FOREWORD

This report provides an overview of juvenile court dispositions in Pennsylvania during 1992 and summarizes information provided by county juvenile probation departments.

The report would not be possible without the funding support of the Pennsylvania Commission on Crime and Delinquency, and the information supplied by the courts of common pleas and juvenile probation departments of this Commonwealth.

In an effort to enhance the presentation of data, tables, graphs and charts have been included. Although the report focuses primarily on delinquency dispositions, please note that information has again been included on dependency cases which have been referred to juvenile probation departments. While county children and youth agencies handle the overwhelming majority of cases involving dependent children in the Commonwealth, some juvenile probation departments provide services to children who are alleged to be dependent on the basis of ungovernability or chronic truancy.

The information contained in this report is of value to all individuals, agencies and organizations having an interest in Pennsylvania's juvenile justice system. However, it is not intended to reflect the total workload of juvenile courts or juvenile probation departments.

It is with great pleasure that we dedicate this report to the judges, probation officers, and other professionals who work on a daily basis in the interest of their communities and the young persons who have been entrusted to their care.

Respectfully submitted,

James E. Anderson
Executive Director

Emanuel A. Cassimatis
Chairperson

PREFACE

This report is a compilation of the data collected from the juvenile probation departments in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. A sample of the statistical card used to collect the information can be found in the appendix.

As in the past, to avoid confusion regarding the unit of count used in tabulating Juvenile Court statistics and to improve the understanding of how data can be interpreted please note:

1. The primary unit of count is the "DISPOSITION". A "DISPOSITION" is defined as a referral disposed by the probation department and/or the court. Within a single delinquency referral, a youth may be charged with a number of offenses which may include a number of petitions, any one youth may be involved in a number of dispositions within a calendar year. In addition, a youth may be referred on more than one occasion and receive only one disposition. Dependency dispositions reported include only referrals to probation departments alleging dependency which are not accompanied by allegations of delinquency. Therefore, one is cautioned NOT to attempt to interpret the data as:
 - a) the number of youth who are processed by the court;
 - b) the number of offenses charged to juveniles.
2. There are times when you will see the word "CASE" used to describe the data. In this report the word "CASE" is used interchangeably with the word "DISPOSITION";
3. Therefore, the "UNIT OF COUNT" refers to a case disposed by a juvenile court and/or probation department. The term "DISPOSED" means that some definite action/decision has been implemented or that some treatment plan has been decided upon or begun;
4. The statistical system is constructed to collect up to a total of the four (4) most serious offenses per delinquency disposition;
5. The Commission collects additional information on "PLACEMENT REVIEWS", "DISPOSITION REVIEWS", and selected special conditions attached to a disposition. The "DISPOSITION REVIEW" is a hearing conducted before the court regarding a previous disposition which did not result in out-of-home placement. A "PLACEMENT REVIEW" is a hearing conducted before the court regarding a previous disposition which did involve out-of-home placement. The outcome of reviews are reported only in the review section and are NOT included in any of the other tables.
6. The data in the Secure Detention section were collected pursuant to the Commission's monitoring responsibility under the Coleman Consent Decree. This information should not be compared with the dispositional detention data collected and reported prior to 1989.

Custom reports including any information contained in tables which have been deleted from this report can be obtained by contacting the Director of the Statistical Analysis Center at Shippensburg University, 717-532-1412.

ATTORNEY REPRESENTATION FOR DELINQUENCY DISPOSITIONS, 1992*

The data on attorney representation include only the dispositions made as a result of a hearing before a master or a judge. Informally handled cases, reviews and dependency cases are not included.

The Court Appointed column includes those cases where counsel, other than the public defender, is appointed by the court. A juvenile may waive his/her right to attorney representation at the court hearing. These cases are reflected in the appropriate column.

TIME LAPSE FROM REFERRAL TO DISPOSITION FOR DELINQUENCY CASES, 1992*

Time lapse information is calculated from the date of referral to the date of disposition. As with all the previous tables, disposition and placement reviews and dependency cases are not included. This year, the dispositions are grouped into one of two categories, formal and informal. A disposition is counted in the formal category if a date was located in the Date of Hearing field on the statistical card (an example of the card is included in the appendix) indicating that a formal court hearing was conducted.

The median is used in place of the mean or average for better accuracy in reporting. The mean can be affected by one extreme case that required a long time to dispose, while the median would not be affected. The median is defined as the value above and below which half of the cases fall.

DELINQUENCY PLACEMENTS

A disposition of PLACEMENT refers to an out-of-home commitment of the juvenile. Placements account for 11.3% of the total dispositions of new referrals.

Institution, Private refers to private sector facilities which typically house twenty-five or more juveniles. The open settings of the Youth Development Centers operated by the Department of Public Welfare are counted in the DPW Open YDC column. DPW Secure YDC placements are the secure Youth Development Centers, with Alternative Rehabilitation Communities and Concern comprising the Secure, Private facilities. The Youth Forestry Camps are counted in the DPW YFC category. Vision Quest placements are reflected in the Wilderness Based category unless the group home facility is specifically reported on the data card.

In the table on the next page, titled Delinquency Placements by Type of Service, 1992, certain categories were combined. The category Security includes DPW Secure YDC and Secure Private placements. The DPW YFC placements are included in the Wilderness Based category.

This chart depicts the number of placement dispositions including those resulting from Disposition Reviews. A Disposition Review is a hearing conducted by the court regarding a previous disposition which did not result in out-of-home placement.

The reader is directed to page 40 in the review section for a breakdown, by county, of the type of service ordered by courts following Disposition Reviews. In order to obtain the total placements, for individual counties or statewide, including those resulting from Disposition Reviews, combine the figures found on page 19 with those on page 40.

Institution, Private refers to private sector facilities which typically house twenty-five or more juveniles. The open settings of the Youth Development Centers operated by the Department of Public Welfare are counted in the DPW Open YDC column. DPW Secure YDC placements are the secure Youth Development Centers, with Alternative Rehabilitation Communities and Concern comprising the Secure, Private facilities. The Youth Forestry Camps are counted in the DPW YFC category. Vision Quest placements are reflected in the Wilderness Based category unless the group home facility is specifically reported on the data card.

DELINQUENCY OFFENSES

The four most serious offenses, alleged and substantiated, per disposition are collected. For the report, they have been collapsed into categories. Grouped into the Person category are offenses such as simple assault, aggravated assault, rape, robbery, etc. Property offenses include burglary, all thefts, criminal trespass, vandalism, and other related offenses. All of the offenses (up to four) and their counts are reported in the two data tables.

The most serious alleged offense per disposition was used to create the line chart on page 25. It shows the trends from 1987 to 1992 of rape, robbery, aggravated assault and drug offenses. There was a 96 percent increase in alleged drug offenses between 1987 and 1989, followed by a slight decrease in 1990. Aggravated assault offenses have increased steadily during this five-year period, showing an increase of 59 percent. Robberies decreased by 20 percent between 1987 and 1989, remained constant in 1990 and have increased nearly 21 percent in 1991 and 1992. Allegations of rape remained relatively constant between 1987 and 1991 but increased by 16 percent in 1992. There has been a steady increase in all four categories of crimes since 1990.

SECURE DETENTION

The federal class action suit Coleman v. Stanziani, Civil Action No. 81-2215, was settled via Consent Decree in 1986. In that settlement, the Juvenile Court Judges' Commission was assigned responsibility for monitoring compliance with the terms of the Consent Decree and the Standards Governing the Use of Secure Detention.

Detention information appearing in the Disposition Report was extracted from the Coleman database housed at the Center for Juvenile Justice Training and Research. The tables, and more detailed information on detention use, can be found in the biannual monitoring reports the Juvenile Court Judges' Commission submits to the Attorney General, the Juvenile Law Center, and all other counsel to the litigants in the Coleman case.

In accordance with the Consent Decree, all counties, except Philadelphia, must report their secure detention use to the Juvenile Court Judges' Commission. This is accomplished statewide through the detention centers. Each month 20 of Pennsylvania's 21 secure juvenile detention centers report their detention admissions along with Statements of Facts and Reasons that accompany each admission. Philadelphia County is not included in this reporting system.

To avoid confusion in the interpretation of the data contained in these tables, the reader should note the following:

The unit of count is the admission of a juvenile to a secure detention center;

A juvenile admitted to a secure detention center in the county of residence who is transferred to another secure detention center without release is counted as two admissions.

STANDARDS GOVERNING THE USE OF SECURE DETENTION UNDER THE JUVENILE ACT

100 Codes	Circumstances under which secure detention may be authorized on the basis of an alleged offense or on the basis of an alleged offense and the child's current status with the court or prior record.
200 Codes	Circumstances under which secure detention may be authorized on the basis of a child's status as an absconder or fugitive; on the basis of a child's record of failing to appear at previous juvenile proceedings; or because of extraordinary circumstances which require secure detention to prevent a child from absconding.
201 Code	The child is an absconder from an institution or other placement to which he/she was committed as a result of a previous adjudication of delinquency.

Since the Coleman Consent Decree went into effect in 1986, admissions to secure detention in Pennsylvania have increased each year. In 1987 there were 5,875 admissions and in 1992 there were 9,286 admissions; This represents a 58 percent increase in statewide secure detention use. This does not include Philadelphia County, where secure detention activity is controlled by the settlement in Santiago v. City of Philadelphia, Civil Action No. 74-2589.

There has been a decrease of 5.2 percent in detention admissions from 1991 to 1992. The length of stay figures were calculated using the median in place of the mean or average for better accuracy in reporting. The mean can be affected by one extreme case that remained in detention for a long period of time; while the median would not be affected. The median is defined as the value above and below which half of the cases fall.

The chart on page 29 shows utilization rates in secure detention centers in 1992. A number of these centers provide services to several counties on a regular basis. It should be noted that the bed capacity in the Lehigh center increased during 1991 from 14 to 18 beds. The Lancaster center increased bed capacity twice during 1992 and these changes are reflected in the utilization rates. From January 1, 1992, through April 30, 1992, the utilization rate was 113 percent, based on a 15-bed capacity. From May 1, 1992, through July 22, 1992, the rate was 85 percent, based on 20 beds. From July 23, 1992, through December 31, 1992 the utilization rate was 96 percent, based on a 23-bed capacity.

1992 Utilization Rates for Pennsylvania Juvenile Detention Centers

* A center's utilization rate is equal to its average daily population (ADP) divided by its licensed bed capacity (CAP).

DEMOGRAPHICS

This section contains some of the demographic information collected on each disposition, excluding disposition and placement reviews and dependency dispositions.

The tables in this section display data on age, school status, highest grade completed, family status, and living arrangement. All of these, except age, reflect the status at the time of referral. Age is calculated at the time of disposition. A total of 26,152 males and 4,649 females received dispositions for delinquency offenses in 1992. The racial breakdown of these cases can be seen in the table on page 31.

DEPENDENCY DISPOSITIONS

In 1991, the Commission began collecting information on dependency dispositions which are processed by juvenile probation departments. These figures do not reflect the total number of dependency cases in the Commonwealth nor do they represent the total number of dependency cases handled by juvenile probation departments. A dependency case is defined as a new referral which is processed by the juvenile probation department and does not have accompanying delinquency allegations.

Only the counties that reported dependency dispositions are shown in the tables in this section.
