To the People of Florida:

I welcome the opportunity to present this report on Florida's judicial system. The report has been prepared so that the general public and the Legislature may have a better understanding of the organization, operations, and workload of the State Courts System.

Data presented in the report for calendar years 1987 and 1988 show that Florida's courts are facing ever-increasing caseloads. The judiciary has addressed increased workload pressures through the implementation of a number of procedural enhancements, court improvement programs, and technological innovations. Many of Florida's courts have implemented alternative dispute resolution programs, which use mediation and arbitration to supplement the traditional judicial process. Time standards have been adopted for the processing of various types of litigation at both the trial and appellate levels. State-of-the-art computer systems have been installed in the appellate courts, improving automated resources for word processing, case management, legal research, and court administration. Public guardianship programs have been established in two circuits on a pilot basis and Florida's existing guardian ad litem program for abused and neglected children was enhanced to provide representation for children in divorce/custody proceedings. The Supreme Court adopted requirements for mandatory continuing judicial education and Florida judges can now participate in a broad range of annual conferences and educational specialty courses.

These enhancements in the State Courts System are but a foundation for improvements planned for the future. Florida's judiciary is committed to providing the citizenry with the most fair, expeditious, and cost effective ways possible to resolve disputes.

Sincerely,

Raymond Ehrlich
Chief Justice

FORWARD

The Florida State Courts System Report for calendar years 1986 and 1987 has been prepared by the Office of the State Courts Administrator, Management and Coordination Section. The purpose of the report is to keep the judiciary, as well as the general public, informed of the accomplishments, operations, and workload of Florida's Courts.

Florida's workloads have shown a significant increase during the 1986 and 1987 calendar years. The increase in circuit court filings from 1986 to 1987 was 5.6%. Increase over the same period for county court filings, with the exception of traffic matters, was 6.0%. Florida's district courts of appeal realized a 2.2% increase from 1986 to 1987. Yet, the size of Florida's judiciary has increased at only approximately half the rate of the increase of its workload, on an annual basis.

A number of major policy initiatives and programs were implemented during the two calendar years which are the subject of this report. Time standards were adopted for the processing of various types of litigation at the trial and appellate levels, first by administrative order and, subsequently, by rule of court. Another major policy initiative was in the area of mediation and arbitration. The Florida Legislature passed amendments to Florida law, by which court-annexed mediation programs could be established at the county and circuit court levels. The legislation also authorized both mandatory, non-binding and voluntary, binding arbitration. The Supreme Court developed rules which were adopted effective January 1, 1988, to implement the new law.

Significant gains have also been made in providing improved resources for the courts and automating various court functions and information support services. Florida's appellate courts were completely automated during 1986 and 1987. Appellate judges, law clerks, and support staff now have a full complement of word processing, case management, automated legal research, and administrative applications support packages running on systems in each court. Initial work began on improving computer support for trial courts and streamlining procedures for capturing data from all of the trial and appellate courts.

A program that would place law clerks in Florida's trial courts was begun as well. Currently, half of Florida's 20 judicial circuits have been provided with law clerks. Generally, they are allocated on the basis of one law clerk for every three judges. The law clerks assist in virtually all of the divisions of the court, depending on the jurisdiction, as well as any number of administrative areas in support of chief judges.

Public Guardianship Programs were established in two circuits on a pilot basis. Florida's existing Guardian Ad Litem Program for abused and neglected children was expanded to provide volunteer guardian ad litem representation for children who are involved in dissolution cases where custody issues exist. Florida completed implementation of computer aided transcription pilot programs in the First and Twelfth Judicial Circuits. These programs involved not only the use of computer aided transcription for preparation of the court records, but also an entirely new approach to employing and managing court reporter resources.

In 1987, the Supreme Court adopted mandatory continuing legal education requirements for members of Florida's integrated Bar. Subsequently, the Supreme Court adopted similar requirements for mandatory continuing judicial education for Florida judges. Florida's continuing judicial education program has been expanded substantially to accommodate the new requirements. It includes a broad range of continuing annual conferences, as well as many specialty programs in such areas as juvenile law, the law and humanities, evidence, complex litigation, etc.

Successful implementation of these many policies and programs over the 1986 and 1987 calendar years is largely attributable to the dedication of the leadership of Florida's judiciary, various committees and councils which advise the Supreme Court, judges at all levels of the State Courts System, and their support staff.

FLORIDA STATE COURTS SYSTEM OVERVIEW

THE JUDICIAL BRANCH

Since statehood in 1845, the Florida Judicial System has evolved from a collection of trial courts and a single appellate court to a unified court system. This system consists of two levels of appellate courts, the Supreme Court and the district courts of appeal, and two levels of trial courts, the circuit courts and the county courts. Figure 1 illustrates these judicial boundaries. The legal jurisdiction of these courts is provided by general law and is applied uniformly throughout the state.

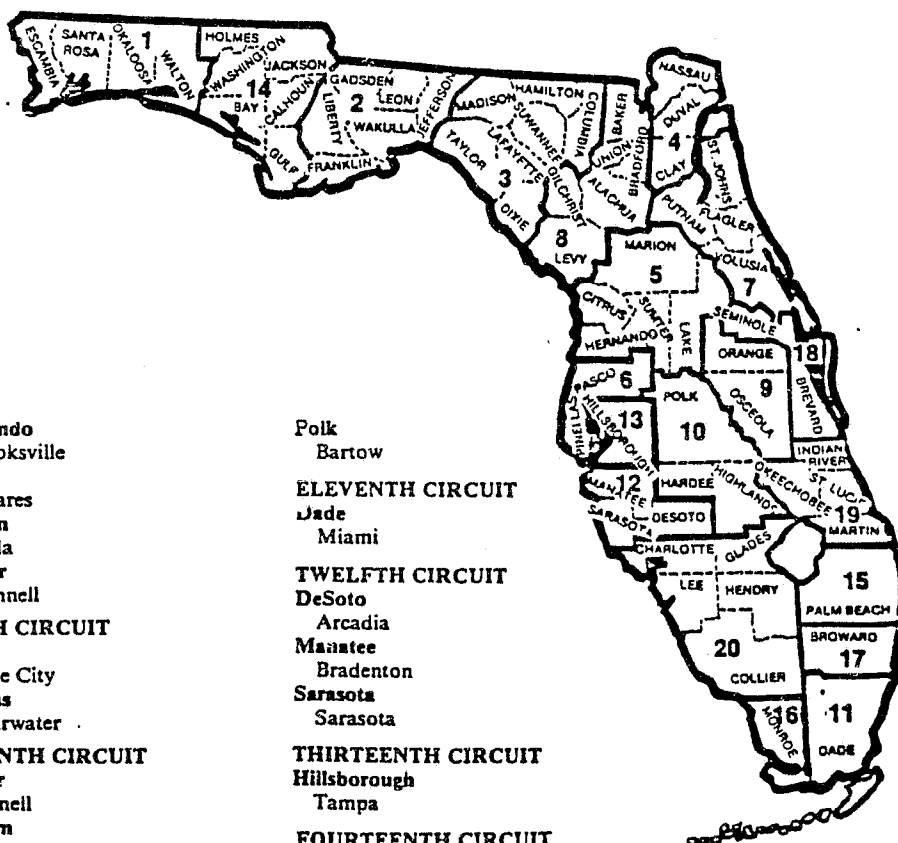

The number of judges serving each court is also provided by general law, with the exception of the number of supreme court justices. This number is fixed at seven by the state constitution under Article V. The constitution authorizes the Supreme Court to recommend changes in appellate districts and judicial circuits, including the number of judges in these courts. Changes are made on the basis of uniform criteria and recommendations are certified to the Legislature prior to its regular session each year. Tables 2, 3, and 4 depict the number of judges in the District Court of Appeals, Circuit Courts and County Courts, respectively.

The voters of Florida amended the Constitution in 1976 to establish a merit selection and retention system for choosing justices of the Supreme Court and judges of the district courts of appeal. Appellate judges are appointed by the Governor from a list of qualified persons recommended by a judicial nominating commission. Circuit and county judges are elected by the voters in the respective circuits and counties in non-partisan, contested elections against other persons who choose to qualify as candidates for the position.

OF

ORGANIZATION OF THE SUPREME COURT

The Supreme Court serves as the state's court of last resort. It sits at the capital, Tallahassee, and has statewide jurisdiction. Florida's first state Supreme Court was created by Florida's first state constitution in 1838, but was not actually established until 1845 when Florida achieved statehood. The administrative structure, procedural authority, and jurisdiction of today's Florida State Supreme Court is set forth in Article V of the Constitution of the State of Florida.

The Supreme Court is charged with the responsibility of adopting rules for the practice, procedure, and administrative supervision of all courts; at both appellate and trial levels. However, these rules may be repealed, if necessary, by general law enacted by a two-thirds' vote of the membership of each house of the legislature.

The Supreme Court consists of seven justices, each of whom is appointed to serve terms of six years. Each of Florida's five appellate districts is represented by at least one justice appointed from the respective districts. In 1976, the voters of Florida amended the Constitution to establish a merit selection and retention system for choosing a justice of the Supreme Court. Appellate justices and judges are appointed by the Governor from a list of qualified persons recommended by a judicial nominating commission.

As an office term ends, the name of the justice who desires to continue in office is listed on a ballot during general election for a merit retention vote. If the majority of votes are not in favor of the incumbent justice, the Governor appoints another person from the list of applicants approved by a judicial nominating commission.

When Supreme Court Justices are meeting to review cases brought before them, the concurrence of four justices is necessary for a decision and five justices are required to constitute a quorum. Powers and jurisdiction are exercised by the Supreme Court en banc (i.e., seven justices) for appeals involving capital cases, the validity of a state or federal statute, or provisions of the Florida or federal constitution.

The Supreme Court also has supervisory responsibility over The Florida Bar, which is charged with the maintenance of the highest standards and obligations of the profession of law. Florida has an integrated Bar, meaning that all lawyers admitted to the practice of law in Florida must be members of the official professional association which is under the Court's constitutional authority to regulate. The Bar assists the Court in various ways, such as providing recommendations regarding appropriate disciplinary action against lawyers and educational services to its members.

JURISDICTION

Jurisdiction of the Supreme Court, as set forth in Article V of the Constitution of the State of Florida, extends to the following matters:

1. Appeals from final judgments of trial courts imposing a penalty of death and from district court of appeal decisions which declare invalid a state statute or a provision of the state constitution.
2. Appeals from final judgments involving the validation of bonds or certificates of indebtedness, and decisions by the Public Service Commission involving electric, gas, or telephone service.

3. Decisions by a district court of appeal which expressly construe a provision of the state or federal constitution, declare valid a state statute, affect a class of state or constitutional officers, or directly conflict with another district court of appeal or a Supreme Court decision on the same question of law.
4. Pending matters in a district court of appeal which are certified to be of great public importance or which have a great affect on the proper administration of justice throughout the state.
5. Questions of law certified by the Supreme Court of the United States or a United State Court of Appeals for which there are no controlling precedents in the Supreme Court of Florida.
6. Writs of prohibition to courts, all writs necessary to complete the exercise of its jurisdiction, writs of mandamus and quo warrant to state agencies and officials, and writs of habeas corpus.

ADMINISTRATION

Chief Justice

The Chief Justice presides as the chief administrative office of the judicial system, having the power to assign justices and judges, including retired ones who consent, to temporary duties for which they are so qualified and compensated. He is elected by a majority of the members of the court and assumes the position on July 1st of even-numbered years for a term of two years.

Should a chief justice die, retire, or become unable to perform such duties, the vacancy is promptly filled by the justice who has the longest continuous term of service on the court. This justice serves the balance of the term or until a successor is elected.

In addition to jurisdiction over all of the courts in Florida, the Supreme Court also exercises its authority to create, establish, appoint, and confirm positions, councils, commissions, and committees to perform such duties as the Chief Justice directs. Expand list of administrative duties including development of unified state court system budget, adoption of strategic plan for information technology, adoption of uniform personnel rules and pay plan use.

Clerk, Marshal, and Law Librarian

Each is appointed by the Supreme Court and serve at the Court's pleasure to perform various duties as directed.

The clerk is responsible for maintaining custody of records, files, the seal of the Court, and records of proceedings. He is also charged with the responsibility of collecting filing fees in all cases filed in the Court, issuing mandates as directed by the Court, and recording and notifying affected parties of any final judgment. The first clerk was appointed to the position in 1849.

The marshal is given authority to execute the process of the Court throughout the state, deputize the sheriff or a deputy sheriff in any county for this purpose, and oversee the custodial functions of the Court building, its grounds and furnishings. The first marshal was appointed to the position in 1935.

The Florida Supreme Court Library is the oldest state-supported library in continuous operation in Florida. There exists in the library an 1845 catalog of the 260 volumes in the first collection. The library has always been housed with the Supreme Court, even in its three prior locations. The library has primarily been intended for the use of the Supreme Court, but has always been open to members of the Florida Bar and the public from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday.

From 1862, the Clerk of the Supreme Court also served as Librarian. By 1899, the Court employed a full-time Assistant Librarian, and in 1957, the duties of the Clerk/Librarian were separated and the former Assistant Librarian assumed full authority over the Library.

Today, the Supreme Court Library contains 93,000 volumes, with nearly 10,000 monograph titles, 1,000 serial titles, 396 periodical titles, 32,000 pieces of microfilm, and 600 linear feet of archival and manuscript collections relating to the Court, Justices, impeachments and the Constitution. In 1975, the Library became a U.S. Government Printing Office depository library. It is classified as a highly selection depository library and acquires court and administrative agency reports, the Federal Register, CFR and general government reference works.

The library has access to numerous on-line data bases for legal and general research, as well as bibliographic information.

Justice Data Center (JDC)

Until 1978, the executive branch of government provided data processing support for maintenance of statistical data on the judicial system. By August 1979, a central data center was in operation under the authority of the Supreme Court.

The Justice Data Center, located in the sub-basement of the Supreme Court Building, serves the data processing needs of the state courts system and the Department of Corrections. Its staff is comprised of four administration personnel, seven technical personnel and seven operational personnel. Applications development personnel are located in each user agency. The Information Systems Section of OSCA provides such support for the state courts system.

Recent accomplishments of the JDC include upgrading the computing power to an IBM 3081 Model K, which provides 48 million characters of real memory and is capable of processing 14 million instructions per second. The total number of terminals in the network has expanded to approximately 1,400, with an average response-time of about 1.5 seconds.

The Justice Data Center has links to Florida Department of Law Enforcement through an IBM Series/1; to the State Comptroller's Data Center providing SAMAS information; and to West Publishing in St. Paul, Minnesota which provides Westlaw and a means for electronic transmission of court rulings. There is also a link to the Department of State.

Additionally, the JDC has two tape drives, 6 cartridge drives, two 1100 line-a-minute printers, an extensive network-monitoring facility and 30 billion characters of on-line storage.

Internal Auditor

The position of Financial Assistant/Auditor of the Chief Justice (Internal Auditor) was established in 1974 to assist the Chief Justice relative to his constitutional duties as the chief administrative officer of the state courts system. The internal auditor serves at the pleasure of the Chief Justice, acting in a confidential capacity and performing assigned duties.

In general, the duties of the internal auditor are to review, investigate or take such other action relative to programs, projects, and other matters as assigned by the Chief Justice, and to report such findings and recommendations thereon to the Chief Justice. Assignments may include the review and evaluation of internal controls and the conduct of financial, compliance, and performance audits of entities in the state courts system. In the conduct of audits, the internal auditor complies with accepted governmental auditing standards and other accepted standards when appropriate. The internal auditor may also serve in a liaison capacity with the Office of the Auditor General and other state agencies.

Office of the State Courts Administrator

The position of State Courts Administrator was created by the Supreme Court in 1971 to assist the Chief Justice in carrying out his duties as the chief administrative officer of the Florida judiciary. The State Courts Administrator serves at the pleasure of the Court and receives compensation as fixed by the Supreme Court.

The Office of the State Courts Administrator is designed to provide for professional administration regarding non-adjudicative functions of the state's judicial system. The duties of this office include preparing and submitting a tentative budget request to the Court and presenting the final budget to the legislature; representing the state court system before the legislature and other bodies regarding other matters which affect the state court system; coordinating, managing, and providing technical assistance to court-administered programs throughout the state; acting as staff to committees, councils, and commissions which have been appointed by the Supreme Court; assisting in the preparation of educational and training materials for court-related personnel; maintaining uniform financial cost data, workloads, and other statistical information which reflects the business of Florida's court system.

To aid in the administration of the state courts system, the State Courts Administrator is authorized to employ support staff as deemed necessary by the Supreme Court. The Office of the State Courts Administrator is divided into three major divisions: Legal Affairs and Education, Court Programs, and Administrative Services.

CASELOAD

The caseload of the Supreme Court is represented by the number of filings and dispositions of appeals in mandatory review cases; discretionary review of decisions of district courts of appeal, orders and judgments of trial courts and questions of law certified by the United State Supreme Court or a court of appeals; and original proceedings. Figures and tables illustrating the Supreme Court's filings and dispositions are presented on the following pages.

THE DISTRICT COURTS OF APPEAL

ORGANIZATION OF THE
DISTRICT COURTS OF APPEAL

By constitutional amendment and by statute, five district courts of appeal have been established in Florida. As specified in Article V (Section 4(a)) of the Constitution of the State of Florida, "there shall be a district court of appeal serving each appellate district."

A minimum of three judges must be in each district, but this number may be increased should the Supreme Court certify and the Legislature authorize additional judgeships. Three judges are required to consider each case, with the concurrence of two being necessary to render a decision. The legislature created the following appellate districts:

First Appellate District (Tallahassee) - First, Second, Third, Fourth, Eighth, and Fourteenth Judicial Circuits..

Second Appellate District (Lakeland) - Sixth, Tenth, Twelfth, Thirteenth, and Twentieth Judicial Circuits.

Third Appellate District (Miami) - Eleventh and Sixteenth Judicial Circuits.

Fourth Appellate District (West Palm Beach) - Fifteenth, Seventeenth, and Nineteenth Judicial Circuits.

Fifth Appellate District (Daytona Beach) - Fifth, Seventh, Ninth, and Eighteenth Judicial Circuits.

As of May, 1986, the five district courts were composed of twelve, ten, nine, nine, and six judge respectively. All district court of appeal judges are subject to the same system of merit retention as are the Supreme Court justices (Article V, § 10).

JURISDICTION

Jurisdiction of the district courts of appeal, as set forth in Article V (Section 4) of the Constitution of the State of Florida, extends to the following matters:

1. Final judgments or orders of the trial courts not directly appealable to the Supreme Court or the Circuit Courts, including those entered on review of administrative action and interlocutory orders to the extent provided by rules adopted by the Supreme Court.
2. Reviews of administrative action, as presented by general law.
3. Issuance of writs of habeas corpus, mandamus, certiorari, prohibition, and quo warranto to the extent necessary to the complete exercise of its jurisdiction.
4. Final judgments certified by the county court as involving matters of statewide application and great public importance.

ADMINISTRATION

Chief Judge

Article V, section 2(c), Florida Constitution, and the Florida Rules of Court (Rule 2.040) provide that one judge is to be chosen by a majority of the judges of each district court of appeal to serve as chief judge of the district. If no judge receives a majority, the chief judge is chosen by the chief justice of the Supreme Court.

The chief judge is responsible for the administrative supervision of the district court. He is specifically responsible for:

- o Ordering consolidation of cases;
- o Assigned cases to the judges for the preparation of opinions, orders, or judgments;
- o Reviewing reasons for and times of contemplated absences of judges from the court; and,
- o Dispatching of other court business as necessary.

The term of service for chief judge is two years, commencing on July 1st of each odd numbered year. Vacancies, when they occur, are promptly filled for the balance of the unexpired term.

Clerk and Marshal

Each district court of appeal appoints a clerk and a marshal who hold office at the pleasure of the court, performing duties as the court directs.

The clerks are located in the headquarters of the respective district courts of appeal. The clerk's time is fully devoted to the duties of the office, as he is not allowed to engage in the outside practice of law. Responsibilities of the office include: keeping the seal of the court and any books, papers, records, or files relating to court business; preparing notices; docketing; performing ancillary functions; and closing cases.

The marshals for the district courts of appeal have six major responsibilities. These include: courtroom duties, such as setting up the courtroom before each session and call each session to order; fiscal duties, including budget preparation, maintenance of accounting records and processing of all invoices for payment; purchasing and inventory duties; library management; maintenance; and other support services.

FLORIDA CONFERENCE OF DISTRICT COURT OF APPEAL JUDGES

The Florida Conference of District Court of Appeal Judges is composed of all active district court of appeal (DCA) judges.

The conference meets annually and conducts an annual education conference for the purpose of bringing developments in the law to all the appellate court judges. The conference is directed by its officers: the President, the President-Elect, and the Secretary/Treasurer. The executive committee is composed of the chief judges from each of the district courts of appeal.

CASELOAD

The caseload of the district courts of appeal is comprised of appeals, petitions for writs of certiorari, and original writs.

Figures and tables illustrating the district courts of appeal filings and dispositions are presented on the following pages.

THE CIRCUIT COURTS

JURISDICTION

The circuit courts constitute Florida's trial courts of general jurisdiction. The territorial jurisdiction of the twenty judicial circuits follows county lines. The circuit courts handle appeals from county courts, except those appeals which may be taken to the district courts of appeal. Additionally, these courts have the power to issue writs of mandamus, quo warranto, certiorari, prohibition and habeas corpus, and all writs necessary or proper to the complete exercise of their jurisdiction. Finally, the circuit courts are also given the right to issue injunctions and the power of direct review of administrative action as prescribed by general law.

ADMINISTRATION

Chief Judge

As provided by the Florida Constitution in Article V and the Florida Rules of Judicial Administration, the chief judge for each circuit is chosen by vote of the circuit and county judges in the circuit. However, if there is no majority vote, the chief judge will be selected by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. The term for the chief judge is two years and begins July 1st of each odd-numbered year. A chief judge may be re-elected to serve successive terms.

The chief judge has the responsibility of administrative supervisor over all courts, judges, and officers of the courts in the circuit. As administrator of the circuit, the chief judge is responsible for:

- o developing an administrative plan for the circuit to run efficiently and properly;

- o assigning judges to courts and divisions, and determining the length of each assignment;
- o assigning judges to temporary duty within the circuit;
- o appointing an "administrative judge" in any court or court division of the circuit to assist with the administration of that particular court or division;
- o regulating the use of courtrooms, examining the dockets in the circuit, requiring status reports of the actions on the dockets; and
- o examining the status of every inmate in the county jails.

Trial Court Administrator

Each of the twenty circuits has a trial court administrator assisting the chief judge in carrying out his administrative duties. The trial court administrator is selected by a majority vote of the circuit judges in the circuit and reports directly to the chief judge. The trial court administrator may provide support and assistance to the chief judge and other judges in the following management areas:

- o budget administration;
- o fiscal administration;
- o facilities management;
- o personnel administration;
- o public information;
- o caseflow management;
- o jury management;
- o witness management;
- o information systems management;

- o court reporting management;
- o jail population management;
- o court technology;
- o dispute resolution;
- o Guardian Ad Litem;
- o court interpreters;
- o pretrial release; and,
- o probation.

Clerk of the Court

The clerk of the circuit court is elected by voters in the county for a term of four years. The office is located at the county seat. In counties where the necessity arises, the clerk has the authority to establish a branch office and to staff the office with a deputy clerk. The deputy clerk will have the authority to carry out the duties of the clerk in his absence.

The clerk keeps a progress docket on all proceedings going before the court. The clerk is also the recorder of all documents authorized or required by law to be recorded in the county. These documents are recorded in the "Official Records" which is the general series of books where the clerk is to register the time of filing, the filing number of each document filed for record, the type of document, and the names of the parties on the document. The clerk is responsible for recording documents upon payment for the services rendered.

CONFERENCE OF CIRCUIT COURT JUDGES

As provided by Florida Statute 26.55, the Conference of Circuit Court Judges meets annually to elect a chairperson. The chairperson then assumes the responsibility of calling all meetings and appointing all committees to effectively accomplish the goals of the conference. The membership is composed of active and retired judges throughout the state. The conference is responsible for:

- o recommending improvements to the judicial system;
- o recommending improvements in the rules and methods of practices and procedures in the courts;
- o reporting their findings to the Supreme Court.

The chairperson of the conference must report to the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House not less than 60 days prior to the beginning of the legislative session. At that time, the conference chairperson will advise the President and Speaker of any recommendation the conference may have concerning the laws of the state, amendments, or legislative action which the conference would like to have considered during the session.

COUNTY COURTS

ORGANIZATION AND JURISDICTION OF COUNTY COURTS

Each of Florida's sixty-seven counties has a county court which falls under the administrative supervision of the chief judge for the circuit in which the county resides. The chief judge may appoint a judge in each county to serve as the administrative judge, and a deputy court administrator may be appointed to assist with administrative responsibilities.

The county courts serve as the trial courts of limited jurisdiction. They have original jurisdiction in all criminal misdemeanor cases not arising out of the same circumstances as a felony which is also charged and in all violations of municipal or county ordinances. In civil matters, county courts have original jurisdiction in all actions at law in which the matter in controversy does not exceed the sum of $5,000, exclusive of interest and costs and which is not within the exclusive jurisdiction of the circuit courts. Civil actions of $1,500 or less are handled through small claims rules of procedure. In addition, county courts have original jurisdiction in all criminal or civil traffic cases. County court judges also serve as committing magistrates.

County court judges are elected to the court for a four-year term in non-partisan, contested elections against other individuals who choose to qualify for the office. To qualify as a candidate, the individual must have been a member of The Florida Bar for five years and be a resident of the county in which he serves. In counties with a population of 40,000 or less, the only qualification is that the individual be a member of The Florida Bar. Should a vacancy occur, the appropriate judicial nominating commission will submit a minimum of three candidates for consideration to the Governor. The Governor will then appoint one of the nominees to fill the vacancy for the appointed term.

CONFERENCE OF COUNTY COURT JUDGES

The Conference of County Court Judges was created by the adoption of Rule 1.120, Rules of Judicial Administration. The purpose of the conference is:

- o for the betterment of the judicial system of the state;
- o for the improvement of procedure and practice in several courts; and
- o to conduct conferences and institutes for continuing judicial education and to provide forums in which the county court judges of Florida may meet and discuss mutual problems and solutions.

The conference is managed by its officers, an executive committee, and a board of directors. The officers are the president, president-elect, immediate past president, secretary and treasurer, and one vice-president elected from each appellate court district. The executive committee is composed of the elected officers of the conference and an executive secretary. The board of directors consists of the executive committee and a member elected from each judicial circuit.

The conference holds an annual meeting; however, between annual meetings, all conference business is handled by the executive committee.
