FIELD TRAINING PROCEDURES FOR POLICE RECRUITS

I. What is Field Training?

Field Training is a process by which an individual recruit receives formal instruction on the job for special and defined purposes. As part of the recruit training process, a trainee will be assigned to a Field Training Officer (coach) who is a police officer especially prepared for this type of training. The recruit will have various police duties and procedures explained and demonstrated to him. As often as practical, the recruit will be required to perform the tasks.

The Field Training is designed to run approximately twelve (12) weeks. It is possible, however, to complete the program in less time if a full-time coach-recruit relationship exists without constant interruption by other duties. Upon satisfactory completion of the program and submission of the properly executed forms, 50 hours certified training credit will be granted the recruit towards the minimum basic training requirement.

II. Purposes of Field Training

The specialized nature of police work is widely recognized. Formal classroom training and limited demonstration cannot teach the recruit all he needs to know. Therefore, the recruit needs on-the-job training which is the purpose of this program.

This field training phase is intended to give the new recruit instruction, direction, supervision, guidance, and experience so that he may develop good judgment, efficiency, and good habits of conduct and appearance. Field Training will serve as an evaluation of both the recruit and the curriculum of the training school. The field training period also serves to aid in determining if the recruit meets all the requirements to become a permanent member of the force.

III. Important Factors in the Field Training Program

The Field Training program is designed to be of the most benefit to a trainee if it is administered after the trainee has completed at least 200 hours of classroom instruction. This classroom instruction should be devoted to basic orientation, laws of arrest, use of firearms, firearms training on the range, and other procedures which should not be postponed. This gives the recruit the basic knowledge and skills needed to operate in the field with a Field Training Officer. For a recruit to obtain the utmost benefit from the classroom instruction, a week, or even two weeks of orientation in his own department is recommended so that he can better apply his classroom training.

As part of the instructional process, it is necessary that Field Training be conducted in a manner designed to develop the technically skilled and professionally oriented officer. Success of the Field Training program requires the following:

- 1. Field Training Officers be carefully chosen from the most skilled and effective officers on the force.
- 2. F.T.Os. must possess the ability to communicate their knowledge and skills to the recruit officer.
- 3. F.T.Os. must reflect the highest levels of personal integrity, character and maturity. The use of lazy or unmotivated officers must be avoided.
- 4. Primary training, defining the F.T.O's. duties, responsibilities and authority must be provided.
- 5. In-service training for F.T.Os. covering the latest police techniques, departmental policies, and field training concepts must be provided. Regularly scheduled in-service training will also serve to standardize grading and other program mechanics as well as to provide a continuing evaluation of recruit development and of the program.

IV. Responsibility of the Unit Commander*

When a recruit is assigned to a unit for training, the Unit Commander will be responsible for the following:

1. Introduction of the recruit to as many personnel as possible.

*Unit Commander can be a shift commander, division head, shift sergeant, or anyone who has responsibility of supervising the Field Training Officer.

- 2. Familiarization of the recruit with basic operations of the unit. This should be done by the watch-listen-learn method and not by actual performance of duties.
- 3. Assignment of the recruit together with his appointed F.T.O. to a sector or beat which will provide the recruit fullest opportunity for orientation during the on-the-job Field Training period. The recruit shall be assigned to one F.T.O. at a time. It may be beneficial to the recruit to be assigned to more than one F.T.O. before completion of the Field Training period so that he can see different personalities in operation and different methods used.
- 4. Each week the Unit Commander should discuss with the F.T.O. the progress of the recruit in his Field Training program.
- 5. The Unit Commander should personally consult with the recruit and the F.T.O. when the F.T.O. believes the recruit will not develop into a successful police officer. If the Unit Commander, after consultation, is of the opinion that the recruit is not likely to become a successful police officer, he should immediately make his opinions and recommendations known to the proper authority.
- 6. The Unit Commander will submit the completed F.T.O. Weekly Progress Report, Evaluation Report, Instruction Guide and the Training Record Form to the department head or to the proper authority for transmittal to the department head.

V. Responsibility of the Field Training Officer

The Field Training Officer should have complete responsibility of the recruit during the Field Training assignment. The recruit should always work with the assigned F.T.O. and should have the same days off and the same work schedule whenever this is practical.

The F.T.O. will insure that the recruit is familiar with the complete operations of headquarters, including the communications operation, records facility, detective and juvenile offices, etc.

Using the F.T.O. Instruction Guide (BPST #F-24), the F.T.O. shall:

- 1. Explain operational procedures and existing policy on all activity encountered during the Field Training period.
- 2. Acquaint the recruit with the entire district, including the shortest routes to various points in the area. He shall make the recruit aware of the location of all public buildings in the district, of potential trouble spots, of areas subject to higher criminal activity, the physical hazards that exist which would tend to give cover to criminal operations, and any other information which would assist the recruit in efficient patrol operation.
- 3. Encourage the recruit to look for violations of the law, estimated speeds of vehicles, study descriptive data on the various makes and models of automobiles, and so on.
- 4. Demonstrate the fundamental procedures in the operation of police vehicles. The recruit shall be required to demonstrate his ability to operate a police vehicle within the first two-week period.
- 5. Direct, guide, explain, and demonstrate the fundamentals of police work until he is satisfied the recruit completely understands how and why duties are performed in a certain manner. He should stress police ethics; public, human, and community relations.
- 6. Examine the recruit by questioning him on patrol operations and his knowledge of all the other procedures relating to the job. This questioning should be constant throughout the Field Training period.
- 7. Allow the recruit to perform such tasks as he feels the recruit is competent and ready to assume.
- 8. Place his initials and the date in the proper column of the Instruction Guide when he has explained and demonstrated the listed task.

During the Field Training period, the F.T.O. will be observing and evaluating the recruit's performance. A meaningful evaluation is possible only if the F.T.O. affords the recruit the fullest opportunity to learn. It should be the aim of every F.T.O. to start the recruit on the way to becoming the best police officer in the organization.

If at any time during the Field Training period the F.T.O. is of the opinion that the recruit will not develop into a successful police officer, the F.T.O. shall notify his Unit Commander. This notification can be as a result of but is not limited to the following: lack of interest or ability, poor or improper conduct, inefficiency, incompetency, or anything of this nature.

VI. Description of Field Training Forms and Their Use

1. FIELD TRAINING OFFICER WEEKLY PROGRESS REPORT (BPST #F-21)

To be executed by the F.T.O. (coach) at the completion of each week. The F.T.O. should consult with the appropriate official to determine what an acceptable norm or average would be in the seven areas to be evaluated. The F.T.O. should be demanding but fair in the "general progress to date" section. His comments should be specific and should contain recommendations as to how the recruit can improve any unsatisfactory ratings. The Weekly Progress Report shall be forwarded to the Unit Commander after completion.

2. FIELD TRAINING OFFICER EVALUATION REPORT (BPST #F-22)

To be executed by each F.T.O. who has been assigned to the recruit at the completion of the Field Training program. The comments should be specific in each of the nine areas to be evaluated. The written summary portion of the evaluation should contain an overview of the entire period of time covered by the report. It should cover the particular points used to justify the Field Training Officers' recommendations to release the recruit to regular assignments or not, as the case may be. To be forwarded to the Unit Commander upon completion.

3. FIELD TRAINING RECORD (BPST #F-23)

This record will be filed in the BPST office and will enable the staff to quickly determine who the Field Training Officers were in the case of each recruit, what assignments were covered during the Field Training period, when the assignments were completed, name of supervisor accepting the record of completion, a record of the recruit signing and attesting that he has been instructed in all the items listed in the F.T.O. Instruction Guide, and, finally, a record of the department head attesting that the recruit has satisfactorily completed the Field Training program.

4. FIELD TRAINING OFFICER INSTRUCTION GUIDE (BPST #F-24)

This guide is a listing of basic police responsibilities, tasks, and procedures that each recruit should be familiar with and have at least an adequate amount of skill in performing. The guide poses numerous common police activities and provides a method of qualitatively evaluating the situations which the recruit experiences and his reaction to them.

The F.T.O. should allow sufficient time for explaining each listed situation. He should explain and demonstrate (if appropriate) the situation or task before requiring the recruit to perform or practice the task, if performance is necessary to gain knowledge or skill. Many of the procedures will not require performance, only understanding, by the recruit. When such a situation exists, the F.T.O. should write N/A (not appropriate) in the spaces provided for demonstration and practice. If a listed task or procedure does not apply to your particular department write N/A in all three spaces.

The Field Training Officer Instruction Guide is to be brought up to date at the end of each day's training.

Upon completion of the F.T.O Instruction Guide, the F.T.O. should submit the guide to the Unit Commander for his further action.

VII. Disposition of Completed Forms

Completed F.T.O. Weekly Progress Reports (BPST #F-21) and Evaluation Reports (BPST #F-22) should be maintained in the recruit's personnel file within his own department. THE FIELD TRAINING MANUAL CONTAINING THE FIELD TRAINING RECORD (BPST #F-23) AND IN-STRUCTION GUIDE (BPST #F-24) MUST BE FORWARDED TO THE BOARD ON POLICE STANDARDS AND TRAINING UPON COMPLETION. This is necessary as successful completion of this program is one of the minimum training standards to be met for certification.

It is recommended that a copy of all forms be maintained in the recruit's personnel file within his own department.

THIS RECORD MUST BE FORWARDED TO THE BOARD ON POLICE STANDARDS AND TRAINING AFTER COMPLETION TO RECEIVE 50 HOURS TRAINING CREDIT TOWARD CERTIFICATION. It is recommended that a copy of this record be retained in recruit's personnel
