The Honorable Daniel F. Wolcott
Chief Justice - Supreme Court of the State of Delaware
Public Building
Wilmington, Delaware

Dear Chief Justice:

I herewith tender the Annual Report of the Judiciary for the fiscal year 1971 to 1972 by the Administrative Office of the Courts with statistical reports from all of the courts.

As a result of the State's fiscal crisis on July 19, 1971, the capacity of this Office for significant growth was severely curtailed. The Office did, however, produce a unified budget to be submitted to the Governor and the Legislative Council, and an Annual Report.

The Statistics incorporated in this report include raw figures showing the cases of July 1, 1971, that were pending, filed, and terminated as well as the cases pending at the end of June 30, 1972.

In addition, we have computed the increased workload per court over the last five years. The resulting graphs for the five-year period under each court reveal a tremendous increase in workload experienced by every court.

Some of the goals of the Administrative Office of the Courts for the next fiscal year are as follows:

1. Complete the organization of the Administrative Office utilizing existing judicial support personnel and petitioning the General Assembly for three additional employees.

2. Gather the statistics necessary to project the courts' needs for support personnel and prepare the requests for legislative appropriations to meet these needs.
3. Handle administrative details for the expenditure of funds by the General Assembly.
4. Act as legislative liaison for, and maintain a working relationship with, the Judiciary.

In summation, the primary goal of the Administrative Office of the Courts is to administer all non-judicial tasks of the State Courts of Delaware in order to free the judges to pursue their judicial duties.

Respectfully,

John R. Fisher

PROBLEMS AND GOALS

Among the many problems facing the Courts of the State of Delaware, two which should receive top priority in 1973 are the need for additional space and the need for more support personnel. Many of the higher courts are cramped and need more courtrooms because of the increased workload,* and some of the lower courts are crowded into structures totally unsuited to the needs of a courtroom. The constant struggle to provide temporary solutions is both time-consuming and demoralizing.

The ever increasing judicial workload requires hiring more support personnel. These personnel should submit to an indoctrination program, be trained and cross-trained, receive continuing on-the-job education, and benefit from Administrator-adopted personnel policies and upgraded salary levels. Many of the existing support personnel of the State Courts are under the direct control of another branch of the government, which leads to inequities for these personnel, lowering of morale, and inefficiency.

Another area of concern is the need for greater security for the judges and other court personnel. Additionally, security procedures for the evidence and files need to be better defined, implemented and regulated.

*See graphs for % increase workload

PROBLEMS AND GOALS

Currently, there is a lack of communication among the courts and between the courts and the balance of the Criminal Justice System. Proper use of data processing equipment, telecopiers, and other modern communication systems will remedy this deficiency and enable us to diffuse the facts for public education and information.

Continuing education and upgrading of remuneration for all levels of judges will ensure the attraction and maintenance of competent manpower to provide prompt and equal justice for all under the rules of law. It is essential to speed up the litigation process and cut down on the time from arrest to trial in criminal cases and the time from the filing of complaints to trial in civil cases.

Goals for the Judiciary in 1973 should include the following:

1. All parties to a suit shall be adequately and fairly represented.
2. Juries and prospective jurors shall be given the consideration they deserve.
3. Every effort shall be made to reduce the number of continuances.
4. The duplication of subject matter jurisdiction shall be eliminated.

PROTHONOTARY

The Constitution of the State of Delaware of 1897 as amended states the following in Article 4, Section 26: "The Prothonotary of each county shall be the clerk of the Superior Court...." The Prothonotary for each county is elected to serve for a period of four years.

The Prothonotary is the record keeper of the Superior Court and, as such, the Prothonotary is directly involved with the court calendar, jury list, court exhibits, property liens, registering law students and attorneys, custodian of fees for the courts, and custodian of fees for the Attorney General. Functions of the Prothonotary's Office are broken into seven categories, namely, Administrative, Civil, Judgements and Executions, Criminal, Adoptions and Terminations, Court Related, and Indicating of Judgements.

The office of the Prothonotary is the physical location where the jurisdiction of a case by the Superior Court is obtained. This jurisdiction may be obtained by a transfer, directly from a committing magistrate, an appeal, an indictment or by information filed by the Attorney General. The Prothonotary has a representative at the arraignments, at motions, at trials, at sentencing or whenever a clerk is needed. In addition, the Prothonotary's Office does all the docketing, certifying of summons and warrants, issuing of capias and subpoenas, plus the issuance of the bond or commitment or release papers. Further, the Prothonotary's Office has been charged with the security, care, and custody of Court exhibits.

Courts of Limited Jurisdiction

Justice Courts (13)

Legal Authorization: These Courts are authorized by the Constitution of Delaware, Article IV, Section 1.

Geographic Organization: The jurisdiction of the Courts is State-wide and sessions are held throughout the State, 3 in Kent County, and 5 each in New Castle and Sussex Counties. The Judges rotate among the Courts. Fifteen Courts are authorized, but only thirteen of these are operative.

Judges:

Number - There are 53 magistrates authorized, 51 presently serving full time.

Appointment - The magistrates are appointed by the Governor.

Tenure - The magistrates are appointed for a four year term.

Qualifications - Age 21, resident of the State of Delaware and the county where you are applying for a vacancy.

(b) - the power to adopt rules establishing procedures for the investigation and trial of a judicial officer.

Therefore, it is necessary to request funds to enable the court to operate. If no trials are necessary, all funds will revert at the end of each fiscal year.

LAW LIBRARIES

LAW LIBRARIES

There are three law libraries throughout the State of Delaware and they are staffed and maintained by the State. They are named respectively after the county in which they reside.

The primary function of the law library is to provide research material of a legal nature for the Judicial Branch of our Governments. In addition, extensive use of the library is made by the following: Members of the Bar, law students, law clerks, Justices of the Peace and various government agencies, such as the Department of Justice and City Solicitors Office of the City of Wilmington.

New Castle County Law Library provides working space for 22 persons at one time. There are approximately 16,500 volumes which do not include all the volumes that are available or are needed to adequately provide complete research material. The same can be said for Kent and Sussex Law Libraries.

New Castle County and Kent County Law Libraries are staffed by one full-time employee each. Sussex County Law Library has one part-time librarian.

The duties and responsibilities of the librarians include, but are not limited to, the following: insertion of pocket parts, maintenance of loose leaf services, bookkeeping for the agency's accounts, preparing invoices for library expenditures, filing and indexing reported and unreported opinions from the several Courts, obtaining and filing ordinances from incorporated municipalities, obtaining and filing copies of rules and regulations promulgated by governmental agencies, maintaining books and having them bound, cataloging and keeping a perpetual inventory of books and their monetary values, handling requests from various persons for information contained in the library and in general performing duties associated with the library work, as well as a lending library.
