Preliminary Report

California Department of Justice ■ Division of Law Enforcement

Daniel E. Lungren, Attorney General

CRIME 1994

In Selected California Jurisdictions

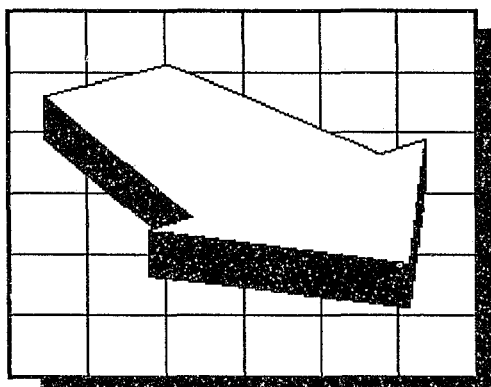

JANUARY THROUGH DECEMBER

This report compares preliminary counts of crimes for 1994 with those of 1993 for jurisdictions with a population of 100,000 or more. It is estimated that the 67 jurisdictions which meet this criterion account for approximately 66 percent of the crimes reported in the state.

The jurisdictions are grouped into three categories:

- Police Departments, which provide law enforcement services for incorporated cities;
- Sheriff's Departments, which provide law enforcement services to unincorporated areas within the county; and
- Contract Cities, which are incorporated cities that contract for law enforcement services (usually with a sheriff's department) rather than maintain their own police force.

Data used in this report are not adjusted by population. Statewide adjusted data (rates) appear in the annual Crime and Delinquency in California publications.

CCI
DOWN 7.2%

The CALIFORNIA CRIME INDEX (CCI) offenses are homicide, forcible rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, and motor vehicle theft. During 1994, the number of reported offenses dropped 7.2 percent when compared with 1993.

Notes: Dash indicates either that data are unavailable or that the percent change has not been calculated because the base number is less than 50.

Data in this table were submitted to the Law Enforcement Information Center by the cutoff date of February 6, 1995.

The California Highway Patrol reports motor vehicle theft for some county sheriff's departments. Therefore, sheriff's department figures for this category may not reflect all reported crimes.

¹The FBI Crime Index total includes the California Crime Index Offenses plus larceny-theft and arson.

²Twelve months of 1994 data are not available for Oxnard Police Department. Therefore, to maintain comparability of 1994 data with 1993 data, Oxnard Police Department counts for 1993 are shown but are not included in the total police or the total jurisdiction counts.

³To make 1994 data comparable with 1993 data, El Camino College for January through December 1994 was included in the Los Angeles Sheriff's Department count.
