INTRODUCTION

This report deals with criminal cases finalised by the NSW Local, District and Supreme Courts in 1991. For the first time statistical information on criminal matters dealt with by the NSW Higher and Lower Courts has been brought together in one report. In previous years Local Court matters and Higher Court matters were reported in two separate series of statistical reports: New South Wales Lower Criminal Courts and Children's Courts Statistics and New South Wales Higher Criminal Courts Statistics.

The report provides statistical information on all criminal matters finalised by the District and Supreme Courts in 1991. However, minor criminal matters heard in Local Courts, such as appeals against parking fines, are not included in the report.

Unfortunately this year's report contains no statistical information on appearances before Children's Courts in 1991. Responsibility for juvenile justice has been taken over by the newly created Office of Juvenile Justice, which was gazetted in November 1991. As a result of the lengthy transition period, it was not until April 1992 that the Office of Juvenile Justice took over responsibility for the Children's Courts data collection. The Children's Courts data for 1991 had not been subject to any regular checking in the interim period. In these circumstances the Office of Juvenile Justice could not guarantee the accuracy of the data and was therefore not prepared to release the data for publication.

SUMMARY OF MAIN FEATURES

LOCAL COURTS

1. There were 109,807 criminal cases disposed of by NSW Local Courts in 1991, an increase of less than 1% compared with the 109,210 cases disposed of in 1990.
2. Thirty per cent of the charges dealt with were driving offences. Theft offences accounted for another 20% of charges.
3. More than two-thirds (68%) of the court appearances were finalised as sentence hearings for persons who pleaded guilty. Defended hearings were held for only 16% of persons charged.
4. The outcome was a guilty finding (including guilty pleas) for 96,930 (88%) of the 109,807 persons charged.
5. The penalty most frequently imposed was a fine; a fine was imposed as the penalty for the principal offence for 65% of persons found guilty.
6. Compared with 1990, proven cases of drug offences increased by 9% (from 7,446 cases in 1990 to 8,108 cases in 1991) and proven cases of theft offences increased by 7% (from 16,937 cases in 1990 to 18,062 cases in 1991).
7. Proven cases of offensive behaviour decreased by 9% compared with 1990 (from 9,411 cases in 1990 to 8,574 cases in 1991). There was also an 8% decrease in persons found guilty of PCA offences (from 25,468 cases in 1990 to 23,455 cases in 1991).
8. Court appearance rates in the Sydney Statistical Division were highest in the Statistical Subdivisions of Inner Sydney (3,022.0 persons charged per 100,000 population), Fairfield-Liverpool (1,941.5 persons charged per 100,000 population) and Outer South Western Sydney (1,804.3 persons charged per 100,000 population).
9. Outside Sydney, court appearance rates were highest in the Far West Statistical Division (3,976.5 persons charged per 100,000 population) and the North Western Statistical Division (3,290.9 persons charged per 100,000 population). The next highest rate was in the Northern Statistical Division (2,165.0 persons charged per 100,000 population).

HIGHER COURTS

1. The overall number of trial cases registered in the NSW Higher Criminal Courts fell by 320 cases, from 4,059 cases in 1990 to 3,739 in 1991, a decrease of 8%.
2. The total number of trial and sentence cases finalised increased by 7% from 5,532 cases in 1990 to 5,893 cases in 1991.
3. There were 6,402 persons charged with criminal offences in the trial and sentence cases finalised by the NSW District and Supreme Courts in 1991. This figure represents a 7% increase over the 5,992 persons charged in cases finalised in 1990.
4. Only 1,627 (25%) of the 6,402 persons charged proceeded to trial. Nearly half of these (795 or 49%) were acquitted of all charges.
5. There were 4,475 persons (70% of all persons charged) who either pleaded guilty or were found guilty by trial of at least one charge.
6. A penalty of imprisonment was imposed for 2,210 (49%) of the 4,475 persons found guilty. This percentage is slightly higher than that for 1990 when 47% of persons found guilty were sentenced to prison.
7. The median delay from arrest to committal, where the accused is held on remand but eventually acquitted of all charges, fell from 105 days in 1990 to 96 days in 1991, a decrease of 9%.
8. The median delay from committal to outcome, where the accused is held on remand but eventually acquitted of all charges, fell from 255 days in 1990 to 238.5 days in 1991, a decrease of 6%.

NEW SOUTH WALES LOCAL COURTS

Explanatory notes and tables

EXPLANATORY NOTES: LOCAL COURTS TABLES

- Explanatory notes are given for data items in the order in which they first appear in the tables.

TABLE 1: PERSONS CHARGED AND CHARGES

Charge

A charge refers to an instance of a particular type of offence being charged against a person. A finalised charge is one which has been fully determined by the court and no further court proceedings are required. Finalised charges are the basic counting units in this report.

- Where there are multiple counts of the same offence (i.e. charged under the same Act and Section) and each count receives the same outcome, the multiple counts are treated as a single offence. Where multiple counts of the same offence have different outcomes, they are counted as separate charges.

Persons charged

A person charged refers to a group of one or more charges against a single individual, which are finalised by the court on a single day. Such a group of finalised charges against a single individual is also referred to as a court appearance.

- This report does not distinguish 'distinct' persons within the counting period. If a person is a defendant in more than one court appearance during the counting period, such a person will be counted more than once in the report.

Table 1 shows the numbers of persons charged with offences within particular offence groups. This table counts individuals more than once, in all cases where the accused was charged with more than one offence and those offences fall within different offence groups.

Type of offence

Offence groups in the Local Courts tables are based on the Australian National Classification of Offences (ANCO) issued by the Australian Bureau of Statistics (ABS Catalogue Number 1234.0). The coding system does not correspond to any single ANCO level but is structured to give more detailed information on those types of offence which form a large proportion of the workload of the Local Court.

In this report a new offence category of 'cause injury by driving' has been included. Offences in this category were included in the 'assault' category in previous reports. This change has been made to permit comparison with the Higher Courts tables.

Note: the Bureau has offence information at the level of Act and Section. Information at this level of detail can be obtained by contacting the Information Officer.

TABLE 2: OUTCOME OF CHARGES

Table 2 shows the court outcomes for all charges. Where a person was charged with more than one offence, each offence is counted separately. Those cases resulting in dismissal of the charge are separated from those in which the offence was proven. Charges can be dismissed by the court after a hearing, or where the prosecution elect to withdraw the charge due to insufficient evidence, or for some other reason, such as the death of the accused. A matter can also be stood out of the court list for various reasons; this outcome allows the prosecution to re-enter the matter at a later time.

Note that Sections 428W and 428X of the Crimes Act, dealing with fitness to plead, were repealed during 1990 and have been replaced by Sections 32 and 33 of the Mental Health (Criminal Procedure) Act 1990 No. 10, as indicated in the table.

TABLE 3: OUTCOME OF APPEARANCE

Table 3 presents the major outcome of the court process for individual persons charged. Those appearances which involved a defended hearing are separated from those where the accused was convicted ex parte or pleaded guilty to all charges. Separate categories are also included where the charges were dismissed without a defended hearing or were otherwise disposed of. The possible outcome types are as follows.

Proceeded to defended hearing

All charges dismissed: Appearances in this category involved the accused being found not guilty of any offence, following a defended hearing. Such appearances may have included some charges being dismissed without hearing.

Guilty of at least one charge: In this category the accused pleaded not guilty, but was found guilty by the court of at least one of the offences charged.

Other: Appearances in this category are those where the accused was found not guilty of one or more charges, following a defended hearing, but pleaded guilty to at least one other charge.

Convicted ex parte

This category includes cases where the accused either (i) pleaded guilty and was convicted in his/her absence, or (ii) failed to appear and was convicted by the court on the evidence presented.

All charges dismissed without hearing

This category includes cases where all charges were dismissed by the court, but there was no defended hearing.

EXPLANATORY NOTES: LOCAL COURTS TABLES

Sentenced after guilty plea

Appearances in this category include those cases where the accused pleaded guilty to at least one charge, and the other charges were dismissed or otherwise disposed of.

All charges otherwise disposed of

This category includes cases where the charges were stood out of the list, the recognizance was forfeited, or where the accused died prior to finalisation of the case.

TABLES 4 AND 5: LEGAL REPRESENTATION AND BAIL STATUS

Tables 4 and 5 present the outcome for each appearance by legal representation and the bail status of the accused respectively.

Bail status

Bail status refers to the status of the accused at the final appearance. Those remanded in custody (bail refused) are distinguished from those people who were on conditional or unconditional bail, those for whom bail had been dispensed with, and those who had received a summons. Those persons in gaol for a previous offence are regarded as being of equivalent status to those on bail in terms of receiving priority for a Local Court hearing. (For this reason they are excluded from the gaol category in the duration table, Table 13.)

TABLES 6 TO 11: PENALTIES IMPOSED FOR PRINCIPAL OFFENCE

Persons found guilty

Persons found guilty are those persons who, for at least one offence charged, either pleaded guilty or were found guilty after a defended hearing.

Principal offence

Appendix 2 provides explanations of the penalty types used in the Local Court. Penalties shown in the tables indicate the principal penalty imposed on the principal offence. The principal offence is defined to be that offence charged, which received the most serious penalty according to the following rules:

- (a) Where an offender was found guilty of more than one offence, that offence which received the most serious penalty type is the principal offence. Appendix 3 lists the hierarchy of penalty type seriousness used for this calculation.

EXPLANATORY NOTES: LOCAL COURTS TABLES

- (b) Where there were two or more offences which received the same penalty type, that offence which received the greatest quantum of that penalty type is the principal offence. (Note that for this calculation, if multiple counts of the same offence type received different penalties, they are treated as separate offences.)
- (c) If there was more than one offence which received the same quantum of the same penalty type, the last of these offences recorded on the court file is selected as the principal offence.
- (d) Where an offence received more than one penalty, a principal penalty for that offence is first calculated following the rules set out above. The determination of principal offence is then calculated on the principal penalty for each offence.

Amount of fine

Table 7 shows the dollar amount of fines imposed, where a fine was the principal penalty imposed for the principal offence.

Duration of Community Service Order

Table 8 shows the duration of CSOs imposed, where a CSO was the principal penalty imposed for the principal offence. Note that a maximum of 500 hours of community service can be imposed on any one occasion.

Duration of recognizance

Table 9 shows the duration of recognizance, where a recognizance was the principal penalty imposed for the principal offence.

Duration of fixed term imprisonment

Table 10 shows the duration of fixed term imprisonment, where a fixed term was the principal penalty imposed for the principal offence. As imprisonment is the most serious penalty which can be imposed, this table and Table 11 show all cases where imprisonment was imposed. Note that for sentences of imprisonment of six months or less, the term is automatically fixed. For sentences of over six months, the court must provide reasons as to why a fixed term, rather than a minimum term and additional term is being applied. Cumulative terms of imprisonment are excluded from this table and from Table 11. In those cases where a cumulative term was imposed, only the penalty for the principal offence is shown.

Duration of minimum term

Table 11 shows the duration of the minimum term of imprisonment, where a minimum plus additional term was the principal penalty imposed for the principal offence. Note that a maximum of two years of imprisonment can be imposed in the Local Court for any one offence.

TABLE 13: DURATION OF PROCEEDINGS

This table gives an indication of the time taken to dispose of a case for defended and undefended hearings by bail status at final appearance. It shows the median number of days taken at each stage of proceedings. The median duration is used in preference to the average duration because there may be a small number of cases with very long durations. (The definition of median is such that half the cases had durations less than the median value and the other half had longer durations.) Where a person's bail status changed in the course of the proceedings the duration may have been affected.

The outcome categories are used to distinguish those cases which involved a defended hearing. Excluded from this table are those people who were in custody for another offence, as this fact will have altered the duration of proceedings for these cases.

TABLES 14 AND 15: STATISTICAL DIVISION OF RESIDENCE

These tables indicate the Statistical Division within which the residence of the accused falls. Within the Sydney Statistical Division, the Subdivisions are also shown, to provide more detail. In these tables, appearances are excluded if the accused was interstate, overseas, in an institution, of no fixed place of abode, or if the area of residence was unknown.

Table 14 shows the number and rate per 100,000 population of Local Court appearances by the area of residence of the accused.

Table 15 presents, for those accused who were found guilty, rates per 100,000 population by the area of residence and the type of principal offence.

Explanatory notes and tables

EXPLANATORY NOTES: HIGHER COURTS TABLES

Explanatory notes are given for data items in the order in which they first appear in the tables.

TABLES 16 AND 17: CASES APPEARING IN HIGHER CRIMINAL COURTS

Jurisdiction

There are two jurisdictions in NSW Higher Courts, the Supreme Court which hears cases in Sydney and on circuit in country centres periodically, and the District Court which has a number of metropolitan and country sites. The Supreme Court deals only with the most serious matters. The District Court deals with all other matters on indictment and appeals against conviction or sentence arising from Local Court cases.

Registry

Registries handle the administrative work involved in preparing a case for trial. The District Court is regionalised into a number of Registries. Appendix 1 lists the various courts which fall within each Registry's administrative area.

Case

Court workload is usually measured by the number of cases where a case is defined to be all matters, involving one or more accused persons, each with one or more charges, which are recorded together on a single court file.

A finalised case is a case where one or more charges against one or more accused were completed in the reporting period.

For cases where there are remaining defendants with outstanding charges or where there are outstanding charges against an accused, a new case would be counted in a subsequent counting period.

For this reason there is not necessarily a direct relationship between the incoming cases registered, shown in Table 16 and finalised cases shown in Table 17.

Committal

Cases normally appear before the Higher Courts following a committal hearing in the Local Courts. A committal involves a preliminary hearing by a magistrate of the evidence against the accused. If the accused pleads guilty at the committal hearing he or she may be committed for sentencing to a Higher Court. Alternatively, if the defendant pleads not guilty, or reserves his or her defence, he or she is committed for trial. Cases which do not proceed beyond committal are not included in this report.

EXPLANATORY NOTES: HIGHER COURTS TABLES

TABLES 18 AND 19: PERSONS AND CHARGES IN TRIAL AND SENTENCE CASES

Persons charged

In these and subsequent tables, information is shown for individual persons within finalised cases. As described in the section on cases, a case may involve one or more accused persons. Thus, the total number of persons indicated in these tables is greater than the total number of cases.

This report does not distinguish 'distinct' persons within the counting period. If a person is a defendant in more than one case during the counting period, such a person will be counted more than once in the report.

Note that Table 19, which shows the number of persons charged with offences within a particular offence group, counts individuals more than once, in all cases where the accused was charged with more than one offence and those offences fall within different groups.

Year of committal

Year of committal is included to provide some indication of the length of time cases normally require to be processed in the Higher Courts. More detailed information on this subject is provided in Tables 29a to 29h.

Type of offence

Offence groups in Table 19 and subsequent tables are based on the Australian National Classification of Offences (ANCO) issued by the Australian Bureau of Statistics (ABS Catalogue Number 1234.0). The ANCO system has three hierarchical levels of offences. The first level has 9 general groupings. There is a more detailed breakdown within these groups, at the second level of the hierarchy, and a third level of detail within the second level groupings. The Higher Courts tables generally use the offence groupings at the second ANCO level.

Note that the offence classifications used have been altered slightly from those used in the ANCO system. The differences from the ANCO classification are as follows:

- (a) Sexual offences against children have been separated from other sexual offences.
- (b) The drug offence categories include substance type as a part of the offence category. This is so that sentences for offences involving different drug types can be separately examined.
- (c) The categories of 'environmental offences', 'offences against government security', 'company offences' and 'banking, financial offences' have all been merged into the category of 'other offences'. This is due to the small numbers of cases which are normally present in these categories. Information on these offence categories can be obtained by contacting the Information Officer.

Note: The Bureau's data collection has information on offences with sufficient detail to determine charges by individual Act and Section. Information on specific charges can be obtained by contacting the Bureau.

TABLE 20: NUMBER OF OFFENCES CHARGED

Table 20 indicates the number of distinct offences charged against each accused. Where there were multiple counts of the same offence (i.e. charged under the same Act and Section) and each count had the same outcome, the multiple counts are counted as a single offence. Where charges of the same type had different outcomes, they are counted as separate charges.

TABLE 21: OUTCOME OF CHARGES

Table 21 presents the major outcome of the court process for each defendant. Those cases which involved a jury trial are separated from those where the accused pleaded guilty to all charges, where the charges were not proceeded with, or where the charges were otherwise disposed of. Possible outcome types are as follows:

Proceeded to trial

Acquitted of all charges: Cases in this category involved the accused being found not guilty of any offence, following a trial. Such cases may have included some charges not being proceeded with or being otherwise disposed of.

Found guilty of at least one charge: In this category cases proceeded to a trial, and the defendant was found guilty of at least one of the offences charged.

Other: Cases in the 'Other' category are those where the accused was acquitted of one or more charges following a trial, but pleaded guilty to at least one other charge.

Proceeded to sentence only

Cases in this category involved a plea of guilty by the defendant to at least one charge. Other offences may have been disposed of other than by trial or not proceeded with.

No charges proceeded with

Cases in this category did not proceed to trial. The charges were not proceeded with by the Director of Public Prosecutions.

All charges otherwise disposed of

Included in this category are cases where the accused died or absconded.

TABLES 22 TO 24: PENALTIES IMPOSED FOR PRINCIPAL OFFENCE

Persons found guilty

Persons found guilty are those persons who, for at least one offence charged, either pleaded guilty or were found guilty by trial,

Principal offence

Appendix 2 provides explanations of the penalty types. Penalties shown in the tables indicate the principal penalty imposed on the principal offence. The principal offence is defined to be that offence charged which received the most serious penalty according to the following rules:

- (a) Where an offender was found guilty of more than one offence, that offence which received the most serious penalty type is the principal offence. Appendix 3 lists the hierarchy of penalty type seriousness used for this calculation.
- (b) Where there were two or more offences which received the same penalty type, that offence which received the greatest quantum of that penalty type is the principal offence. (Note that for this calculation, if multiple counts of the same offence type received different penalties, they are treated as separate offences.)
- (c) If there was more than one offence which received the same quantum of the same penalty type, the last of these offences recorded on the indictment is selected as the principal offence.
- (d) Where an offence received more than one penalty, a principal penalty for that offence is first calculated following the rules set out above. The determination of principal offence is thus calculated on the principal penalty for each offence.

Amount of fine

Table 23 shows the dollar amount of fines imposed, where a fine was the principal penalty imposed for the principal offence. Note that where imprisonment or a recognizance were imposed in addition to a fine, the fine amount is not included in this table.

Duration of imprisonment

Duration of imprisonment in Table 24 is the length of time in years of the minimum or fixed term of imprisonment imposed on the principal offence. As imprisonment is the most serious penalty which can be imposed, Table 24 includes all charges where an imprisonment penalty was imposed. Excluded from this table are sentences of cumulative imprisonment. In those cases where a cumulative term was imposed, only the penalty for the principal offence is shown.

Table 24 does not report on cases where the prison sentence was not imposed under the Sentencing Act 1989.

EXPLANATORY NOTES: HIGHER COURTS TABLES

TABLE 25: DURATION OF AGGREGATE SENTENCE AND MINIMUM/FIXED TERM

Table 25 shows the accumulated minimum and fixed terms of imprisonment imposed, against this aggregate plus the relevant additional term on the other axis. Note that under the Sentencing Act 1989, each offence must receive either a fixed term or a minimum and additional term. Where imprisonment penalties are made cumulative, the relevant additional term is that imposed on the minimum term which expires on the latest date. Where the imprisonment term with the latest date is a fixed term of imprisonment, there will be no additional term to be served. Table 25 thus provides information on the total sentence to be served by an individual, with the time to be served in prison shown separately from the time to be served on parole. As the aggregate sentence can include cumulative imprisonment penalties, the maximum durations for cases in this table can be greater than in Table 24.

Excluded from this table are cases where the penalty imposed was not under the Sentencing Act 1989, and cases where life imprisonment was imposed. For this reason, some durations from Table 24 are missing from this table.

TABLE 26: PRIOR CONVICTIONS

Table 26 provides information on the history of prior convictions of those persons found guilty. The following categories are used:

No prior convictions

Persons in this category had no prior convictions of any kind at the time of sentencing.

Prior convictions, not of the same type

Persons in this category had a history of prior convictions, but none of these convictions was of the same general type as the principal offence receiving sentence on this occasion. This category can include convictions which resulted in a gaol term as well as non-custodial penalties.

Prior convictions of the same type

In this category are persons who had been convicted of an offence of the same general type as the principal offence, on a previous occasion.

Prior convictions of the same type, with imprisonment

Persons in this category were convicted of an offence of the same general type as the principal offence, on a previous occasion, and in addition, had received a custodial penalty on at least one occasion, for an offence of this type.

TABLE 28: BAIL STATUS

Table 28 indicates the bail status of the defendant at the hearing which disposed of the matter. The bail categories distinguish broadly between defendants who were at large or in custody, and additionally for those at large, whether or not they were supervised.

TABLE 29: DURATION OF PROCEEDINGS

These tables give an indication of the time taken to dispose of a case for defended and undefended cases by bail status at final appearance. They show the median number of days taken at each stage of proceedings. The median duration is used in preference to the average duration because there may be a small number of cases with very long duration times. (The definition of median is such that half the cases had duration times less than the median duration time and the other half of the cases had longer duration times.) Where a person's bail status changed in the course of the trial the duration of proceedings may have been affected.

The outcome categories are used to distinguish those cases which involved a trial. The stages of proceedings are categorised as follows:

Arrest to committal

The time from date of arrest to date committed.

Committal to outcome

The time from date committed to latest date of determination of charges. (Note that it is not possible to distinguish whether the defendant altered his or her plea during the course of proceedings. Such a change of plea would be expected to alter the time taken to dispose of the case.)

Outcome to sentence

The time from latest date of determination of charges (guilty plea or verdict) to date of sentence. (This category is applicable only to those defendants who were found guilty.)

Those who were in custody for another offence during the course of the trial, were excluded from the duration calculations, as were those who absconded at some stage in proceedings.

The category 'proceeded to sentence only' includes cases where the plea was changed from not guilty to guilty in the course of the trial. Some of these matters could, therefore, be expected to take longer to dispose of than matters originally committed for sentence.

EXPLANATORY NOTES: HIGHER COURTS TABLES

TABLES 30 AND 31: APPEALS AGAINST CONVICTION AND SEVERITY OF SENTENCE

Tables 30 and 31 present the outcomes for appeals to the District Court against convictions or severity of sentences imposed in the Local Courts.

The appeal outcome categories are as follows:

Appeal upheld for all matters

This category indicates that:

- 1) the conviction was overturned, for an appeal against conviction;
- or 2) the penalty was varied, for a severity appeal for all charges appealed against.

Appeal dismissed/withdrawn for all matters

This indicates that the court dismissed the appeal for all the charges appealed against or that the appellant withdrew the appeal.

Appeal upheld for some matters

This indicates that the court dismissed the appeal on some charges but upheld the appeal for at least one charge.

Other

This indicates that the appeal was dismissed due to non-appearance of the appellant or that a bench warrant was issued or that the appellant died.

NOTES ON PENALTIES

As well as the self-explanatory penalties, such as fines and imprisonment, the following court actions may need some explanation.

Held in custody (Mental Health (Criminal Procedure) Act 1990)

This is the term used for the detention of a mentally ill person who has been charged with offences but has been found by the court to be either unfit to plead or 'not guilty by reason of mental illness'. Such persons may be held in custody for an indeterminate period.

Periodic detention

The offender is held in custody in prison periodically (at weekends for example) for a specified period.

Community Service Order

The offender is ordered to perform a specified number of hours of unpaid community service work.

Recognizance

There are several different types of recognizances, or 'bonds', which may be imposed by a court. Generally speaking they all require the offender to be 'of good behaviour' for a certain length of time and may impose other conditions as well. Common conditions include that the offender:

- report to the Probation and Parole Service on a regular basis (recognizance with supervision);
- attend alcohol counselling;
- reside in a certain area; etc.

Depending on the kind of recognizance the court imposes, a sum of money is usually fixed at the time of sentencing by the court and indicates the amount the offender will be liable to pay if any conditions of the recognizance are breached. Such payment by the offender will, of course, be in addition to any other sanction which breach of the recognizance might attract.

S.20 (Commonwealth) Conditional release after sentence

This is a form of recognizance imposed after a prison term has been served.

Deferred sentences

Under Section 558 of the Crimes Act 1900, a certain type of recognizance may be imposed which is referred to as a 'deferred sentence'. In addition to having to pay any monetary penalty, a breach of the conditions of the recognizance may lead to the offender being called upon for sentencing on the original offence.

556A dismissal/recognizance

Under Section 556A of the Crimes Act 1900, the court may, where it finds a charge proved, elect not to proceed to a conviction, but to either discharge the offender with no penalty, with some nominal penalty, or with a recognizance to be of good behaviour (see above).

Rising of the Court

This is a nominal penalty where the offender is held in custody until the court adjourns.
