 temporary JSP-11 telecommunications coordinators in the circuit executives' offices to permanent positions, one in each circuit.
2. Approved an additional secretarial position for the circuit executives in the First and Third Circuits.
3. Approved the addition of two attorneys in excess of the one-to-one ratio of staff attorneys to judgeships, to enable the Tenth Circuit to staff a preargument conference program. An additional secretarial position was also approved.
4. Approved 38 additional positions (24 at JSP-9 and 14 at JSP-5) for the national court library system.

ADDITIONAL COURT REPORTERS

The Conference approved two additional court reporter positions, one each in the Western District of New York and the Northern District of Texas.

FEDERAL EMPLOYEE SALARY OFFSET PROGRAM

The Conference was informed that the President's Council on Integrity and Efficiency had asked for the cooperation of the judiciary in identifying employees delinquent with respect to federally-insured loans and other debts (primarily student loans). Under the Debt Collection Act of 1982 (Public Law 97-365), the judiciary has procedures for offsetting the salaries of employees delinquent in debts covered by the Act. The Conference agreed to the request.

DEFERRAL OF REPAYMENT OF STUDENT LOANS

Observing that initial salary offers for top law school graduates seem to be increasing yearly, the Conference endorsed a proposal to recommend that Congress amend 20 U.S.C. 1077(a)(2)(C) to include judicial law clerks as one of the occupations for which, during service, repayment of the principal on a federally-insured educational loan is waived and only the interest is paid.

JUDICIARY SALARY PLAN MODIFICATIONS

On recommendation of the Committee, the Judicial Conference approved the following modifications to the Judiciary Salary Plan:

1. Reclassification of financial administrators from JSP-11 to JSP-12*, financial assistants from JSP-7 to JSP-8, property & procurement administrators from JSP-10 to JSP-11, property & procurement assistants from JSP-7 to JSP-8, personnel specialists from JSP-11 to JSP-12*, personnel assistants from JSP-7 to JSP-8, deputies in charge of divisional offices from JSP-13 to JSP-14*, and docket clerks presently at JSP-7 to JSP-8.
2. Reclassification of two positions as Central Violations Bureau (CVB) administrators, JSP-11, one in each of the two national CVB service centers in the Western District of Texas and the District of Colorado. CVB classifications at locations other than at the two national centers would be discontinued.

*Target grade levels meeting specific criteria; not all positions have the potential of being classified at this level.

3. Establishment of a "Save Grade and Pay" plan for certain judiciary employees whose positions are abolished and who are qualified for, and have been selected for, lower graded positions in the judiciary.*

RETIREMENT ANNUITIES FOR COURT REPORTERS

By virtue of a recent amendment to title 5 of the United States Code, as interpreted by the Office of Personnel Management, court reporters who wish to receive a retirement annuity based upon "full-time" service (as opposed to part-time service and a resulting reduction in annuity) must either (a) work a scheduled tour of duty in the courthouse of 80 hours per pay period; or (b) maintain records of the actual hours worked on federal business and work a minimum of 2,080 hours per year on that business. In order that annuities not be reduced solely due to the lack of a regularly scheduled tour of duty if the reporter is paid a full salary as fixed by the Judicial Conference, the Conference recommended a legislative change to 28 U.S.C. 753(e) to define court reporters as "full-time" employees for annuity purposes if they are paid full-time salaries.

*On October 6, 1988, the Executive Committee agreed that the plan would apply at this time only to estate administrators in the United States bankruptcy courts. At its December, 1988 meeting, the Committee on Judicial Resources will revisit the conditions and situations where the policy should apply, and make appropriate recommendations to the Conference in March, 1989.

COMMITTEE ON THE ADMINISTRATION OF THE

SALARIES OF PART-TIME MAGISTRATES

Observing that, effective October 1, 1988, the ceiling on the salary of full-time magistrates is 92 percent of the salary of a district judge, the Judicial Conference approved the following new salary structure for part-time magistrates:

Level	Amount
2	4,117
3	6,176
4	8,234
5	10,293
6	12,351
7	14,410
8	16,468
9	20,585
10	24,702
11	28,819
12	32,936
14	41,170

Magistrate positions in current salary level 2 ($2,134 per annum) will be placed in new salary level 1 ($2,264 per annum); magistrate positions in current salary levels 7, 8, 9, 10, and 13 ($9,722, $11,858, $13,992, $16,127, and $24,070 per annum, respectively) will be placed in levels 5, 6, 7, 8, and 10 of the new salary structure ($10,293, $12,351, $14,410, $16,468, and $24,702 per annum, respectively); magistrate positions in current salary levels 3, 4, 5, 6, 11, and 12 ($3,201, $4,269, $5,335, $7,588, $18,380, and $21,225 per annum, respectively) will receive a two percent cost-of-living adjustment, subject to review of the positions at future meetings of the Magistrates Committee; and the specific recommendations as to magistrate positions in former levels 14, 15, and 16 ($27,390, $31,719, and $36,250 per annum, respectively), as set forth in "Changes in Magistrate Positions", below, were adopted by the Conference as noted below. These salary changes are effective October 1, 1988, subject to the availability of funds.

CHANGES IN MAGISTRATE POSITIONS

After consideration of the report of the Committee and the recommendations of the Director of the Administrative Office, the district courts, and the judicial councils of the circuits, the Conference approved the following changes in salaries and arrangements for full-time and part-time magistrate positions. Unless otherwise indicated, these changes are to be effective when appropriated funds are available.

SECOND CIRCUIT

New York, Northern:

Increased the salary of the part-time magistrate position at Watertown from $24,070 to the new maximum salary of $41,170 per annum.

COMMITTEE ON PACIFIC TERRITORIES

The Committee on Pacific Territories reported on its activities in planning the Eighth South Pacific Judicial Conference, to be held on the Island of Kauai, Hawaii, April 30 through May 3, 1989. The tentative Conference theme is "Law and Fundamental Rights: A Pacific Perspective".

COMMITTEE ON RULES OF PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE

LOCAL RULES

The Judicial Conference authorized the Committee on Rules of Practice and Procedure to undertake a study of local rules of the district courts. That study is under way. The Committee noted, however, that there is no uniform numbering system for federal district court local rules. Since there are many advantages of such a system, e.g., to help the bar in locating rules applicable to a particular subject, and to ease the incorporation of local rules into indexing services and the Westlaw and LEXIS computer services, the Conference approved and urged each district court to adopt a Uniform Numbering System for its local rules, patterned upon the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

APPELLATE RULES

The Committee submitted to the Conference proposed amendments to Rules 4 ("Appeals as of Right - When Taken"), 26 ("Computation and Extension of Time"), and 27 ("Motions") of the Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure, together with Committee Notes explaining their purpose and intent. The Conference approved the amendments for transmission to the Supreme Court for consideration, with the recommendation that they be approved by the Court and transmitted to the Congress pursuant to law.

CRIMINAL RULES

The Committee submitted to the Conference proposed amendments to Rules 11 ("Pleas"), 32.1 ("Revocation or Modification of Probation"), and 40 ("Commitment to Another District") of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, to add appropriate references to "terms of supervised release", a new type of sentence created by the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, 18 U.S.C. 3583. The proposed amendments were accompanied by Committee Notes explaining their purpose and intent. The Conference approved the amendments for transmission to the Supreme Court for consideration, with the recommendation that they be approved by the Court and transmitted to the Congress pursuant to law.

COMMITTEE ON SPACE AND FACILITIES

COURTROOM SIZES

Under the United States Courts Design Guide, approved by the Judicial Conference in March, 1984 (Conf. Rpt., p. 8), the construction of courtrooms larger than specified standards requires Conference approval. In order to accommodate large numbers of multi-litigant and multi-defendant trials in the Southern District of New York, the Conference approved a request from the Judicial Council of the Second Circuit to permit construction of courtrooms larger than the current standards in a new courthouse in lower Manhattan.

DAY CARE CENTERS

In response to the requests of several courts for funds to join with other federal agencies in sharing the start-up costs and on-going space costs for day care centers, the Conference approved the discretionary participation of courts in the Federal Day Care Center Program, within available funding.

RESOLUTION

Noting 50 years of public service by Judge Oren Harris, the Judicial Conference adopted the following resolution:

The Judicial Conference of the United States notes with appreciation, respect and admiration fifty years of public service by

THE HONORABLE OREN HARRIS

Senior United States District Judge for the Eastern and Western Districts of Arkansas.

In his five decades of dedicated service to his Country, Judge Harris served as prosecuting attorney for the Thirteenth Judicial District of the State of Arkansas from 1936-1940, and as a member of the United States House of Representatives from the Fourth District of Arkansas from 1941-1966. During his tenure in Congress, he served this Nation with great distinction as Chairman of the Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee of the House of Representatives. Thereafter, he was appointed United States District Judge for the Eastern and Western Districts of Arkansas on October 12, 1965, and entered on duty February 3, 1966. Judge Harris served as Chief Judge for the Western District of Arkansas from February 3, 1967 to December 20, 1973. He served as the district judge representative to the Judicial Conference of the United States from the Eighth Circuit from 1971-1974; he was a member of the Executive Committee from 1972-1974; the Advisory Committee on Civil Rules from 1971-1978; the Budget Committee from 1971-1983; and the Committee on the Judicial Branch from 1979-1987. He elected senior status on February 3, 1976.

Judge Harris has made innumerable contributions to the public good, especially while a member of the United States Congress and on the federal bench. We are proud to acknowledge his long, distinguished career and ask that this Resolution be sent to him as a mark of our respect and esteem.

MEMORIAL RESOLUTIONS

Noting the death of Judge Oscar H. Davis, the Conference adopted the following resolution:

The Judicial Conference of the United States with great sadness notes the death of Circuit Judge Oscar H. Davis of the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit on June 19, 1988.

Judge Davis succumbed to a long series of illnesses over the past several years. He sat with the court regularly until the month before his death, and, even in his many periods of hospitalization and convalescence, continued to write judicial opinions. In addition to carrying a full caseload with the Federal Circuit and keeping his work current, he frequently sat as a visiting judge with the U. S. Courts of Appeals in Washington and New York. He was recently honored by the Federal Circuit Bar Association on the occasion of the fiftieth anniversary of his admission to the bar.

Judge Davis was nominated by President Kennedy for the Court of Claims in 1962, and he continued in office as a circuit judge when the Federal Circuit was created in 1982. He served in the Solicitor General's office from 1949 until his elevation to the bench, and as Acting Solicitor General in 1953 and 1956. He argued 45 cases in the Supreme Court and was counsel in 111 others.

Judge Davis was a graduate of Harvard College and Columbia University School of Law. He also was in private practice for several years, was an attorney in the Claims Division of the Department of Justice, and served as a captain in the Army Air Corps from 1942-46.

The members of the Judicial Conference of the United States convey their deepest sympathy to Judge Davis' survivors and request that this resolution be sent to them in recognition of our profound respect and abiding esteem

Noting the death of Judge J. Skelly Wright, the Conference adopted the following resolution:

With deep sadness, the United States Judicial Conference notes the death of Judge J. Skelly Wright on August 6, 1988. Judge Wright served on the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Louisiana from 1948-1962, and on the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit from 1962 to 1987, serving as its Chief Judge from 1978 to 1981. He was also a member of the Temporary Emergency Court of Appeals from 1981 to 1987, and its Chief Judge from 1982 to 1987.

Judge Wright's career spanned half a century of domestic turbulence and change. A graduate of Loyola University Law School in New Orleans, Louisiana, he practiced law in his home town for fifteen years before becoming United States Attorney for the Eastern District of Louisiana. Appointed by President Truman to the United States District Court, he won a national reputation in the early 1960s for his firm implementation of the United States Supreme Court's desegregation decisions, carried out in the face of an unparalleled campaign of personal harassment and abuse. On the Circuit bench in the District of Columbia, he wrote nearly 1,000 opinions, many involving the most fundamental issues of the time, each one reflecting his jewel-bright mind, his forthrightness, his intense preoccupation with individual justice and his boundless humanity. Never in his long judicial career did he hesitate to confront and resolve difficult questions of law or theory when necessary to assure fairness and equal protection of the law. The lowliest citizen, the weak and powerless, were his special constituency. Judge Wright's combination of careful scholarship and courageous determination to make the law a working force in the lives of ordinary people placed him in the ranks of premier jurists of our country. He decided landmark cases involving the legal rights of students consigned to educational "tracks" in urban ghetto schools, of exploited consumers and poor tenants facing eviction, of comatose patients whose relatives would deny them blood transfusions, along with the most complex administrative cases that are the daily fare of the District of Columbia Circuit. He was well known as a fast and proficient opinion writer--he never kept his colleagues or litigants waiting. During all his years on the Court, he wrote and lectured at law schools--his wise humanity a continuous delight and illumination to generations of students, his own opinions gracing the casebooks they studied.

Judge Wright was an inspiring colleague, defying pomposity or arrogance, insisting always on bringing us back to the problem at hand, to the plight of the real people in the case awaiting our verdict. A modest man, he was in Justice Brennan's words, "more embarrassed than happy with praise." Yet, in his work, he exhibited raw courage of a kind that made him a lustrous adornment to the federal bench. He will be sorely missed.

The members of the Judicial Conference convey their sympathies to Judge Wright's widow, Helen Wright, to his son James Skelly Wright, Jr., and to his sisters and brother, and ask that this resolution be sent to them as a mark of our profound respect and affection for Judge Wright.

Noting the death of Judge Luther M. Swygert, the Conference adopted the following resolution:

Senior Circuit Judge Luther M. Swygert of the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit in Chicago, Illinois was born on February 7, 1905 in Miami County, Indiana, the son of Irvin and Katharine Hoover Swygert. He died March 16, 1988 after serving as a federal judge for 45 years.

He was educated in a one-room country school for the first five grades. Judge Swygert attended the University of Notre Dame and graduated magna cum laude from its law school in 1927. He was admitted to the Indiana Bar and practiced law in Michigan City and Hammond, Indiana for four years. He described those early years as extremely difficult, saying that he was broke and nearly starving most of the time. In 1931, he was appointed deputy prosecuting attorney of Lake County, Indiana.

Soon thereafter, he married Mildred Kercher and they became the parents of two children, Robert, who died at age 13, and Michael, now a distinguished legal scholar, author and professor of law at Stetson University in St. Petersburg, Florida. In 1969, Judge Swygert's first wife died, and he married Mrs. Gertrude Pancoe.

In 1934, Judge Swygert became an Assistant United States Attorney for the Northern District of Indiana, which office he held until 1943 when President Franklin D. Roosevelt nominated him as a United States District Judge for the Northern District of Indiana. He was the first Democrat appointed to the federal bench from Indiana since the Civil War. He served as chief district judge until 1961 when President John F. Kennedy nominated him to the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit. Judge Swygert served as its chief judge from 1970 to 1975. He became senior circuit judge in July 1981, but continued to serve the Seventh Circuit as well as other courts of appeals until he became ill in 1987.

Over the years, Judge Swygert served on various committees of the Judicial Conference of the United States, including: the Committee on Uniform Admissions to District Courts and Courts of Appeals, the Committee to Study and Consider the Problem of Venue and Jurisdiction of the District Courts, the Committee on the Revision of the Laws, the Committee on Habeas Corpus and the Subcommittee on Federal Jurisdiction. He was elected to the Judicial Conference as the Seventh Circuit's District Judge Representative in 1961 and also served as Circuit Chief Judge Representative from 1970 to 1975.

Throughout his career, Judge Swygert was known for his strong, ably expressed views in support of individual civil rights. He came from a liberal family and was proud to consider himself a liberal.

He was an enthusiastic and active alumnus of his college and law school, the University of Notre Dame, and served on its law school faculty as an adjunct professor. He also served as a member of its Alumni Board of Directors and on the Board of Visitors of the Valparaiso University School of Law. In addition, he was a teacher for the National Institute for Trial Advocacy and for the Department of Justice. Judge Swygert served as the first Judge-in-Residence at Washington and Lee University School of Law. At that time he lectured, researched and wrote. In 1984, he conducted an innovative seminar entitled "Language and the Law" during the fall term of school at Valparaiso University School of Law. Judge Swygert received doctor of laws degrees from Valparaiso University in 1964, the University of Notre Dame in 1969 and Stetson University School of Law in 1982.

He was active in preserving the Indiana Dunes along the shore of Lake Michigan, which culminated in the establishment of the Indiana Dunes National Seashore Park. He loved nature and enjoyed hiking in the Dunes and other parks.

Judge Swygert was an active innovator in judicial administration. He was the first to provide written instructions to jurors to help them answer their own questions. Based on his experience in the United States Attorney's office and as a district judge, he championed a rule that required cases reversed for a new trial to be sent to a different trial judge unless the court of appeals or the lawyers representing all the parties wanted it retried by the original judge. Later, at his suggestion, the appellate panels were randomly selected. As circuit chief judge, he was always concerned about collegiality and promoting a spirit of judicial family. This included outings for his colleagues, welcoming parties for new staff, and even playing Santa Claus for the Seventh Circuit family Christmas Party.

Judge Swygert once commented that when he came to the Seventh Circuit in 1961, there were only about three hundred appeals filed a year, whereas during the following twenty-five years, the number increased eightfold. Concerning the problems spawned by such caseloads he said:

I think judges ought to have a lot of time to reflect, to let things develop . . . anything to get the subconscious and the unconscious into operation. There is pressure that defeats that very process, and we are apt to get into a mechanical, routine way of thinking. I deplore it.

Concerning the work of judging, he also said:

I think there is a similarity between the monastic kind of existence and judging. While judges can't be cloistered, there ought to be that kind of devotion and commitment to their jobs.

Concerning the work of the opinion writer, he said:

One thing that happens . . . is that once you start to write an opinion and get into it, sometimes you change your mind. I think the possibility of the writer of the opinion changing his mind is high -- much higher than the other people in agreement.

Judge Swygert once remarked that much of the happiness and lifelong satisfaction he had found in the legal profession derived from having encountered within it everyday so many stimulating minds and personalities. But Judge Swygert himself was indeed a superior example of those traits. He was a widely read, broadly educated, and genuinely cultured man. He was also one with abundant humor, compassion, and goodwill. We may well conclude by quoting Chief Judge William J. Bauer's statement when he announced Judge Swygert's death: "The bench has lost a tremendous man and the United States has lost a great jurist."

PRETERMISSION OF TERMS OF THE COURTS OF APPEALS

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. 48, the Conference approved the pretermission of terms of the following United States Courts of Appeals during the calendar year 1989: the Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit at Asheville, North Carolina; the Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit at Los Angeles, California; and the Court of Appeals for the Tenth Circuit at Wichita, Kansas and Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

FUNDING

All of the foregoing recommendations which require the expenditure of funds for implementation were approved by the Conference subject to the availability of funds, and subject to whatever priorities the Conference might establish for the use of available resources.

RELEASE OF CONFERENCE ACTION

The Conference authorized the immediate release of matters considered at this session where necessary for legislative or administrative action.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE DIRECTOR OF THE ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICE OF THE UNITED STATES COURTS
1988

TO: The Chief Justice of the United States, Chairman, and Members of the Judicial Conference of the United States

This report was prepared in accordance with Title 28, United States Code, Section 604(a)(3). It summarizes the business of the Federal courts and the activities of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts for the twelve-month period ended June 30, 1988. This report contains the following subdivisions:

- Judicial Business
- Judicial Appropriations and Personnel
- Legislation and Public Affairs
- Administrative Office Activities
- Report of Complaints and Action Taken
Under Title 28 U.S.C. Section 372(c)
- Report of Fees and Expenses Awarded Under the Equal Access to Justice Act of 1980

All references to "year" in this report apply to the twelve-month period ended June 30 of the year specified unless stated otherwise.

U.S. COURTS OF APPEALS

In 1988, appeals filings in the regional U.S. courts of appeals rose 7 percent to 37,524, continuing the rising trend reported throughout this decade. The national total represents 722 new filings per authorized three judge panel, compared to 676 last year. Filings increased in 11 of the 12 courts of appeals with 8 reporting significant increases of 5 percent or more. The District of Columbia reported the largest rise in filings (up 22 percent) due to a 57 percent jump in administrative agency appeals. Most of this increase occurred in appeals from the Federal Labor Relations Authority (up 296 cases) and the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (up 175 cases). In contrast, filings in the Second Circuit declined 2 percent due to a drop in U.S. civil appeals (down 104 cases). Summary data for appeals are provided in Tables 1 and 2. Detailed statistics by circuit appear in the B series of Appendix Tables. Additional summary data are provided in Supplemental Tables S-1 through S-7.

NOTE: Excludes the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit.

There were 32,686 appeals filed from district court decisions in 1988, an increase of 6 percent over last year. The total number of appeals from other sources (administrative agencies, bankruptcy appeals, and original proceedings) was also up this year by 11 percent or 460 cases. The most significant growth in filings occurred in appeals of criminal cases, which jumped 14 percent (752 appeals) over last year. Criminal appeals had been rising at a rate of less than 3 percent per year since 1982. One possible factor which may have contributed to this increase in appeals of criminal cases is the implementation of new sentencing guidelines which became effective November 1, 1987. There have been a large number of district court opinions which have held some guideline issues unconstitutional while others have held the guidelines constitutional. Many of these rulings have been appealed. In addition, the statute which established the Sentencing Commission and the authority for the guidelines, also provided for appeals of sentences issued under the guidelines as well as appeals of convictions. While data on the exact number of appeals of sentences are difficult to identify, there is evidence that they are responsible for some portion of the increase in criminal appeals. During the past eight months, approximately 200 appeals were reported as relating to a sentence issued under the guidelines.

*Excludes the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit.

Administrative agency appeals rose 12 percent primarily due to the increase in filings reported in the District of Columbia Circuit. (See Supplemental Table S-1.) Appeals from rulings of the district courts on petitions of state and Federal prisoners also grew substantially this year, up 9 percent to a total of 9,256. Nearly 30 percent of this increase occurred in the Third Circuit, with most of that court's growth involving petitions originating in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. Appeals from civil cases, other than prisoner petitions, increased 2 percent in 1988, while bankruptcy appeals grew 11 percent.

The number of appeals terminated this year climbed 4 percent to 35,888. Eight of the 12 courts of appeals reported higher terminations this year. As with filings, dispositions of prisoner petitions accounted for a large portion of the rise in terminations. In 1988, there were 9,156 state and Federal prisoner petitions disposed of, which was 21 percent more than last year. In contrast, dispositions of appeals of administrative agency decisions were 19 percent lower this year.

Appeals terminated on the merits increased 4 percent to 19,178, comprising 53 percent of all dispositions. Within the merits category, appeals disposed of after submission without oral argument rose 7 percent from 8,991 terminations in 1987 to 9,580 in 1988. Dispositions in this category have increased every year since 1985 and now account for half of all appeals terminated on the merits. The largest increases in appeals terminated after submission without oral argument were reported in the Third Circuit (up 312 cases) and the Fifth Circuit (up 229 cases). Appeals terminated on the merits after oral argument increased only slightly (less than 1 percent) in 1988 to 9,598 dispositions. The percentage of cases decided after oral argument varied widely among the individual courts ranging from a high of 82 percent in the Second Circuit to a low of 30 percent in the Fifth Circuit. See Supplemental Table S-2, for additional information on appeals disposed of after oral hearing, and S-3 for more data on appeals terminated on the merits.

Supplemental Table S-4 provides data on total case participations in appeals terminated on the merits. Of the 58,714 case participations reported during 1988, 83 percent were recorded by resident active circuit judges; the same percentage as a year ago. The proportion of case participations by resident senior circuit judges and by visiting judges also remained steady at 10 percent and 7 percent, respectively. Approximately half of all opinions or orders filed in cases terminated on the merits are written, unsigned and reasoned. Reasoned opinions expound on the law as applied to the facts of an individual case and explain the rationale upon which final judgment is based. Written opinions signed by an individual judge accounted for another 38 percent of all opinions or orders. Supplemental Table S-5 provides a summary, by circuit, of the type of opinion or order filed.

There were 14,012 appeals terminated procedurally during 1988, up 6 percent over last year. Procedural dispositions by judges climbed 8 percent, while procedural dispositions by court staff rose 4 percent. For appeals procedurally terminated by judges, the largest increase was in dispositions for jurisdictional defects (up 302 cases). The largest increase in procedural terminations by court staff was recorded for defaulted cases (up 350 cases). Defaults occurred because the appellant failed to prosecute the appeals in a timely fashion, failed to comply with Federal or local rules, or failed to abide by a court order.

The number of appeals pending nationwide reached 27,644 on June 30, 1988, up 6 percent from last year. All but three of the circuits reported an increase in their pending caseloads. The number of appeals pending one or more years declined more than 10 percent to 4,984, but still accounted for 18 percent of the total pending caseload. Supplemental Table S-6 provides by circuit, the length of time appeals had been pending in the courts of appeals on June 30, 1988.

Cases Under Submission

Judges of the 13 courts of appeals and the Temporary Emergency Court of Appeals reported 1,028 cases under submission over 90 days for the quarter ended June 30, 1988. This was a decrease of 135 cases or 12 percent from the 1,163 cases reported for the same quarter in 1987. Cases awaiting additional memoranda, briefs, or an opinion in another case are not included in this report. Included are cases in which the proposed opinion is being circulated to panel members for comment, or a concurring or dissenting opinion is being written. The Ninth Circuit had the largest number of cases under submission with 191 cases. Four of the courts of appeals reported an increase in the number of cases held under submission at the end of June 1988, compared to the previous year when six courts of appeals reported increases. Eight courts reported a decrease; and two courts remained constant. The greatest decrease was in the Tenth Circuit which reported 57 fewer cases than in 1987. Data for each circuit are provided in Supplemental Table S-7.

U.S. COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE FEDERAL CIRCUIT

The number of appeals filed in the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit declined 4 percent this year to 1,296 compared to 1,351 last year. Leading the decrease was a drop of 21 percent in appeals from decisions of the Merit Systems Protection Board (MSPB). Even with the drop, appeals from the MSPB accounted for more than 40 percent of the appeals filed in the court this year. Filings from all but one other source increased this year, with appeals from district courts up 22 percent to 301. Requests for writs of mandamus and other petitions for review fell from 63 last year to 36 this year.

The number of cases terminated by the court declined 15 percent this year to 1,337. This reduced level of case closings resulted from a decrease of 25 percent in terminations of MSPB appeals. Terminations still exceeded filings, therefore, the number of appeals pending in this court on June 30 dipped to 658 from 699 at the end of last year. Appendix Table G-2 contains detailed data for the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit.

U.S. DISTRICT COURTS

Civil Workload

In 1988, civil filings and civil terminations rose marginally, less than one percent compared to 1987. The number of civil cases filed and terminated declined in 1987, but this year's increases are indicative of a slight but steady turnabout. The civil pending caseload increased at a rate equal to that of last year, which was also less than one percent. Civil filings increased by 449 cases, from 239,185 in 1987 to 239,634 in 1988. There were 417 filings per authorized judgeship. The number of civil cases terminated increased by 752 cases, from 238,001 in 1987 to 238,753 in 1988. The average number of dispositions per authorized judgeship was 415. The civil pending caseload rose from 243,361 to 244,242, or 425 pending cases per authorized judgeship. Table 3 summarizes the civil workload, highlighting two of the most significant categories of civil cases, recovery of overpayments and enforcement of judgments and social security claims, from 1979 to 1988. Those two categories are discussed below. Detailed data on civil cases filed, terminated, and pending are shown in Appendix Tables C through C-6. Additional summary data are provided in Supplemental Tables S-8 through S-14.

*Figures revised slightly from last year's publication.

A breakdown of civil filings by jurisdiction reveals increases in cases involving the U.S. government as the defendant, federal question, diversity of citizenship, and local question (cases filed in the U.S. territorial courts). Only cases involving the U.S. government as a plaintiff decreased, from 42,683 to 37,728 or 12 percent. Those filed against the U.S. increased from 29,396 to 31,348, a rise of 7 percent. In total, suits involving private matters increased from 167,106 to 170,558. Nearly 60 percent of all private cases filed in 1988 cite a federal question in controversy. Federal question suits rose from 99,393 to 101,710. Matters deriving jurisdiction from diversity of citizenship increased from 67,125 to 68,224 cases, up 2 percent over last year. Table 4 is a summary of the number of civil cases filed, by jurisdiction, during each year ended June 30, 1979 through 1988.

Fluctuations in the number of filings for recovery of overpayments of veterans' benefits (VA cases), defaulted student loans, and social security disability insurance claims have determined whether the civil filings caseload will rise or fall from year to year. In 1988, VA cases decreased from 21,029 to 14,187 (33 percent). In contrast, defaulted student loan cases increased from 2,061 to 3,541 (72 percent), and social security disability cases increased from 10,035 to 11,412, or 14 percent. The combined totals of all of the cases filed in these categories comprise 42 percent of all civil cases involving the U.S. government and 12 percent of the entire civil filings caseload. Since 1982, cases involving claims for Social Security benefits and cases involving the recovery of overpayments and enforcement of judgments have accounted for 23 percent of all civil filings. These cases reached a peak level of 77,931 civil filings (28 percent of the total) in 1985 and dropped to 33,828 in 1988. Large declines in these two types of cases were responsible for the decline in total cases filed in 1986 and 1987, just as significant gains in these categories produced large increases in earlier years. Exclusive of these two case types, civil filings have increased steadily throughout the 1980's. In 1986 and 1987, when total civil filings fell significantly, filings exclusive of social security and recovery cases increased by 2 and 1 percent, respectively. Supplemental Tables S-9 and S-10 provide additional data, by district, on recovery of overpayments and enforcement of judgment filings and Social Security Act filings.

In addition to the rise in defaulted student loan cases and social security disability income claims, there was also a sizable increase in asbestos personal injury product liability cases. They increased by 2,939 filings, from 7,776 to 10,715. Even though asbestos filings increased significantly, almost one-fifth or 1,933 filings were reopened cases, with more than 1,500 reopened in the Northern District of Ohio. Other notable increases occurred in matters withdrawn from bankruptcy courts (up 845 cases to 1,441); prisoner civil rights petitions (up 705 cases to 24,421); matters related to interstate commerce (up 627 cases to 1,694); and labor suits filed under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act or ERISA (up 625 cases to 6,704).

There were significant decreases in filings for several case types. The most outstanding, aside from the drop in VA cases, were personal injury product liability excluding asbestos (from 5,478 to 4,542); negotiable instruments (from 4,265 to 3,585); and marine personal injury (from 3,641 to 3,061). Supplemental Table S-11 highlights detailed data on product liability filings in 1988. Additional information on civil filings by case type, in 1987 and 1988, is provided in Table C-2.

The rise in civil terminations from 238,001 in 1987 to 238,753 in 1988, was highlighted by increases in dispositions for asbestos product liability cases and social security disability insurance cases. Disposition activity in both areas increased from 3,369 to 7,901 cases and 9,414 to 10,673 cases, respectively. The largest decrease in terminations was in VA cases, which fell from 24,678 to 16,051. Though not as great in number, there were also significant decreases in marine contract cases (from 4,727 to 3,749); labor management relations cases (from 3,658 to 3,170); and marine personal injury cases (from 4,255 to 3,818).

The median time from filing to disposition, excluding land condemnation cases, prisoner petitions, and deportation reviews, remained constant at eight months from 1987 to 1988. The lowest median time, three months, was recorded for recovery of overpayments and diversity real property cases. Excluding those cases terminated in the U.S. territorial courts, the longest median time for any single category was 16 months for private antitrust suits.

1983 THROUGH 1988

TOTAL CIVIL CASES: 239,634

-  Other Statutory Actions
-  Torts
-  Contracts
-  Real Property

Civil cases pending as of June 30, 1988 increased from 243,361 to 244,242, less than one-half percent. The largest decreases in the pending caseload were in VA cases (from 7,378 to 5,517); personal injury product liability, excluding asbestos (from 9,769 to 8,994); and marine personal injury (from 4,848 to 4,087). Pending asbestos personal injury product liability cases increased far more than any other type, from 19,467 to 22,358. There were also significant increases in social security disability insurance cases (from 9,476 to 10,217); prisoner civil rights petitions (from 20,965 to 21,639); and habeas corpus petitions (from 8,025 to 8,580). See Supplemental Table S-12 for more information on civil cases pending by nature of suit.

The number of civil cases pending three years or more as of June 30, 1988 was 21,487, or 9 percent higher than last year. Three-year-old pending cases comprised 9 percent of the overall pending caseload. Almost one-fourth of all three-year-old pending cases were asbestos personal injury product liability suits. Such cases increased 14 percent, from 4,440 to 5,063. Other large categories included prisoner civil rights (1,917); personal injury product liability excluding asbestos (1,908); land condemnation (1,184); employment civil rights (1,004); and securities, commodities, and exchanges (1,003). More data on three-year-old pending cases are provided in Appendix Table C-6 and Supplemental Tables S-13 and S-14.

Criminal Workload

Criminal case filings continued to grow in 1988, as they have throughout the 1980's (see Table 5). Total case filings reached 44,585 this year, but the 3 percent increase was the smallest since 1984. The number of criminal filings per authorized judgeship rose to 78. Cases filed this year involved 61,119 defendants, 4 percent more than in 1987. The ratio of defendants per case remained at approximately 1.4. Detailed data by district for criminal cases and defendants can be found in the D Tables of the Appendix.

The overall increase in criminal filings this year resulted from substantial increases in several offense categories. Cases involving drug related offenses overall rose by 16 percent to 10,291. Cases involving non-prescription drugs such as heroin and cocaine rose by 17 percent while those cases related to marihuana violations increased by 13 percent. In 11 districts, filings involving non-prescription drugs comprised more than 25 percent of the courts' criminal filings. Since 1984, drug cases have risen by nearly 84 percent. Filings for immigration offenses were also up substantially this year, by 16 percent, to 1,894. More than 60 percent of these filings were in the border districts of California, Southern; Texas, Southern; Texas, Western; Florida, Southern and in Puerto Rico. Related cases involving passport fraud rose from 144 cases last year to 354 cases this year, while cases of false claims and statements increased 21 percent to 1,672. The bulk of the filings for passport fraud came from Puerto Rico, which accounted for 58 percent of these cases. Sex offenses, which represent a very small portion of the overall criminal caseload, with only 511 filings, rose 43 percent this year. Since 1984, sex offenses prosecuted in the district courts have more than tripled.

There were also several offense categories with substantial declines this year. Forgery cases declined 31 percent to 1,145, continuing the decrease reported last year. There were also 186 fewer embezzlement cases filed this year, down 8 percent to 2,067, which was contrary to last year's 11 percent growth. Cases involving postal fraud, which rose significantly last year, were lower by 21 percent in 1988. See Appendix Tables D, D-1, D-2, and D-3 for additional data on criminal filings in district courts.

Criminal case terminations had increased progressively throughout this decade. In 1988, however, total case closings fell slightly to 42,115. The majority of the case closings this year related to drug laws, drunk driving and traffic, fraud, or larceny and theft. Most (5,084) of the case dispositions for defendants charged with traffic or drunk driving violations were in Georgia, Middle (1,625); Hawaii (1,565); Virginia, Eastern (1,197) and Washington, Western (683). In each of these districts, drunk driving or traffic offense violators accounted for more than 40 percent of the terminations. Most of the terminations in Hawaii were dismissals or transfer of cases from the district court statistical system to the CVB system.

There were 52,791 defendants in the 42,115 cases closed this year. More than 81 percent (42,902) of these defendants were convicted. This conviction rate is almost identical to the rate reported last year. Guilty pleas (36,917) accounted for 86 percent of the convictions and jury verdicts accounted for almost 10 percent. (See Appendix Table D-4.) Imprisonment sentences were imposed in 52 percent of the convictions. The average term for regular prison sentences was 65.9 months. Probation sentences averaged 34 months for the 16,057 defendants who were sentenced to a term of supervision without a prison sentence. Approximately 10 percent of the defendants, mostly drunk driving and traffic violators, were fined. (See Appendix Table D-5.)

The average time from filing to disposition for all defendants whose cases were closed this year was 3.6 months. Jury trials required the greatest length of time with a median of 5.7 months, while dispositions by court trial showed a median of less than 1 month. Appendix Table D-6 provides, by district, median time from filing to disposition of a defendant's case.

Overall, the number of cases pending this year increased nearly 10 percent to 27,733 reflecting increases from 50 to 140 percent in 9 districts. Cases pending increased in 73 district courts yet decreased in 20. The overall increase resulted from the decrease in the number of cases closed this year (less than 1 percent compared with the 7 percent increase last year) coupled with a 3 percent increase in the volume of filings. There were 41,809 defendants in pending cases. Of this total, 47 percent were reported as triable. Defendants awaiting sentencing increased 26 percent this year and accounted for 15 percent of the defendants pending on June 30. The number of fugitives in cases pending was up 10 percent to 15,079 from 13,761 last year. More than a third of the defendants in cases pending were fugitives. (See Supplemental Table 16.) Appendix Table D-8 provides, by district and major offense category, the number of cases pending this year. Appendix Table D-10 provides data on the status of pending defendants in U.S. district courts.

Speedy Trial Compliance

This year, only five cases were dismissed pursuant to Speedy Trial sanctions (Title 18 USC Section 3161(a)). In Vermont, one defendant's case was dismissed during the First Interval (from arrest to indictment) with prejudice (W/P). New York, Eastern; New York, Western; Florida, Southern and California, Eastern each had one case dismissed without prejudice (W/O) during the Second Interval (from indictment to trial). The number of defendants whose cases were dismissed under the Speedy Trial sanctions decreased 15 cases or 75 percent this year from 20 cases reported in 1987.

Of the 17,599 defendants to whom Interval I applied, 96 percent were indicted or informations were filed in 30 days or less after arrest. Defendants to whom Interval II applied totaled 48,674 of which 95 percent or 46,323 defendants trial began or plead guilty in 70 days or less. (Supplemental Table 18.) Appendix Table D-11 provides by district, the number of defendants to whom Interval I or Interval II of the Speedy Trial Act applied and the number of defendants whose cases were processed in compliance with those intervals.

There are no statutory time limits (or sanctions) for Interval III, the time from conviction to sentencing. However, the Committee on the Administration of the Criminal Law of the Judicial Conference has recommended a 45 day limit for this interval. This year, of the 42,793 convictions for defendants to whom Speedy Trial applied, nearly half of the defendants were sentenced in 45 days or less. For those whose sentencing time exceeded 45 days, the median sentencing time was 66 days. The overall median for all defendants was 46 days, 4 days more than last year. Included in this sentencing period is time for study and observation, presentence report preparation or apprehension of fugitives. Appendix Table D-12 shows the median time for defendants in compliance with and exceeding the recommended 45 day sentencing period.

Trials

For the purposes of this report, a trial is considered to be a contested proceeding before a court or jury where evidence is introduced. During 1988, a total of 19,901 trials were completed by U.S.

district judges, virtually unchanged from last year. Civil trials (jury and nonjury) dropped by 626 (5 percent), but criminal trials climbed by 542 trials (8 percent), offsetting the decline in civil trials. Of the 7,365 criminal trials, 4,150 (56 percent) were tried by jury, the largest number of jury trials since 1977. The ratio of jury trials continues to rise slowly and is now 48 percent of all trials. Data on the number of civil and criminal trials completed in the U.S. district courts from 1977 through 1988 are provided in Supplemental Table S-19.

Trials lasting 4 days or more decreased during the year, dropping 4 percent from 5,137 in 1987 to 4,924 in 1988. Trials which lasted 4 to 9 days decreased by 157 and the remaining long trials (those lasting 10 to 19 days, and those 20 days and over) decreased by 38 and 18, respectively. Trials which continued for 20 days or more dropped during the year to 204 trials; more than 52 percent of these were civil trials. The majority of long trials involved drug (23 trials) and fraud offenses (32 trials). A total of 96 out of the 97 longest criminal trials were held before a jury, with New York, Southern again reporting the longest criminal trial, an extortion, racketeering, and threats case which lasted 169 days. The longest civil trial was a nonjury personal injury/product liability case which lasted 185 days.

During 1988, the overall median time interval from issue to trial in civil cases completed in the U.S. district courts remained unchanged for the eighth straight year at 14 months, with the median for nonjury trials increasing to 14 and the median for jury trials declining to 14. Detailed trials data for the U.S. district courts are provided in Appendix Tables C-7 through C-10.

Cases and Motions Under Advisement

For the quarter ended June 30, 1988, U.S. district court judges reported a total of 2,629 cases and motions under advisement over 60 days. This figure is 3 percent above the number reported for the same quarter in 1987 and does not include matters awaiting additional memoranda or briefs or cases assigned to a special master. For this quarter, 690 judges (including 156 senior judges) reported, an increase of 1 percent over the number of judges reporting for the same quarter last year. Forty-eight percent of the reporting judges had cases and motions under advisement over 60 days for an average of eight per judge.

The circuits with the largest numbers of cases and motions under advisement were the Sixth, the Seventh, and the Eleventh. As shown in Supplemental Table S-20, a total of 438 cases and motions had been held more than one year on June 30, 1988.

Weighted Filings Per Authorized Judgeship

While raw filings remained virtually the same at 467 per judgeship in 1988, weighted filings rose slightly (1 percent) and also reached 467 per judgeship. (See Supplemental Table S-21). The individual districts ranged from a low of 214 weighted filings per judgeship in Vermont to a high of 957 in Iowa, Southern. Asbestos personal injury product liability suits accounted for more than half of Iowa, Southern's weighted filings. Nationally, the overall increase in weighted filings occurred because rises in higher weighted cases such as asbestos suits (up 2,939 cases) and drug prosecutions (up 1,421 cases) more than offset declines in low weighted cases such as recovery of overpayments of veterans' benefits (down 6,842 cases).

Appendix Tables X-1 (includes all civil and criminal cases) and X-1A (excludes misdemeanor cases) provide, by district, weighted and unweighted filings per authorized judgeship. For a further discussion of the weighted caseload and its history in the Federal courts, see the 1980 Annual Report of the Director.

Petit Jurors

As shown in Table 6, total petit jury trial days declined less than 1 percent in 1988 to 44,224 after several years of increases. Contrary to this decline, the total number of juror days (which includes days serving on trials, selection days, and travel days) climbed 3 percent to 750,679. Just under 50 percent of these juror days were needed for selection of jurors. The remainder were primarily jurors who were continuing service on a previously selected jury. Of those jurors present for jury selection, 30 percent were selected while 36 percent were challenged. Nearly 34 percent of those present for jury selection were not selected or challenged. This was a slight increase over the percentage reported in 1987, but approximately the same as that reported in 1986. The not selected or challenged category includes many jurors summoned to ensure sufficient jurors for anticipated challenges which were, in fact, never exercised. The average number of jurors present for jury selection rose to almost 33 this year compared to 31 and 32 in 1987 and 1986, respectively. Table 6 provides a summary of petit juror activity for the last six years.

Appendix Table J-2 summarizes, by district, jury selection day activity during 1988. Attention continues to focus on the not selected or challenged category. Despite the overall increase in the percentage of jurors not selected or challenged, 41 districts improved (reduced) their percentage in this category. The largest improvement (27 percentage points) was reported in West Virginia, Northern because of the concentrated efforts of the courts' judges. These efforts led to the use of the multiple voir dire method of selecting jurors whenever possible; the calling of smaller panels of jurors for jury selection; and fewer last minute cancellations of jury selections, all of which improved petit juror usage. Four other districts improved their percentage in the not selected or serving category by at least 10 percentage points.

In an effort to further reduce the number of jurors not selected or challenged, many courts have enacted local rules allowing the assessment of juror costs when cases settle after prospective jurors have arrived at court. During 1988, a total of 38 districts assessed juror costs on at least one occasion. A total of $99,472 covering the costs of 2,004 jurors was returned to the general revenue funds of the U.S. Treasury.

PETIT JUROR SERVICE

Twelve Month Period Ended June 30, 1988

Note: Thirty-three people are pictured because the average number of jurors present for jury selection in 1988 was 32.7.

South Carolina reported the highest percentage of jurors selected (62 percent) due, in large part, to its extensive use of multiple voir dire. This is illustrated by the fact that out of 339 juries selected in this district, only 11 trials (3 percent) began on the same day the jury was selected. In sharp contrast, because of a large number of highly publicized trials and last minute cancellations of jury selections, New York, Southern reported the lowest percentage of jurors selected with 19 percent. Further juror data, including estimated juror expenditures, will appear in the 1988 Grand and Petit Juror Service in the U.S. District Courts report.

Grand Jurors

Grand juror activity declined for the fourth year in 1988, partly because U.S. attorneys continue to make more efficient use of the system. The number of grand juries serving declined to 764, compared to 787 serving last year. As a result, there were decreases of 2 percent in the number of sessions convened, jurors serving and hours in session. The number of cases filed by indictment in district courts dropped by 236 (1 percent), which was the first decrease since 1980. Despite these declines, the number of defendants indicted this year rose 1 percent as 3.58 defendants were indicted per session; this is the highest average since 1978. A 16 percent rise in drug cases, many of which have multiple defendants, appears to have contributed to the overall increase in defendants indicted per session. Table 7 provides a summary of grand jury activity for the last eight years.

1988.....	764	10,817	211,610	19.6	58,109	5.4	23,854	38,716	3.58

Appendix Table J-1 summarizes, by district, grand jury activity during 1988. The overall decrease in grand jury activity was due, in large part, to substantial declines in the number of sessions convened in New York, Southern (down 104 sessions) and Massachusetts (down 90 sessions). Both of these districts reported declines of more than 24 percent in the number of criminal cases filed which explains their large drop in grand jury usage. New York, Southern still recorded the most activity, however, with 929 sessions convened, 17,981 jurors in session, and 3,772 hours in session. Together, the three busiest districts in terms of the number of grand jury sessions (New York, Southern; Florida, Southern; and New York, Eastern) accounted for more than 20 percent of all the grand jury sessions convened during 1988.

Three-Judge Court Hearings

Title 28 U.S.C. Section 2284 requires that a district court of three judges be designated by the chief judge of the circuit to hear cases challenging the apportionment of congressional districts or statewide legislative bodies and other actions required by statute. Designation of a three-judge district court is often requested for cases involving voting and other civil rights issues. The number of three-judge court hearings has dropped dramatically since legislation was passed in January 1975 and in August 1976 limiting requirements for designation of three-judge courts. In 1975, there were 267 hearings, while there were only 15 hearings by three-judge district courts in 1988. This year's total represents a slight decline from the 20 hearings reported in 1987. As in prior years, the majority of hearings in 1988 involved voting rights issues. Hearings in reapportionment cases rose from one in 1987 to five in 1988. See Supplemental Table S-22 for information on hearings over the last six years.

Passport and Naturalization

The number of passport applications accepted by the U.S. district courts has followed a consistent pattern of decline for the past 18 years. The declining numbers are due to the fact that most processing of passports is done in specially designated post offices, regional passport offices and state courts. In 1988, a total of 9 district courts processed 692 passport applications. Compared to the survey of 1987, an additional 4 district courts processed passport applications; however, the total number processed was down slightly (less than 1 percent) from the 696 applications reported in the prior year. The Western District of Michigan processed 523 applications or 76 percent of all passports processed by U.S. district courts in 1988.

During the past year, the Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) continued its goal of encouraging and facilitating certification of citizenship. All U.S. district courts are designated as naturalization courts and are empowered to award U.S. citizenship. In 1988, a total of 243,039 petitions were filed for naturalization and 252,742 aliens were naturalized in the U.S. district courts. Compared to 1987, petitions for naturalization rose 11 percent (up 23,346 petitions), while the number of persons naturalized decreased by 8,143 or 3 percent.

Supplemental Table S-23 summarizes passport and naturalization statistics for selected years between 1970 and 1988. Appendix Table P-1 provides this data by district for 1988.

OTHER FEDERAL COURTS

Temporary Emergency Court of Appeals

The Temporary Emergency Court of Appeals (TECA) began operating on December 22, 1971. This court litigates all appeals from the U.S. district courts in cases arising under Section 4(e) of the Economic Stabilization Act of 1971, the Emergency Petroleum Allocation Act of 1973, the Energy Policy and Conservation Act of 1975, and the Emergency Natural Gas Act of 1977.

Although TECA's workload remained light in 1988, filings increased slightly over last year. There were 17 appeals filed during 1988 compared to only 11 appeals in 1987. In contrast, terminations dropped substantially, down 22 cases to 10 appeals. Since filings outnumbered terminations, the pending caseload nearly doubled, rising to 16 appeals on June 30, 1988.

Special Court Established Under the Regional Rail Reorganization Act of 1973

The Special Court was established by the Regional Rail Reorganization Act of 1973 (Rail Act). Under the Rail Act, the court's primary role is to determine the value of properties transferred by seven principal bankrupt railroads and numerous other transferor railroads in the Northeast and Midwest regions. The Rail Act also provides exclusive jurisdiction over certain civil actions enumerated in Section 209(e).

In August 1981, the Northeast Rail Service Act of 1981 (NRSA) was enacted as Subtitle E of Title XI of the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1981. Section 1152(a) of NRSA provides additional exclusive jurisdiction in the Special Court. A considerable amount of litigation speedily arose and, in May 1982, pursuant to Section 1152(d) of NRSA, the Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation assigned three additional judges to the Special Court to handle litigation under NRSA. In October 1986, the Conrail Privatization Act was enacted as Subtitle A of Title IV of the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1986. Subsections 4025(b) and 4033(c)(1)(A) provide additional exclusive jurisdiction in the Special Court. The court is presently divided into two panels of three judges each, with one member of the Court sitting on both panels. The General Panel exercises jurisdiction found in the Rail Act, while the Section 1152 Panel exercises jurisdiction over the cases arising under NRSA and under the Conrail Privatization Act.

In proceedings arising under its original and exclusive jurisdiction, the Special Court reported 1 case filed and 9 cases terminated during the year, leaving 18 civil actions and 8 miscellaneous matters pending as of June 30, 1988. The one new case filed during 1988 was based on jurisdiction under Section 1152(a) of NRSA. Also, all 18 civil actions pending are NRSA cases.

Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation

The Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation acted upon 862 civil actions pursuant to 28 U.S.C. Section 1407 during the twelve-month period ended June 30, 1988. The Panel transferred 358 cases originally filed in 62 different district courts to 23 transferee districts for inclusion in coordinated or consolidated pretrial proceedings with 504 actions already pending in the transferee districts. The Panel denied transfer of 44 actions.

Since creation of the Panel in 1968, there have been 16,788 civil actions centralized for pretrial proceedings. As of June 30, 1988, a total of 14,636 actions had been remanded for trial, reassigned within the transferee district or terminated in the transferee court. At the end of this year, there were 2,152 actions pending throughout 35 transferee district courts.

Supplemental tables S-24 and S-25 provide statistics on the number of cases transferred since the Panel was created, and the flow of cases into and out of the districts during the current year and cumulative since 1968. Information on specific cases may be obtained from the Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation.

U. S. Claims Court

During the year ended September 30, 1988, filings in the U.S. Claims Court dropped 6 percent (down 52 cases) to 763. Nearly all of the overall drop in filings was due to a 26 percent decline in tax suits (down 51 cases). In contrast, terminations rose 14 percent from 669 in 1987 to 764 this year. Since terminations matched the level of filings, the pending caseload remained virtually the same. A total of 1,910 complaints were pending on September 30, 1988.

The 764 complaints disposed of by the Claims Court represented 28,033 claimants and members of the class. Excluding cases in which no given amounts were claimed, the total amount claimed was $6,291,214,347. Of the cases terminated, the Claims Court rendered judgments for claimants in the sum of $93,835,366; of that total, $20,807,946 carried interest. A number of these judgments were based on settlements between the parties. Also, the Claims Court rendered judgments for the United States on counterclaims or offsets in the amount of $2,157,429. Under its non-monetary jurisdiction, the court disposed of 2 tax exempt and 14 contract cases seeking injunctive or declaratory relief. Each January, pursuant to Title 28 U.S.C. Section 791(c), the Clerk of the Claims Court transmits to the Congress a report on the business of the Court showing the names of the claimants, the nature of the claims, and the disposition thereof. Appendix Tables G-3a and G-3b provide summary data on the workload in the United States Claims Court for the year ended September 30, 1988.

U.S. Court of International Trade

During the year ended September 30, 1988, filings in the U.S. Court of International Trade declined nearly 26 percent (down 387 cases) to 1,118. Terminations dropped at a faster rate (down 70 percent) falling from 9,858 in 1987 to 2,931 in 1988. The substantial decline in terminations was concentrated in reappraisal actions which involve the value of imported goods. Reappraisal terminations dropped 89 percent from 7,996 in 1987 to 860 this year. Another 63 terminations involved protest actions which concern the classification of imported goods. All the terminated reappraisements and protests were filed prior to the Customs Court Act of 1980 (Public Law 96-417, 94 STAT. 1727) which replaced the U.S. Customs Court with the U.S. Court of International Trade. Since the passage of that Act, all filings (including what were formerly called reappraisements and protests) have been classified as "civil actions." The court terminated 2,008 civil actions

(up 262 cases) during 1988. As of September 30, 1988, there were no reappraisements or protests still pending on the court's docket. Overall, the pending caseload dropped 24 percent to 5,735. Appendix Table G-1 summarizes the workload in the Court of International Trade.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE ACT APPOINTMENTS

During 1988, there were approximately 66,560 appointments of counsel under the Criminal Justice Act. This represents an increase of 5 percent over the 63,687 appointments in 1987. Federal defenders were appointed in 36,264 of these cases (54 percent), which was a rise of 5 percent over the 34,502 appointments reported last year. Appointments of private attorneys rose 4 percent this year to 30,296. Table 8 provides a summary of representations by Federal Defender Organizations for the last five years.

*Includes appeals, probation/parole revocation hearings, and motions to correct or reduce sentence.

The overall rise in representations by Federal defender organizations resulted from 5 percent increases in both criminal representations and in assignments for representations of appeals, probation/parole revocations, and motions to correct or reduce sentence. California, Eastern reported the largest increase in case openings with 360 more cases than last year. California, Southern's 7,396 openings still represent one-fifth of all Federal defender openings nationwide. While there was a rise of 6 percent in terminations of "other" representations, the increase in criminal case closings was only 2 percent with California, Southern again reporting the largest number of closings (7,113). As a result, total cases pending in Federal defender organizations rose 15 percent to 11,252 on June 30, 1988. Pending criminal representations alone climbed 20 percent to 6,935 and accounted for 62 percent of all cases pending.

BANKRUPTCY COURTS

In 1988, petitions filed under the Bankruptcy Code rose 6 percent to 594,567. The increase this year was less dramatic than two years ago, when new cases jumped 31 percent, or last year when they rose 17 percent. Non-business cases continued to rise in 1988, but by only 10 percent compared to 19 percent last year. These cases have climbed 87 percent since 1984. In contrast, there was a significant drop in business bankruptcy petitions which fell 17 percent in 1988. This was the first decline in business bankruptcies since 1984. Tables 9 and 10 summarize bankruptcy filings for the past several years. District and chapter data are found in Appendix Tables F, F-2, and F-8.

The chief source of this year's increase in filings was Chapter 7 personal liquidations which were up 10 percent over last year. These non-business Chapter 7 cases accounted for 64 percent of all new bankruptcy filings. There were also 10 percent more Chapter 13 non-business cases filed in 1988. Business liquidations under Chapter 7 declined 18 percent, while Chapter 11 business reorganizations were lower by 15 percent this year. There were 3,099 business filings under Chapter 12, which provides debt adjustment relief to family farmers. This new Chapter of the Bankruptcy Code was in effect for only seven months last year; during that time there were 4,448 filings.

A recent increase in the number of bankruptcy judges contributed to a large increase in the number of bankruptcy petitions terminated this year. The 587,574 cases closed was 22 percent above last year's total and nearly 230,000 more than were terminated in 1986. Even with this increase, however, the number of terminations remained about 7,000 below the number of filings. This resulted in an increase of 1 percent in the number of bankruptcy petitions pending on June 30, 1988.

BANKRUPTCY PETITIONS COMMENCED 1983 THROUGH 1988

U.S. MAGISTRATES

U.S. magistrates disposed of 471,056 cases and other matters in 1988, an increase of one percent over last year. Compared to 1987, two of the four general areas where magistrates provide significant services to the U.S. district courts showed slightly increased activity ("Preliminary Proceedings" and "Additional Duties"). One area showed a marked increase in activity ("Civil Consent Cases"). In contrast, one of the areas showed a slight decrease in activity ("Trial Jurisdiction Cases"). Summary data on the workload of the magistrates for 1977 and 1983 through 1988 are provided in Table 11. Supplemental Table S-26 provides data on the number of matters disposed of by full-time and part-time magistrates. Additional data on the workload of magistrates by district are provided in Appendix Tables M-1 through M-5.

During 1988, magistrates disposed of 89,996 misdemeanor cases, a 6.2 percent decrease from the previous year. Those cases resulted in 61,121 convictions and 28,875 dismissals or acquittals. A total of 12,838 misdemeanor trials were completed, including 275 jury trials. The misdemeanor caseload included 76,578 petty offense cases and 13,418 misdemeanor cases above the level of a petty offense.

Supplemental Table S-27 shows the number of misdemeanor cases disposed of by U.S. magistrates from 1984 through 1988. Supplemental Table S-28 indicates the ten districts with the highest numbers of misdemeanor cases disposed of by magistrates during 1988.

The number of preliminary proceedings conducted by U.S. magistrates in felony cases during the year increased by 6.9 percent, from 134,091 last year to 143,352 this year. Arrest warrant applications considered by magistrates increased from 12,926 in 1987 to 14,032 in 1988; the number of requests for summonses increased from 2,057 to 2,376; and search warrant applications rose from 11,744 to 14,246, an increase of 21.3 percent over the previous year.

The number of initial appearances before magistrates in felony cases increased from 45,571 last year to 47,956 for 1988. This number includes 43,159 appearances under rules 5, 9, and 40 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, 2,349 material witness appearances and 2,448 probationer appearances. Magistrates reported 6,665 applications for review of bail determinations during the year, a 6.7 percent decrease from the 7,140 applications reported last year. Magistrates also conducted 11,935 detention hearings during the year, an increase of 22.9 percent from the 9,708 hearings reported last year.

1 Workload statistics represent a reporting rate of 95%. This figure includes vacant position months.

2 Includes both jury and non-jury trials.

Preliminary examinations conducted by magistrates increased from 6,104 in 1987 to 6,805 during 1988. This total includes 4,549 preliminary hearings held pursuant to rule 5.1 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, preliminary hearings for 914 probationers under rule 32.1, and 1,342 preliminary hearings pursuant to rule 40.

During the year, magistrates conducted 29,569 arraignments under rule 10 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, a 2.6 percent increase from the 28,827 arraignments conducted last year. Magistrates accepted returns following 4,259 separate grand jury sessions.

Magistrates also reported a total of 5,509 other duties pursuant to 28 U.S.C. Section 636(a), including 2,698 judgment debtor hearings, 837 applications for administrative inspection warrants, 825 requests for orders of entry, and 212 disposition proceedings.

In 89 of the 92 districts covered by the Federal Magistrates Act, magistrates reported 38,884 "additional duties" in criminal cases pursuant to 28 U.S.C. Section 636(b). This represents a decrease of 6.3 percent from the 41,515 such duties completed last year. Magistrates reviewed 28,709 contested pretrial motions in 80 districts, including 20,680 non-case-dispositive motions decided by written orders, 5,351 non-case-dispositive motions decided by full written opinions, and 2,678 case-dispositive motions in which they submitted proposed findings and recommendations pursuant to 28 U.S.C. Section 636(b)(1)(B). Magistrates in 59 districts conducted a total of 1,355 evidentiary hearings, and magistrates in 45 districts conducted a total of 3,462 criminal pretrial conferences or omnibus hearings during the year. Magistrates also completed 5,358 other duties in criminal cases under authority of 28 U.S.C. Section 636(b). These included final probation revocation hearings, calendar calls, voir dire of prospective jurors for felony trials, and the issuance of writs.

During 1988, magistrates in all 92 districts covered by the Federal Magistrates Act reported "additional duties" in non-prisoner civil cases pursuant to 28 U.S.C. Section 636(b) and completed 167,486 such matters during the year. This represents a 3.1 percent increase over the 162,512 matters handled last year. Magistrates in 91 districts reviewed 103,608 contested pretrial motions in civil cases including 83,735 non-case-dispositive motions decided by written orders, 12,218 non-case-dispositive motions decided by full written opinions, and 7,655 case-dispositive motions in which they submitted proposed findings and recommendations to the court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. Section 636(b)(1)(B). Magistrates in 72 districts conducted 1,784 evidentiary hearings in non-prisoner cases during the year, an increase of 16.4 percent from the 1,532 handled last year. Magistrates in 88 districts conducted 48,359 pretrial conferences in civil cases assigned to district judges, including 16,665 initial pretrials, 12,989 discovery conferences, 11,428 settlement conferences, and 7,277 final pretrial conferences. Magistrates in 46 districts completed 1,213 special master references during the year, a 19.6 percent decrease from the 1,509 references handled in 1987. The special master references included 254 E.E.O.C. (Title VII) cases, 57 cases referred to determine damages, and 172 references to determine attorney's fees. Magistrates in 79 districts handled 7,258 Social Security appeals, an increase of 8.1 percent from the 6,714 handled last year. In addition, magistrates handled 2,184 civil calendar calls. Magistrates also handled 3,080 other civil matters which included 375 I.R.S. enforcement proceedings, selected 511 civil juries for district judges, presided over 613 naturalization proceedings and completed 1,581 other civil matters assigned to them by district judges.

During 1988, magistrates in 83 districts submitted reports and recommendations in 25,464 prisoner cases, a 5.7 percent decrease from the 27,002 reports submitted last year. This year's total included 9,385 reports filed after an initial review of the petition, 14,816 following a full review, and 1,263 following a full review and evidentiary hearing by the magistrate. The prisoner caseload handled by magistrates during the year included 2,542 Federal habeas petitions, 7,103 state habeas petitions, and 15,819 civil rights cases.

During 1988, magistrates in 76 districts disposed of 5,903 civil cases with the consent of the parties pursuant to 28 U.S.C. Section 636(c). This represents an 18.8 percent increase over the 4,970 cases disposed of by magistrates last year. The 5,903 consent cases included 550 jury trials, 439 non-jury trials, and 4,914 cases terminated without a trial.

PROBATION

During 1988, the number of persons received for supervision (excluding transfers) in the Federal Probation System declined for the first time in over six years. The 37,974 persons received this year was 1 percent below the 38,486 reported in 1987 (see Table 12). The number of persons removed from supervision (excluding transfers) continued to increase, up 4 percent, to 35,992, but remained below the number received. As a result, the number of persons under supervision on June 30, 1988 rose 3 percent to 75,414. Detailed data concerning the probation workload is provided in Appendix Tables E through E-7. Summary data is provided in Tables 12 and 13, and further detail is provided in Supplemental Tables S-29 through S-31.

*Pretrial Diversion

The decrease in persons received for supervision this year was due to a policy change related to the collection of data on pretrial diversion cases. In May 1987, the collection of data on pretrial diversion cases was transferred from the probation reporting system to the pretrial services reporting system. Pretrial diversion cases have accounted for approximately 2,000 new probation cases each year in this decade through 1986. As a result of the reporting change, the number of pretrial diversion cases received by probation offices dropped to zero in 1988. Exclusive of pretrial diversion cases, the combined total of all other types of cases was up 3 percent. Persons received, exclusive of pretrial diversion cases, rose in every type of supervision except probation imposed by judges, which declined 6 percent this year to 15,799 new cases (see Table 13). The number of probationers received on terms imposed by U.S. magistrates rose slightly by 1 percent to 8,180. Persons received for supervision upon release from institutions (parole, mandatory release, military and special parole) continued to rise significantly. The total for 1988 reached 13,995, an increase of 1,800 (15 percent) over 1987. Mandatory releasees received was up by 22 percent this year to 4,148. Persons received on military parole terms rose 17 percent to 482, while the number on special parole terms increased 14 percent to 2,435. Parolees received for supervision increased 11 percent this year to 6,930. The four types of release supervision were responsible for 37 percent of all persons received this year, up from 32 percent last year.

PERSONS UNDER SUPERVISION OF THE FEDERAL PROBATION SYSTEM
BY TYPE OF SUPERVISION

TOTAL NUMBER OF PERSONS UNDER SUPERVISION: 75,414

As a result of the increase in institution releasees received, the number of persons under supervision at the end of the year reached 75,414, a 3 percent increase over the 73,432 reported last year. This upward trend occurred even with an increase of 4 percent in the total removed from supervision. The number of persons under supervision for each category increased this year except pretrial diversion. The largest increase occurred in the number of mandatory releasees, which rose by 420 (21 percent) to 2,460. The number of military parolees rose by 108 (20 percent) to 655. There were also 595 (14 percent) more persons serving special parole terms under supervision when the year ended. The number of parolees increased this year with 805 (7 percent) more persons under supervision. Probationers under supervision from U.S. magistrates rose by a small margin of 2 percent to 11,395.

The decrease in persons received for supervision imposed by judges was reflected in each length of probation term classification. (See Supplemental Table S-29). The largest decrease, 13 percent was reported in the number of probationers who received terms of 1 to 12 months. The number received with supervision terms of 13 to 24 months fell more than 2 percent and continued the reduction that began in 1985.

Supplemental Table S-30 shows that drug offenders composed more than 31 percent of all persons received for supervision this year. The 11,488 drug offenders received was 9 percent above the 10,522 received last year. Within this group, narcotic offenders accounted for 6,281 or 17 percent of all persons received this year. The number of persons received for fraud offenses accounted for 17 percent of all persons received this year.

Appendix Table E-7 provides data on the number of persons removed from each type of supervision with and without violations during the twelve month period ended June 30, 1988. The number of persons removed from supervision this year without violation rose to 24,805 from 24,213 last year. This increase was due mainly to the increase in the number of persons that successfully completed their full term of supervision. The number of persons removed to inactive status or whose terms were revoked following violation rose to 7,282 this year or 23 percent of all persons removed from supervision. This violation rate was just slightly above the 22 percent reported last year. Each type of supervision increased in the number of persons removed for violations (excluding pretrial diversion). The rate of Federal parole violations climbed to 39 percent and the rate for special parole terms climbed to 36 percent. (See Supplemental Table S-31).

Investigative Reports

Probation offices prepared 145,439 reports during the year, a 2 percent increase over the 142,356 reports prepared during the year ended June 30, 1987. (See Table 14.) All types of investigations increased (ranging from 1 to 16 percent increases) except presentence investigations, collateral reports and postsentence investigations. Pre-release investigations for Federal or military institutions were up nearly 16 percent while parole revocation reports rose almost 14 percent. Presentence investigations decreased 2 percent to 36,737 (down 563 reports), collateral reports decreased by 5 percent or 1,490, and postsentence reports for institutions were down 3 percent. These reductions appear to be linked to delays in case processing experienced during the transition to guideline sentencing.

Drug, Alcohol, and Psychiatric Aftercare

The Probation Division began providing contract treatment services to drug dependent Federal offenders on October 1, 1979. Since that time, the number of offenders receiving both contract and noncontract drug treatment has increased dramatically. From September 1984 to March 1988, the overall increase has been 103 percent. Treatment services are provided to Federal offenders by contract with local agencies, or on a noncontract basis when the probation office can provide the service, there are free local services, or the individual can pay for his own treatment. Table 15 reflects the rapid growth in drug aftercare clients during the past 6 years.

The Probation Service uses a three-phase urine collection and testing system to determine if an offender has refrained from drug usage. During fiscal year 1987, there were 296,000 urine specimens tested, and it is projected that by the end of fiscal year 1988, approximately 360,000 specimens will have been tested.

In 1987, Congress gave the Director of the Administrative Office the authority to contract for treatment services for alcohol dependent Federal offenders. There are now over 3,100 clients in treatment as part of the aftercare program. (See Table 16.)

*As of March 31, 1988

As a result of the additional alcohol treatment cases, the total number of persons in treatment as of March 31, 1988, was 14,473. Finally, Congress also granted the authority in December 1987, for the Director of the Administrative Office to contract for psychiatric and/or psychological treatment services for non-aftercare clients. This authority will undoubtedly result in further increases in the number of Federal offenders involved in aftercare treatment. Since no additional funds were allocated by Congress to pay for these services, the Probation Division is drawing from the aftercare appropriation on a limited and restricted basis in order to provide emergency mental health services.

PRETRIAL SERVICES

Pretrial services must be available in each judicial district to assist judicial officers in making appropriate bail release or detention decisions concerning criminal defendants and to supervise and monitor defendants on bail release. As of June 30, 1988, there were 89 districts submitting reports on pretrial services. The District of Columbia has pretrial services authorized under separate authority and is not included in this report.

In January of 1987, a new pretrial services (PSA) data collection information system was implemented. In May of 1987, the statistical reporting of pretrial diversion cases (deferred prosecutions) was transferred from the Federal Probation Sentencing and Supervision Information System (FPSSIS) to the Pretrial Services Act Information System (PSAIS). This change has resulted in an increase in the number of pretrial diversion cases shown in the PSAIS and a corresponding decrease in such cases reported in FPSSIS.

The total number of PSA cases activated increased to 34,749 this year, a rise of 14 percent over the 30,436 reported in 1987. This increase is mainly attributed to improvements in case reporting by newly established independent PSA offices in the districts of New Jersey; Texas, Southern; Missouri, Eastern; Arizona; New Mexico, and Florida, Middle. With the transfer of pretrial diversion cases (PTD's) from the FPSSIS to PSAIS, the number of such cases activated increased from 597 last year to 1,932 this year (up 224 percent). Appendix Table H-1 provides data for PSA and PTD cases activated.

Of the 34,749 cases activated, 30,769 (89 percent) included cases in which the defendant was interviewed by a pretrial services officer (PSO). There were 1,921 (6 percent) cases where the defendant refused to be interviewed and 2,058 (6 percent) cases in which the defendant was unavailable for interview at the time of the pretrial investigation. PSO's prepared a total of 32,839 bail reports in 1988. Of these reports, 29,004 (88 percent) were prebail reports. Another 3,373 (10 percent) consisted of postbail reports and 462 (1 percent) consisted of other types of bail reports. (See Table 17.) Appendix Table H-2 provides data on PSA interviews and types of bail reports prepared.

* Responsibility for pretrial diversion reports was transferred from the probation offices to the pretrial services offices in May 1987.

This year, there were 17,643 defendants (or 51 percent of all defendants) released at the initial hearing compared to 18,512 defendants (or 61 percent of all defendants) last year, a decrease of 5 percent in total defendants released. Of the total released, 13,611 defendants (39 percent of all defendants) were released on PSA supervision as a condition of release. This compares with the 28 percent released on PSA supervision last year. There were 8,395 defendants (24 percent) held pending a detention hearing. Another 1,945 defendants (6 percent) were detained as a result of the detention hearing held on the same day of the initial hearing. Some 3,714 defendants (11 percent) were unable to make bail at the initial hearing. There were 1,419 defendants (4 percent) temporarily detained and 750 defendants (2 percent) detained with no bail set. In addition, 798 defendants pled guilty at the initial hearing. Appendix Tables H-3 and H-6 provide data on release and detention at the initial hearing.

During 1988, there were 10,256 defendants (30 percent) whose detention hearing was held following the initial hearing. As a result of these hearings, 74 percent (7,625 defendants) were ordered detained by the judicial officer. Almost half of these defendants (49 percent or 3,745) were detained because of a risk of flight. Another 37 percent (2,799) of these defendants were detained because there was a risk of flight and they posed a danger to the community or witness. About 13 percent of these defendants were detained because of a danger to the community only and less than 2 percent because of a danger to a witness(es). Appendix Table H-4 provides data on decisions made at detention hearings for cases activated.

Appendix Table H-5 provides data on release conditions and detention status conditions imposed by judicial officers at the initial hearing for cases activated. With regard to release conditions, more than one condition of release may be imposed on a defendant at the initial hearing. On the other hand, only one condition is imposed by the judicial officer for defendants with no bail set or with detention status (i.e., detained pending a detention hearing or temporarily detained to permit revocation, deportation or exclusion). In 1988, there were 15,637 defendants (45 percent) with personal recognizance and/or unsecured bonds as at least one condition of their release. Other release conditions imposed on defendants at the initial hearing included: PSA supervision (39 percent); restrictive (26 percent); cash bonds (10 percent); surety bonds (9 percent); collateral bonds (6 percent); third party custody, restrictive, and treatment (4 percent); and treatment (2 percent). There were 1,982 defendants (6 percent) with no bail set and 18,526 defendants (53 percent) with detention status conditions imposed.

Total detention costs for 1988 were $27,729,277. Defendants detained after the initial hearing period until adjudication, accounted for 70 percent (or $19,343,704) of the total detention costs. Defendants detained from adjudication of a case to surrender or execution of a sentence accounted for 27 percent of the total detention costs and defendants detained before the initial hearing accounted for 3 percent of the total detention costs. Appendix Table H-7 provides data on detention costs for cases closed with data reported.

In 1988, a total of 21,952 cases were closed of which 15,199 defendants (69 percent) were released on bail. Of those released, 1,296 defendants (9 percent) committed a total of 1,616 bail violations. Re-arrest violations (felonies and misdemeanors) accounted for 22 percent of the total violations this year compared to the 29 percent reported last year. Defendants that failed to appear (FTA's) before a judicial officer accounted for 23 percent of total violations, while technical violations (failure to report, use of drugs and other) accounted for 55 percent. Appendix Table H-8 provides data on defendants released on bail who committed violations of release conditions.

JUDICIAL APPROPRIATIONS AND PERSONNEL

FISCAL YEAR 1988 APPROPRIATIONS AND EXPENDITURES

Once again, the Judiciary began the fiscal year without an appropriations bill enacted by the Congress. A continuing appropriations bill was approved by the President on September 30, 1987, (Public Law 100-120) which allowed the Judiciary to operate at the "current rate", i.e., the funding and personnel levels approved for fiscal year 1987. On December 22, 1987, the President signed another continuing appropriations bill (Public Law 100-202) which provided full-year funding for the Judiciary for fiscal year 1988. Section 101 of this Public Law provided funding which amounted to $1,307,448,000 for the Judiciary (exclusive of the Supreme Court). In addition, $50,532,000 in unobligated balances was carried forward into 1988 for obligation and $18,000,000 in civil filing fees and bankruptcy noticing fees were estimated to be collected and would be available to offset obligations. As a result, total spending authority for the Judiciary for 1988 was $1,375,980,000 (exclusive of the Supreme Court).

Fiscal year 1988 supplemental funding requests totalling $56,042,000 were submitted to the Congress. Included were funding for the January 1988 pay raise ($12,742,000), health benefit increases ($4,215,000), and the government's contribution to FERS ($9,923,000). Also included were program supplementals of $29,162,000 which would fully fund the Judiciary's 1988 workload. However, it is unlikely that this supplemental request will be approved by Congress. Working on that assumption, the Executive Committee of the Judicial Conference has approved fiscal year 1988 spending plans which only allow for the spending of the currently available amount of $1,375,980,000. Table 18 displays the current funding availability and the supplemental requests by account for fiscal year 1988.

FISCAL YEAR 1989 APPROPRIATION ESTIMATES AND ALLOWANCES

On June 15, 1988, the full House approved the Judiciary's appropriations bill for 1989 totalling $1,394,624,000 (exclusive of the Supreme Court). To avoid a point of order, the House excluded funding for the Court Security appropriation but set aside the 1988 amount ($40,853,000) for inclusion in the final appropriations bill. The amounts shown on Table 19 for the House Allowance include Court Security as well as an estimated $10.5 million in civil filing and bankruptcy noticing fees collections and $1.7 million in the Fees of Jurors and Commissioners account which is expected to be carried forward into 1989 for obligation. Thus, the amount made available by the House for 1989 is $1,447,677,000, an increase of 5.2 percent over total funding available in 1988, but $262,274,000 less than the amount requested.

The Senate Appropriations Committee approved an amount of $1,349,680,000 on June 20, 1988, which is $26,300,000 less than the amount available for 1988. There have been assurances from the Committee staff that the Conference Committee will increase the allowance to take into consideration the unobligated balances available in 1988 as well as the differences in the fee collections between 1988 and 1989. Considering these facts, the Judiciary can expect to receive 1989 appropriations which, when considering inflation, cost-of-living increases, rent and other mandatory increases, will still fall considerably below funding needed to maintain court operations at 1988 levels without providing for projected workload increases in 1989.

PERSONNEL

On June 30, 1988, the total number of individuals on the payroll of the Federal Judiciary (exclusive of the Supreme Court) was 20,743. This was more than 6 percent above the number on June 30, 1987. With the bankruptcy workload continuing to rise during the year, deputy clerk positions in the bankruptcy courts increased almost 12 percent over 1987 levels. Table 20 provides a detailed summary of the personnel in the Judiciary on June 30, 1987 and 1988.

Status of Article III Judgeship Positions

On June 30, 1988, there were 10 vacancies among the 168 judgeship positions authorized for the U.S. courts of appeals. There were 28 vacancies among the 575 positions authorized for the U.S. district courts. One of the positions has been vacant since it was authorized by legislation of July 1984. In addition to the active judges, there were 48 senior court of appeals judges and 178 senior district court judges providing service to the courts. (See Table 21.)

Status of Bankruptcy Judge Appointments

The Bankruptcy Amendments and Federal Judgeship Act of 1984 authorized the U.S. courts of appeals to appoint a total of 232 bankruptcy judges to 14-year terms of office. The Act extended the term of office of bankruptcy judges serving on July 10, 1984 (the date of enactment), until October 1, 1986, or four years after the judge was last appointed to office whichever is last. As of June 30, 1988, a total of 227 judges had been appointed to 14-year terms by the courts of appeals. The Supplemental Appropriations Bill for 1987 provided funding for the 52 additional bankruptcy judgeship positions which were authorized in Public Law 99-554. The process of appointing judges for these new positions is nearing completion with 49 judges having completed the appointment process as of June 30, 1988.

Status of Magistrate Positions and Appointments

The Division of Magistrates continued to administer and monitor the magistrate merit selection and appointment process to ensure compliance with the procedures mandated by the Federal Magistrate Act of 1979 and the regulations promulgated by the Judicial Conference. During the year, 54 full-time magistrates were appointed, including 25 reappointments. Of the 29 new appointments, 12 were for newly created positions. During the same period, 43 individuals were appointed to part-time magistrate positions, including 33 reappointments. Of the 10 new appointments, 2 were for newly created positions.

Among the new appointments made during the year, the average age of the full-time appointees was 43, and that of the part-time magistrates was 41. New full-time magistrates had been members of the bar for an average of 14 years; part-time magistrates averaged 15 years of bar membership. The bar membership requirement was waived for one of the part-time magistrates. Of the new full-time magistrates, 12 had been in private practice, 4 had prior experience as part-time magistrates, 1 had served as clerk of a district court, 1 had served as a state court judge, 6 had served as assistant U.S. attorneys, 4 had been attorneys with the Federal government, and 1 had been an attorney with a state government.

The Judicial Conference authorized creation of 2 new full-time positions during the year, expanding the number of full-time positions from 292 to 294. The Conference increased the number of part-time positions from 165 to 167. The number of combination clerk of court/magistrate positions was reduced from 10 to 9. Five magistrates served as recalled magistrates pursuant to Title 28 U.S.C. Section 636(h). Table 22 provides a summary of the number of magistrate positions authorized by the Judicial Conference since 1972.

LEGISLATION AND PUBLIC AFFAIRS

LEGISLATIVE ACTIONS

Sentencing Related Bills

The Sentencing Guidelines were submitted to Congress on April 13, 1987, by the Sentencing Commission and went into effect on November 1, 1987. The Judicial Conference had favored a one-year delay in the date of implementation of the guidelines. In response to our request, Senator DeConcini (D-AZ) introduced S. 1676 and Congressman Synar (D-OK) introduced H.R. 3307, both of which would have delayed implementation of the guidelines for one year. H.R. 3307 as reported by the House Judiciary Committee was amended to provide for a nine-month delay. This bill was brought to the House floor on October 6, 1987, and defeated 231-183, thus killing efforts to extend the implementation date of the guidelines.

After the defeat of H.R. 3307, miscellaneous amendments approved by the Judicial Conference and relating to sentencing were transmitted to Congress. The amendments included the elimination of guidelines for petty offenses, the specific provision authorizing appointment of counsel for a violation of supervised release for those financially unable to obtain adequate representation, the procedure for appellate review of a sentence imposed by a magistrate and the addition of psychiatric aftercare to the aftercare program. These amendments were incorporated into S. 1822, making miscellaneous changes in the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984. On December 7, 1987, the legislation was signed into law (Pub. L. No. 100-182; 101 Stat. 1266).

Fine Collection

On December 11, 1987, the President signed the Criminal Fine Improvement Act of 1987, a bill which made miscellaneous changes in Title 18 related to fine collection (Pub. L. No. 100-185; 101 Stat. 1279). The Act included authorization for the Director of the Administrative Office to establish procedures and mechanisms for the receipt of fines, the redefinition of petty offense, modification or remission of a fine by government petition only, authorization for the Judicial Branch to receive and disburse restitution payment, and other matters related to the imposition of a fine.

Race to the Courthouse

The Congress has considered legislation for a number of years to deal with forum shopping problems associated with judicial review of administrative agency decisions. Under the then existing law, the judicial forum for review of such decisions was in the U. S. court of appeals in which a petition for review was first filed. The result was a chaotic race to the courthouse by the parties as each attempted to obtain review in a forum deemed the most favorable. Congress enacted a bill to provide for a random selection process to be administered by the Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation to designate the reviewing court in those instances where petitions for review were filed in more than one court of appeals within a specified time. The President signed the bill on January 8, 1988 (Public Law No. 100-236).

Mandatory Supreme Court Jurisdiction

Public Law 100-352 was signed by the President on June 27, 1988. The law effectively eliminates the mandatory jurisdiction of the U.S. Supreme Court, replacing the same with certiorari jurisdiction. The remaining fragment of mandatory jurisdiction concerns appeals from three-judge district courts, a rather infrequent event. The passage of this legislation completes a process begun with the Evarts Act in 1891, by which the Supreme Court has gradually been given control over its own docket.

Salary Adjustment Developments

The Administrative Office is closely following the prospects for adjustment in the compensation of Federal judges and judicial officers. These prospects are proceeding on two distinct tracks.

First, the Commission on Executive, Legislative and Judicial Salaries, which is empaneled every four years and includes two appointees by the Chief Justice of the United States, will come into being on October 1, 1988, with a mandate to report to the President by December 15 on its recommendations for adjustment in the salaries of senior-level Federal officials, including justices and judges. Under the Federal Salary Act of 1967, as amended, the President will then submit with his budget message in early 1989 any recommendations to Congress which he sees fit to make with respect to these pay levels, based upon the Salary Commission's report. Such recommendations become effective as the legal rates of pay for the affected offices as of the first pay period commencing 30 days after submission of the President's recommendations, unless Congress enacts and the President signs a joint resolution disapproving or modifying his recommendations.

The Judicial Conference Committee on the Judicial Branch, which advises the Conference on matters of judicial compensation and benefits, is preparing its submission to the Salary Commission in support of judicial pay increases. Since 1968-1969, when the Federal Salary Act adjustment mechanism was first implemented, the salaries of Federal judges have actually decreased in purchasing power because of their failure to keep pace with inflation over this 20-year period. The last adjustment in judicial pay levels, implemented on March 1, 1987, pursuant to the 1985 Federal Salary Act amendments, resulted in only modest salary increases and failed to close the gap between these pay levels and the escalating cost-of-living.

Apart from Salary Commission review under the Federal Salary Act, adjustments in judicial pay may also occur, when affirmatively ratified by Congress, by operation of the Executive Salary Cost-of-Living Adjustment Act, 28 U.S.C. Section 461. This mechanism is geared specifically to annual increases in the cost-of-living. Congressional approval for judges to receive whatever increase results to General Schedule employees as of January 1, 1989, under 5 U.S.C. Section 5305 is contained in the Judiciary Appropriation Act, 1989, H.R. 4728, as passed by both House and Senate. Nevertheless, as of this report date, it was uncertain whether Congress would allow any such adjustment to operate with respect to salaries above the $72,500 "pay cap" for level V of the Executive Schedule. The Senate amended the Treasury, Postal Service, and General Government Appropriation Act, 1989, H.R. 4775, to authorize a four percent cost-of-living increase to all affected Federal officers and employees except Members of Congress. Nevertheless, H.R. 4775 as passed by the House failed to authorize such increase in any pay level above $72,500. Deliberations were proceeding in conference between the Senate and House of Representatives as of the closing date for this report.

Meanwhile, progress was made this year on salary improvement for certain judicial officers. In the continuing appropriations resolution for fiscal year 1988, H.J. Res. 395, provision was made to amend Title 28, United States Code, to fix salaries of U. S. bankruptcy judges at 92 percent of a district judge's salary and to designate this same 92 percent level as the statutory maximum for full-time U. S. magistrates, subject to the administrative fixing of their actual rates by the Judicial Conference.

These increases in bankruptcy judge and magistrate pay were to become effective on October 1, 1988. This same resolution also raised the pay ceiling for the Administrative Office's Deputy Director and three additional positions from level V to level IV of the Executive Schedule.

The Judicial Conference, in accord with its position adopted in September 1987, continues to press for a similar upgrading of salary levels for circuit executives, the Deputy Director of the Federal Judicial Center, and three remaining Administrative Office positions. Provisions to accomplish this goal have been included in H.R. 4807 as reported by the House Judiciary Committee on August 2, 1988. Generally, similar provisions are included or expected to be included in S. 1482, the Senate counterpart to H.R. 4807. In addition, parallel efforts are being made to enact these provisions in appropriations bills. Final action is hoped for near the end of the 100th Congress.

Childhood Vaccine

Public Law 100-203 was signed by the President on December 22, 1987, and included provisions which had the effect of removing the new Childhood Vaccine jurisdiction from the U. S. district courts and placing it in the U. S. Claims Court. Such placement, it was thought, would avoid certain Constitutional questions inherent in the original legislation and would provide a central forum for development of this new area of the law.

LEGISLATIVE PROPOSALS

Bankruptcy Judge and Magistrate Retirement

On March 3, 1988, the Senate approved S. 1630. That bill would provide a new retirement system for magistrates and bankruptcy judges whereby those judicial officers at age 65 and after fourteen years of service would receive a pension equal to the salary of the office at the time they left it. The bill as passed by the Senate does not require a contribution. On July 11, 1988, the House amended S. 1630 to include the provisions of a somewhat different House proposal. The House bill would require a 3 percent contribution for 15 years. It would provide that the pension of a judicial officer would be reduced by 2 percent for every year under age 65 the person was at the time they left office. It would allow full vesting only after fifteen years. It is expected that the differences will be resolved and that the bill will be passed this Congress.

Judicial Branch Improvements Act of 1987

The Judicial Branch Improvements Act of 1987 was transmitted to Congress on behalf of the Judicial Conference on May 7, 1987. This so-called "housekeeping" bill consisted of 6 titles and over 25 separate proposals of the Judicial Conference. It was the vehicle to place before Congress a substantial part of the Judicial Conference's legislative program. The Judicial Conference's proposals were introduced in the Senate by Senator Heflin as S. 1482. Congressman Kastenmeier introduced his own version of an omnibus judicial improvements bill as H.R. 3152, which contained a substantial number of the Conference's proposals, as well as some new provisions.

Hearings on this omnibus judicial improvements "housekeeping" bill have been completed in both the Senate and the House Committees on the Judiciary. All extant Judicial Conference positions deemed appropriate for an omnibus bill through the March 1988 meeting have been presented to both Judiciary Committees for consideration in the context of this legislation.

On May 12, 1988, the House Judiciary Subcommittee on Courts, Civil Liberties, and the Administration of Justice reported a bill that was subsequently introduced as H.R. 4807. This legislation was pending at the Full House Judiciary Committee level at the close of the reporting period. With the exception of a few minor points, H.R. 4807 adopts a broad range of proposals consistent with Judicial Conference positions, including titles on the Rules Enabling Acts (title I), arbitration (title II), jurisdictional reform, including elimination of diversity jurisdiction (title III), Federal Judicial Center amendments (title IV), abolition of the Temporary Emergency Court of Appeals (title V), amendments relating to the jurisdiction of the Federal Circuit (title VI), State Justice Institute amendments (title VII), court interpreter amendments (title VIII), jury selection and service amendments (title IX), and some fifteen miscellaneous provisions (title X).

At the end of this reporting period, the Senate Subcommittee on Courts and Administrative Practice was in the final stage of preparations to consider S. 1482 and appropriate Judicial Conference recommendations adopted at its September 1987 and March 1988 meetings. It is anticipated that the Senate will adopt a number of Conference recommendations not included in H.R. 4807; for example, repeal of section 140 of Public Law 97-92 barring annual cost-of-living adjustments in pay for Federal judges except as specifically authorized by Congress; provisions for experimental jury selection procedures; exemption of bankruptcy judges and magistrates from the Leave Act; and travel reimbursement for non-judicial officers and employees. While the content of a final version is not settled at this point, it is anticipated that action will be completed on an omnibus judicial improvements bill this Congress.

Judgeship Bill

Legislation authorizing the creation of 56 new district court judgeships and 13 court of appeals judgeships was submitted to the Congress in March of 1987. However, the Judiciary Committee Chairmen in both houses declined to introduce the legislation. With a presidential election year imminent in which the incumbent could not be a candidate, and given that the Congress was controlled by the Democrats and the White House by the Republicans, judgeship legislation never had a realistic chance of passage.

Federal Court Study Act

Three bills -- S. 951, H.R. 1929; and H.R. 3227 -- are pending in the 100th Congress that would create a commission to study various aspects of the Federal courts. S. 951 and H.R. 1929 as introduced were substantially the same bills and proposed a broad based inquiry into the operation of the Federal courts and their inter-relationship with the state court systems. S. 951 has been reported by the Senate Committee on the Judiciary and was pending on the Senate calendar at the end of the reporting period. Amendments were adopted by the Judiciary Committee to conform the bill to recommendations of the Judicial Conference to deal with concerns that the activities of the Commission might interfere with the ongoing operation of the courts. As reported, S. 951 is supported by the Judicial Conference.

H.R. 3227, introduced by Congressman Rodino, is a narrower bill that focuses solely on the effective operation of the Federal courts. The Judicial Conference has voted to endorse this legislation if it is amended to provide for appointment of an appropriate number of Commission members from the Federal Judiciary by the Chief Justice. No action had been taken on H.R. 3227 in the House Committee on the Judiciary at the end of this reporting period.

Voir Dire by Attorneys

S. 953 and S. 954, introduced by Senator Heflin, would amend the Federal civil and criminal rules of procedure to require the U. S. district courts in single party cases to permit the attorneys for the plaintiff and defendant a minimum of 30 minutes each to conduct an oral examination of the prospective jury; in multiple party cases, each side must be given 10 additional minutes for each additional party, except that the total time required to be allowed shall not exceed one hour per side. Similar legislation has been introduced in the House by Congressman Buechner (H.R. 3461 and H.R. 3462). Hearings were held in the Senate Committee on the Judiciary on July 15, 1987, with a representative of the Judicial Conference testifying in opposition.

Attorney voir dire continues to be a matter of substantial interest to Senator Heflin even though he had not actively moved to process his bill as of July 1, 1988. Judicially led efforts to improve voir dire, including appropriate participation by attorneys, are ongoing.

Diversity of Citizenship Jurisdiction Amendments

A number of proposals relating to diversity of citizenship jurisdiction have been considered this Congress.

First, a significant proposal to use a "minimal" diversity concept to consolidate and bring into Federal court claims arising out of a major single-event mass disaster was approved by the Judicial Conference in its March 1988 meeting. Subsequently, the proposal was adopted by the House Judiciary Subcommittee on Courts, Civil Liberties, and the Administration of Justice as a part of an omnibus judicial improvements package. It was pending before the full House Judiciary Committee in H.R. 4807 at the end of the reporting period.

Second, Congressman Kastenmeier's omnibus judicial improvements legislation introduced in August 1987 (H.R. 3152) contained provisions to reduce the scope of diversity jurisdiction by raising the jurisdictional amount from $10,000 to $50,000; by redefining corporate citizenship to include any State in which the corporation does business; and by providing that representative parties shall be deemed to be citizens of the State of the represented individual, e.g., a deceased, infant, or incompetent. The Judicial Conference supported each of these proposals to reduce diversity jurisdiction, except it recommended an objective standard that a corporation be deemed a citizen of any State in which it is licensed or otherwise registered to do business. On May 12, 1988, the House Judiciary Subcommittee on Courts, Civil Liberties, and the Administration of Justice adopted an amendment to eliminate diversity of citizenship jurisdiction, except in very limited circumstances. The bill as amended by the Subcommittee was subsequently introduced in the House as H.R. 4807 and was pending in the full House Committee on the Judiciary at the end of the reporting period.

The only issues pending in the Senate concerning diversity are the $50,000 jurisdictional amount and the representative parties proposal. These two recommendations are not controversial and may be included in any Senate version of the omnibus judicial improvements bill.

Judicial Office Building

The 99th Congress authorized a study to be made by the Architect of the Capitol, in consultation with the Chief Justice, to find the most cost effective development plan for the construction of a judicial office building near Union Station in Washington, D.C. Legislation sponsored by Senator Moynihan (D-NY) to authorize the building and provide for the construction to begin passed the Senate on June 7, 1988 (S. 1934). Hearings have been completed on the subject in the House Committee on Public Works and Transportation, which is expected to complete action on the bill in August 1988. Final congressional action is expected before the end of the 100th Congress. No appropriated funds will be required since the bill calls for a modified lease-purchase arrangement.

Bankruptcy Judgeships

The House Judiciary Committee reported legislation on June 28, 1988, which would add bankruptcy judgeships to Alaska, Colorado, Kansas, Eastern Kentucky and Eastern Texas. On June 16, the Senate Appropriations Committee had amended legislation to include new bankruptcy judgeships for Alaska, Arizona and Colorado. The Judicial Conference had requested the additional judgeships in Alaska, Colorado and Eastern Texas.

Judicial Review of Veterans' Claims for Benefits

Veterans currently lack the right to appeal to the Federal Courts, denials of claims for benefits by the Veterans Administration Board of Veterans Appeals. Legislation to provide for judicial review of denials of veterans' claims for benefits has been introduced in both houses since 1975. This bill has passed the Senate on four occasions, but has never passed the House. The current bill that embraces judicial review of veteran appeals is S. 11, introduced by Senator Cranston (D-CA).

The Judicial Conference has consistently opposed the legislation for the last 25 years and has also recommended that, if review is provided, initial review should be to an Executive Branch entity, with any further appellate review in the courts limited to Constitutional issues and statutory interpretations. It is estimated that approximately 4,000 new cases would be filed in the courts in the first year if the legislation were enacted as presently drafted. S. 11 was considered by the full Senate on July 11, 1988, and passed the Senate by a vote of 86-11.

Chairman Montgomery (D-MS) of the House Committee on Veterans' Affairs, is opposed to judicial review of veterans' claims for benefits. In the past, he has held off pressure for action. Hearings in the House are tentatively scheduled for September. Representatives of the Judicial Conference have been invited to testify.

Anti-Drug Abuse

Various bills were under consideration in the summer of 1988 concerning drug abuse. These bills would include substantial resources for the Judicial Branch to deal with what would be expected to be a significant increase in cases. Resources were also included in these bills for an enhanced aftercare program run through probation offices.

Rule of Eighty

Bills were introduced in both houses which would permit Article III judges to take senior status when their age was at least 60 and their age and years of service equaled 80 or more. The leadership of both Judiciary subcommittees with jurisdiction over the legislation promised hearings in the summer of 1988.

PUBLIC AFFAIRS ACTIVITIES

A full scale internal and external public affairs program was in operation in 1988 within the Office of Legislative and Public Affairs. Internally, the office published "Congressional News", a newsletter on the affairs of Congress that impact on the Judiciary; provided courts and senior Administrative Office staff with advice on media relations; supplied monthly judicial vacancy status reports to the courts; reviewed Administrative Office publications; and monitored media coverage of court-related issues.

Externally, the office responded to written and oral public information and media inquiries concerning the Judiciary and Judicial Conference; issued press releases in connection with Judicial Conference-sponsored testimony before Congress; handled media relations for semi-annual appearances and contacts for court officials; and performed public speaking duties.

In 1988-89, the office intends to expand and fine-tune its internal and external communications. In doing so, the office expects to respond more directly to the needs of the Judiciary, media and public.

ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICE ACTIVITIES

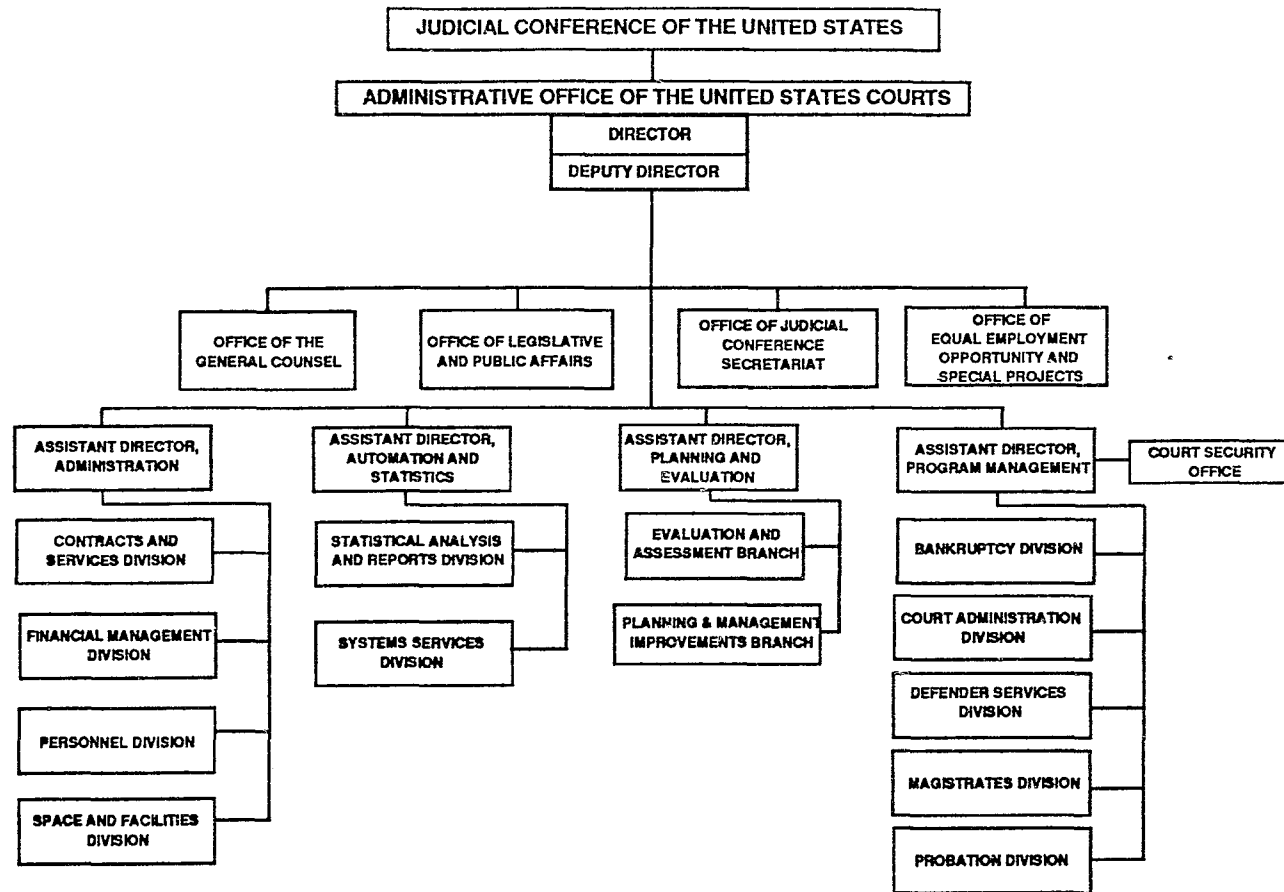

MISSION AND RESOURCES

The Judicial Conference Committee on the Administrative Office held its first meeting on January 28 and 29, 1988. The Director briefed the Committee on the purpose, structure, and goals of the Administrative Office. He summarized the mission of the Office as being to provide support and services to the Federal courts, and to implement the policies of the Judicial Conference. He cited goals for the Administrative Office including improving service performance and quality, modernizing both the agency and court management systems and planning capabilities, improving communication with judicial officers and staff, decentralizing appropriate operating functions, and eliminating regulatory impediments to effective court management.

The Director stated that, although the responsibilities of the Administrative Office are increasing in scope and complexity, the resultant workload requirements have been met mostly by greater efficiency and not by additional resources. In 1983, each Administrative Office employee supported about 29 court employees. In 1988, 34 court employees were supported by each Administrative Office employee, an increase of 17 percent. In 1983, the Administrative Office budget was 3 percent of the Judiciary's budget. Assuming approval of the requested 1988 supplemental appropriation, the percentage would have fallen to 2.5. In terms of personnel, the Administrative Office staff was 3.5 percent of the Judiciary total in 1983, but only 2.8 percent in 1988. Mr. Mecham noted a number of steps taken to redirect resources to fund essential programs. Among them have been strict limitations on travel, purchase of supplies, equipment, and training, and a freeze on hiring new employees. Seventy vacancies have necessarily gone unfilled since early spring of 1988. These actions have put a strain on program performance. Although current efforts to redirect existing resources have been successful, in the long term, support to the courts will suffer unless solutions to the resource shortage are found.

CHANGES TO THE ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICE ORGANIZATION

During the last year, there have been several changes in the organization of the Administrative Office. The most significant of these changes are highlighted below. The current organization chart for the Agency is provided on the following page.

AO authorized organization, June 1968

Office of the Judicial Conference Secretariat

Pursuant to Title 28, Section 331 of the United States Code, the fundamental purpose of the Judicial Conference is to make policy with regard to the administration of the United States courts. In September 1987, based on a comprehensive study of the Conference, its committee network and responsibilities, the committee structure was changed. Several committees were continued; some were combined and new committees were created, resulting in twenty-one committees and four advisory committees to address and advise the Conference on a wide variety of subjects dealing with court administration.

The expanded role of the Executive Committee, as the "senior executive arm" of the Conference, and the demands for better organization, more openness and support to the Conference and its committees, led the Director, as Secretary to the Judicial Conference, to establish the Office of the Judicial Conference Secretariat in October 1987. The Secretariat coordinates administrative support to the Chief Justice, the Conference itself, and the Executive Committee, and insures that quality staff support is provided to all other Conference committees and activities as needed.

The Chief Justice has sole authority to make committee appointments. To assist him in carrying out this responsibility, the Conference directed that a survey be distributed throughout the Judiciary asking judges to submit their interests in and preferences for committee service. The Director, and the Conference Secretariat, worked with liaisons appointed by each circuit chief judge to review the surveys and formulate recommendations. Based on these recommendations, in late 1987, the Chief Justice made 263 committee appointments, only 105 of whom were incumbents.

Under the new system approximately one-third of committee membership could turn over each year. Thus, the Judicial Conference Secretariat will maintain a permanent working file of recommendations and preferences for committee service, for reference during the annual appointments process.

Office of Planning and Evaluation

The Office of Planning and Evaluation was established by the Director on April 6, 1988. The essential purpose of the new office is to assist in the delivery of support services to the Judiciary through enhanced planning, coordination, and resource management. In addition, the office periodically conducts reviews of the ongoing programs of the Administrative Office and develops and implements the Judiciary's work measurement systems. The Director assigned responsibility for ensuring the integrity and effectiveness of the agency's audit and review program to the new office which is staffed with existing positions.

Reorganization of the Administrative Services Division and Elevation of the Facilities Branch to Division Level

In order to improve the Administrative Office's assistance to the courts in the management of contracting, procurement, property management, printing, records management, and facilities management, these programs became the responsibility of two divisions instead of one.

The former Facilities Branch of the Administrative Services Division was elevated to the Space and Facilities Division. The division will have three branches: Space and Project Management; Planning and Analysis; and Facilities Operations. This was an appropriate response to the creation of a Space and Facilities Committee of the Judicial Conference. Furthermore, creating a full-fledged division to administer facilities management permits a higher level of attention and resources for this sensitive and complex program which must be coordinated with the General Services Administration.

The remaining functions of the Administrative Services Division were assigned to the Contracts and Services Division, with three new branches: Contracts; Procurement and Property; and Printing, Mail and Records Management. These functions have been expanding dramatically in scope and volume, due to the impact of automation and court growth. The span of program responsibility in each of the two new divisions now is functionally more cohesive, and better able to receive the degree of time and attention required.

Court Administration Division

On October 1, 1987, the Director established the Court Administration Division by combining four offices: the Clerks Division, the Office of Court Reporting and Interpreting Services, the Office of Library and Legal Research Services, and the Jury Systems and Speedy Trial Matters unit.

The consolidation provides a greater range of services and assistance to district court executives, clerks of court, and other supporting personnel. The new division is composed of three separate branches: Court Programs, Court Operations, and Computer Assisted Legal Research and Library Services.

The division is responsible for assisting the Director in coordinating all administrative matters relating to the office of the clerk of court. The division serves as liaison for all matters relating to court administration to ensure that resources are equitably provided to the courts, to identify, develop, and evaluate effective procedures, and to disseminate procedures and other pertinent information to the courts. The division also administers the Judiciary's circuit library and computer-assisted legal research programs, and provides staff support to various Judicial Conference Committees.

Reorganization of ADP Responsibilities in the Administrative Office

In recognition of the growing importance of automated systems to the operation of the Administrative Office and the need for program managers to have systems responsibility and to integrate the automated systems into their functional areas, the Director approved an ADP reorganization plan submitted by the Assistant Directors to transfer the responsibility for certain automated systems and associated resources to the program managers. The Business Systems Section of the Systems Services Division, which provides programming and analytical support for the financial, personnel and payroll systems, was transferred to the Assistant Director for Administration. The Statistical Systems Section of the Systems Services Division was transferred to the Statistical Analysis and Reports Division. The Systems Services Division retained responsibility for functions that cross organizational lines and which can be addressed more readily by centralized support staff, such as systems programming, data base administration, computer operations and personal computer support. The Systems Services Division will continue to be responsible for automation in the courts. However, a stronger role in overall coordination and evaluation of the court automation program is contemplated for the program divisions under the Assistant Director for Program Management.

COURT SERVICES

Automatic Data Processing

The Administrative Office continued with its endeavor to provide automated support to the courts. During the past year, 29 new computers were installed in appellate, district and bankruptcy courts. These computers consisted of both Motorola and Unisys models. The Unisys computers support the full electronic docketing systems in the courts.

In compliance with the decision of the Judicial Conference's Committee on Judicial Improvements, the primary objective of automation within the Judiciary continues to be the removal of systems from the DEC-10 computers in Washington. This priority initiative continues to be closely followed by automation of the bankruptcy courts.

During the year, personnel from 28 courts received basic systems administrator training. Responsibility for this training was transferred to the Administrative Office by the Federal Judicial Center in January 1988. The newsletter, SA Essay, commenced publication in July 1987. This newsletter is intended to keep systems administrators aware of changes or new developments which may affect the operation and management of their computer systems.

Personnel from 17 courts received training in the implementation and use of the Administrative Systems (attorney roll, court reporter, inventory and personnel) which serve courts of appeals, district courts and bankruptcy courts.

Courts of Appeals

During the year, the Courts of Appeals for the Second, Third, Sixth and Seventh Circuits began implementing the Appellate Information Management System (AIMS), bringing the total number of courts using the system to seven. Approximately 150 persons from the seven courts received training which ranged from introductory material to advanced training on special features of the system. Two users' group meetings, with attendance from the seven appellate courts, were conducted to share information learned during the implementation and operation of the system. Plans for the next year call for implementation of AIMS in the Eighth Circuit, followed by the Eleventh, District of Columbia, and the Fifth Circuits.

District Courts

The Civil Full Docketing Case Management System was transferred to the Administrative Office from the Federal Judicial Center in January 1988. Four courts were trained and began implementation, bringing the total number using the system to five. The Civil and Criminal Docketing systems were merged into one Civil/Criminal System in May 1988; with four courts currently testing the Criminal portion of the system. A training center was established in the District of Arizona to assist with Civil/Criminal implementation. The training center in the Western District of Texas is being expanded to accommodate this training as well. The first meeting of the Civil/Criminal users' group was held in late June 1988. Priority will be given to eliminating the current Civil and Criminal workload on the DEC-10. Nine courts are scheduled for initial training and implementation during the next year.

Expansion of the Financial and Jury automated systems continued during the year. Twenty-one courts received training and began implementing the system. This brings the total number of courts using the system to 38. Changes were made which allow electronic reporting directly to the Department of the Treasury rather than the paper reports which were used in the past. Continued expansion is planned throughout the next year with 10 courts being targeted for implementation.

During the year, personnel from 16 courts were trained and began implementing the STARS/INDEX System (SIRS), bringing the total number of courts using this application to 30. SIRS is now operational in all but one of the courts formerly using the Speedy Trial Act Reporting System (STARS) on the DEC-10. The final court will be trained and begin implementation in September 1988. Current plans are to remove the application from the DEC-10 in December 1988.

Bankruptcy Courts

The Bankruptcy Court Automation Project (BANCAP) System was transferred to the Administrative Office from the Federal Judicial Center in February 1988. Seventeen courts received training and have implemented or are expected to implement the system during fiscal year 1989. A training center was established in the Western District of Texas to assist with training and implementing of the system. Twenty courts are scheduled to begin training and implementing the system during the next year.

During the year, the Financial System was modified to accommodate the needs of the bankruptcy courts and released as the Bankruptcy Financial System. The initial release was made in November 1987. Three courts are now using this system. Expansion will continue during the next year.

Automated Court Financial Management System

The Administrative Office continued with the implementation of the Automated Court Financial Management System during the past year. As of June 30, 1988, 38 courts have been trained on the use of the system and are in various stages of implementation. Currently, 25 courts are fully operational on the system and 20 district courts are transmitting their financial data automatically to the Central Accounting System maintained at the Administrative Office. Enhancements completed during the past year include fully automating the Statement of Accountability Report, AO 274, the archiving of case-related records, and the automatic preparation of vouchers (SF 1166s) for disbursement of deposit and registry funds.

New Central Accounting System

In 1986, the Administrative Office entered into a contract to produce financial software packages to replace the current accounting system. The Administrative Office continues to modify and test the system to ensure that it meets the Judiciary's needs. Parallel testing of the system, using the Administrative Office and the Federal Judicial Center appropriations, is scheduled to begin on October 1, 1988, with full implementation to start October 1, 1989.

Probation/Pretrial Information Management Systems

In June 1988, the U.S. Sentencing Commission distributed its software package (ASSYST) for guideline calculations to each probation office headquarters. Earlier, the Commission supplied one personal computer to each district on which to run the program. Additional personal computers are needed for all probation offices to take advantage of this helpful utility as well as to provide increased word processing capability for preparation of guideline presentence reports and data processing for local management reports.

Existing data elements of the Federal Probation Sentencing and Supervision Information System (FPSSIS) were reviewed by the Sentencing Commission, the Statistical Analysis and Reports Division, and the Probation Division with the result that data collection for six items has been discontinued. FPSSIS requirements will continue to be reviewed as experience with guideline sentencing accrues.

The automation needs of probation and pretrial services offices have continued to expand. In response to the needs, the Committee on Automation Needs for U.S. Probation and Pretrial Services Offices, a group of representatives from probation and pretrial services offices throughout the country, continues to work with the Probation Division to evaluate data requirements as well as define automation needs and initiatives. These include exploring ways for the probation system to access data being collected in various databases within the court. Access would assist in streamlining pretrial and probation case management, such as determining the status of pending cases and tracking payments of court-ordered obligations.

Communications Systems

The Administrative Office continued the activities associated with acquiring nation-wide data communications for the Judiciary. Activities by the Mitre Corporation, under contract for systems engineering and network monitoring, included development of a cost and alternative architecture study and a draft request for proposals which has been submitted to industry for comment. Forthcoming comments will be incorporated into a final request for proposals which is expected to be released during the fourth quarter of fiscal year 1988, with a contract award expected during fiscal year 1989. Proposals were received from industry to furnish a value-added-network to support continued Courtran communications. These proposals are currently being evaluated with a contract award being expected during the fourth quarter of fiscal year 1988.

The Administrative Office continued with the implementation of the Telephone Services Program with the conversion of telephones under lease from vendors other than American Telephone & Telegraph Co. As of June 30, 1988, less than 600 telephone instruments remain to be purchased. This activity will continue during fiscal year 1989.

Court Facilities

Changing Relationship With GSA

The study conducted for the Judiciary in 1987 by the National Academy of Public Administration documented the need for the Judiciary to take a more aggressive role in managing its own space program and to establish a new relationship with the General Services Administration (GSA), the executive branch agency responsible for housing the Federal Judiciary. The Director of the Administrative Office and the Administrator of the GSA have signed a Memorandum of Understanding establishing a planning process involving both GSA and the Judiciary, and defining relationships for funding space and facility projects.

Long Range Planning Guidelines

The Judicial Conference, at the recommendation of the Space and Facilities Committee, has directed every court to develop long-range space plans within guidelines to be developed by the Administrative Office staff. Those guidelines will be drafted for review within the Judiciary and tested in a representative number of courts by December 1988.

Automated Management Information System

In order to assist in carrying out increased planning responsibility and to monitor on-going space projects, the Space and Facilities Division has begun the design of an automated management information system. The completed system will automate the long-range planning process and identify the budgetary resources needed to satisfy the requirements; and provide an automated project status and inventory of Judicial space. The system will be implemented in phases over the next 18 months, with usable portions available by January 1989. The system will be designed to be useful and accessible for local courts as well.

Review of Judicial Space Standards

Under the direction of the Space and Facilities Committee, the Division has also initiated an indepth review of the current Judicial space standards. The National Institute for Building Sciences is developing a project plan for review by the Committee in January 1989. The study is expected to take 12 to 18 months in order to consider fully the views of the entire court family. The results of the study will be presented to the Judicial Conference for its consideration.

Experiment to Operate Courthouses

The Judicial Conference approved a recommendation of the Space and Facilities Committee that four courts be permitted to experiment with operating their own courthouses under a delegation of operating authority from the GSA. The experiment is to be monitored closely to evaluate the benefits to the Judiciary of assuming this responsibility. The Administrative Office staff is assisting the four local courts in developing an evaluation process and will monitor the pilot project for the Space and Facilities Committee. The Northern District of Alabama has been operating its courthouse in Birmingham for almost 12 months. The three additional courts involved in the program are the district courts in Southern Florida (Miami) and Western Washington (Seattle), and the Eleventh Circuit Court of Appeals (Atlanta).

Defining Roles and Relationships Among the Judicial Family

As the Judiciary's more aggressive space and facilities management program evolves, it will become necessary to define more exactly not only the respective roles of the Judiciary and the GSA, but also to define more exactly the responsibilities within the court family for carrying out a comprehensive program. The Administrative Office, working closely with the several court advisory groups, is developing a number of alternatives for assigning space and facilities program responsibilities among the individual courts, the Circuit Judicial Councils, and the Administrative Office. The alternatives will be presented to the Space and Facilities Committee for their consideration at its January 1989 meeting.

Conversion of the Guide to Judiciary Policies and Procedures to Standard (8 1/2" x 11") Size

The conversion of the 12-volume Guide to Judiciary Policies and Procedures to standard (8 1/2" x 11") size is under way. Volume III, the Judges' Manual, was the first to be issued in the larger size, in March 1988. Volume I, the Administrative Manual, is nearing completion and will be distributed soon. Volume II, the Code of Conduct for United States Judges, also is being revised for distribution later this year. The remaining volumes address specific matters such as bankruptcy, probation and court reporting, and will be issued as they are completed by the originating Administrative Office divisions.

The conversion will decrease the total number of pages in the Guide and thus make filing and storing easier. Text and exhibits will no longer have to be reduced to fit on the smaller 6" x 9" pages. Format will be standardized for easier reference. Outdated information will be revised and any obsolete material removed.

The revised Guide volumes will be distributed as they are completed. The entire conversion is expected to last through the end of 1989.

Office Automation

During the year, the Administrative Office continued its efforts to complete a competitive procurement for Judiciary-wide standardized office automation equipment. A request for proposals was completed and issued to private industry. Responses were received in mid-October 1987. Evaluation of proposals is in progress. Measured in terms of offers received, industry response was significantly larger than anticipated and significantly larger than previous agency procurements. This extra evaluation effort has delayed contract award which is now expected to occur during the first quarter of fiscal year 1989.

Procurement Bulletin

In an effort to assist court personnel who deal with procurement and contracting issues, the Contracts and Services Division is producing a quarterly publication entitled, "The Procurement Bulletin". The Bulletin includes articles on new procurement and property management procedures, recommended equipment, and GSA supply and contracts information. Other subjects covered in the Bulletin are printing, mail, records management, lawbooks, furniture, copiers and contracts. An "Information Exchange" section encourages readers to share cost-saving ideas, information on new equipment, and noteworthy experiences with equipment, supplies, and vendors.

PROGRAM OPERATIONS

Bankruptcy

U. S. Trustee System Transition

The Bankruptcy Judges, United States Trustees, and Family Farmer Bankruptcy Act of 1986 expanded the U. S. trustee system of bankruptcy estate administration nationwide and established it as a permanent organization within the Department of Justice. The 1986 Amendments established 21 U. S. trustee regions and directed that the program expand into these regions in two chronological phases. Eleven of the 21 regions are in the first phase, which were required to be operational by August 23, 1987. The remaining ten regions are considered part of the second phase and must be operational no later than November 25, 1988.

According to the Executive Office for United States Trustees, Phase I of their expansion program was completed by the statutory deadline. However, many of the regions were not fully staffed, and at least one certified district had no supervisory resident staff for some months after certification. Phase II certification is proceeding in the remaining districts. As of June 30, 1988, U. S. trustees have been named to 20 of the 21 regions.

By statute, when the program becomes effective in a region, the U. S. trustee assumes responsibility for all estates in Chapter 7, 11, 12, and 13 cases filed on or after November 26, 1986. One year after the program is effective, the U. S. trustee will assume responsibility over all bankruptcy cases that were filed before November 26, 1986, and still pending, except cases in which a final report has been filed or a plan has been confirmed. In June 1987, the Bankruptcy Committee authorized the release of interim transition guidelines to facilitate the initial phases of transition to the U. S. trustee system. In order to facilitate the assumption of responsibility by trustees for the supervision of estates in cases filed prior to November 26, 1986, supplemental guidelines have been developed and distributed to the courts and trustees.

Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure

The Advisory Committee on Bankruptcy Rules continues to work on a preliminary draft of revised Bankruptcy Rules. Extensive revisions are necessary as a result of the 1986 Bankruptcy Amendments, which extended the U. S. trustee program to a nationwide system, expanded the powers of the trustees, and created Chapter 12 for the relief of family farmers. It is anticipated that the draft will be released for public comment in October 1989.

Bankruptcy Administrator Program

The transition provisions of the 1986 Bankruptcy Act deferred implementation of the U. S. trustee program in the states of North Carolina and Alabama for a period of time not to extend beyond October 1, 1992. During this time, supervision of the administration of estates in the six districts of the two states will be the responsibility of the Judiciary.

The Judicial Conference has adopted regulations concerning the establishment of the bankruptcy administrator program, including the selection and appointment of bankruptcy administrators. The courts of appeals for the circuits involved are authorized, under Judicial Conference regulation, to appoint a bankruptcy administrator in each program district to a five-year term of office. Bankruptcy administrators have been appointed by the respective courts of appeals. The bankruptcy administrators, in turn, have appointed their staffs, and all six administrator program offices are now fully operational.

The bankruptcy administrator program has been developed to meet the statutorily delineated estate administration oversight and trustee supervision requirements specified in the transition provisions of the 1986 Bankruptcy Act. Bankruptcy administrators, and individuals in the employ of administrators, are not part of the staffs of the bankruptcy judges or bankruptcy clerks. Rather, bankruptcy administrators serve as independent, non-judicial officers of the Judiciary. The administrators are under the general supervision of the appointing courts of appeals.

The regulations promulgated by the Judicial Conference specify a variety of duties relating to the supervision of trustees and estates. These include but are not limited to: (1) establishing, maintaining, and supervising panels of private trustees in Chapter 7 cases; (2) supervising the performance of Chapter 11 and 12 trustees; (3) monitoring the activities of debtors in possession and creditors' committees in Chapter 11 cases; (4) supervising the performance of Chapter 13 trustees and prescribing such periodic and annual reports from trustees as may be necessary; (5) monitoring and, when appropriate, submitting comments to the court with respect to--(a) applications for the employment of professionals filed under 11 U.S.C. Section 327, (b) applications for compensation and reimbursement of expenses filed under 11 U.S.C. Section 330, and (c) plans filed in Chapter 11, 12, and 13 cases. Bankruptcy administrators, in discharging their statutory and regulatory responsibilities, act in the public interest. Bankruptcy administrators also work and cooperate with the appropriate U. S. attorney, judicial council of the appointing court of appeals (including the bankruptcy judge and clerk), and other governmental agencies to insure the efficient administration of estates and the integrity of the bankruptcy system.

Chapter 12

The Bankruptcy Judges, United States Trustees, and Family Farmer Bankruptcy Act of 1986 provided a new operational bankruptcy relief chapter for family farmers--Chapter 12. This new chapter, which is modeled closely after Chapter 13, provides for a standing trustee to serve in every case with the debtor to act as a debtor in possession and continue to operate the farm.

The Judicial Conference Advisory Committee on Bankruptcy Rules drafted interim rules in order to provide guidance to the bench and bar pending completion of the rules revision process. Reports to date indicate the chapter to be operating well and there have been no significant problems noted in its implementation. During the year, there were 3,099 Chapter 12 cases filed. This relief chapter, which was enacted to address what Congress perceived to be a short-term problem, will expire on October 1, 1993.

Bankruptcy Clerks Manual

With the assistance of the clerks and their deputies in the courts, the Court Administration Division has given its highest priority to developing a program manual for bankruptcy clerks. The manual contains a comprehensive review of the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code and the Bankruptcy Rules as they relate to the operation of the clerk's office, as well as guidance on the procedures which bankruptcy clerks should follow in discharging their multiple tasks.

Bankruptcy Work Measurement Updates

The Court Administration Division has devoted considerable effort to refine and adjust on an interim basis the work measurement formula used to allot staff to Bankruptcy Clerks' offices. Based primarily on comments from clerks, adjustments to the formula application have been drafted which: provide credit for divisional offices; provide explicit credit for the number of judges in a court; change the noticing adjustment for noticing performed outside the clerk's office; and eliminate the deviation factor. When approved by the relevant parties, the impact of these proposed changes will be a reallocation among the bankruptcy courts of the overall number of deputy clerks positions authorized by the existing formula. While it is cost neutral, it provides for a more rational distribution of personnel throughout the court system.

Budget Decentralization

In September 1987, the Judicial Conference approved a three-year pilot budget decentralization program for the courts of appeals, district courts, and bankruptcy courts. The five courts involved in the pilot program are: the District of Arizona; the Northern District of California; the Western District of Washington; the Southern District of New York; and the Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit.

The pilot courts were issued operating budgets by the Administrative Office for fiscal year 1988. These budgets included funding for personnel compensation, operation and maintenance, and space and facilities.

A majority of the courts are generating fund balances as a result of lapses in personnel compensation. In most cases, the courts are requesting reprogramming authority to use these balances to purchase office automation equipment. Currently, the courts are developing estimates for their fiscal year 1989 operating budgets.

The Administrative Office has contracted with the National Academy of Public Administration (NAPA) to establish a basis for evaluation of the program. The evaluation plan intends to assess the impact of the program through:

1. Interviews with selected officials (judges, administrative officials in the pilot courts, Administrative Office personnel);
2. Surveys by questionnaire to assess changes in operating behavior of the pilot courts;
3. Comparison of budget, accounting, and program data for the period immediately preceding the pilot to that generated during the pilot, and comparison of the same data with the courts not involved in the project; and
4. Determining the implications of expanding the pilot to be a national system for managing court resources.

Central Violations Bureaus

The Court Administration Division, in conjunction with other units of the Administrative Office, has begun the implementation of the Judicial Conference policy to consolidate almost all of the Central Violations Bureaus into only two located in Denver and San Antonio. The consolidation promises to save staff resources and promote a higher collection rate. Consolidation is proceeding according to schedule.

Computer-Assisted Legal Research

The program of placing general purpose Computer-Assisted Legal Research (CALR) terminals throughout the Judiciary for shared usage has been completed. These 285 terminals are located in 239 cities where there are courthouses or other court offices. Beginning in March 1988, a new program of placing CALR software, both Lexis and Westlaw, in chambers having existing compatible personal computer equipment needing no upgrades, was commenced. The provision of modems and telephone lines for this equipment was not considered to be an upgrade. Under the guidelines approved by the Judicial Conference, in order for a judicial officer to qualify for this software, $1,000 in lawbook continuation cancellations ($500 extra needed for each additional package) must be designated. It is expected that 350 to 400 chambers will be using CALR software by the end of this fiscal year, and over $400,000 of lawbook cancellations will be made under this program.

Court Interpreters Program

The Court Administration Division worked with the Federal Court Interpreters Advisory Board in developing its final report to the Director. The Board, composed of representatives of the U.S. attorneys, federal public defenders, court administrators, Federal staff court interpreters, academic training programs, and interpreter professional organizations, elaborated proposals on interpreter compensation, codes of conduct, certification issues, and training. The Division gathered the annual interpreter use by language statistics which appear in Table 23 and worked with courts which were having trouble recruiting qualified interpreters because the rates of compensation seemed inadequate.

Defender Services

Death Penalty Habeas Representation

The Defender Services Division has continued efforts to facilitate the appointment of counsel to represent state death sentenced prisoners in Federal habeas corpus proceedings. As noted in the Director's annual report for 1987, Division personnel have participated in meetings of several of the death penalty representation task forces which were established by the U.S. courts of appeals at the urging of the Defender Services Committee (then the CJA Committee). One of the most significant products of the work of these task forces was the concept of creating death penalty resource centers to be designated as community defender organizations and funded through grants under subsection (g)(2)(B)(ii) of the Criminal Justice Act.

These death penalty resource center/community defender organizations will monitor the status of death penalty cases pending in the districts they serve. The centers will recruit attorneys to represent death-sentenced Federal habeas petitioners and will provide assistance and expert advice to attorneys assigned in such cases. In addition, each center will represent a number of death-sentenced petitioners directly. Finally, each center will receive non-CJA funds to support work it will perform on behalf of death-sentenced inmates whose cases are in the state court-phase of the litigation.

The Division has assisted the Defender Services Committee in reviewing funding requests from 13 prospective resource centers, developed a "model addendum" for use by U. S. district courts in amending their CJA Plans to authorize the establishment of death penalty resource center/community defender organizations and drafted special terms and conditions to govern the CJA grants to resource centers. Division personnel also spoke and conducted workshops at an American Bar Association death penalty resource planning conference attended by Federal and state judges, public defenders and other persons involved in efforts to assure representation for persons sentenced to death.

Finally, the Division provided assistance to the Defender Services Committee in reviewing requests for special alternative attorney compensation rates for death penalty representation. To date, special rates have been established for 18 judicial districts, and the Committee will recommend that the Judicial Conference approve special rates for an additional 3 districts.

Project to Expedite CJA Payments

In the last half of 1987, pilot projects were established in several districts (Central California; Southern New York; New Mexico and Eastern Virginia) to test procedures for expediting payments to attorneys and experts providing services under the Criminal Justice Act. The procedures being tested require clerks' offices to enter all fiscal and statistical data from the CJA vouchers, via modems, into the Administrative Office's automated CJA Claims System. Payment information is taken from this system and checks are issued by the Administrative Office within three days after the receipt of the payment data. Based upon a preliminary evaluation the procedures appear to be successful. This evaluation will be relayed to judges and clerks of court and their views on implementing the procedures nationwide will be solicited. In the interim, courts wishing to begin employing the new procedures on a voluntary basis will be permitted to do so.

Training Program on Sentencing Guidelines

In cooperation with the Defender Services Division and the Training Subcommittee of the Federal Defender Advisory Committee, the Federal Judicial Center has developed a video program and written materials for use by the courts in presenting training programs on the sentencing guidelines for private attorneys who are members of CJA panels. The Division is coordinating the distribution of the training package. The Division anticipates that about 6,000 attorneys will participate in this program for an estimated total cost of $140,000.

Federal Defender Administrative and Automation Conference

In February 1988, the Defender Services Division conducted a conference in Washington, D.C., for persons serving as administrative assistants and branch office secretaries in Federal defender organization offices. Topics covered at the conference included budget and grant preparation, automation trends in the Judiciary, equipment acquisition procedures, and the Division's case management and statistical reporting program. Conference participants received extensive "hands on" word processing training as well as lectures on orientation to computers, the operating system for microcomputers, data communications, care and maintenance of computers, and future automation applications.

Electronic Sound Recording

The number of district judges using electronic sound recording equipment to record their proceedings rather than using stenotype or shorthand reporters increased to 64 active and senior judges in 27 districts. In addition, 118 bankruptcy judges in 42 districts have elected to use recording equipment in lieu of contract court reporters. The judges and parties have found that using recording equipment with a trained operator preparing log notes, makes it possible to obtain accurate transcripts on a timely basis, with considerable cost savings accruing to the courts. Funding to improve the quality of magistrates records by using operators to produce the record has not been available.

Equal Employment Opportunity

In prior years, pursuant to a Judicial Conference resolution, an analysis and evaluation of the implementation of equal employment opportunity plans in the Federal courts was included in the Director's Annual Report to the Judicial Conference submitted at the September Conference session. At its September 1986 session, the Judicial Conference adopted revisions to the Judiciary Equal Employment Opportunity Program that, among other things, changed the annual reporting period to the 12-month period ending September 30 and required the Director to submit a report on the Program to the March Conference session. Accordingly, an analysis and evaluation of the Program is no longer included in the Director's Annual Report submitted at the September Conference session. A report on the Program covering the period from June 1, 1986 through September 30, 1987, was submitted at the March 1988 Conference session. The next annual report on the Program covering the 12-month period ending September 30, 1988, will be submitted to the Conference at its March 1989 session.

Financial and Management Audits

The Audit Branch of the Financial Management Division was realigned in April 1988 to include financial auditor positions transferred from the former Office of Audit and Review. The primary mission of the Audit Branch is to perform financial audits of the courts. These audits include both cyclical financial audits and special audits. The cyclical audits are performed to provide assurance to court management that fiscal operations are sound. The special audits are requested by the court when there is a change of clerk or financial deputy clerk. These audits are performed to ensure accountability for financial operations. Special audits also include fund verifications such as large registry funds.

During the calendar year 1987, the Audit Branch (and its predecessor organization) performed 60 financial audits of the district, bankruptcy, and appeals courts. Of these 60 audits, approximately 15, or 25 percent, were special audits requested by the courts. Consequently, the current cycle for performing cyclical financial audits is approximately once every four years. Recommendations in these audits addressed management control, collections and deposits, disbursement of appropriated funds, procurement and property control, and non-appropriated funds. There were recommendations made as follows: management control (139), collections and deposits (175), disbursement of appropriated funds (33), procurement and property control (38), and non-appropriated funds (21).

Management audits were conducted in three U. S. district courts and seven U. S. bankruptcy courts in fiscal year 1988. In addition, one U. S. district court probation department was audited. Officials of the courts audited requested each review.

FERS and Its Impact

As a result of Public Law 99-335 which established the Federal Employees Retirement System (FERS), all employees covered under the Civil Service Retirement System (CSRS) were given a six month open season from July 1 to December 31, 1987, to make an irrevocable decision to transfer to FERS. The Judiciary had approximately 10,000 employees who were eligible to transfer to FERS of which 274 elected to be covered, amounting to a little better than 3 percent transferring to FERS.

A high percentage of Judiciary employees have taken advantage of the tax deferred voluntary savings created by the FERS Act. Each year, there will be two opportunities for employees to join the savings plan or change their deduction. Employees covered under FERS may place some of their savings in a common stock fund account or a fixed income (bond) fund account in addition to the government securities fund. Employees covered under CSRS may only invest monies in the government securities fund. Beginning in 1988, employees participating in the savings plan are eligible to make loans against their own contributions for financial hardships, educational needs, the purchase of a primary residence, and medical expenses.

Implementation of an Automated System for Financial Disclosure and Assumption of the Function by the Administrative Office

In late 1987, the Administrative Office assumed responsibility for processing the Financial Disclosure Reports of judicial officers and judicial employees subject to the Ethics in Government Act. Prior to that time, the processing was handled in the Chambers of the Committee Chairman. Substantive review of the Reports continues to be the responsibility of the Judicial Ethics Committee members, all of whom are Article III Judges.

To ensure timely filing of Financial Disclosure Reports and to more effectively track the flow of over 5,000 reports and related documents through the review process, an automated system was developed. With this system, at any give time, information can be obtained on whether or not a Report has been received and where it is in the review process. The automated system permits the Judicial Ethics Committee to promptly notify any filer who misses a deadline, thus providing for more timely filing of Reports and amendments.

Magistrates

Statistical Reporting System

The Administrative Office is statutorily assigned the responsibility of collecting statistical data on the workload of the U. S. magistrates. In the past year, the Division of Magistrates has developed an efficient automated system to collect and maintain this data. The old DEC mainframe processing system was replaced by a database system for microcomputers. The computers compile information quickly and can generate tables and reports.

The new system became fully operational at the beginning of statistical year 1988. Through the year, the system was enhanced to permit the Division to answer special information requests from individual courts and the U.S. Sentencing Commission. Next year, the Division will explore the feasibility of providing magistrates with the capability of transmitting their statistical data directly to the Division by electronic means.

Support Services Provided to Magistrates

During the year, the Committee on the Administration of the Federal Magistrates System approved 10 additional law clerks for magistrates. A temporary law clerk was also authorized and funded for a recalled magistrate. A total of 287 permanent law clerk positions have been authorized for magistrates and 276 have been funded.

At its March 1988 session, the Judicial Conference increased the maximum grade of magistrates' secretaries from JSP-10 to JSP-11. Implementation of the increase is subject to the availability of appropriated funds.

The Magistrates Division continues to perform general oversight duties relating to the daily administration of the Federal Magistrates System. Those duties include assisting magistrates with the administrative and procedural matters which arise in establishing and maintaining their offices. The Division also maintains a system for reimbursement of the secretarial, clerical and miscellaneous office expenses of part-time magistrates.

Assistance to Magistrates Concerning Choice of Retirement Systems

The Division of Magistrates continued to assist magistrates in choosing retirement systems best-suited to their needs. Magistrates had been covered under the same Civil Service Retirement System (CSRS) which applied to Federal employees generally. When magistrates became subject to social security taxes in 1984, however, some magistrates elected to participate in a modified version of the CSRS plan. In 1987, CSRS benefits for magistrates were enhanced to equal the benefits provided bankruptcy judges and members of Congress. The passage of the new Federal Employees' Retirement System (FERS) afforded magistrates the opportunity to remain in their existing retirement plan or to transfer to FERS.

Because magistrates' coverage under CSRS is different from most other Federal employees, specialized information was prepared by the Division to assist magistrates in deciding which retirement system to choose. The Division used computer software to furnish magistrates with projected benefits under the different retirement plans.

Probation

Sentencing Guidelines Implementation

The Probation Division assisted the Federal Judicial Center and the U.S. Sentencing Commission in providing a national training program on the new sentencing guidelines for personnel in the Federal judicial system. The initial phase of the program provided training to at least one judge and one probation officer from each district. The program's second phase involved in-court training programs which were conducted at the district court level. Personnel from the Administrative Office, including the Probation Division and the Office of General Counsel, provided instruction. Probation Division staff are continuing to provide training locally in the various district courts. In addition, one staff member was loaned to the U.S. Sentencing Commission for four months to participate in developing a guideline telephone assistance service. Probation staff from 16 districts also assisted the Commission by field testing the ASSYST computer program for guideline application.

During the past year, the Probation Division published "Presentence Investigation Reports Under the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984" which has been designated Publication 107. This manual was produced under the auspices of the Committee on the Administration of the Probation System of the Judicial Conference, and provides guidance to probation officers on the preparation of presentence reports under the Sentencing Reform Act. In conjunction with the revision of the presentence monograph, a task force composed of representatives from the district courts, the Probation Division, and the Federal Judicial Center developed a new and comprehensive model for the financial investigation of Federal defendants. This task force produced a "Financial Investigation Handbook," and implemented a nationwide training program under the sponsorship of the Federal Judicial Center which trained at least one probation officer from each district who later provided instruction at the district level.

The Administrative Office and the U.S. Sentencing Commission entered into an agreement to facilitate implementation of the sentencing guidelines. The purpose of the agreement was to define working relationships and protocols between the Administrative Office and the Sentencing Commission, and to coordinate implementation of the guidelines. In addition, the Administrative Office and the Sentencing Commission reached a second agreement which defined the documentation to be provided by the Federal district courts. Title 28 U.S.C. Section 994(w) gives the Commission authority to request information and documents necessary in order to prepare reports and recommendations for Congress. After discussions with the Criminal Law and Probation Administration Committee and with the Administrative Office, the Sentencing Commission requested that probation officers provide guideline worksheets, the presentence report, the statement of reasons for imposing sentence, any plea agreement, and the judgment of conviction for each defendant sentenced under guidelines.

Electronic Monitoring

The U.S. probation offices in the Central District of California and the Southern District of Florida are conducting an 18-month Community Control Project which commenced in January 1988 on electronic monitoring of persons released from prison. According to the Mission Statement of the Interagency Agreement between the Administrative Office, the judicial districts involved, the U.S. Parole Commission, and the Bureau of Prisons, probation offices in the above districts will attempt to determine whether community control with electronic monitoring is a viable alternative to community treatment center placement for a select group of persons released directly from prisons. The pilot project involves a maximum daily average of 100 inmates paroled directly from Federal institutions to the districts. Selected inmates have their parole dates advanced, and spend 2-4 months of initial supervision under home detention/electronic monitoring. Funding for the electronic monitoring service (EMS) is being provided by the Bureau of Prisons. The U.S. Parole Commission is directing the evaluation of this project.

Supervision Study

In July 1986, the Committee on the Administration of the Probation System approved a study of current supervision practices. The Probation Division has completed the study, and reported its findings to the Criminal Law and Probation Administration Committee at its June 1988 meeting. Analysis of the data, collected between November 1986 and March 1987, on 600 cases from 8 districts, was provided by the Federal Judicial Center. The Center plans to release a report in the near future based on this study.

Work Measurement

There has been growing interest within the Judiciary and the Congress concerning the age, relevance, and accuracy of the Judiciary's work measurement formulas. This concern, added to the impact of new legislation, automation advances and the changing judicial environment, necessitates updating the formulas. In response, the Office of Planning and Evaluation developed an approach to review and revise work measurement formulas over a 36 to 48 month period. The Office will conduct work measurement studies of circuit, district, and bankruptcy court clerks' offices, probation offices, and pretrial services offices. The project will be staffed by Administrative Office and court staff, and will make use of advisory committees and outside consultants.

Judicial Survivors' Annuities System (JSAS)

There has been a steady decrease in JSAS participation by newly appointed judges since 1982 (Table 24). Actual participants have declined from 687 in 1982 to 570 in 1988. This represents a decrease from 78.5 percent of the total eligible to 53 percent of the total. The number of annuitants has remained relatively constant since 1979, with a deviation of only 1 percent change noted.

The JSAS undisbursed balance (Table 25) has increased steadily through the years and annual reviews by outside parties have continued to find it sound actuarially. The investment holdings, par amounts, and interest rates are listed in Table 26.

Any person alleging that a Federal judge or magistrate has engaged in conduct prejudicial to the effective and expeditious administration of the business of the courts, or that such officer cannot discharge all the duties of the office because of physical or mental disability, may file a complaint with the clerk of the appropriate court of appeals or national court (Title 28 U.S.C. Section 372(c)). Such complaints are initially reviewed by the chief judge of the court, who may dismiss the complaint if it is not in compliance with the filing provisions of Section 372(c); directly related to the merits of a judicial decision; or frivolous; chief judges may also conclude the proceeding if corrective action has been taken. Otherwise, they shall appoint a special committee to investigate the allegations in the complaint on behalf of the judicial council. The judicial councils are granted power to take appropriate action, except that in no circumstances may the council order the removal from office of a judge appointed to serve during good behavior under Article III of the Constitution.

The disposition of complaints is not judicially reviewable on appeal (as provided by Section 372(c)(10)). The complainant or the judicial officer may, however, petition the judicial council for review of any order of a chief judge dismissing a complaint. Petition may also be made to the Judicial Conference for review of judicial council orders issued after special committee investigation. The Conference is permitted to act on such petitions directly or to establish a standing committee to take final action on its behalf. In July 1982, the Chief Justice appointed the Judicial Conference Committee to Review Circuit Council Conduct and Disability Orders, consisting of three judges, who act for the Conference in its review responsibility under Section 372(c)(10).

During 1988, the number of complaints filed against judicial officers declined 10 percent from 237 in 1987 to 213. The overall decrease is due, in large part, to the substantial decline in complaints filed in the Ninth Circuit, (down 19 complaints). In contrast, the number of complaints filed in the Sixth Circuit nearly doubled from 15 in 1987 to 28 in 1988. Although the Ninth Circuit reported a significant decline in the number of complaints filed, it still had the largest number of complaints (34) primarily because it has the largest number of judicial officers. Conversely, no complaints were filed in the U.S. Court of International Trade. Table 27 summarizes judicial complaint activity from 1983 through 1988.

Each individual complaint filed may involve multiple allegations against numerous court officials. As in prior years, the allegation cited most often (in 90 complaints) was that a judicial officer acted in a prejudicial or biased manner. Eighty-eight alleged abuse of judicial power and 50 alleged "other" conduct that was detrimental to the effective and expeditious administration of justice. Almost all of these "other" allegations, however, were outside the jurisdiction of Title 28 U.S.C. Section 372(c) because they were directly related to the merits of a court's decision in the original case. Table 28 provides, by circuit, judicial complaint activity during 1988.

The number of complaints concluded during 1988 also declined but at a slower rate than filings. The courts concluded 222 complaints, down 9 percent from a year ago. Since terminations outnumbered filings, the pending caseload dropped 17 percent. There were 43 complaints pending on June 30, 1988.

As in prior years, the overwhelming majority of complaints (182 or 82 percent) were concluded by the chief judges. They dismissed 173 of the complaints, ruling that 144 were directly related to the merits of the original case; 18 were frivolous; and 11 were not in conformance with the statute. Five complaints were withdrawn by the complainant and, in the other four, appropriate action had already been taken.

The remaining 40 complaints were disposed of by the judicial councils of the circuits. Thirty-four of these complaints reached the judicial councils by way of petition for review, while the other six were referred to the councils by the chief judge after a special investigative committee had been appointed under Title 28 U.S.C. Section 372(c)(4)(A). The councils dismissed 37 of the 40 complaints. In one case, the council privately censured the judicial officer. In the other two cases, the council ordered other appropriate action which consisted of a private warning.

One petition for review of a complaint which had been referred to the Judicial Conference Committee to Review Circuit Council Conduct and Disability Orders under Section 372(c)(10) was pending as of July 1, 1987. During 1988, the Committee concluded this complaint by reprimanding the judicial officer. The Judicial Conference also acted directly on another matter which was referred by the Fifth Circuit Judicial Council under Section 372(c)(7)(B)(i). As provided in Section 372(c)(8), the Conference therein certified to the House of Representatives that consideration of impeachment of U. S. District Judge Walter L. Nixon, Jr., of the Southern District of Mississippi, may be warranted.

REPORT OF FEES AND EXPENSES
AWARDED UNDER THE EQUAL ACCESS TO JUSTICE ACT

THE EQUAL ACCESS TO JUSTICE ACT

The Equal Access to Justice Act, reauthorized by Public Law 99-80, 99 Stat. 183, lessens the financial burden on private parties who prevail against the U.S. Government in agency adversary adjudications or non-tort civil actions, by authorizing the award of attorney fees and expert witness fees. The Act also covers outlays for any study, analysis, engineering report, test, or project necessary in building a case. To be eligible for such an award, the party must prevail and meet certain financial requirements of the statute. Even when the private party prevails against the U.S. Government and is determined to be financially eligible, the attorney fees and other expenses requested can be denied if the U.S. Government can demonstrate that its position was "substantially justified". Applications for fees may also be denied if the court finds that the private litigant used delaying tactics or if special circumstances exist which would make an award unjust. This is the seventh report submitted by the Director in accordance with Title 28, U.S.C. Section 2412(d)(5).

AMENDMENT TO THE 1987 REPORT

After the 1987 Report was published, data were received on 14 additional fee determinations made prior to June 30, 1987. All 14 cases involved the Department of Health and Human Services and, in each case, the court granted attorney fees. These cases are included in Table 29, and raised the total number of equal access applications terminated during 1987 to 496. The Federal courts granted nearly 81 percent of the applications and awarded a total of $3,878,033 to the successful applicants.

SUMMARY AND ANALYSIS OF 1988 DATA

During 1988, the number of equal access applications disposed of by the Federal courts stabilized. There were 498 dispositions in 1988, only slightly above (less than 1 percent) the 496 dispositions in 1987. Approximately 85 percent (421) of the terminated applications were decided in the U.S. district courts. Three districts, New Jersey (85 applications); Pennsylvania, Eastern (33 applications); and New York, Western (31 applications) accounted for 30 percent of all equal access dispositions. The U.S. Courts of Appeals decided 67 equal access applications with the Eighth Circuit terminating the most (18 applications). The U.S. Claims Court disposed of 9 applications and the U.S. Court of International Trade disposed of 1 application. Table 30 summarizes equal access activity during 1988.

* Although the U.S. Supreme Court did not dispose of any equal access applications, the court did grant certiorari in Pierce v. Underwood, 108 S.Ct. 2541 (1988), to determine circumstances under which the U.S. Government must pay attorney fees to winning plaintiffs and what "special factors" may justify increasing those fees beyond the statutory cap of $75 per hour. The court held that if the U.S. Government is not substantially justified in its position it is liable for attorney fees. "Substantially justified" was interpreted to mean a position which has basis in both law and fact and could satisfy a reasonable person. The court also held that in order to preserve the Act's $75 per hour cap, "special factors" cannot be of broad and general application. Therefore, factors such as "novelty and difficulty of the issues," "the work and ability of the counsel," and "the undesirability of the case" do not qualify as "special" since they are applicable to a broad spectrum of litigation.

Once again, the vast majority of equal access applications (448 or 90 percent) were filed against the Department of Health and Human Services. Nearly all of these cases continue to involve the termination of disability benefits under the Social Security Act. The Federal courts awarded attorney fees in 85 percent of these cases because they ruled that the Social Security Administration had terminated a recipient's disability benefits without substantial justification. Twenty-four other agencies were involved in at least one equal access decision.

Approximately 68 percent (338 applications) of the actions concluded this year were original applications under Title 28 U.S.C. Section 2412(d)(1)(A), after judgment in a civil case against the United States Government. Another 23 percent (117 applications) were original applications under Title 28 U.S.C. Section 2412(d)(3) after the court reviewed an agency decision. Five equal access decisions were made after a petition for leave to appeal an administrative agency's fee determination had been filed pursuant to Title 5 U.S.C. Section 504(c)(2). In all five cases, the administrative agency had denied attorney fees. The court affirmed the agency's denial of attorney fees in two cases and reversed in three.

Thirty-eight applications involved an appeal of a lower court decision. The appellate court affirmed the lower court's decision in its entirety in 25 cases and reversed in 11 cases. In the other 2 cases, the appellate court affirmed the granting of an award but reduced the amount awarded. Cases remanded to the lower court for further proceedings are not included in this report.

Federal courts granted 402 (81 percent) requests for attorney fees and other expenses, awarding a total of $1,994,299. This is not the amount actually received by successful applicants, however, because many awards are appealed. As in prior years, the vast majority (nearly 99 percent) of the total amount awarded was for attorney fees. The courts also awarded $15,499 for other expenses such as travel and photocopying costs; $3,605 for expert witness fees; and $8,160 for the preparation of a report.

Compared to 1987, the total number of awards during 1988 was virtually the same; however, the total amount awarded dropped nearly 49 percent. The substantial decline in the total amount awarded is due to two very large awards (totalling $2,166,849) granted during 1987. During 1988, the largest award concerned a contract action filed against the Department of the Interior. Pursuant to a stipulated agreement, the court awarded the successful applicant $311,000. In another case, the court awarded $228,185 because the applicants were successful in changing the Immigration and Naturalization Service's practices and patterns of conducting searches and making arrests. No other awards were in excess of $100,000.

Of the 96 denied applications, nearly two-thirds (63 applications) were denied because the court found the U.S. position "substantially justified" as reasonable in law and fact. Fourteen were denied because the applicant was not the prevailing party; 8 because the application was not filed in a timely fashion; 4 because the court did not have jurisdiction to hear the request; 4 because special circumstances made an award unjust; 2 because the applicant should have filed under another fee-shifting statute; and 1 because the applicant was previously granted an award and that original award was held to be sufficient.

Two of the four "special circumstances" cases were denied because the parties had agreed to settle the case with both parties paying their own attorney fees. In another case, the application was denied because the court held the Equal Access to Justice Act does not apply to pro se representations. The fourth application was denied because the applicant did not properly support the request. The applicant failed to itemize attorney fees and other expenses and, consequently, there was nothing on which the court could base an award.

APPENDIX II PAYMENTS UNDER THE CRIMINAL JUSTICE ACT
FOR THE FISCAL YEAR 1987

TO THE CHAIRMAN AND MEMBERS OF THE JUDICIAL CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON DEFENDER SERVICES

The following is a summary report of activities relating to the Criminal Justice Act (CJA) during fiscal year 1987 (FY 87) which ended on September 30, 1987.

Status of Appropriations

The FY 87 appropriation for the implementation of the CJA was $87,858,000. It is estimated that $78,358,000 will be required in FY 87 to meet projected obligations, leaving an unobligated balance of $9,500,000 which will be available for use in FY 88. The distribution of FY 87 projected obligations is as follows:

Federal Defender Organizations (FDO) ¹	$27,963,000
CJA Panel Attorneys	43,710,000
Investigative, Expert & Other Services	2,950,000 ²
Transcripts	3,700,000
General Administrative Expense	35,000
Total	$78,358,000

² This amount includes FDO expenses of $380,000 for investigative, expert and other services which are not included in the FDO total above.

Legislation

Criminal Justice Act Revision of 1986

The Criminal Justice Act Revision of 1986, Public Law 99-651, became effective on March 14, 1987. A major provision of the new law authorizes the Judicial Conference to establish higher maximum hourly rates of compensation for CJA Panel attorneys not to exceed $75, for particular places of holding court. Guidelines concerning the establishment of alternative hourly rates were promulgated by the Judicial Conference at its March 1987 proceedings.

To date the Judicial Conference, upon recommendation of the Criminal Justice Act Committee (since renamed the Committee on Defender Services) has established an alternative hourly rate maximum for four districts (California Northern, Central, Eastern and Southern). This rate, $75 per hour for in and out of court time, is to be applied only in connection with death penalty habeas corpus representation. The "special" death penalty alternative rate became effective in the Northern, Central and Eastern Districts of California with respect to services performed on or after October 1, 1987, and in the Southern District of California with respect to services performed on or after November 6, 1987.

The Committee on Defender Services is scheduled to review applications for both general and special alternative rates at its January 1988 meeting. This review will include the consideration of applications which were submitted to but not acted upon by the Committee at its June 1987 meeting, new applications, and also, reconsideration of the special alternative rate already approved for the four California districts.

Sentencing Reform Act of 1984

Provisions in the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, which became effective on November 1, 1987, for all offenses committed on or after that date, substantially changed the nature of the sentencing process and are expected to increase both federal defender and private panel attorney workload.

In addition to higher in-court hours due to the increased length of sentencing proceedings, a substantial growth in the number of out-of-court hours is expected. Complex sentencing factors and the use of unadjudicated criminal conduct, and a complicated assessment of a defendant's criminal history could require new efforts in investigation and preparation for sentencing. Evidentiary hearings may be required to resolve disputed facts essential to guideline sentencing. Either local rules or the guidelines will require the attorneys for the parties to submit written memoranda to the court and/or probation office for relevant sentencing factors and objections. It is reasonable to expect that more procedural due process will be required in sentencing under a mandatory guideline system than was necessary before November 1, 1987.

The sentencing guidelines are also expected to result in more cases being tried. The narrow range permitted for sentencing guidelines which include prison terms (the maximum term may not exceed the minimum by more than 25 percent) may remove some of the incentive to plead guilty and result in more cases going to trial. From the other perspective, the government may be reluctant to enter into plea bargains which significantly diminish the presumptive sentence.

Finally, the option for both government and defense appeals of sentences both inside and outside the guidelines is expected to result in a significant increase in appellate litigation. However, the anticipated increase in the appellate caseload is not expected to have a significant impact on the overall number of cases opened. This is due to the elimination of the defendant's opportunity to file a motion to reconsider the sentence, as is now provided by Rule 35 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. Thus, higher "numbers" in appeals will likely be offset by lower "numbers" in the Rule 35 area. However, the work associated with sentencing appeals will be substantially more time-consuming than that required by the usual Rule 35 motion.

Representation in Federal Courts

During FY 87, approximately 62,327 persons were represented in the United States courts pursuant to the provisions of the CJA. This compares with 59,324 appointments in FY 86 and 54,778 appointments in FY 85. The number of appointments in FY 87 was thus 5.1 percent greater than those in FY 86 and 13.8 percent greater than in FY 85.

The following tables compare appointments of counsel, and distribution of CJA funds, between panel attorneys and Federal Defenders for fiscal years 1985, 1986 and 1987.

The following table reflects the actual number of appellate and district court CJA appointments in fiscal years 1983 through 1986, and their distribution between panel attorneys and Federal Defenders. Projections for fiscal years 1987 through 1989 are based upon data recorded through November 30, 1987, historical trends, and information obtained from Federal Defenders and the Executive Office for United States Attorneys.

⁴These figures do not reflect cancellations, waivers and terminations.

At the close of statistical year 1987, judiciary caseload statistics reflected that during the twelve month period ending June 30, 1987, a total of 43,292 criminal cases were filed, an increase of 4.0 percent from the statistical year 1986 level of 41,490. Criminal case filings increased in every circuit except the First, Second, Third and Fourth. The pending criminal caseload as of June 30, 1987 was 25,458 cases, an increase of 4.1 percent over 1986, its highest level ever.

Statistical year 1987 criminal filings increased in 9 of the 15 major offense categories. The primary contributor to the increase in the criminal caseload related to the Drug Abuse Prevention and Control Act (DAPCA). Case filings under DAPCA rose from a 1986 total of 7,893 to a 1987 total of 8,869, an increase of 12.4 percent. Prosecutions under the marijuana provisions alone rose by 20.8 percent, while filings for narcotics violations and controlled substances increased by 8.6 percent and 8.4 percent, respectively. DAPCA cases now account for 21.0 percent of all criminal filings and approximately 29.1 percent of all criminal defendants.

Major Federal Drug-Related Law Enforcement Activities

Federal Defender organizations have experienced a 128.9 percent increase in appointments in drug cases; from 1,980 in FY 82 to 4,532 in FY 87. Similarly, in-court hours for Federal Defender drug related cases have increased during this same period by 107.9 percent; from 8,219 to 17,089. A substantial proportion of these increases are believed to be attributable to three major Federal drug control programs which began after January 1983. A brief description of these programs follows.

President's Organized Crime Drug Enforcement Task Force Program

The President's Organized Crime Drug Enforcement Task Force Program, which began reviewing cases in January 1983, was designed to disrupt major drug trafficking organizations operating in the United States, many of which are international in scope.

During the period November 1, 1986 through October 31, 1987, 399 Task Force cases were initiated throughout the country, producing 1,084 indictments involving a total of 3,235 defendants. Of these defendants, 364 have been charged under the Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations (RICO) statute, while 344 defendants were charged under the Continuing Criminal Enterprise (CCE) statute.

Operation Alliance

"Operation Alliance" (Alliance), begun July 1, 1986, is a federal law enforcement effort to "seal" the border between the United States and Mexico, primarily from the inflow of illegal drugs. This program covers approximately 2,000 miles of the southern border of the United States, and involves thousands of Federal, State, and local law enforcement officials and sophisticated new equipment.

During the period October 1, 1986 through September 30, 1987, the combined activities of the various agencies involved accounted for over 6,424 drug seizures. The Federal Defender organizations in the Southwest Border area have experienced a 177 percent increase in appointments in drug cases; from 591 in FY 1986 to 1,636 in FY 87. A substantial proportion of this increase is believed to be attributable to Alliance.

Anti-Drug Abuse Act of 1986

The Anti-Drug Abuse Act of 1986, Public Law 991-570, was signed into law on October 27, 1986, and is considered by the National Drug Policy Board to be the most comprehensive drug legislation in history. Among its provisions, this law includes many significant changes in the criminal sanctions available for drug trafficking and related activities. The Administrative Office will monitor the impact of this law to ensure that corresponding increases in the need for defense services can be met.

Payments in Excess of the Statutory Minimum

The CJA provides that, in extended or complex cases, attorneys may receive compensation in excess of the general case compensation maximums when the presiding judicial officer certifies that such excess payment is necessary to provide fair compensation and the payment is approved by the chief judge of the circuit. Similarly, compensation in excess of the general maximum may be paid to persons providing investigative, expert and other services if the presiding judicial officer determines that the amount is necessary to provide fair compensation for services of an unusual character or duration and the amount of the excess payment is approved by the chief judge of the circuit.

The number of payments in excess of the attorney case compensation maximums during FY 87 was 4,420, an increase of approximately 35.4 percent from the 3,264 total for FY 86. These claims include cases opened in prior fiscal years. The total amount paid through September 30, 1987, for services relating to these claims (including any interim payments made in prior fiscal years) was $26,157,213.

The following table reflects the number of excess compensation payments for both attorneys and expert services by circuit during FY 87.

The following is a summary of excess compensation claims paid during FY 87 for both attorneys and expert services:

1. 2,969 excess payments were approved in felony cases and appeals. The largest of these payments amounted to $115,178 in a criminal espionage case in the Central District of California. The average for all such payments was $8,457.
2. 84 excess payments for extended or complex representation in misdemeanor cases were approved. The largest was $14,700 in an income tax fraud case in the Eastern District of Texas. The average for all such payments was $2,133.
3. 670 claims were approved for other cases. The largest payment was $16,776 for a habeas petitioner in the Western District of Washington; and the average for all matters was $1,809.
4. 697 claims for compensation for expert and other services of an unusual character or duration were approved and paid. The largest single payment was $250,336 for transcription and translation services in the District of Connecticut; and the average cost per case was $2,670.

Transcripts, Investigative, Expert and Other Services

As of November 30, 1987, $4,333,630 had been paid from the FY 87 Criminal Justice Act appropriation for transcripts, investigative, expert and other services. It is estimated that, as later claims attributable to FY 87 are approved and paid, the total for FY 87 will amount to $6,650,000. The following table reflects the cost of providing these services from FY 84 through FY 86, and estimates for FY 87 through FY 88.

Transcripts, Investigative, Expert and Other Services

Actual:	FY 1984	FY 1985	FY 1986

Federal Defender Organizations

Expansion of the Federal Defender Program continued with the creation of two branch offices. The Federal Defender organization for the Southern District of Texas established a branch office at McAllen, and the Federal Defender organization for the Central District of California is expected to open a branch office in Santa Ana on January 4, 1987.

Although a final accounting has not yet been completed, the cost of operating the Federal Defender Organizations during FY 87 is estimated to have been $28,343,000 or 9 percent less than the amount authorized. Approximately 77.5 percent of the cost of the operation of 40 Federal Defender Organizations in FY 87 was expended for personnel compensation and benefits.

A total of 33,412 cases were opened by Federal Defenders in FY 87, and 32,759 were closed. Increases in caseload were realized by 77.5 percent of the reporting Defender Organizations during FY 87. The office experiencing the highest volume during this period was the Southern District of California with 7,681 openings. This organization closed 7,621 cases, 3,979 of which were immigration and petty offense cases.

Based upon original budget and grant submissions, as a group, Federal Defenders realized 105.6 percent of their projected caseloads. This compares with 103.9 percent and 103.0 percent for fiscal years 1986 and 1985, respectively.
