FOREWORD

This bibliography was compiled by the staff of the Statistical Analysis Center of the Office of Crime Analysis, Washington, D.C. The collection contains citations on other bibliographies in the field as well as references to individual articles, and it encompasses sources ranging from the professional literature, government publications, and court decisions on the right to privacy and criminal justice record keeping. Although it does not attempt to be all inclusive of the increasing volume of information being generated in this area, the bibliography contains references to many recent documents, and will hopefully assist the investigator in the pursuit for current information.

Special mention to Ms. Sarah Dalton of the Statistical Analysis Center staff should be made for her efforts in compiling this bibliography.
