FOREWORD

The Directory is presented for general information and guidance. Every effort has been made to assure accuracy but the Association cannot assume responsibility beyond the point of using the information supplied in response to the questionnaires submitted to departments and institutions. Therefore, wherever omissions are noted, it is due to the fact that the information was not available or could not be obtained.

Occasionally local conditions differ to alter the meaning of certain terms used. For example, the questionnaire solicited information relative to the type of inmates confined, as follows: "Is your population made up of felons . . . misdemeanants . . . others (specify) . . ." The intent of the use of the word felons was purely legal to the extent that a felon is ordinarily one convicted of a major crime while a misdemeanant is ordinarily one convicted of a minor crime. This information appears as "Population: Felons, misdemeanants, etc."

The heading "Age limits" indicates the statutory minimum and maximum commitment age limits, as reported through the questionnaire.

Figures in parentheses in telephone numbers indicate the Area Code.

† This symbol indicates updated information was not received.

Again we have identified those institutions and agencies which have institutional membership in the ACA with a star (*) and those facilities conducting work release programs with (WR).

Part-time parole board members are identified by P.T.; full-time by F.T.

Included again is a listing of city and county short-term institutions with a capacity of 100 or more. It may not be complete. Information includes minimum age and sentence limitations.

IF THERE ARE CHANGES IN NAMES OF INSTITUTIONS OR AGENCIES OR SUPERINTENDENTS OR DIRECTORS, PLEASE INFORM US AS WE ATTEMPT TO KEEP A CURRENT DIRECTORY IN THE CENTRAL OFFICE.

Credit for the compilation, editing and proofing of this Directory is due to Mrs. Norma McDonald, secretary in the ACA Office. She has exercised every effort to assure complete and accurate information.

This Directory is distributed to those holding all types of membership in ACA except Regular and Associate memberships. Only one edition is available per membership. The Directory may be purchased directly through the ACA office for $6.00.

We express thanks to all of those who complied with our request for information so that we could make available a directory that is in great demand and highly valued by those actively engaged in the various branches of crime study and treatment. This Directory is also widely used by governmental agencies, university faculties and students.

You Are Invited to Attend
the 105th Congress of Correction
Louisville, Kentucky
August 17-21, 1975

 This project is staffed with professional persons to evaluate and recommend programs for juveniles referred to the Center. This Center was established as a cooperative agreement between the Department of Youth Services and the Charleston Family Court. The Center serves a tri-county area made up of Charleston County, Berkeley County and Dorchester County. Referrals to the Center are either a temporary court commitment for a 45 day evaluation or from other community agencies. The Center also provides individual and group counseling to the juveniles and their families.

Spartanburg Regional Office, 210 Chestnut Street, Spartanburg 29302

Walter Waddell, Regional Supervisor Phone: (803) 585-8757
 The Spartanburg Regional Office was officially opened on April 25, 1973, and now provides services for evaluation, case monitoring and follow-up on cases referred to the office. Referrals are generated from the community, schools, police department, courts, other agencies and self-referrals. Other agencies are utilized on a referral basis for services that are not readily available through the Regional Office. Psychological, medical and other specialty examinations are provided on a contractual basis.

Greenville Regional Office, 1208 East Washington Street, Greenville 29601

Leonard Lee, Regional Supervisor Phone: (803) 233-2719
 The Greenville Regional Office was opened November 19, 1973. In addition to providing field and diagnostic services, the Regional Office operates a Group Home for Boys. The Greenville Regional Office provides services as described in the Spartanburg Regional Office above in addition to the Group Home.

Caroselle Home, 2241 Lincoln Street, Columbia 29201

Kathleen Johnson, Social Worker Phone: (803) 253-4717
 This Home is a residential treatment facility that accommodates the females to equip each with the necessary psychological capabilities to enable them to adjust successfully into the community. Programs are flexible and realistic and fit the individual needs of the clients. Referrals to the home are through court commitments or custody orders.

St. Luke's Neighborhood Youth Center, 2211 Lady Street, Columbia 29204

George Wilson, Supervisor Phone: (803) 758-5920
 The Department opened the first Neighborhood Youth Center in the State on July 23, 1973, for the purpose of providing specific direct services to acting out or behaviorally disordered youth in a community setting. Negotiations for the use of the St. Luke's Episcopal Church provided the Department with a base of operation for such a program. Approximately 75 to 100 children per day receive services through the Center.

Anderson Satelitic Office, Anderson County Courthouse, Anderson 29621

Patricia Sanders, Social Worker Phone: (803) 226-7678
 The Anderson Office located in the County and Family Court of Anderson where the Caseworker provides follow-up services on recommendations made by the Court to pre-delinquents and their parents and on orders of the Court in connection with probation. This Satelitic Office is under the direct supervision of the Spartanburg Regional Office.
