COURTS OF COMMON PLEAS

Legal Authorization: Courts of Common Pleas are established by the State Constitution, Article IV, Section 1 and by Ohio Revised Code Section 2157.07 in the case of Juvenile Court Divisions.

Organization: There is a Common Pleas Court in each of the counties of the state. The activities of the Common Pleas Court are functionally divided into four areas; General, Domestic, Probate and Juvenile. Judges of the Common Pleas Court may exercise jurisdiction in more than one of these functional areas. In three counties there are four separate divisions, each exercising jurisdiction in one of the functional areas. Eleven counties use a three-division plan in which one division exercises only General Jurisdiction, one division exercises Domestic Relations and Juvenile Jurisdiction and one exercises Probate Jurisdiction. Sixty-seven counties use a two-division plan with one division exercising Probate and Juvenile Jurisdiction. Seven counties have only one division where a single judge has jurisdiction over all four functional areas. Judges who normally sit in one division may be temporarily assigned to another by the county presiding judge if assignment is in the same county, or by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court if the assignment is in another county.

Legal Jurisdiction: The Courts of Common Pleas have exclusive original criminal jurisdiction of felonies and most serious criminal offenses. These courts have original jurisdiction in all civil cases where the amount in controversy is greater than $500. Juvenile divisions of the Common Pleas Courts have exclusive original jurisdiction over any child under 18 including juvenile delinquency and dependency and neglect. Appeals are to the Courts of Appeals on the record.

Judges:

- Number - As of December 31, 1975, there are 293 judges of the Common Pleas Courts.
- Selection - Judges are nominated in a partisan primary and run on a separate non-partisan judicial ballot.
- Tenure - Common Pleas Court judges are elected for six years.
- Qualifications - A judge of the Common Pleas Court must be admitted to practice law in the state and for a total of at least six years engaged in the practice of law in this state or served as a judge of a court of record in any jurisdiction in the United States or both.

Other Judicial Personnel: Some Common Pleas Courts have referees or commissioners who hear domestic relations and juvenile cases.

Support Personnel: A clerk of the court is elected in each county. An administrative assistant may be appointed in counties having population in excess of 300,000. The courts may employ such other person or persons as may be necessary to facilitate its function.
