AN IMPORTANT NOTE

For the purpose of enabling the users of this Report to understand better the data contained in it, some explanations concerning the reliability of the data received from the Ohio juvenile courts are necessary.

The juvenile courts as well as the courts of common pleas in Ohio report monthly to both the Ohio Supreme Court and the Bureau of Statistics. The reason for reporting to the Ohio Supreme Court is, of course, different from the reason for which the courts report to the Bureau of Statistics; and so are the types and amounts of data reported. The only common type of data in these two reporting systems is the "number of cases disposed of" by each court on a monthly count basis. The meaning of the term "case" is always the same, and the importance of this variable lies in the fact that it is a controlling one.

Yet, the number of disposed cases reported to the Ohio Supreme Court monthly is most of the time different from the number of cases reported to the Bureau of Statistics. Those differences were tabulated by county on an annual basis and are presented in the table that follows this note.

To the interested, the discrepancies that are shown in this table are both striking and revealing. Some of the reasons responsible for these discrepancies are listed in the general footnotes of Table 3, p. 21, but to the most extent they explain the situation in Cuyahoga county. For most of the other counties, we do not know of any reason in particular which could cause differential counts of the same thing.

OHIO JUVENILE COURT STATISTICS

USES OF THESE STATISTICS

The juvenile courts of Ohio are required by law (Ohio Revised Code Section 2151.18) to keep records and prepare annual reports of their cases disposed of during the year.

For many years, as a service to the courts, the Bureau of Statistics has tabulated the disposition of all juvenile court cases and returned to the courts statistical tables suitable for their annual reports.

In addition to the preparation of statistics for each court, the Bureau of Statistics prepares the total state summary tables which appear in this report as Tables 1 through 26.

Many uses have been made of these statistics. Individual courts may use their statistics for budget preparation. The Ohio Youth Commission finds the total state summary and the county distribution tables extremely useful for planning and forecasting of institutional population trends. The Legislative Service Commission uses these statistics to answer questions from Ohio legislators and in the preparation of special studies.

Each year, the Federal government requests table 3 of this report as a source of data for their national publication entitled Juvenile Court Statistics. Ohio's statistics along with those from other states are used in various Congressional hearings on juvenile delinquency.

In addition to these governmental uses, private insurance companies and consulting actuaries have found the statistics on juvenile traffic offenders useful in computing automobile insurance rates.

Another use of these statistics is to provide data for student research projects. Students, ranging from high school freshmen to doctoral candidates, have found these statistics helpful in preparing reports on juvenile delinquency, juvenile traffic offenders, and other problems of juveniles in our society.

DEFINITION OF JUVENILE COURT

The term juvenile court is used in the broad sense to include all courts having jurisdiction in children's cases and certain adult cases involving juveniles. In some counties the court is separate and independent from the common pleas court and the probate or domestic relations court. However, in some of the less populous counties the probate, domestic relations, or common pleas court also hears the juvenile cases. In collecting these statistics, every effort has been made to include all juvenile and adult cases processed by the "juvenile courts" in each of Ohio's counties.

UNRULY CASES

On November 19, 1969, a new juvenile court law became effective, which created a new type of case, namely the unruly case. The intent of this law was to separate from delinquency cases those cases of children who had committed acts which were troublesome to society, but were not necessarily crimes.

Thus, under the new law, delinquency cases include only those acts of children which would be crimes if committed by adults. Unruly cases include those cases of truancy, being ungovernable, running away, consent for early marriage, conditions injurious to morals and various other violations of laws applicable only to children.

TYPES OF CASES

In 1973, there were six broad categories of juvenile court cases - delinquency cases, dependency and neglect cases, special service cases, juvenile traffic cases, unruly cases, and adult cases. The detailed legal definitions of these types of cases are contained in the appendix of this report.

Delinquency and unruly cases result from juveniles committing unlawful acts which cause them to be brought before the court for punishment and/or guidance in finding the proper way to live in our society.

Dependency, neglect and special service cases result from acts or conditions which are generally no fault of the juvenile. The exception being consent to marry where pregnancy is the compelling factor to legalize a marriage relationship.

Juvenile traffic cases are those specific unlawful acts of juveniles involving traffic and motor vehicle operation which would cause them to be brought into a municipal traffic court if they were adults. The legislature many years ago directed that juvenile traffic offenders be given special attention by the juvenile courts as a way of more effectively correcting their deviant traffic behavior.

Adult cases are those cases in which offenses committed by adults are against or in some way detrimental to the well being of juveniles. As such, the juvenile court considers both the effect on the juvenile and the unlawful conduct of the adult in meting out punishment to the adult.

STATISTICAL PRESENTATION OF BASIC INFORMATION

Several statistical tables and charts have been included in this report to highlight some of the statistics. Chart A, for instance, illustrates graphically the preponderance of the number of traffic cases over the number of frequencies of any other type of case shown in the chart.

Chart B shows the percentage frequency distribution of the number of delinquency cases by age. The distribution drops sharply after the age of 17 because most cases involving persons 18 years and older are processed through the municipal and/or common pleas court system.

Chart C shows the percentage frequency distribution of unruly cases by age. This distribution is for all practical purposes, a bimodal distribution where the highest frequencies fall in the ages of 15 and 16.

Chart D shows the percentage frequency distribution of the juvenile traffic violations by age. This distribution is actually truncated to the right in the sense that the vast majority of traffic offenders 18 years and older are referred to adult traffic courts and, therefore, are not shown in this chart.

Chart E shows the frequency distribution for referral of adult cases to juvenile courts by per cent of the total. Approximately 40 percent of the cases involved "nonsupport" and 23 percent of the cases involve "paternity".

A graphical analysis, which is always interesting to make, is to plot the distribution of a variable on the map of the state of Ohio. Chart F shows the number of delinquency cases disposed of by county. When studying a chart of this type, care should always be taken when comparing one geographical region with another. Some courts may report only those cases which are handled in an "official" manner, and, therefore, show a lower count of delinquency cases. Other courts may count and report every form of complaint.

However, the general pattern which emerges is the concentration of juvenile delinquency in the counties which encompass the major cities and have the highest population densities. Thus, this map shows the highest frequency of delinquencies in Cleveland (Cuyahoga County), Akron (Summit County), Toledo (Lucas County), Dayton (Montgomery County), and Cincinnati (Hamilton County).

APPENDIX

GLOSSARY OF TERMS
USED IN THIS REPORT

ADJUSTED OR ADMONISHED: Includes cases in which the action of the court consists of bringing about a satisfactory relationship or agreement between the offender and the complainant; or in readjustment of the home environment; or in which the court considers an admonition or warning to the offender a sufficient means of disposing of the complaint; e.g., restitution, released to foster home and/or relatives, or lectured and released.

ADULT CARE: Juvenile courts have exclusive original jurisdiction to hear and determine all criminal cases charging adults: (A) with contributing to, encouraging, or tending to cause by any act of omission the delinquency, neglect, or dependency of any child; (B) with any act or omission with respect to any child which is a violation of any state law or any municipal ordinance; (C) with abandonment or failure to provide subsistence to any child for which they are legally responsible (Section 2151.23).

AUTOMOBILE THEFT: Unlawful taking or stealing of a motor vehicle. Includes the so called "joy-riding" thefts. Does not include taking for temporary or unauthorized use by those having lawful access to the vehicle.

BEING UNGOVERNABLE: Includes generally unsatisfactory behavior, such as when child is beyond parental control or is generally incorrigible, stays away from home, shows violent general behavior, uses vile or abusive language, and so deports himself as to endanger the health or morals of himself or others.

BOARDING HOME: Includes a family home, other than that of relatives, in which the child is placed with provision for payment of board. Also, included in this item are family homes which are subsidized so that they are available to provide detention or shelter care.

BURGLARY OR ENTRY: Includes burglary, breaking or entering, housebreaking, safecracking, or any unlawful entry of a structure with the intent to commit a theft even though no force was used to gain entrance. Includes attempts.

CARELESSNESS OR MISCHIEF: Includes cases of destruction of private or public property, such as trespassing, setting fires, arson, mutilating books, disturbing the peace, committing a nuisance; and, disorderly conduct (not involving a sex offense) such as discharging firecrackers, fighting, quarreling, throwing stones, window peeping, indecent exposure, cases of malicious mischief; and, other cases of mischief, such as playing ball in the streets, swimming in the nude, carrying concealed weapons, discharging firearms, gambling, stealing rides, turning in a false fire alarm, cruelty to animals and tampering with the mail.

CASE DISPOSED OF: Means that some definite action has been taken or that some plan of treatment has been decided upon. It does not mean that the case is "closed" in the sense that all contact with the child or the family has ceased.

CASE HELD OPEN: This refers to cases in which the court imposes certain conditions upon the offender or others responsible for his conduct and no further action is anticipated; or in which the court holds the case open merely to retain jurisdiction in order that action can be taken without filing of a new petition or complaint if other charges arise.

DELINQUENT CHILD: Includes any child: (A) who violates any law of this state, the United States, or any ordinance or regulation of a political subdivision of the state, which would be a crime if committed by an adult, except as provided in Section 2151.021 (juvenile traffic offender) of the Revised Code; (B) who violates any lawful order of the court made under this chapter (Section 2151.02).

DEPENDENT CHILD: Includes any child: (A) who is homeless or destitute or without proper care or support, through no fault of his parents, guardian, or custodian; (B) who lacks proper care or support by reason of the mental or physical condition of his parents, guardian, or custodian; (C) whose condition or environment is such as to warrant the state, in the interest of the child, in assuming his guardianship (Section 2151.04).

DETENTION HOME: An institution that is maintained by the juvenile court or by the local government for the purpose of caring for delinquent, unruly, dependent, or neglected children awaiting disposition of their cases.

DISMISSED: This refers to cases which the court closes without further action. This occurs when investigation shows the evidence insufficient to support the charges, the charges are withdrawn, or the court finds it does not have jurisdiction and does not refer the case elsewhere for action.

INJURY TO PERSON: Includes injury, attempted or threatened injury to a person, accidental injury to a person, homicide, assault, and assault with intent to kill.

JUVENILE TRAFFIC OFFENDER: A child who violates any traffic law, traffic ordinance, or traffic regulation of this state, the United States, or of any political subdivision of this state shall be designated as a "juvenile traffic offender" (Section 2151.021).
