This report provides an overview of juvenile court dispositions in Pennsylvania. The data contained in this publication are a summary of the information forwarded by all of the juvenile courts in the Commonwealth to the Juvenile Court Judges' Commission during calendar year 1988.

It is our hope that the data contained in this report will be informative to the general public; and useful to all those agencies and organizations concerned with the problems, issues and needs associated with delinquent youth.

This report would not be possible without the financial support of the Pennsylvania Commission on Crime and Delinquency, and the information supplied by the juvenile courts and juvenile probation departments of this Commonwealth. It is with a sincere appreciation of these dedicated people that the Commission presents this report.

Respectfully submitted,

PREFACE

To avoid confusion regarding the unit of count used in tabulating Juvenile Court Statistics and to improve the understanding of how data can be interpreted kindly note:

1. The primary unit of count is the DISPOSITION. A disposition is defined as a referral disposed by the probation department and/or the court. Within a single referral, a youth may be charged with a number of offenses which may include a number of petitions, and one youth may be involved in a number of dispositions within a calendar year. In addition, a youth may be referred on more than one occasion and receive only one disposition. Therefore, one is cautioned NOT to attempt to interpret the data as:
 - a. the number of youth who are processed by the court;
 - b. the number of offenses charged to juveniles.

The use of disposition as the unit of count was selected because it provides the best statistic for indicating how frequently the juvenile court is utilized in dealing with law violating;

2. There are times when you will see the word "CASE" used to describe the data. In JCJC reports the word case is used interchangeably with the word "disposition";
3. Therefore, the UNIT OF COUNT refers to a case disposed by a juvenile court and/or probation department. The term "DISPOSED" means that some definite action/decision has been implemented or that some treatment plan has been decided upon or begun;
4. The data presented in JCJC reports does not constitute a complete and comprehensive measure of the extent of delinquent behavior. Some youth are never apprehended and of those that are apprehended the police, school authorities, or other social agencies divert some cases for intervention outside the juvenile court system. In addition, the statistical system is not geared to collect all charges. The system is constructed to collect up to a total of the four (4) most serious charges per disposition;
5. Some agencies and individuals attempt to utilize the JCJC reports to assess the workload of the juvenile courts and/or probation departments. The data collected by JCJC does NOT reflect the workload of said entities. At best the figures reported by JCJC would reflect only a partial indication of workload and/or activity;
6. The report is limited to dispositional data regarding delinquency cases and does not include dependency cases.
7. Beginning with the 1985 report the Commission collected additional information on placement reviews and selected special conditions attached to the primary disposition(s). In order to maintain the ability to compare dispositional information with data reported prior to 1985, this information is not included in the primary tables but is reported in the last several pages of the report.

In addition with the 1985 report the Commission began collecting information on dispositional reviews apart from cases with new charges. The dispositional review is a non-placement review before the court in which the youth is present at the proceedings. These reviews are included throughout the report except where noted. Three new tables have been included to provide the reader with a clear picture of the disposition process. These tables are the following:
