CHAIR
SENATE JUDICIARY COMMITTEE

LANSING, MICHIGAN

Dear Friend:

There are more than 600,000 serious crimes in Michigan annually. Even more alarming, it is estimated that one out of three people will be a victim of crime in a lifetime. Little wonder that surveys consistently show that crime is the number one concern. Prior to 1985, the loss, hurt and fear experienced by victims was made worse by a system which provided extensive legal rights for the criminal defendant, while ignoring the victim. One victim of a vicious assault summarized the feelings of countless others when she said, "The process is about me, but without me."

With the assistance of many victims and advocates, I introduced the Crime Victim's Rights Act, which became law in 1985. Under this Act, victims achieved comprehensive legal rights, including: notification; protection; participation; and restitution. The law is divided into three articles: Art. I for victims of felonies and two-year misdemeanors; Art. II for victims of juvenile offenses; and Art. III for victims of "serious misdemeanors."

The Crime Victim's Rights Act established protections in statute law. At a higher level, however, the Constitution listed a number of important rights for the criminal defendant, but not one specific right for the victim. To ensure fundamental rights for crime victims, I introduced a constitutional amendment. It was overwhelmingly approved by the citizens of Michigan on Nov. 8, 1988 and became Art. I, Sec. 24 of the State Constitution on December 24, 1988. This was a most appropriate Christmas Eve assurance of full constitutional status to all future victims of crime in our state.

This book lists rights and services as well as victim advocates throughout Michigan who effectively implement the requirements of the law. The National Organization for Victim Assistance (NOVA) and the National Victim Center use our law and constitutional amendment as national models. Michigan crime victims now have the most complete legal rights in the country, finally bringing long overdue balance to a system which had previously been heavily weighted toward the criminal.

Sincerely,

(g) The time and place of the sentencing proceeding.

(2) The notice given by the prosecuting attorney to the victim must be given by any means reasonably calculated to give prompt actual notice.

(a) An explanation of the nature and extent of any physical, psychological, or emotional harm or trauma suffered by the victim.

(b) An explanation of the extent of any economic loss or property damage suffered by the victim.

(c) An opinion of the need for and extent of restitution and whether the victim has applied for or received compensation for loss or damage.

(d) The victim's recommendation for an appropriate sentence.

MCL 780.764

Sec. 14. The victim has the right to submit or make a written or oral impact statement to the probation officer for use by that officer in preparing a presentence investigation report concerning the defendant pursuant to section 14 of chapter XI of the code of criminal procedure, Act No. 175 of the Public Acts of 1927, being section 771.14 of the Michigan Compiled Laws. A victim's written statement shall, upon the victim's request, be included in the presentence investigation report.

MCL 780.765

Sec. 15. The victim shall have the right to appear and make an oral impact statement at the sentencing of the defendant.

MCL 780.766

Sec. 16. (1) For purposes of this section only, "victim" means an individual who suffers direct or threatened physical, financial, or emotional harm as a result of the commission of a crime; and for purposes of subsections (2), (3), (4), (7), (9), (10), (11), and (15), "victim" includes a sole proprietorship, partnership, or corporation.

(2) The court, when sentencing a defendant convicted of a crime, may order, in addition to or in lieu of any other penalty authorized by law or in addition to any other penalty required by law, that the defendant make restitution to any victim of the defendant's course of conduct which gives rise to the conviction, or to the victim's estate.

(3) If the court does not order restitution, or orders only partial restitution under this section, the court shall state on the record the reasons for that action.

(4) If a crime results in damage to or loss or destruction of property of a victim of the offense, the order of restitution may require that the defendant do either of the following:

(a) Return the property to the owner of the property or to a person designated by the owner.

(b) If return of the property under subdivision (a) is impossible, impractical, or inadequate, pay an amount equal to the greater of subparagraphs (i) or (ii), less the value, determined as of the date the property is returned, of that property or any part of the property that is returned:

(i) The value of the property on the date of the damage, loss, or destruction.

(ii) The value of the property on the date of sentencing.

(5) If a crime results in physical or psychological injury to a victim, the order of restitution may require that the defendant do 1 or more of the following, as applicable:

(a) Pay an amount equal to the cost of actual medical and related professional services and devices relating to physical and psychological care.

(b) Pay an amount equal to the cost of actual physical and occupational therapy and rehabilitation.

(c) Reimburse the victim or the victim's estate for after-tax income loss suffered by the victim as a result of the offense.

(d) Pay an amount equal to the cost of psychological and medical treatment for members of the victim's family which has been incurred as a result of the offense.

(6) If a crime resulting in bodily injury also results in the death of a victim, the order of restitution may require that the defendant pay an amount equal to the cost of actual funeral and related services.

(7) Instead of restitution under subsections (4) to (6), if the victim or victim's estate consents, the order of restitution may require that the defendant make restitution in services in lieu of money, or make restitution to a person designated by the victim or victim's estate if that person provided services to the victim as a result of the crime.

(8) If the court orders restitution under this section, the court shall, if the victim is deceased, order that the restitution be made to the victim's estate.

(9) Any order of restitution shall be as fair as possible to the victim or victim's estate without unduly complicating or prolonging the sentencing process.

(10) The court shall not order restitution with respect to a loss for which the victim or victim's estate has received or is to receive compensation, including insurance, except that the court may, in the interest of justice, order restitution to the crime victims compensation board or to any individuals, organizations, partnerships, corporations, or governmental entities that have compensated the victim or victim's estate for such a loss to the extent of the compensation paid. An order of restitution shall require that all restitution to a victim or victim's estate under the order be made before any restitution to any other person under that order is made.

(11) Any amount paid to a victim or victim's estate under an order of restitution shall be set off against any amount later recovered as compensatory damages by the victim or the victim's estate in any federal or state civil proceeding and shall reduce the amount payable to a victim or a victim's estate by an award from the crime victims compensation board made after an order of restitution under this section.

(12) If not otherwise provided by the court under this subsection, restitution shall be made immediately. However, the court may require that the defendant make restitution under this section within a specified period or in specified installments. The end of the period or the last installment shall not be later than the following:

(a) The end of the period of probation, if probation is ordered.

(b) Two years after the end of imprisonment or discharge from parole, whichever occurs later, if the court does not order probation.

(c) Three years after the date of sentencing in any other case.

(13) If the defendant is placed on probation or paroled, any restitution ordered under this section shall be a condition of that probation or parole. The court may revoke probation and the parole board may revoke parole if the defendant fails to comply with the order and if the defendant has not made a good faith effort to comply with the order. In determining whether to revoke probation or parole, the court or parole board shall consider the defendant's employment status, earning ability, financial resources, and the willfulness of the defendant's failure to pay, and any other special circumstances that may have a bearing on the defendant's ability to pay.

(14) A defendant who is required to pay restitution and who is not in willful default of the payment of the restitution, at any time, may petition the sentencing judge or his or her successor for a cancellation of any unpaid portion of restitution. If it appears to the satisfaction of the court that payment of the amount due will impose a manifest hardship on the defendant or his or her immediate family, the court may cancel all or part of the amount due in restitution or modify the method of payment.

(15) An order of restitution may be enforced by the prosecuting attorney or a victim or victim's estate named in the order to receive the restitution in the same manner as a judgment in a civil action.

(16) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, a defendant shall not be imprisoned, jailed, or incarcerated for a violation of parole or probation, or otherwise, for failure to pay restitution as ordered under this section unless the court determines that the defendant has the resources to pay the ordered restitution and has not made a good faith effort to do so.

MCL 780.767

Sec. 17. (1) The court, in determining whether to order restitution under section 16 and the amount of that restitution, shall consider the amount of the loss sustained by any victim as a result of the offense, the financial resources and earning ability of the defendant, the financial needs of the defendant and the defendant's dependents, and such other factors as the court considers appropriate.

(2) The court may order the probation officer to obtain information pertaining to the factors set forth in subsection (1). The probation officer shall include the information collected in the presentence investigation report or in a separate report, as the court directs.

(3) The court shall disclose to both the defendant and the prosecuting attorney all portions of the presentence or other report pertaining to the matters described in subsection (1).

(4) Any dispute as to the proper amount or type of restitution shall be resolved by the court by a preponderance of the evidence. The burden of demonstrating the earning ability of the defendant and the amount of the loss sustained by a victim as a result of the offense shall be on the prosecuting attorney. The burden of demonstrating the financial resources of the defendant and the financial needs of the defendant and the defendant's dependents shall be on the defendant. The burden of demonstrating such other matters as the court deems appropriate shall be upon the party designated by the court as justice requires.

MCL 780.768

Sec. 18. (1) A person convicted of a crime shall not derive any profit from the sale of his or her recollections, thoughts, and feelings with regard to the offense committed by that person until the victim receives any restitution or compensation ordered for him or her against the defendant and expenses of incarceration are recovered as provided in subsection (3) and until the escrow account created under subsection (2) is terminated under subsection (4).

(2) Upon the conviction of a defendant for a crime involving a victim, and after notice to any interested party, an attorney for the county in which the conviction occurred or the attorney general may petition the court in which the conviction occurred to order that defendant forfeit all or any part of proceeds received or to be received by the defendant, or the defendant's representatives or assignees, from contracts relating to the depiction of the crime or the defendant's recollections, thoughts, or feelings about the crime, in books, magazines, media entertainment, or live entertainment. The proceeds shall be held in escrow for a period of not more than 5 years.

(3) During the existence of the escrow account, proceeds in the account shall be distributed in the following priority for the following purposes:

(a) To satisfy an order of restitution entered under sections 16 and 17.

(b) To satisfy any civil judgment in favor of the victim against that defendant.

(c) To satisfy any reimbursement ordered under the prisoner reimbursement to the county act, Act No. 118 of the Public Acts of 1984, being sections 801.81 to 801.93 of the Michigan Compiled Laws, or ordered under the state correctional facility reimbursement act, Act No. 253 of the Public Acts of 1935, being sections 800.401 to 800.406 of the Michigan Compiled Laws.

(4) Fifty percent of the balance remaining in the escrow account at the end of the escrow period shall be payable to the defendant and the remaining 50% of the balance shall be payable to the state general fund for use of the crime victims compensation board to pay compensation claims.

MCL 780.768a

Sec. 18a. (1) Upon the request of the victim, the prosecuting attorney shall notify the victim of the following:

(a) That the defendant has filed an appeal of his or her conviction.

(b) A brief explanation in plain English of the appeal process, including the possible dispositions.

(c) Whether the defendant has been released on bail or other recognizance pending the disposition of the appeal.

(d) The time and place of any appellate court proceedings and any changes in the time or place of those proceedings.

(e) The result of the appeal.

(2) In the event the defendant's conviction is reversed and the case is returned to the trial court for further proceedings, the victim shall have the same rights previously requested during the proceedings which led to the appeal.

MCL 780.769

Sec. 19. (1) Upon the written request of a victim of a crime, the sheriff or the department of corrections shall mail to the victim the following, as applicable, about a prisoner who has been sentenced to imprisonment under the jurisdiction of the sheriff or the department for commission of that crime:

(a) Within 30 days after the request, notice of the sheriff's calculation of the earliest release date of the prisoner, or the department's calculation of the earliest parole eligibility date of the prisoner, with all potential good time or disciplinary credits considered if the sentence of imprisonment exceeds 90 days. The victim may request 1-time only notice of the calculation described in this subdivision.

(b) Notice of the transfer or pending transfer of the prisoner to a minimum security facility and the address of that facility.

(c) Notice of the release or pending release of the prisoner in a community residential program, under extended furlough, or any other transfer of a prisoner to community status.

(d) Notice of any reduction in the minimum sentence resulting under the prison overcrowding emergency powers act, Act No. 519 of the Public Acts of 1980, being sections 800.71 to 800.79 of the Michigan Compiled Laws.

(e) Notice of the escape of the person accused, convicted, or imprisoned for committing a crime against the victim, as provided in section 20.

(g) Notice of the decision of the parole board, or any other panel having authority over the prisoner's release on parole, after a parole review, as provided in section 21(3).

(h) Notice of the release of a prisoner 90 days before the date of the prisoner's discharge from prison where practical, unless the notice has been otherwise provided under this article.

MCL 780.770

Sec. 20. (1) As provided in subsection (2) or (3), a victim who requests notice of the escape and the prosecuting attorney who is prosecuting or has prosecuted the crime for which the person is detained or under sentence shall be given immediate notice of the escape of the person accused, convicted, or imprisoned for committing a crime against the victim. The notice shall be given by any means reasonably calculated to give prompt actual notice.

(2) If the escape occurs before the sentence is executed or before the defendant is delivered to the department of corrections, the chief law enforcement officer of the agency in charge of the person's detention shall give notice of the escape to the prosecuting attorney, who shall then give notice of the escape to a victim who requested notice.

(3) A victim shall receive notice of the decision of the board or panel and, if applicable, notice of the date of the prisoner's release on parole. Notice shall be mailed within a reasonable time after the board or panel reaches its decision but not later than 14 days after the board or panel has reached its decision.

Sec. 24. The failure to provide a right, privilege, or notice to a victim under this article shall not be grounds for the defendant to seek to have the conviction or sentence set aside.

Sec. 44. (1) For purposes of this section only, "victim" means an individual who suffers direct or threatened physical, financial, or emotional harm as a result of the commission of an offense; and for purposes of subsections (2), (4), (7), (9), (10), (11), and (15), "victim" includes a sole proprietorship, partnership, or corporation.

(2) The court, at the dispositional hearing for a juvenile offense, may order, in addition to or in lieu of any other disposition authorized by law, that the juvenile make restitution to any victim or victim's estate of the juvenile's course of conduct which gives rise to the disposition.

(3) If the court does not order restitution, or orders only partial restitution under this section, the court shall state on the record the reasons for that action.

(4) If a juvenile offense results in damage to or loss or destruction of property of a victim of the offense, the order of restitution may require that the juvenile do either of the following:

(a) Return the property to the owner of the property or to a person designated by the owner.

(b) If return of the property under subdivision (a) is impossible, impractical, or inadequate, pay an amount equal to the greater of subparagraphs (i) or (ii), less the value, determined as of the date the property is returned, of that property or any part of the property that is returned:

(i) The value of the property on the date of the damage, loss, or destruction.

(ii) The value of the property on the date of disposition.

(5) If a juvenile offense results in physical or psychological injury to a victim, the order of restitution may require that the juvenile do 1 or more of the following, as applicable:

(a) Pay an amount equal to the cost of actual medical and related professional services and devices relating to physical and psychological care.

(b) Pay an amount equal to the cost of actual physical and occupational therapy and rehabilitation.

(c) Reimburse the victim or the victim's estate for after-tax income loss suffered by the victim as a result of the offense.

(d) Pay an amount equal to the cost of psychological and medical treatment for members of the victim's family which has been incurred as a result of the offense.

(6) If a juvenile offense resulting in bodily injury also results in the death of a victim, the order of restitution may require that the juvenile pay an amount equal to the cost of actual funeral and related services.

(7) Instead of restitution under subsections (4) to (6), if the victim or victim's estate consents, the order of restitution may require that the juvenile make restitution in services in lieu of money, or make restitution to a person designated by the victim or victim's estate if that person provided services to the victim as a result of the offense.

(8) If the court orders restitution under this section, the court shall, if the victim is deceased, order that the restitution be made to the victim's estate.

(9) Any order of restitution shall be as fair as possible to the victim or victim's estate without unduly complicating or prolonging the disposition process.

(10) The court shall not order restitution with respect to a loss for which the victim or victim's estate has received or is to receive compensation, including insurance, except that the court may, in the interest of justice, order restitution to the crime victims compensation board or to any individuals, organizations, partnerships, corporations, or governmental entities that have compensated the victim or victim's estate for such a loss to the extent of the compensation paid. An order of restitution shall require that all restitution to a victim or victim's estate under the order be made before any restitution to any other person under that order is made.

(11) Any amount paid to a victim or victim's estate under an order of restitution shall be set off against any amount later recovered as compensatory damages by the victim or the victim's estate in any federal or state civil proceeding and shall reduce the amount payable to a victim or a victim's estate by an award from the crime victims compensation board made after an order of restitution under this section.

(12) If not otherwise provided by the court under this subsection, restitution shall be made immediately. However, the court may require that the juvenile make restitution under this section within a specified period or in specified installments. The end of the period or the last installment shall not be later than the following:

(a) The end of the period of probation, if probation is ordered.

(b) If the juvenile is made a state ward, when the department of social services' jurisdiction over the juvenile expires.

(c) If the juvenile is made a ward of the court, when the court's jurisdiction over the juvenile expires.

(d) Three years after the date of disposition or when the court's jurisdiction over the juvenile expires, whichever is later.

(13) If the juvenile is placed on probation, any restitution ordered under this section shall be a condition of that probation. The court may revoke probation if the juvenile fails to comply with the order and if the juvenile has not made a good faith effort to comply with the order. In determining whether to revoke probation, the court shall consider the juvenile's employment status, earning ability, financial resources, and the willfulness of the juvenile's failure to pay, and any other special circumstances that may have a bearing on the juvenile's ability to pay.

(14) A juvenile who is required to pay restitution and who is not in willful default of the payment of the restitution, at any time, may petition the court for a cancellation of any unpaid portion of restitution. If it appears to the satisfaction of the court that payment of the amount due will impose a manifest hardship on the juvenile or his or her immediate family, the court may cancel all or part of the amount due in restitution or modify the method of payment.

(15) An order of restitution may be enforced by the prosecuting attorney or a victim or victim's estate named in the order to receive the restitution in the same manner as a judgment in a civil action.

(16) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, a juvenile shall not be detained for a violation of probation, or otherwise, for failure to pay restitution as ordered under this section unless the court determines that the juvenile has the resources to pay the ordered restitution and has not made a good faith effort to do so.

(17) If the juvenile is unable to pay all of the restitution ordered, after notice to the juvenile's custodial parent and an opportunity for the parent to be heard, the court may order the custodial parent to pay all or part of the unpaid portion of the restitution ordered. The amount of restitution the parent is ordered to pay under this subsection shall not exceed $2,500.00.

(18) If the court orders the custodial parent to pay restitution under subsection (17), the court shall take into account the financial resources of the parent and the burden that the payment of restitution will impose, with due regard to any other moral or legal financial obligations that the parent may have. If a parent is required to pay restitution under subsection (17), the court shall provide for payment to be made in specified installments and within a specified period of time.

(19) A parent who has been ordered to pay restitution under subsection (17) may petition the court for a modification of the amount of restitution owed or for a cancellation of any unpaid portion of the restitution. The court shall cancel all or part of the amount of restitution due, if it appears to the satisfaction of the court that payment of the amount due will impose a manifest hardship on the parent.

MCL 780.795

Sec. 45. (1) The court, in determining whether to order restitution under section 44 and the amount of that restitution, shall consider the amount of the loss sustained by any victim as a result of the offense, the financial resources and earning ability of the juvenile, the financial needs of the juvenile and the juvenile's dependents, and such other factors as the court considers appropriate.

(2) The court may order the person preparing a report for the purpose of disposition to obtain information pertaining to the factors set forth in subsection (1). That person shall include the information collected in the disposition report or in a separate report, as the court directs.

(3) The court shall disclose to both the juvenile and the prosecuting attorney all portions of the disposition or other report pertaining to the matters described in subsection (1).

(4) Any dispute as to the proper amount or type of restitution shall be resolved by the court by a preponderance of the evidence. The burden of demonstrating the earning ability of the juvenile and the amount of the loss sustained by a victim as a result of the offense shall be on the prosecuting attorney. The burden of demonstrating the financial resources of the juvenile and the financial needs of the juvenile and the juvenile's dependents shall be on the juvenile. The burden of demonstrating such other matters as the court considers appropriate shall be upon the party designated by the court as justice requires.

(c) Whether the juvenile has been released on bail or other recognizance pending the disposition of the appeal.

(d) The time and place of any appellate court proceedings and any changes in the time or place of those proceedings.

(e) The result of the appeal.

MCL 780.797

Sec. 47. (1) A juvenile adjudicated for an offense shall not derive any profit from the sale of his or her recollections, thoughts, and feelings with regard to the offense committed by that juvenile until the victim receives any restitution or compensation ordered for him or her against the juvenile and expenses of incarceration are recovered as provided in subsection (3) and until the escrow account created under subsection (2) is terminated under subsection (4).

(2) Upon the disposition of a juvenile offense involving a victim, and after notice to any interested party, an attorney for the county in which the disposition occurred or the attorney general may petition the court in which the disposition occurred to order that juvenile forfeit all or any part of proceeds received or to be received by the juvenile, or the juvenile's representatives or assignees, from contracts relating to the depiction of the offense or the juvenile's recollections, thoughts, or feelings about the offense, in books, magazines, media entertainment, or live entertainment. The proceeds shall be held in escrow for a period of not more than 5 years.

(3) During the existence of the escrow account, proceeds in the account shall be distributed in the following priority for the following purposes:

(b) To satisfy any civil judgment in favor of the victim against that juvenile.

(c) To satisfy any reimbursement ordered under section 18 of chapter XIIA of Act No. 288 of the Public Acts of 1939, being section 712A.18 of the Michigan Compiled Laws.

(4) Fifty percent of the balance remaining in the escrow account at the end of the escrow period shall be payable to the juvenile and the remaining 50% of the balance shall be payable to the state general fund for use of the crime victims compensation board to pay compensation claims.

(b) The juvenile is transferred from a secure detention or treatment facility to a nonsecure residential treatment facility located in the county in which the victim resides.

(2) If the court or department of social services is not successful in notifying the victim before subsection (1)(a) or (b) occurs, the court or department of social services shall notify the victim as soon as possible after the occurrence of subsection (1)(a) or (b).

(3) Upon the victim's request, the department of social services or the court shall give to the victim notice of a juvenile's escape from a secure detention or treatment facility. #### MCL 780.822

Sec. 72. An employer or the employer's agent, who threatens to discharge or discipline or who discharges, disciplines, or causes to be discharged from employment or to be disciplined a victim because that victim is subpoenaed or requested by the prosecuting attorney to attend court for the purpose of giving testimony, is guilty of a misdemeanor and may be punished for contempt of court.

A victim's written statement shall, upon the victim's request, be included in the presentence investigation report.

The court shall consider the victim's statement in imposing sentence on the defendant.

MCL 780.826

Sec. 76. (1) As used in this section:

(a) "Victim" means an individual who suffers actual financial loss or expense as a result of the commission of a misdemeanor, and for purposes of subsections (2), (3), (4), (6), (8), (9), and (10), victim includes a sole proprietorship, partnership, or corporation.

(b) "Misdemeanor" means a violation of a law of this state, or of a local ordinance substantially corresponding to a law of this state, that is punishable by imprisonment for not more than 1 year or by a fine that is not a civil fine, but is not a felony.

(2) The court, when sentencing a defendant convicted of a misdemeanor, may order, in addition to or in lieu of any other penalty authorized by law, or in addition to any other penalty required by law, that the defendant make restitution to any victim of the defendant's course of conduct that gives rise to the conviction or to the victim's estate.

(3) If the court does not order restitution, or orders only partial restitution under this section, the court shall state on the record the reasons for that action.

(4) If a misdemeanor results in damage to or loss or destruction of property of a victim of the offense, the order of restitution may require that the defendant do either of the following:

(a) Return the property to the owner of the property or to a person designated by the owner.

(b) If return of the property under subdivision (a) is impossible, impractical, or inadequate, pay an amount equal to the greater of subparagraphs (i) or (ii), less the value, determined as of the date the property is returned, of that property or any part of the property that is returned:

(i) The value of the property on the date of the damage, loss, or destruction.

(ii) The value of the property on the date of sentencing.

(5) If a misdemeanor results in physical injury to a victim, the order of restitution may require that the defendant do 1 or more of the following, as applicable:

(a) Pay an amount equal to the cost of the victim's actual medical and related professional services and devices relating to the physical care.

(b) Pay an amount equal to the cost of the victim's actual physical and occupational therapy and rehabilitation.

(c) Reimburse the victim or the victim's estate for after-tax income loss suffered by the victim as a result of the offense.

(6) Instead of restitution under subsections (4) and (5), if the victim or victim's estate consents, the order of restitution may require that the defendant make restitution in services in lieu of money, or make restitution to a person designated by the victim or victim's estate if that person provided services to the victim as a result of the misdemeanor.

(7) If the court orders restitution under this section, the court shall, if the victim is deceased, order that the restitution be made to the victim's estate.

(8) Any order of restitution shall be as fair as possible to the victim or victim's estate without unduly complicating or prolonging the sentencing process.

(9) The court shall not order restitution with respect to a loss for which the victim or victim's estate has received or is to receive compensation, including insurance, except that the court may, in the interest of justice, order restitution to the crime victims compensation board or to any individuals, organizations, partnerships, corporations, or governmental entities that have compensated the victim or victim's estate for such a loss to the extent of the compensation paid. An order of restitution shall require that all restitution to a victim or victim's estate under the order be made before any restitution to any other person under that order is made.

(10) Any amount paid to a victim or victim's estate under an order of restitution shall be set off against any amount later recovered as compensatory damages by the victim or the victim's estate in any federal or state civil proceeding and shall reduce the amount payable to a victim or a victim's estate by an award from the crime victims compensation board made after an order of restitution under this section.

(11) If not otherwise provided by the court under this subsection, restitution shall be made immediately. However, the court may require that the defendant make restitution under this section within a specified period or in specified installments.

(12) In determining the amount of restitution, the court shall consider the defendant's earning ability, financial resources, and any other special circumstances that may have a bearing on the defendant's ability to pay.

MCL 780.827

Sec. 77. Upon the request of a victim, the prosecuting attorney shall, within 30 days after the final disposition of the case, notify the victim in writing of the final disposition of the case.

MCL 780.828

Sec. 78. (1) Upon the request of the victim, the prosecuting attorney shall notify the victim of the following:

(a) That the defendant has filed an appeal of his or her conviction.

(b) A brief explanation in plain English of the appeal process, including the possible dispositions.

(c) Whether the defendant has been released on bail or other recognizance pending the disposition of the appeal.

(d) The time and place of any appellate court proceedings and any changes in the time or place of those proceedings.

(e) The result of the appeal.

(2) In the event the defendant's conviction is reversed and the case is returned to the trial court for further proceedings, the victim shall have the same rights previously requested during the proceedings which led to the appeal.

MCL 780.829

Sec. 79. (1) Upon the written request of the victim, the sheriff shall notify the victim of the earliest possible release date of the defendant if the defendant is sentenced to more than 92 days' imprisonment.

(2) The victim's written request for notice under this section shall include the victim's address.

MCL 780.830

MCL 780.831

Sec. 81. (1) A person convicted of a serious misdemeanor shall not derive any profit from the sale of his or her recollections, thoughts, and feelings with regard to the offense committed by that person until the victim receives any restitution or compensation ordered for him or her against the defendant and expenses of incarceration are recovered as provided in subsection (3) and until the escrow account created under subsection (2) is terminated under subsection (4).

(2) Upon the conviction of a defendant for a serious misdemeanor involving a victim, and after notice to any interested party, an attorney for the county in which the conviction occurred or the attorney general may petition the court in which the conviction occurred to order that defendant forfeit all or any part of proceeds received or to be received by the defendant, or the defendant's representatives or assignees, from contracts relating to the depiction of the crime or the defendant's recollections, thoughts, or feelings about the crime, in books, magazines, media entertainment, or live entertainment. The proceeds shall be held in escrow for a period of not more than 5 years.

(3) During the existence of the escrow account, proceeds in the account shall be distributed in the following priority for the following purposes:

(a) To satisfy an order of restitution entered under section 76.

(b) To satisfy any civil judgment in favor of the victim against that defendant.

(c) To satisfy any reimbursement ordered under the prisoner reimbursement to the county act, Act No. 118 of the Public Acts of 1984, being sections 801.81 to 801.93 of the Michigan Compiled Laws, or ordered under the state correctional facility reimbursement act, Act No. 253 of the Public Acts of 1935, being sections 800.401 to 800.406 of the Michigan Compiled Laws.

(4) Fifty percent of the balance remaining in the escrow account at the end of the escrow period shall be payable to the defendant and the remaining 50% of the balance shall be payable to the state general fund for use of the crime victims compensation board to pay compensation claims.

MCL 780.832

Sec. 82. Nothing in this article shall be construed as creating a cause of action for money damages against the state, a county, a municipality or any of their agencies, instrumentalities, or employees.

MCL 780.833

Sec. 83. The failure to provide a right, privilege, or notice to a victim under this article shall not be grounds for the defendant to seek to have the conviction or sentence set aside.

MCL 780.834

Sec. 84. (1) This article shall take effect June 1, 1988.

(2) This article shall apply only to misdemeanors committed on or after June 1, 1988.

PROCESSING A CRIMINAL CASE

Circuit Court and Recorder's Court

The Circuit Court has original jurisdiction in all civil cases involving more than $10,000, all criminal cases where the offense involves a felony or a two-year misdemeanor and in some domestic relation cases, including divorce and paternity actions. In Detroit those criminal cases are assigned to the Recorder's Court.

The following is an example of the procedures often involved in processing a criminal case. Not every case will go to trial, so not all of the steps will be followed in every case. If you are a victim and have specific questions about the process in your case, contact the prosecuting attorney's office for more information.

Warrant Request

When a police officer has probable cause to believe a person has committed a crime, the police request the prosecutor to authorize a warrant for their arrest.

Decision to Prosecute

The Prosecutor determines whether a person should be charged with a crime, and if so, what the crime should be.

Arraignment

Once arrested and charged with a felony, the suspect appears in district court for arraignment. At arraignment, the defendant is given notice of the charges against him or her, and advised of their constitutional rights. The conditions and amount of bail are determined, and a date is set for a preliminary examination. You should be aware that most defendants are released on bail but you may check with phone number given.

Preliminary Examination

This is a contested hearing before the judge. The prosecutor presents witnesses to convince the district court judge that a crime was in fact committed and there is probable cause to believe the defendant has committed that crime. The defendant is represented and can cross-examine the witnesses and present evidence. If probable cause is established, the defendant is sent to circuit court for trial. A defendant can decide not to have a preliminary examination.

Arraignment/Circuit Court

After the case is sent to circuit court, the defendant is again arraigned and given formal notice of the charges against him or her. He or she is again advised of their constitutional rights, and asked to enter a plea to the charge.

Pretrial Proceedings

Many events can occur prior to trial. The court may hear motions to determine whether evidence will be admitted or suppressed at the defendant's trial, or whether there is some legal reason why the defendant should not be tried. In addition, the prosecutor and defense attorney will often meet to determine whether the defendant will plead guilty to the crime charged or some other offense.

Trial

The defendant has a right to determine whether to be tried by the judge or the jury. During the trial, the judge or a jury will determine whether the defendant has committed a crime, and if so, what that crime is. A trial is an adversary proceeding whereby the prosecution must present evidence to establish the defendant's guilt beyond a reasonable doubt. The prosecutor must call all the witnesses to the crime. The defendant is not required to prove his or her innocence, or to present any evidence.

Sentencing

If the defendant is found guilty of a crime, the judge will set a date for sentencing. The time between conviction and sentencing is used to prepare a presentence investigation report. This report is prepared by the probation officer, who works for the state Department of Corrections. It contains information about the crime, defendant's background, and a sentence recommendation. At the time of sentencing, the judge will consider the information in the report before determining the sentence. The judge will also consult the sentencing guidelines established by the Michigan Supreme Court as a reference for framing an appropriate sentence. Determination of the minimum sentence is the judge's sole responsibility, although some convictions carry a legally mandated minimum sentence. The judge may consider different alternatives, such as a fine, probation, community service, a sentence to jail or prison, or a combination. The judge may also order the defendant to make restitution to any victims who have suffered physical, financial, or emotional harm.

Juvenile Court

The Probate Court's juvenile division is commonly known as Juvenile Court and handles cases of juveniles under the age of 17, unless they are waived to the adult court. Processing a juvenile offense is less formal and more flexible than corresponding procedures in Circuit, Recorder's or District Courts and some terms are different.

Detention—Facilities operated by the probate court or state where juveniles may be detained pending hearings or following disposition.

Petition—A complaint or written accusation that a juvenile has committed an offense which is filed with the Probate Court.

Intake—The probate court screening process and preparation of the case.

Trial (formerly called an adjudicatory hearing)—The point at which the court must find delinquency or neglect or dismiss the case.

Disposition—Equivalent to sentencing component in adult proceedings. The Court has a wide spectrum of options which includes returning the juvenile to his or her home, retaining court jurisdiction or assigning the juvenile to the jurisdiction of the state in the form of the Department of Social Services.

District Court

The District Court has jurisdiction of all misdemeanors for which punishment does not exceed one year, as well as the arraignment, setting and acceptance of bail and conducting preliminary examinations in felony cases. The District Court also handles civil cases under $10,000, garnishments, evictions, foreclosures and other proceedings. District Court procedures are essentially like those used in Circuit and Recorder's Court with the following exceptions:

- A city ordinance may be prosecuted by a city attorney.
- Presentence investigations are not always prepared.

OTHER FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE FOR INJURED VICTIMS OF CRIMES

Separate from restitution provided for in the Crime Victim's Rights Act, victims may be eligible for compensation from the state.

What is the Crime Victims Compensation Board?

Section 18.351 of the Michigan Compiled Laws governs the Michigan Crime Victims Compensation Board. Under the Act persons who suffer personal injury as a direct result of a Michigan crime may be eligible for assistance. Personal injury means actual bodily harm. In addition, a surviving spouse, parent, child, sibling or other dependent of a victim who dies as a result of a crime may be eligible for assistance.

Assistance may include compensation for medical expenses, funeral costs, counseling, rehabilitation, and loss of earnings or loss of support resulting from an injury which is the direct result of a crime.

Who May be Eligible for Compensation?

- A crime victim who suffers personal physical injury as the direct result of a crime.
- An intervenor who suffers personal physical injury while going to the aid of a crime victim.
- A surviving spouse, parent, child, sibling or other dependent of a crime victim who dies as a direct result of a crime.
- A Michigan resident injured by crime in another state that does not have a victim compensation program available.

How Does a Person File a Claim?

Obtain and fill out an application form. Forms are available from the Crime Victims Compensation Board or may be available at other places listed at the back of this booklet.

Under the Act your claim must be filed with the Board not later than 1 year after the occurrence of the crime. So, any time within 1 year of a crime, you can and should file a claim.

Prosecuting attorneys, sheriffs, police departments, state police posts, and other agencies may have forms and may help you, but they do not represent the Crime Victims Compensation Board, and they cannot waive any requirement of the law or rules of the Board.

Does a Person Need an Attorney to File a Claim?

Except in unusual circumstances, you do not need an attorney, but you do have a right to hire one. In deciding whether to hire an attorney, you should think about the following facts.

The Board investigates each claim and is willing to deal directly with you. You can hire an attorney at any stage of the process. Any attorney's fee must be paid by you out of your award. Board rules do limit the amount of attorney fees which are payable, so you may want to discuss that with an attorney before you hire one.

What Compensation May be Awarded?

The actual amount of compensation, if any, depends upon the facts of each case. Do not try to decide for yourself whether you are eligible. If there is any doubt, file a claim and the Board will decide. Compensation to crime victims is limited in many ways; here are some of the limits:

- Maximum total dollars allowable—$15,000.00.
- Maximum funeral expenses up to $1,500.00.
- Not more than $200.00 for each week of lost earnings, or in the case of a death, lost support.
- Losses resulting from an injury or death are awarded only if a person has no insurance or public assistance available.
- If a person will not suffer serious financial hardship, then he or she must be denied an award even though a loss was suffered.

What are Some Losses That are Not Covered?

- Personal property loss or damage.
- Pain and suffering.
- Injuries received while confined in a correctional facility.
- Victims of motor vehicle accidents with no available automobile insurance should file a claim with the Secretary of State, Assigned Claims Plan.

To Receive an Award, What Other Basic Conditions Must be Satisfied?

- Claims must be filed within one year from the date of the crime except in the following circumstances:
  - When a child is a victim of sexual abuse the claim must be filed within one year of the report of the crime and before the child is 19.
  - When a crime is discovered by a law enforcement agency where the injury was previously determined to be accidental, of unknown origin, or from natural causes, the claim must be filed within one year of the discovery.
- The crime must be reported to the police within 48 hours, unless the Board finds there was good cause for any delay in making a police report.
- To recover an out-of-pocket loss, a person must show a loss of at least $200.00 in medical expenses, or other expenses not otherwise reimbursable.
- To recover loss of earnings or loss of support, a person must have lost at least two continuous weeks' disability from criminal injury.
- A person cannot be criminally responsible for the crime and cannot be an accomplice.
- The victim must be willing to cooperate with law enforcement agencies in the investigation of the crime and with the courts in the prosecution of a defendant.
- The Board may reject a claim or reduce any award if the victim contributed to the infliction of the injury.

What Happens After a Claim is Filed?

- The Board acknowledges the claimant's request for consideration and notifies the prosecuting attorney that a claim for compensation is pending.
- An investigation is conducted to verify the validity of the claim and the extent of any compensable loss. The claimant may be requested to provide documentation if the Board is otherwise unable to verify the claim.
- If dissatisfied, the claimant has 30 days in which to appeal the decision of the member to the full Board. An evidentiary hearing is provided to a claimant who requests one. The decision of the full Board becomes the final decision of the Board.

- If still dissatisfied, the claimant has 30 days to file a request for leave to appeal with the Court of Appeals.

Coordination of Benefits

- The Board is the payor of last resort.
- Payments from insurance or public funds for out-of-pocket expenses, lost earnings or support (except disability or death benefits paid to a peace officer) are primary resources and must be deducted prior to any award for compensation.
- The claimant must repay the State of Michigan out of any subsequent insurance settlement or court-ordered restitution covering a loss reimbursed by the Board.

Waiver of Limits

- The minimum loss requirements will be waived for persons retired by reason of age or disability.
- The minimum loss requirement will be waived for the expense of forensic medical exams for sexual assault victims.

What About False Information?

If a person falsely presents the facts and circumstances of a crime with the intent to defraud or cheat and causes an award to be made under the Act, that is a crime. So, a person can be prosecuted for putting false information in an application or causing other false information to be submitted to the Board.

Other Considerations

- The minimum loss requirement may be waived for persons retired by reason of age or disability.
- The minimum loss requirement may be waived for the expense of forensic medical exams for rape victims.

VICTIMIZATION

Dr. Frank M. Ochberg is a psychiatrist, formerly the Director of the Michigan Department of Mental Health, and is Adjunct Professor of Criminal Justice at M.S.U. He is recognized internationally as a leading expert in victimization and is the editor of several books and author of articles on the subject. Frank is a good friend who has contributed significantly to the development of the Crime Victims' Rights Act. With his permission, the following is adapted from "The Victim of Violent Crime" by Frank M. Ochberg, M.D. in Radelet, Louis A., Police and the Community, 4th ed., Macmillan, 1986, pp. 285-300.

"The victim of violent crime suffers from injury and injustice. To serve that victim with professional skill, we who work in the fields of law enforcement, criminal justice, social service, health and mental health must understand the variety of wounds, physical and psychological, that victims bear. We must recognize the stigma attached to victims in our society, the isolation, ostracism, and humiliation they often feel, regardless of their innocence. The term, 'secondary injury,' is used to describe the wound that a victim suffers when treated insensitively by individuals and institutions in the aftermath of victimization. The second injury may, indeed, be more traumatic than the first.

"There are many forms of crime victimization and considerable variation in victim reactions. From a clinical point of view, a victim is someone who has been deliberately harmed by another person, has been lowered in dominance, and has suffered. The suffering may include pain, rage, depression, loss of mental or physical capacity, and shame to the point of humiliation and self-imposed isolation.

"Victims may have difficulty recalling the first few moments of victimization. During a traumatic event, denial operates as a coping mechanism, shielding the individual from a rational appraisal of danger, and allowing an automatic set of adaptive reflexes to operate. When the reality of victimization breaks through, the victim is aware of physiological changes, injuries and loss. When the victim says, 'No, no, no, this isn't happening,' he or she already knows that it is. Frozen fright keeps the body inert while the mind thaws and begins to rationalize. Events are replayed. 'If only I had done this, not that . . .' is said or thought a hundred different ways. Feelings of disgust and defilement may emerge, even in crimes that are not explicitly sexual. Personal space and dignity have been invaded. A mortified victim needs reassurance, but may seek to avoid all human contact and react impassively to questions and expressions of concern.

"In addition, the traumatized individual can be expected to have recurrent, intrusive recollections of the event, in dreams and when awake. Concentration often is impaired and may cause deficits at work or in household responsibilities.

"What are the implications for each of us who come in contact with victims on a regular basis? Knowing how victims may feel does not mean we know how a given victim does feel. But it never hurts to say:

- I am sorry this happened.
- I am glad you were not killed.
- It was not your fault.

"These three simple statements are the cornerstone of decent interaction with victims. On the other hand, saying, 'I know how you must feel,' is often perceived as patronizing and wrong, even when coming from a fellow victim.

"Victims need practical help in addition to compassionate understanding: where medical help is available, what self-help groups exist, compensation services, if applicable, and anticipated steps in criminal justice procedures.

"Victims should not be treated as mental patients or assumed to require psychiatric services. In fact, few credentialed professionals have training or experience with victims. When symptoms are severe and incapacitating, such as hallucinations, depression with suicidal thoughts, alcoholism, or drug abuse, professional counseling is advisable. When physical changes occur—weight loss, abdominal pain, bloody stools, palpitations, shortness of breath—medical evaluation is indicated. Any symptoms enduring beyond six months warrant professional attention.

"Sensitivity to the needs of victims is a critical aspect of professionalism in the field of criminal justice. Justice is hollow when victims are neglected; democracy thrives when its citizens are respected at times of crisis and need."

By Frank M. Ochberg, M.D.
