FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

AUSTIN—

The Texas Judicial Council released today statistics on the 1975 activities of the Texas courts. The Texas Supreme Court delivered a total of 112 opinions and disposed of 672 applications for writs of error from decisions of the Courts of Civil Appeals during 1975. The Court of Criminal Appeals wrote 1,869 opinions, and the fourteen Courts of Civil Appeals wrote a total of 1,484 opinions during the same period. Some 322,623 cases were disposed of by the 261 district, domestic relations and special juvenile courts, an increase of 11 per cent over 1974. In county courts, 272,684 cases were disposed. In the reporting justice of the peace courts, nearly 832,000 traffic cases were filed, comprising 69 per cent of the total cases filed in those courts. Total revenue collected by the justice of the peace courts was $22,719,133. The municipal courts in the 214 cities with population of 5,000 or greater reported nearly 2,000,000 traffic cases filed during 1975, accounting for 86 per cent of the total number of cases filed in those courts. Revenue collected by those courts totalled $37,090,262.

SUPREME COURT. The Supreme Court of Texas is composed of the Chief Justice and eight associate justices. It is the highest state court for civil appeals and promulgates the rules of civil procedure for the courts of the state.

The court delivered 103 deciding opinions in 1975, compared with 109 in 1974. A total of 112 opinions was written (including Rule 483 per curiam opinions), an average of 12 per justice.

The Supreme Court disposed of 672 applications for writs of error from decisions of the Courts of Civil Appeals, compared to 586 in 1974. Thirteen per cent of these were granted. Of the granted writs, the Court of Civil Appeals was reversed in 78 per cent of the cases for an effective reversal rate of the Courts of Civil Appeals of 10 per cent.

COURT OF CRIMINAL APPEALS. The Court of Criminal Appeals is the highest state court for criminal appeals and is composed of a Presiding Judge, four judges and two permanent commissioners. In addition, three special commissioners served the court at various times during the year.

One thousand eight hundred sixty-nine opinions (including dissents and concurrences) were written in 1975, 3 per cent fewer than the 1974 total of 1,933. Thirty-two per cent of these were authored opinions.

The Court of Criminal Appeals affirmed the trial court's decision in 82 per cent of the cases reviewed and dismissed the appeal in an additional 5 per cent. The other 13 per cent were disposed of in various ways.

COURTS OF CIVIL APPEALS. The 14 Courts of Civil Appeals exercise intermediate appellate jurisdiction in civil cases. Each court has geographic jurisdiction in a Supreme Judicial District. Each of the courts has three justices, for a total of 42 intermediate appellate justices in the state.

In 1975, a total of 1,484 opinions were written by the Courts of Civil Appeals, compared to 1,315 in 1974.

The average number of written opinions per judge for all Courts of Civil Appeals was 35.

DISTRICT COURTS. The 261 district, domestic relations and special juvenile courts experienced a 9 per cent increase in cases filed—to 338,145 cases from 308,966 in 1974.

In 1975, 10 per cent more civil cases were docketed in the district courts than in 1974. New criminal cases increased from 65,962 in 1974 to 71,664—an increase of 9 per cent.

Civil cases accounted for 73 per cent of the new cases filed in 1975. Forty-five per cent of the civil cases filed were divorce or annulment actions. Personal injury cases comprised 9 per cent and tax cases 8 per cent of the civil cases filed.

Criminal cases accounted for 21 per cent of the total new cases filed in 1975. Of the criminal cases, 22 per cent involved a charge of burglary, 17 per cent theft, 7 per cent robbery, 5 per cent felony DWI, and 14 per cent drug offenses, including marijuana.

An average of 1,236 cases per judge was disposed of in 1975, up 114 cases per judge over 1974.

Texas courts granted 12 per cent more divorces in 1975 than 1974. In 1975, 110,492 divorce cases were disposed of—34 per cent of all the cases handled by district courts.

COUNTY COURTS. In terms of numbers of cases, criminal cases constituted 63 per cent of the 327,669 new cases filed or cases appealed from lower courts. Civil cases accounted for 22 per cent and probate 14 per cent. New juvenile cases filed were ½ per cent of the total.

Concerning the criminal cases only, 31 per cent (64,410) of those filed or appealed to the county courts from lower courts were for driving while intoxicated. Fifteen per cent (31,382) were for worthless checks and 9 per cent (19,427) for violations of laws concerning marijuana possession or delivery.

Looking at all cases (except probate), the county courts disposed of 272,684 cases, which is 96 per cent of the 284,089 cases filed or appealed.

JUSTICES OF THE PEACE. In terms of numbers of cases, traffic cases comprised 69 per cent of the cases filed in the reporting courts. Nearly 832,000 traffic cases were filed in these courts during 1975. Non-traffic criminal cases and civil cases (including "small-claims" cases) provided 18 and 13 per cent of the new cases filed, respectively.

Justices of the peace reported the disposition of cases in three categories: prior to trial, at trial and dismissed. Eighty-seven per cent of all cases were disposed of before trial, 6 per cent at trial and 7 per cent were dismissed.

Looking at traffic cases only, 94 per cent were disposed of prior to trial, practically all by payment of fine. Of the 2 per cent that went to trial, 94 per cent of the cases were tried before a judge alone and the remaining 6 per cent were tried before a jury. When traffic cases went to trial, the defendant was found guilty in 85 per cent of the cases before the judge alone and in 68 per cent of the cases tried before a jury.

MUNICIPAL COURTS. The municipal courts in the 214 cities with population of 5,000 or greater were asked to submit a one-page monthly report to the Council on activity in their court. Traffic cases comprised 86 per cent of the cases filed in the reporting courts. Nearly 2,000,000 traffic cases were filed in these courts during 1975. Non-traffic criminal cases provided the other 14 per cent of the new cases filed.

Seventy-seven per cent of all cases were disposed of before trial, 8 per cent at trial and 15 per cent were dismissed.

Looking at traffic cases only, 76 per cent were disposed of prior to trial, 85 per cent of those by payment of fine and 15 per cent by bond forfeiture. Of the 7 per cent that went to trial, 99 per cent of the cases were tried before the judge alone and the other 1 per cent before a jury. When traffic cases went to trial, the defendant was found guilty in 72 per cent of the cases tried before the judge alone and in 67 per cent of the cases tried before a jury.

The above statistics are included in the 47th Annual Report of the Texas Judicial Council. For the past 40 years, the Texas Judicial Council has been collecting information concerning caseloads for the district and appellate courts. Beginning in 1973, the council expanded its data collection activities by gathering and publishing statistics on caseloads of county, municipal and justice of the peace courts.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

An informed citizenry is indispensable to the necessary support of the judicial branch and its continued improvement to meet its responsibilities in present-day society.

Only by working together at all levels of the judiciary can we provide a better forum for the administration of justice for all of our citizenry. Only by the cooperation of the judges and clerks can we hope to inform our citizens of the work performed by the various courts.

The council expresses its appreciation to the many judges and clerks of the courts who have so promptly submitted the monthly reports and other requested information on the operations of the various courts which has enabled it to prepare this report on the judicial business of the state.

The Texas Judicial Council acknowledges the assistance of the Criminal Justice Division, Office of the Governor, for financial support toward publication of this report. The fact that the Criminal Justice Division furnished financial support to the activity described in this publication does not necessarily indicate the concurrence of the Criminal Justice Division in the statements or conclusions contained herein.

To the Governor, Members of the Judiciary, and Members of the 65th Legislature

On behalf of the members and staff of the Texas Judicial Council, I transmit the 47th Annual Report containing court activities and statistics collected on the state judicial system for the calendar year 1975. Included in the report are special studies, charts, and explanatory texts which we trust will give illumination to the bare statistics.

This report contains data on all levels of courts in the Texas judicial system. The gathering of these statistics, and the development of the special reports, were made possible by an operating grant from the Criminal Justice Division of the Governor's Office. The Council is committed to the improvement of its efforts to serve the judicial branch, and to provide meaningful information concerning the judicial system to the legislative and executive branches of government so that they may make informed decisions concerning our courts. The Council may be very helpful to the improvement of the administration of justice, but that will require adequate state financing of the Council.

Respectfully submitted,

Thomas M. Reavley

TEXAS JUDICIAL COUNCIL

Article 2328a V.A.T.S.

Creation; purposes

Section 1. There is hereby created the Texas Judicial Council for the continuous study of and report upon the organization, rules, procedure and practice of the judicial system of the State of Texas, the work accomplished and the results produced by that system and its various parts, and methods for its improvement.

Classes of members

Sec. 2. The Council shall be composed of two classes of members, one designated as ex-officio, and the other as appointive.

Ex officio members

Sec. 3. The ex officio members of the Council shall consist of the following: (1) the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Texas, who shall remain a member as long as he holds the position of Chief Justice; (2) two Justices of the Courts of Civil Appeals, to be designated by the Governor for overlapping four-year terms, one to be designated in January, 1971, for a four-year term and one to be designated in January, 1973, for a four-year term with the replacement in each case to be designated by the Governor in January of odd-numbered years; (3) two presiding judges of the administrative judicial districts, to be designated by the Governor for four-year terms, one to be designated in January, 1971, for a four-year term and one to be designated in January, 1973, for a four-year term, with the replacement in each case to be designated by the Governor in January of odd-numbered years; (4) the Chairman and the immediate past Chairman of the Senate Jurisprudence Committee; and (5) the Chairman and the immediate past Chairman of the House Judiciary Committee. The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court may from time to time designate some other Justice of that Court to act in his stead, and at his pleasure, as member of the Council. The foregoing references to justices and judges, other than the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, include respectively such retired justices and judges of the same grade as are legally eligible for assignment to part-time judicial duties. In the event the Chairman of the Senate Jurisprudence Committee or the Chairman of the House Judiciary Committee is reappointed to such position, his immediate predecessor shall continue to serve on the Council as immediate past Chairman, it being the intent of the Legislature that two members of the Senate and two members of the House be at all times members of the Council; provided, however, that in the case of legislative members, cessation of membership in the Legislature shall not terminate their membership on the Council, but they shall continue to serve for their full term notwithstanding their cessation of membership in the Legislature. In the event of a vacancy in a legislative membership, such vacancy shall be filled for the unexpired term only by the presiding officer of the appropriate house of the Legislature, and vacancies in other official memberships shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointment and for the unexpired term only. Ex officio members of the Council shall be entitled to all the privileges of full membership thereon and shall be regarded and treated in every respect as full members thereon.

Appointive members; tenure; quorum

Sec. 4. The appointive members of the Council shall consist of nine resident citizens of the State of Texas, seven of whom shall be members of the State Bar of Texas and two of whom shall be persons not licensed to practice law, including at least one who is by profession a journalist. The Governor of Texas shall select the appointive members of the Council for six-year overlapping terms, three to be appointed to serve until July 1, 1975, three to serve until July 1, 1977, and three to serve until July 1, 1979, and thereafter their successors shall be appointed for terms of six years; provided that appointive members of the Council holding office on the effective date of this Act shall continue in office for the balance of the term to which they were appointed, and their successors shall be selected in the manner and for the term herein provided. Vacancies in the appointive membership of the Council shall be filled by appointment of the Governor for the unexpired term only.

All members of the Council shall continue to serve until their successors have been appointed and qualified.

Five members of the Council shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business of the Council.

Duties of council

Sec. 5. It shall be the duty of the Council:

1. To make a continuous study of the organization of the courts; the rules and methods of procedure and the practice of the judicial system of the State; of the work accomplished, the results attained and the uniformity of the discretionary powers of the courts, to the end that procedure may be simplified, business expedited, and justice better administered.

2. To receive and consider suggestions from judges, public officers, members of the bar, and citizens, touching remedies for faults in the administration of justice.

3. To formulate methods for simplifying judicial procedure, expediting the transaction of judicial business, and correcting faults in the administration of justice.

4. To gather judicial statistics and other pertinent data from the several judges and other court officials of the State.

5. To make a complete detailed report, on or before December 1st of each year, to the Governor and to the Supreme Court, of all its proceedings, suggestions and recommendations, and such supplemental reports from time to time as the Council may deem advisable. All such reports shall be considered public reports and may be given to the press as soon as filed.

6. To make investigations and reports upon such matters, touching the administration of justice as may be referred to the Council by the Supreme Court or the Legislature.

7. To hold one meeting in each calendar year, and such other meetings as may be ordered by the Council or under its authority, and at such time and place as may be designated by it or under its authority.

Powers of council

Sec. 6. The Council shall have power:

1. To hold public meetings or hearings, by and through committees of three or more of its members, require the production of books and documents, require reports from the several courts of this State, including courts not of record, as may be deemed necessary, to administer oaths and take testimony.

For the purposes of any hearing, any Council officer, in advance of such hearing, or any Council member or officer sitting at such hearing, may issue under his official signature and cause to be served by registered or certified mail or by any adult person upon any prospective witness, a subpoena or like appropriate order. Upon the failure of a witness to testify, or upon his failure to appear or to produce books and documents as so ordered, any district judge of the county of residence of such witness shall, on written motion by, or on behalf of, the Council or Committee conducting said hearing, compel said witness to testify or, as the case may be, to appear and testify, by the same means, including attachment and penalties, whereby said judge may compel the testimony and appearance of witnesses in the trial of a cause pending in his own court.

2. To elect from its membership a president and such other officers as it may deem advisable; provided the secretary need not be a member of the Council; and provided further that the president of the Council may appoint, for and during his term as president, such committees as he may deem necessary for the proper organization of the Council.

3. To make such rules and regulations as it may deem expedient for its government and that of its officers and committees; and to prescribe the duties of its officers and committees.

4. To appoint committees from its membership, and charge such committees with such of its duties and delegate to such committees such of its powers as it may deem proper.

5. To require the supplying of statistical data and other information pertaining to the amount and character of the civil and criminal business transacted by the courts of this State and other information pertaining to their conduct and operation; and to prescribe procedures and forms for the supplying of such statistical data and other information.

It shall be an official duty of every justice, judge, clerk or other officer of every court of this State to comply with the reasonable requirements of the Council for the supplying of statistical data appertaining to the amount and character of the business transacted by his court and of such other information concerning said court or the office of the clerk thereof as may be within the scope of the functions of the Council. Failure to supply such data or information within a reasonable time after request therefor shall be presumptively deemed a willful refusal to supply the same.

Due performance of the duty to supply data and information as aforesaid shall be enforceable by writ of mandamus, the corresponding actions for which shall be brought, and the corresponding courts shall have jurisdiction of the same, as follows: if against a district clerk or a clerk, judge or other officer of a trial court other than a district court, in a district court of the county of residence of the respondent; if against a district judge or clerk of a court of civil appeals, in the Court of Civil Appeals for the Supreme Judicial District in which the respondent resides; in all other cases, in the Supreme Court of Texas. The Attorney General of Texas shall file and prosecute the foregoing actions on behalf of the Council upon its written request, which shall be presumptively taken as the action of the Council if signed by its president or by as many as five of its members; but no such action shall be filed if the attorney general shall in writing certify his opinion that the same is without merit.

Compensation limited to traveling and necessary expenses

Sec. 7. No member of the Council shall receive any compensation for his services as such member, but shall be paid for actual traveling and other necessary expenses incurred in the discharge of his duties as such member, to be paid upon verified, itemized account approved by the President of the Council or by a Vice President thereof when so authorized in writing by the President. The necessary clerical expenses of the Council and its officers and committees shall be paid in like manner.

Partial invalidity

Sec. 8. If any section or portion of any section of this Act shall for any reason be declared invalid, such invalidity shall not affect any other section or portion of section of this Act.

THE JUDICIAL SYSTEM OF TEXAS—1976

Descriptive Outline

The present court system of Texas established by the constitutional amendment of 1891 provides for a Supreme Court which is the highest state appellate court in civil matters and a Court of Criminal Appeals which is the highest state appellate court in criminal matters. It has fourteen intermediate courts of civil appeals. There is no intermediate court for criminal appeals from trial courts, such appeals going directly from the trial courts to the Court of Criminal Appeals in Austin.

The state trial courts of general jurisdiction are the district courts, which in some metropolitan areas have been established as courts having exclusively civil, criminal, domestic relation, or juvenile jurisdiction. It should be noted that the geographical jurisdiction of each individual district court is established by the specific statute creating that court, and such jurisdiction does not necessarily correspond to any previously established court. Each court has one judge.

In addition to the above state courts, the Texas Constitution provides for a county court in each county presided over by the county judge. To relieve the calendar congestion of the single constitutional county courts the legislature has established probate courts, and county courts-at-law in certain counties having large populations.

The Texas Constitution also provides for justice of the peace courts in each county. Since 1953, these justice courts also serve as small claims courts.

The legislature has created by statute municipal courts in each incorporated city. These courts have concurrent criminal jurisdiction with the justice of the peace courts limited to the geographic confines of the municipality.

Trial in the justice of the peace courts and most municipal courts is not of record, and appeals therefrom are on trial de novo to the county court except in those counties having statutory county courts at law or where by statute the district court has assumed portions of the county court's jurisdiction.

State, county and municipal governments all contribute to the financing of the judicial system in Texas. The State finances the appellate courts and pays a base salary to all courts of civil appeals justices and district judges. Counties pay the costs of "constitutional" county courts, county courts at law, domestic relations, special juvenile, justices of the peace, and operating costs of district courts except the judge's basic salary. The cities finance the municipal courts.

S.B. 52 of the 64th Legislature, the general appropriations bill, appropriated $16,701,985 in general revenue funds for the operation of the judiciary in fiscal year 1976. This represents less than one percent of the $1,701,157,423 total general revenue funds appropriated.

      eff. 9-1-76 $41,800

      Supplements may be paid by the counties in the districts, not to exceed $8,000 per year and total salary must be $1,000 less than received by Supreme Court associate justices ($500 in the case of chief justices).

D. District Courts (230)
   1. Jurisdiction: There are 230 separate district courts, identified by separate numbers, each having its own judge and geographical jurisdiction. In a number of areas, the geographical jurisdiction of two or more district courts is overlapping.

      District courts are trial courts of general jurisdiction, having original jurisdiction in all criminal cases of the grade of felony, cases of divorce, title to land, contested elections, and all civil matters wherein the amount in controversy is $5,000 or more and concurrent jurisdiction with statutory county courts at law in cases of at least $500 and not to exceed $5,000. (In the counties which have no statutory county courts at law, district courts have exclusive original jurisdiction in civil cases wherein the amount in controversy is $1,000 or more and concurrent jurisdiction with the county court in cases of at least $500 and not to exceed $1,000).
      The district courts have original and appellate jurisdiction in probate matters and general supervisory control over commissioner's court. In addition, these courts have general original jurisdiction over all causes of action whatever for which a remedy or jurisdiction is not provided by law or by the Constitution, and have the power to issue writs of habeas corpus, mandamus, injuction, certiorari, sequestration, attachments, garnishment, and all writs necessary to enforce their jurisdiction.

      Most district courts exercise both criminal and civil jurisdiction, but in the metropolitan areas there is a tendency for the courts to specialize in either civil or criminal cases. In some cases, the courts which have criminal jurisdiction exclusively are designated criminal district courts.

      A limited number of district courts also exercise the subject-matter jurisdiction normally exercised by county courts.

      Appeals from judgments of the district courts are to the Court of Criminal Appeals in criminal cases and to the Courts of Civil Appeals in civil cases.

   2. Seats: At the county seat of each county included in each respective geographical district.
   3. Membership:
      a. Number: One judge per court.
      b. Selection: Partisan district-wide elections. Vacancies between elections filled by gubernatorial appointment with advice and consent of Senate.
      c. Qualifications: Citizen of the United States and of Texas; resident of the district for two years; age 25; licensed to practice law in Texas and a practicing lawyer or judge for four years.
      d. Salaries paid by the State:

         eff. 9-1-75 $31,000
         eff. 9-1-76 $32,800

         Supplements authorized by statute may be paid by counties, ranging from $600 to $17,000 per year. Total salary must be $1,000 less than received by civil appeals associate justices of the Court of Civil Appeals of the Supreme Judicial District.
      e. Term: Four years.

E. Domestic Relations and Special Juvenile Courts (33)
   1. Jurisdiction: A number of special district courts have been created by statute, with their subject-matter authority limited to domestic relations or juvenile cases and their geographic jurisdiction limited to one county. There are some slight variations among these special district courts because of differences in the statutes creating them. (Generally Arts. 2338-3—2338-21, V.A.C.S.)

      Domestic Relations Courts:
      Brazoria (1)
      Dallas (4)
      El Paso (1)
      Fort Bend (1)
      Galveston (1)

      Smith (1)
      Starr (1)*
      Tarrant (4)
      Taylor (1)
      Wharton (1)

      Total 28
      *authorized but not active

      Juvenile Courts: Dallas (2)
      Harris (3)

      The nomenclature of five of these courts as "Juvenile Courts" results in confusion with the "juvenile court" required in each county by Sec. 51.04, Texas Family Code. That law provides that one of the "regular" courts of the county (district court or county court) shall be designated as the "juvenile court" in the county for special attention to juvenile matters.
   2. Seats: County seat of county of jurisdiction.
   3. Membership:
      a. Number: One judge per court.
      b. Selection: Usually by county-wide partisan election with vacancies between elections filled by the Governor.
      c. Qualifications: Vary according to court-creation statute. Texas law license usually required.
      d. Salaries: Paid entirely by the county. Usually the same as salary of regular district judges in the respective counties. Ranged at end of 1974 from $19,900 to $40,088. Not within the state judicial retirement system.

e. Term: Four years.

F. "Constitutional" County Courts (254)

1. Jurisdiction: The Texas Constitution provides that there shall be a county court in each county, but not all 254 courts perform judicial functions. The county court has civil, criminal, original and appellate jurisdiction. It has exclusive legal authority in civil cases when the contested amount is $200-$500, and it has concurrent civil jurisdiction with the district court in cases when the amount exceeds $500 but is less than $1,000. The county court also usually is given general control over probate cases. In criminal cases, the county court has exclusive original jurisdiction over all misdemeanors when the fine to be imposed exceeds $200 or when a jail sentence may be imposed. Unless expressly provided by law, the county court does not have criminal jurisdiction in any county where a criminal district court exists. Decisions from the municipal and justice courts may be appealed to the county court, and the appeal takes the form of a completely new trial (trial de novo). Original and appellate judgments of the county court may be appealed to the Court of Civil Appeals in civil cases and to the Court of Criminal Appeals in criminal cases.

   The commissioners court is not a judicial entity; rather it is the governing body of the county. It is presided over by the constitutional county judge and is composed of four elected commissioners. Although it performs no judicial duties, the commissioners court can issue writs and contempt citations.

   Geographical jurisdiction: County-wide.

2. Seats: County seat of county of jurisdiction.
3. Membership:
   a. Number: One judge per court.
   b. Selection: County-wide partisan election with vacancies between elections filled by county commissioners.
   c. Qualifications: "Shall be well-informed in the law of the State." (Law license unnecessary).

   d. Salaries: Paid entirely by the county. Highly variable. Ranged at end of 1974 from $600 to $40,000.
   e. Term: Four years.

G. County Courts-at-Law (84)

1. Jurisdiction: The Legislature has the authority to create special county courts. Eighty-four of these statutory courts have been created in thirty-six counties, primarily in metropolitan areas, to relieve the constitutional county judge of all or part of his judicial duties. Two additional courts have been created to become effective 1-1-77. The legal jurisdiction of the special county courts varies considerably according to the statute under which they are created. As the varied names suggest, some of these courts are intended to exercise in practice subject-matter jurisdiction in only limited fields, such as civil, criminal, probate or appellate (from justice courts or municipal courts); but the names do not always disclose their complete functions. In general, the concurrent civil jurisdiction of these statutory courts with the district court is higher than constitutional county courts (up to amounts less than $5,000).

   Geographical Jurisdiction: county-wide.

2. Seats: County seat of county of jurisdiction.
3. Membership:
   a. Number: One judge per court.
   b. Selection: Usually by county-wide partisan election with vacancies between elections filled by county commissioners.
   c. Qualifications: Vary according to court-creation statute, some include two to five years experience as practicing attorney and requirement of residence in county.
   d. Salaries: Paid entirely by the county. Highly variable. Ranged at end of 1974 from $5,764 to $39,088.
   e. Term: Four years.

H. Justice of the Peace Courts (approx. 900)

1. Jurisdiction: The Texas Constitution provides that each county is to be divided into at least 4, and not over 8, justice precincts, in each of which shall be elected one justice of the peace, provided that if the precinct includes a city of 8,000 or more inhabitants, one additional justice of the peace shall be elected from such precinct.

   Justice of the peace courts have original jurisdiction in both civil and criminal cases when the amount in controversy or the fine does not exceed $200. A justice of the peace may issue warrants of search and arrest, conduct preliminary hearings, serve as ex officio notary public, perform marriages, and serve as coroner in counties where there is no provision for a medical examiner. The justice court also functions as a small claims court in disputes over unpaid wages and salaries when the contested amount does not exceed $200 and in controversies over uncollected bills when the amount does not exceed $150.
2. Seats: Determined by county commissioners.
3. Membership:
   a. Number: One judge per court.
   b. Selection: Partisan election by voters of respective precincts.
   c. Qualifications: None
   d. Salaries: Paid entirely by the county. Highly variable. Ranged at end of 1974 from $18 to $24,000.
   e. Term: Four years.

I. Municipal Courts (approx. 1,000)

1. Jurisdiction: Authorized by statute, municipal courts are established in cities and towns. Metropolitan cities usually have more than one municipal court.

   These courts have neither civil nor appellate jurisdiction, but they have original and exclusive jurisdiction over violations of city ordinances (predominately traffic offenses). The municipal courts also have concurrent jurisdiction with justice courts in misdemeanor cases resulting from violations of state laws within the city limits when punishment is limited to fines only of $200 or less. Municipal judges also serve as magistrates of the state.

2. Seats: Determined by the city or town.
3. Membership:
   a. Number: Generally, limited by statute to one court per municipality and one judge per court. Other statutes allow some urban city governing bodies to establish more than one court and/or more than one judge per court.
   b. Selection: Elected or appointed by the governing body of the city or town as provided by city charter or ordinances.
   c. Qualifications: Determined by the governing body of the city or town.
   d. Salaries: Paid entirely by the city or town. Highly variable. Ranged at end of 1974 from $0 to $26,500.
   e. Term: Varies from one year to an indefinite term. Often at the will of the governing body of the city or town.

II. JUDICIAL QUALIFICATIONS COMMISSION

The State Judicial Qualifications Commission is empowered to act upon cases of misconduct or disability of judges. The Commission is responsible for investigating such cases and, after investigation, may issue a private reprimand or an order of public censure. The Commission may also recommend to the Supreme Court the removal or retirement of the judge in question.

III. TEXAS JUDICIAL COUNCIL

The Texas Judicial Council is charged with making a continuous study of the organization and operation of the courts. The Council reviews and considers proposals on ways to improve the administration of justice and formulates methods for simplifying judicial procedures. The Council gathers judicial statistics from civil and criminal courts and makes a detailed annual report to the Governor and to the Supreme Court.

IV. ADMINISTRATIVE DISTRICTS

For the administration of district courts, the state is divided into nine administrative judicial districts, each headed by a presiding judge. Such administrative judicial districts have limited administrative powers over the district courts located within the district relating to assignment of judges and transfer of cases to relieve congested court dockets.

V. RETIREMENT AND REMOVAL

A. Appellate and District Judges
   1. Voluntary Retirement: Basic provision permits retirement at half-pay (of then salary) after ten years service, either upon incapacity or attaining age 65; subject to 10% increase under conditions designed to encourage retirement at age 70. Judges in active service contribute 6% per annum of their salaries (to State General Fund). Retired judges who have elected to continue as judicial officers may be assigned to special duties at active-duty pay rates. (Art. 6228b, Vernon's Tex. Civ. Stats.; Const. Art. V, Sec. 1-a).
   2. Involuntary Retirement and Removal for Cause:
      a. Automatic retirement at age 75 (or as early as 70 if Legislature shall so provide).
      b. Involuntary retirement for disability and removal for cause by Supreme Court upon recommendation of State Judicial Qualifications Commission.
      c. Removal for cause also by impeachment, address or (in case of District Judges only) by Supreme Court upon complaint of 10 or more lawyers, etc. (Const., Art. V, Sec. 1-a, as amended Nov. 2, 1965; also Art. XV, Secs. 1-5, 6 and 8; also Vernon's Tex. Civ. Stats., Arts. 5961-5966).

B. Other Judges
   1. Retirement only as may be provided by counties (Const. Art. XVI, Sec. 62b and corresponding statutes).
   2. Removal for Cause:
      a. By Supreme Court upon recommendation of Judicial Qualifications Commission.
      b. By District Court proceeding, with some exceptions. (Vernon's Tex. Civ. Stats., Arts. 5970 et seq., 5968; and Acts such as Art. 1970-44, 1970-56, and Arts. 2338-3 through 2338-20; Const. Art. V, Sec. 24. See also Art. XV, Sec. 7).

SUBJECT-MATTER JURISDICTION OF TEXAS COURTS

INTRODUCTION

The present court system of Texas, established by the constitutional amendment of 1891, provides for a Supreme Court which is the highest state appellate court for civil matters and a Court of Criminal Appeals which makes the final determination in criminal matters. The state has fourteen intermediate courts of civil appeals. There are no intermediate appellate courts for criminal matters, such appeals going directly from the trial courts to the Court of Criminal Appeals in Austin.

The state trial courts of general jurisdiction are the district courts, of which there are 230. (Ten of these courts are named "Criminal District Courts", but as will be noted later, only three are strictly limited only to criminal cases on the district level.) In addition to the general district courts, the legislature has authorized or established other courts on the district court level having specialized jurisdiction. These are located mostly in metropolitan areas and include 26 courts of domestic relations (two additional courts are authorized, but not implemented by the counties in which they are located) and five juvenile courts.

The geographical jurisdiction of each individual district court is established by the specific statute creating that court, and that jurisdiction does not necessarily correspond to the jurisdiction of any previously established court. Each court has one judge. The state pays the judge's salary and some expenses of the district courts and criminal district courts, while the entire funding for courts of domestic relations and juvenile courts are provided by the individual counties in which those courts are located.

In addition to the above state courts, the Texas Constitution provides for a county court in each county presided over by the county judge, who also serves as head of the county commissioner's court, the governing body of the county. To relieve the calendar congestion of the single "constitutional" county court in each county, the legislature has established statutory county courts at law in certain metropolitan counties. As of January 1, 1976, there are seven probate courts and 77 county courts at law. (Six other courts are authorized, but not implemented by the counties in which they are located as of January 1, 1976. Two additional county courts at law have been authorized by the Legislature to become effective January 1, 1977.)

The Texas Constitution also provides for a minimum of four justice of the peace courts in each county. Today there are approximately 900 of the justice of the peace courts statewide. Since 1953, these justice courts have also served as small claims courts.

The legislature has created by statute municipal courts in each incorporated city in the state. These courts have original jurisdiction over purported violations of municipal ordinances and concurrent criminal jurisdiction over state statutes with the justice of the peace courts, limited to the geographical confines of the municipality.

Trial in the justice of the peace and municipal courts (with three exceptions) is not of record, and appeals therefrom are on trial de novo to the county court except in certain counties noted later where the appeal is to a county court at law or the district court.

Jurisdiction of the various levels of courts is established both by constitutional provision and by statute. Statutory jurisdiction of the courts is established by general statutes providing jurisdiction for all courts on a particular level, as well as by the statute establishing the individual courts. Thus to determine the jurisdiction of any one particular court, recourse must be had first to the constitution, second to the general statutes establishing jurisdiction for that level of court, third to the specific statute authorizing the establishment of the particular court in question and fourth to statutes dealing with specific subject matters, such as the Family Code, which requires a lawyer-judge to hear all juvenile cases.

APPELLATE COURTS

As previously indicated, the Supreme Court is the court of last resort in the state in civil matters. It also has original jurisdiction to issue writs and conduct proceedings for the involuntary retirement or removal of any judge in the state. It is empowered to make and enforce all necessary rules of civil practice and procedure for use in all courts having civil jurisdiction and governing the licensing of members of the bar of the state. The Court of Criminal Appeals has final state appellate jurisdiction in criminal cases and may issue writs to enforce its judgments. The courts of civil appeals are the intermediate appellate courts of the state, limited however to civil matters.

DISTRICT-LEVEL COURTS

While the jurisdiction of the appellate courts is quite uniform for each level, that of the various trial court levels is not. To meet the diversified characteristics of the state, the legislature has established varying jurisdiction for the same level of courts depending on the location or local needs.

Broadly, the district courts are the general trial courts for the state, having original jurisdiction in all criminal cases of the grade of felony, cases of divorce, title to land, contested elections and all civil matters wherein the amount in controversy is $1,000 or more. The district court has concurrent civil jurisdiction with the "constitutional" county court in cases of at least $500. In those counties having statutory county courts at law, the district courts have exclusive jurisdiction in civil cases wherein the amount in controversy is $5,000 or more and concurrent jurisdiction with the statutory county courts at law in cases of at least $500 and not to exceed $5,000.

In 1971, all "constitutional" county courts were divested of eminent domain jurisdiction (art. 3266a), which was placed in the district court, or if the county has a county court at law with eminent domain jurisdiction, concurrently in the district court and county court at law. The statute did not transfer any eminent domain cases pending in the "constitutional" county court on the effective date of the act, therefore, some county courts are continuing to dispose of eminent domain matters filed before 1971. This article lists several instances where eminent domain jurisdiction was transferred from the county court by "special" law pertaining to only one county. In some instances, this transfer was prior to 1971 and in others pending eminent domain cases were transferred. These situations are to be contrasted with the 1971 general statute which transferred jurisdiction of "new" eminent domain cases.

The supreme court has repeatedly held that the legislature cannot reduce the jursidiction of a constitutional district court. Lord v. Clayton, 163 Tex. 62, 352 S.W. 2d 718 (1961); Zamora v. State, 508 S.W. 2d 819 (Tex. Crim. App. 1974). Ex Parte Richards, 137 Tex. 520, 155 S.W. 2d 597 (1941); Reasonover v. Reasonover, 122 Tex. 512, 58 S.W. 2d 817 (1933); St. Louis S.W. Ry. v. Hall, 98 Tex. 480, 85 S.W. 786 (1905). See also Castro v. State, 124 Tex. Crim. 13, 60 S.W. 2d 211 (1933) and dissenting opinion in Ex Parte Bazemore, 430 S.W. 2d 205 (Tex. Crim. App. 1968). In Lord v. Clayton, the supreme court held that although the statute creating the 136th District Court of Jefferson County expressly limited its jurisdiction to civil cases and other legislation purported to give exclusive jurisdiction in criminal cases to the criminal district court of Jefferson County, the 136th court was nevertheless a constitutional district court with full power to impanel a grand jury, receive an indictment, and try the accused.

Presently the state statutes purport to limit the jurisdiction of 18 district courts to civil matters only. They are:

14th (Dallas) - art. 1926-11

17th (Tarrant) - arts. 199(17), 199(153)

44th (Dallas) - art. 1926-11

48th (Tarrant) - arts. 199(17), 199(153)

58th (Jefferson) - arts. 199(58), 199(136)

60th (Jefferson) - arts. 199(58), 199(136)

67th (Tarrant) - arts. 199(17), 199(153)

68th (Dallas) - art. 1926-11

95th (Dallas) - art. 1926-11

96th (Tarrant) - arts. 199(17), 199(153)

101st (Dallas) - art. 1926-11

116th (Dallas) - art. 1926-11

134th (Dallas) - art. 1926-11

135th (Calhoun, Goliad, Jackson, Refugio, Victoria) - art. 199(135)

136th (Jefferson) - arts. 199(58), 199(136)

153rd (Tarrant) - arts. 199(17), 199(153)

156th (Arkansas, Bee, Live Oak, McMullen, San Patricio) - art. 199(156)

160th (Dallas) - art. 1926-11

The constitutional power to establish "other courts" (Tex. Const. art. 5, sec. 1) apparently does authorize the legislature to establish special district courts with criminal jurisdiction only. Ex Parte Richards, 137 Tex. 520, 155 S.W. 2d 597 (1941). A statute limiting the jurisdiction of a district court to criminal matters was recently recognized by a court of civil appeals. Cook v. Nelius, 498 S.W. 2d 455 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston 1st 1973, no writ). In a similar situation, the Court of Criminal Appeals did not comment on the question, Pittman v. State, 434 S.W. 2d 352 (Tex. Crim. App. 1968).

Several district courts with their jurisdiction so limited have been created, but at this time, only three courts are limited to exclusively criminal district-level jurisdiction:

Criminal District Court No. 1 of Tarrant County (arts. 1926-41, 1926-42a)

Criminal District Court No. 2 of Tarrant County (art. 1926-43)

Criminal District Court No. 3 of Tarrant County (art. 1926-44)

Four others are limited to criminal, divorce, dependent and neglected children, adoption and civil habeas corpus proceedings:

Criminal District Court of Dallas County (arts. 1926-11, 1926-22)

Criminal District Court No. 2 of Dallas County (arts. 1926-13, 1926-22)

Criminal District Court No. 3 of Dallas County (arts. 1926-14, 1926-16, 1926-22)

Criminal District Court of Jefferson County (arts. 1926-61, 1926-62)

As will be noted later, other "Criminal District Courts" cannot be categorized as having district-level criminal jurisdiction only because they also have concurrent jurisdiction with county-level courts in certain matters.

While the courts have ruled the legislature may not limit the jurisdiction of regular district courts, the statutes in various ways express the intention of the legislature that certain district courts give their primary attention to only a portion of those matters over which they have jurisdiction. Three courts are instructed to "give preference" to criminal cases and the statutes further provide that only criminal cases are to be filed in those courts:

144th (Bexar) - art. 199(37)

175th (Bexar) - art. 199(37)

186th (Bexar) - arts. 199(37); 199a, sec. 3.014

In the same manner, seven district courts are to give preference to civil cases and civil cases only are to be filed:

37th (Bexar) - art. 199(37)

45th (Bexar) - art. 199(37)

57th (Bexar) - art. 199(37)

73rd (Bexar) - art. 199(37)

131st (Bexar) - art. 199(37)

150th (Bexar) - arts. 199(37), 199(150)

166th (Bexar) - art. 199(37)

Perhaps less stringent is the simple statutory instruction that certain courts are to "give preference" to certain matters, with no further restrictions. Twenty courts are thusly instructed to give preference to criminal cases:

105th (Nueces) - art. 199(105)

107th (Cameron, Willacy) - art. 199(107)

138th (Cameron, Willacy) - art. 199(138)

147th (Travis) - art. 199(147)

182nd (Harris) - art. 199a, sec. 3.010

183rd (Harris) - art. 199a, sec. 3.011

184th (Harris) - art. 199a, sec. 3.012

185th (Harris) - art. 199a, sec. 3.013

194th (Dallas) - art. 199a, sec. 3.021

195th (Dallas) - art. 199a, sec. 3.022

197th (Cameron, Willacy) - art. 199a, sec. 3.024

202nd (Bowie) - art. 199a, sec. 3.033(b)

203rd (Dallas) - art. 199a, sec. 3.030

204th (Dallas) - art. 199a, sec. 3.031

205th (El Paso) - art. 199a, sec. 3.032

207th (Caldwell, Comal, Hays) - art. 199a, sec. 3.035(b)

208th (Harris) - art. 199a, sec. 3.036

209th (Harris) - art. 199a, sec. 3.037

214th (Nueces) - art. 199a, sec. 3.042

Criminal Distict Court No. 4 of Tarrant County (art. 1926-45)

Two courts are similarly instructed to give preference to civil cases:

103rd (Cameron, Willacy) - art. 199(107)

215th (Harris) - art. 199a, sec. 3.043

One court is directed by statute to give first preference to family law cases and second preference to criminal cases:

148th (Nueces) - art. 199a, sec. 3.001

The other statutory provision observed above—that of limiting the types of cases which can be filed in a particular court—is used alone in several instances. Such a restriction is probably not mandatory on the clerk of the court. Lord v. Clayton, 663 Tex. 62, 352 S.W. 2d 718 (1961). The statutes provide that in fourteen courts, civil cases only are to be filed:

11th (Harris) - art. 199(11)

55th (Harris) - art. 199(11)

61st (Harris) - art. 199(11)

80th (Harris) - art. 199(11)

113th (Harris) - art. 199(11)

125th (Harris) - art. 199(11)

127th (Harris) - art. 199(11)

129th (Harris) - art. 199(11)

133rd (Harris) - art. 199(11)

151st (Harris) - art. 199(11)

152nd (Harris) - art. 199(11)

157th (Harris) - art. 199(11)

164th (Harris) - art. 199(11)

165th (Harris) - art. 199(11)

In six courts, only criminal cases are to be filed:

174th (Harris) - arts. 199(11), 199(174)

176th (Harris) - arts. 199(11), 199(176)

177th (Harris) - arts. 199(11), 199(177)

178th (Harris) - arts. 199(11), 199(178)

179th (Harris) - arts. 199(11), 199(179)

180th (Harris) - arts. 199(11), 199(180)

Finally, for one court, the legislature has specified that criminal and tax cases only shall be filed:

49th (Webb) - art. 199(111)

As noted above, specialized Domestic Relations and Juvenile Courts have been created in some counties, by separate, individual statutes. Although slight differences exist between the specific statutes, in general Courts of Domestic Relations and the five special Juvenile Courts have jurisdiction of such matters as adoption, removal of disabilities, delinquent, neglected or dependent child proceedings, divorce, annulment, custody and support. The jurisdictional differences between these various specialized courts in the state are beyond the scope of this article, however, three different relationships of these specialized courts with other levels of trial courts are noted.

Most domestic relations and juvenile courts (29) have concurrent jurisdiction with both district and county courts in those domestic relations matters specified in the statute creating the specialized court:

Court of Domestic Relations of Dallas County (art. 2338-9)

Court of Domestic Relations No. 2 of Dallas County (art. 2338-9a)

Court of Domestic Relations No. 3 of Dallas County (art. 2338-9b)

Court of Domestic Relations No. 4 of Dallas County (art. 2338-9b.1)

Juvenile Court of Dallas County (art. 2338-9)

Juvenile Court No. 2 of Dallas County (art. 2338-9c)

Court of Domestic Relations for Galveston County (art. 2338-16)

Court of Domestic Relations for Gregg County (art. 2338-13)

Court of Domestic Relations for Harris County (art. 2338-5)

Court of Domestic Realtions No. 2 for Harris County (art. 2338-11)

Court of Domestic Relations No. 3 for Harris County (art. 2338-11)

Court of Domestic Relations No. 4 for Harris County (art. 2338-11a)

Court of Domestic Relations No. 5 for Harris County (art. 2338-11b)

Juvenile Court of Harris County (art. 2338-18)

Juvenile Court No. 2 of Harris County (art. 2338-18a)

Juvenile Court No. 3 of Harris County (art. 2338-18a)

Court of Domestic Relations for Hutchinson County (art. 2338-7)

Court of Domestic Relatons for Jefferson County (art. 2338-14)

Court of Domestic Relations for Lubbock County (art. 2338-4)(inactive)

Court of Domestic Relations for Midland County (art. 2338-20)

Court of Domestic Relations for Nueces County (art. 2338-10)

Court of Domestic Relations for Potter County (art. 2338-3)

Court of Domestic Relations for Smith County (art. 2338-8)

Starr County Court of Domestic Relations (art. 2338-6) (inactive)

Court of Domestic Relations No. 1 of Tarrant County (art. 2338-15)

12

Court of Domestic Relations No. 2 of Tarrant County (art. 2338-15a)

Court of Domestic Relations No. 3 of Tarrant County (art. 2338-15b)

Court of Domestic Relations No. 4 of Tarrant County (art. 2338-15c)

Court of Domestic Relations for Taylor County (art. 2338-17)

In addition, two domestic relations courts have concurrent jurisdiction with the county court in all county court matters:

Brazoria County Court of Domestic Relations (arts. 2338-19, secs. 3, 6, 7)

Court of Domestic Relations of Wharton County (art. 2338-23)

Two domestic relations courts have no jurisdiction concurrent with county courts, but have jurisdiction concurrent with only the district court in the specified domestic relations matters:

Court of Domestic Relations for El Paso County (art. 2338-21)

Court of Domestic Relations for Fort Bend County (art. 2338-22)

As noted above, some 77 statutory county courts at law and 7 probate courts have been created, largely in metropolitan areas. While the jurisdiction of these courts is generally carved out of that given to the "constitutional" county courts, the statutes specify in a few instances that certain jurisdiction normally in the district court is to be exercised by the county court at law concurrently with the district court. Four county courts at law are given concurrent civil jurisdiction with the district courts in specified domestic relations matters:

County Court at Law No. 1 of Lubbock County (art. 1970-340)

County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County (art. 1970-340.1)

County Court at Law of Orange County (art. 1970-349A)

County Court at Law of Webb County (art. 1970-360) (eff. 9-1-75)

15

One county court at law has by special statute concurrent jurisdiction with the district courts in eminent domain matters:

County Court at Law of Victoria County (art. 1970-356)] 16

Finally, the statute creating one Criminal District Court provides that it shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the county courts at law in the county in matters of county court criminal jurisdiction:

Criminal District Court of Jefferson County (art. 1926-61)] 17

A wide variety of statutory changes have been made blurring the line between district-level jurisdiction and county court-level jurisdiction. In seven counties, all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court, except probate, has been transferred to the district court:

Bowie (5th, 102nd, 202nd District Courts) - art. 1970-306

Cass (5th District Court) - Acts 1879, ch. 25, p. 21; Acts 1971, ch. 273, p. 1198

Falls (82nd District Court) - Acts 1917, ch. 89, p. 243; Acts 1975, ch. 29, p. 84 (eff. 5-8-75)

Real (38th District Court - Acts 1917, ch. 53, p. 92

Robertson (20th District Court) - Acts 1917, ch. 96, p. 256

Stephens (90th District Court) - art. 1970-321

Webb (49th, 111th District Courts) - Acts 1893, ch. 6, p. 5] 18

In two counties, all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court, except probate and eminent domain, has been transferred to the district court (by general statute enacted in 1971 (art. 3266a), all "constitutional" county courts were divested of eminent domain jurisdiction):

Comal (22nd District Court) - Acts 1883, ch. 35, p. 24

Mason (33rd District Court) - Acts 1887, ch. 73, p. 54] 19

All civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court, except probate, eminent domain and jurisdiction to receive guilty pleas in misdemeanor cases has been transferred to the district court in one county:

Eastland (91st District Court) - art. 1970-141a] 20

In another county, all civil, criminal and eminent domain jurisdiction of the county court, except probate and jurisdiction to receive guilty pleas in misdemeanor cases, has been transferred to the district court:

Titus (76th District Court) - art. 1970-330 (repealed eff. 6-19-75)] 21

In a third county, all county civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court, except probate and eminent domain, has been transferred to the district court, and the two levels of courts have concurrent jurisdiction to receive guilty pleas in misdemeanor cases:

Marion (76th, 115th District Courts) - Acts 1887, ch. 36, p. 38; art. 1970-322a] 22

In another county, all county court civil and criminal cases appealed from justice of the peace courts, except probate and eminent domain, have been transferred to the district court, and the two levels of courts have concurrent jurisdiction in juvenile delinquency cases and in cases where the county court would have had original criminal jurisdiction:

Red River (102nd District Court) - art. 1970-314a] 23

All civil jurisdiction of the county court, except probate and eminent domain, has been transferred to the district court in four counties:

Mills (27th District Court) - Acts 1887, ch. 97, p. 109; Acts 1907, ch. 101, p. 199

Sabine (1st District Court) - Acts 1959, 2nd C.S., ch. 7, p. 90

San Augustine (1st District Court) - Acts 1959, 2nd C.S., ch. 7, p. 90

Wichita (89th District Court) - art. 1970-166b] 24

In one county all civil jurisdiction of the county court, except probate, has been transferred to the district court:

Glasscock (118th District Court) - art. 1970-320 and Acts 1957, ch. 196, p. 399] 25

In another county, all civil and eminent domain jurisdiction of the county court has been transferred to the district court:

Navarro (13th District Court) - art. 1970-326] 26

Finally, in six counties, the general jurisdiction in eminent domain cases alone has been transferred from the county to the district courts by special statutes. In 1971, all "constitutional" county courts were divested of eminent domain jurisdiction (art. 3266a):

Camp (76th District Court) - Acts 1971, ch. 592, p. 1952

Fannin (6th District Court) - Acts 1971, ch. 89, p. 820

Gonzales (25th, 2nd 25th District Courts) - Acts 1957, ch. 383, p. 867

Hopkins (8th, 62nd District Courts) - Acts 1967, ch. 44, p. 84

Morris (76th District Court) - Acts 1967, ch. 378, p. 872; Acts 1969, ch. 246, p. 707

Tarrant - art. 1970-62.1] 27

Rather than transfer jurisdiction absolutely from the county court to the district court, the legislature has in several instances, given both the district and county courts concurrent jurisdiction in certain matters. Seven district courts have concurrent criminal jurisdiction with the county court in matters normally in the county court:

207th (Caldwell) - art. 199a, sec. 3.035(b)

Criminal District Court of Dallas County - art. 1926-21

Criminal District Court No. 2 of Dallas County - art. 1926-21] 28

Criminal District Court No. 1 of Tarrant County - art. 1926-41

Criminal District Court No. 2 of Tarrant County - art. 1926-43

Criminal District Court No. 3 of Tarrant County - art. 1926-44

Criminal District Court No. 4 of Tarrant County - art. 1926-45] 28

In two counties, the district and county court have concurrent jurisdiction in all matters normally in the county court and the district court assigns cases to the county court:

Hill (66th District Court) - arts. 1970-333; 1970-33a; (amended eff. 5-20-75)

Johnson (18th District Court) - art. 1970-335] 29

Finally, a rather complicated scheme is found in one county where the district court has exclusive eminent domain jurisdiction, the county court has exclusive probate jurisdiction, the two courts have concurrent, normally county court, civil jurisdiction and criminal jurisdiction where confinement is possible and the district court assigns to the county court cases of which the county has jurisdiction and over which they have concurrent jurisdiction:

Parker (43rd District Court) - arts. 199(43); 1970-353 .] 30

COUNTY-LEVEL COURTS

Generally speaking, "constitutional" county courts have exclusive jurisdiction in civil cases wherein the amount in controversy is $200 or more and less than $500, general jurisdiction over probate cases and exclusive original jurisdiction over all misdemeanors whose punishment for the offense upon conviction is by fine exceeding $200 or where a jail sentence not to exceed two years may be imposed. However, the county courts do not have criminal jurisdiction where a criminal district court exists unless expressly authorized by statute (Tex. Const. art. V, sec. 16). County courts generally have appellate jurisdiction over cases tried originally in the justice of the peace and municipal courts upon trial de novo.

In general, county courts at law have concurrent jurisdiction with district courts in civil matters where the amount in controversy is at least $500 and not more than $5,000. Other jurisdiction of a county court at law is, broadly speaking, either carved out of the "constitutional" county court's regular jurisdiction or shared with it (concurrent).

The jurisdiction of county courts at law and their relation to the "constitutional" county courts takes many forms. In the creation of two county courts at law, all civil, criminal and probate jurisdiction of the county court was transferred to the county court at law:

County Court at Law of Nacogdoches County (art. 1970-361) (eff. 4-30-75)

County Court at Law of Houston County (art. 1970-365) (eff. 9-1-75) — 31

In the creation of eleven county courts at law, all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county courts was transfered to the county court at law and it was provided that the courts would have concurrent jurisdiction in probate matters:

County Court at Law No. 4 of Bexar County (art. 1970-301e.1)

County Court at Law No. 6 of Bexar County (art. 1970-301f)

County Court at Law of Brazos County (art. 1970-359) (eff. 1-1-77)

County Court at Law of Cameron County (art. 1970-305)

County Court at Law of Collin County (art. 1970-362) (eff. 1-1-76)

County Court at Law No. 1 of El Paso County (arts. 1970-128, 1970-141.1)

County Court at Law No. 2 of El Paso County (arts. 1970-128, 1970-141.1)

County Court at Law No. 3 of El Paso County (art. 1970-141.2)

County Court at Law No. 2 of Grayson County (art. 1970-332a) (eff. 9-1-75) (Inactive as of 1-1-76)

County Court at Law of Hidalgo County (art. 1970-341)

County Court at Law of Webb County (art. 1970-360) (eff. 9-1-75) — 32

The legislature provided, in the creation of three county courts at law, that all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court, except probate, was transferred to the county court at law, and that the judge of the county court at law could "act for" the constitutional county judge in probate matters:

County Court at Law No. 3 of Bexar County (art. 1970-301d)

County Court of Jefferson County at Law (arts. 1970-112, 1970-113)

County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 2 (art. 1970-126a) — 33

For six county courts at law, all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court, except probate, was transferred to the county court at law:

County Court at Law No. 1 of Bexar County (arts. 1970-64, 1970-301)

County Court at Law No. 2 of Bexar County (art. 1970-301)

County Court at Law No. 5 of Bexar County (art. 1970-301e.1)

County Court at Law of Grayson County (art. 1970-332)

County Court at Law No. 1 of Lubbock County (art. 1970-340)

County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County (art. 1970-340.1) — 34

In one county, all civil, criminal and juvenile jurisdiction of the county court, except probate, was transferred to the county court at law, and it was provided that the courts were to have concurrent jurisdiction in eminent domain cases:

County Court at Law of Taylor County (art. 1970-343) — 35

Four county courts at law were created with the provision that all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court was transferred to the county court at law and that the courts would have concurrent jurisdiction in both probate and eminent domain cases:

County Court at Law No. 3 of Nueces County (arts. 1970-339B, 1970-339C)

County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County (arts. 1970-324, 1970-324d)

County Court at Law No. 2 of Travis County (arts. 1970-324a, 1970-324d)

County Court at Law No. 3 of Travis County (arts. 1970-324a.1, 1970-324d) — 36

In one instance, all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court was transferred to the county court at law, the courts have concurrent jurisdiction in probate and eminent domain and the county court at law is instructed to give preference to original jurisdiction criminal cases:

County Court at Law No. 1 of Nueces County (arts. 1970-339, 1970-339A, 1970-339C) — 37

Similarly, to another county court at law in the same county was transferred all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court, the courts have concurrent jurisdiction in probate and eminent domain and the county court at law is instructed to give preference to civil cases and criminal cases appealed from courts of inferior jurisdiction:

County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County (arts. 1970-339A, 1970-339C) — 38

When the first three Harris County civil courts at law were created, it was provided that all civil and eminent domain jurisdiction of the county court, except probate, was transferred to them:

County Civil Court at Law No. 1 of Harris County (art. 1970-79)

County Civil Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County (art. 1970-110d)

County Civil Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County (art. 1970-110e) — 39

For one county court at law, all civil jurisdiction of the county court, except probate, was transferred to it, and it was provided that the courts would have concurrent criminal jurisdiction:

County Court at Law of Tarrant County (arts. 1970-33, 1970-34) — 40

Eminent domain jurisdiction was transferred to one county court at law, and in all other matters the county court at law and "constitutional" county court have concurrent jurisdiction:

County Court at Law of McLennan County (art. 1970-298b) — 41

In sixteen instances, the "constitutional" county court and the county court(s) at law have concurrent jurisdiction in all matters:

County Court at Law of Angelina County (art. 1970-355)

County Court at Law No. 1 of Bell County (art. 1970-350)

County Court at Law No. 2 of Bell County (art. 1970-350a) (eff. 4-3-75)

County Court at Law No. 1 of Brazoria County (art. 1970-357)

County Court at Law No. 2 of Brazoria County (art. 1970-357)

County Court at Law of Denton County (art. 1970-352)

County Court at Law of Ector County (art. 1970-346)

County Court at Law of Fort Bend County (art. 1970-364) (eff. 11-1-75)

County Court at Law of Harrison County (art. 1970-223a) (inactive)

County Court at Law of Hunt County (art. 1970-354)

County Court at Law No. 1 of Montgomery County (art. 1970-363) (eff. 9-1-75)

County Court at Law of Orange County (arts. 1970-349, 1970-349A)

County Court at Law No. 2 of Potter County (art. 1970-311b) (eff. 1-1-77)

County Court at Law of Smith County (art. 1970-348)

County Court at Law No. 2 of Smith County (art. 1970-348a) (eff. 9-1-75) (inactive as of 1-1-76) — 42

County Court at Law of Victoria County (art. 1970-356) 42

In two counties, concurrent jurisdiction may be exercised by the "constitutional" county court and the county court at law in all matters except probate and eminent domain, of which the county court retains exclusive jurisdiction (eminent domain jurisdiction was transferred out of all "constitutional" county courts by general law in 1971):

County Court at Law of Nolan County (art. 1970-347) (inactive)

County Court at Law of Potter County (art. 1970-311a) 43

Five of the county courts at law have concurrent jurisdiction with the "constitutional" county court in all matters except probate:

County Court of Dallas County at Law No. 1 (art. 1970-3)

County Court of Dallas County at Law No. 2 (art. 1970-16)

County Court of Dallas County at Law No. 3 (art. 1970-31.1) 44

County Court of Dallas County at Law No. 4 (art. 1970-31.1)

County Court at Law of Henderson County (art. 1970-366) (eff. 6-19-75) (inactive as of 1-1-76)

In two counties, the county court and county court at law have concurrent jurisdiction in all matters except eminent domain:

County Court at Law of Guadalupe County (art. 1970-351)

County Court at Law of Hays County (art. 1970-358) 45

County Court No. 1 of Galveston County (art. 1970-342a) 46

In four instances, the probate jurisdiction of the county court has been vested in specialized probate courts. Under the provisions of a constitutional amendment adopted in 1973, proceedings in these specialized probate courts are on the record and appeals therefrom are to appropriate court of civil appeals rather than to the district court on trial de novo as is the requirement for probate cases tried in the "constitutional" county courts. The statutes creating six of these probate courts provide that they are to have concurrent probate jurisdiction only with the "constitutional" county court:

Probate Court of Dallas County (art 1970-31a)

Probate Court No. 2 of Dallas County (arts. 1970-31a, 1970-31b)

Probate Court No. 3 of Dallas County (art. 1970-3c) (eff. 5-8-75)

Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County (art. 1970-110a)

Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County (art. 1970-110a.2)

Probate Court of Tarrant County (art. 1970-345) 47

The other specialized probate court, however, has concurrent jurisdiction with the "consitutional" county court in all matters, but only probate cases are to be filed in the probate court:

Probate Court of Galveston County (art. 1970-342) 48

Some county courts at law have been created primarily to handle criminal cases, and most (16) are limited to criminal cases, concurrent with the "constitutional" county court:

County Criminal Court of Dallas County (art. 1970-31.10)

County Criminal Court No. 2 of Dallas County (art. 1970-31.11)

County Criminal Court No. 3 of Dallas County (art. 1970-31.12) 49

County Criminal Court No. 4 of Dallas County (art. 1970-31.13)

County Criminal Court No. 5 of Dallas County (art. 1970-31.14)

County Criminal Court at Law No. 1 of Harris County (art. 1970-96)

County Criminal Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County (art. 1970-31.11)

County Criminal Court No. 1 of Tarrant County (art. 1970-62a)

County Criminal Court at Law No. 2 of Tarrant County (art. 1970-62b)

Three county courts at law have concurrent jurisdiction with the "constitutional" county court in criminal matters, and further have sole jurisdiction of appeals from justice of the peace and municipal courts:

County Criminal Court of Appeals of Dallas County (art. 1970-31.20)

County Criminal Court No. 3 of Tarrant County (art. 1970-62c)

County Criminal Court No. 4 of Tarrant County (art. 1970-62d) (eff. 9-1-75) (inactive as of 1-1-76) 50

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE COURTS

Justice of the peace courts have original jurisdiction in civil cases wherein the amount in controversy does not exceed $200 and in criminal misdemeanors where punishment is by fine only not to exceed $200. The justice of the peace courts also function as small claims courts in disputes over unpaid wages and salaries where the contested amount does not exceed $200 and in controversies over uncollected bills where the amount does not exceed $150. Trials in justice of the peace courts are not of record. Appeals from these courts are upon trial de novo in the county court, the county court at law, or the district court.

In 32 counties, the county court has been given concurrent civil jurisdiction with justice of the peace courts in that county:

Armstrong (art. 1970-190)

In two additional counties, the county court at law has been given concurrent civil jurisdiction with the justice of the peace courts:

County Court at Law of Nolan County (art. 1970-347) (inactive)

County Court at Law of Potter County (art. 1970-311a)

County Court at Law No. 2 of Potter County (art. 1970-311b) (eff. 1-1-77)

52

The county court in eight counties has been given concurrent jurisdiction with the justice of the peace courts in both civil and criminal matters:

Blanco (art. 1970-337, sec. 4)

Edwards (art. 1970-330a, sec. 4)

Gillespie (art. 1970-312)

Irion (art. 1970-304)

County Court at Law of Cameron County (art. 1970-305)

County Court at Law of Grayson County (art. 1970-332)

County Court at Law No. 2 of Grayson County (art. 1970-332a) (eff. 9-1-75) (inactive as of 1-1-76)

County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County (art. 1970-339A)

County Court at Law No. 3 of Nueces County (art. 1970-339C)

54

Finally, one county court at law has been given concurrent jurisdiction with the justice of the peace courts in the county in criminal matters only:

County Court at Law No. 1 of Montgomery County (art. 1970-363) (eff. 9-1-75)

MUNICIPAL COURTS

Municipal courts have original and exclusive jurisdiction over purported violations of city ordinances and concurrent jurisdiction with justice of the peace courts over state misdemeanors occurring within the jurisdiction of the municipality where punishment upon conviction is by fine only not to exceed $200.

Trials in all but three municipal courts are not of record with appeals therefrom going to the county court, the county court at law, or the district court upon trial de novo. The municipal courts of Houston, Midland and Wichita Falls, were created by special statutes as municipal courts of record with appeals therefrom going to the county court on the record perfected in the municipal court.

CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF TEXAS

Article 5—Judicial Department

Sec. 1. JUDICIAL POWER; COURTS IN WHICH VESTED. The judicial power of this State shall be vested in one Supreme Court, in Courts of Civil Appeals, in a Court of Criminal Appeals, in District Courts, in County Courts, in Commissioners Courts, in Courts of Justices of the Peace, and in such other courts as may be provided by law.

The Criminal District Court of Galveston and Harris Counties shall continue with the district jurisdiction and organization now existing by law until otherwise provided by law.

The Legislature may establish such other courts as it may deem necessary and prescribe the jurisdiction and organization thereof, and may conform the jurisdiction of the district and other inferior courts thereto. (As amended Aug. 11, 1891.)

Sec. 1-a. RETIREMENT, CENSURE, AND REMOVAL OF JUSTICES AND JUDGES; STATE JUDICIAL QUALIFICATIONS COMMISSION. (1) Subject to the further provisions of this Section, the Legislature shall provide for the retirement and compensation of Justices and Judges of the Appellate Courts and District and Criminal District Courts on account of length of service, age and disability, and for their reassignment to active duty where and when needed. The office of every such Justice and Judge shall become vacant when the incumbent reaches the age of seventy-five (75) years or such earlier age, not less than seventy (70) years, as the Legislature may prescribe; but, in the case of an incumbent whose term of office includes the effective date of this Amendment, this provision shall not prevent him from serving the remainder of said term nor be applicable to him before his period or periods of judicial service shall have reached a total of ten (10) years.

(2) There is hereby created the State Judicial Qualifications Commission, to consist of nine (9) members, to wit: (i) two (2) Justices of Courts of Civil Appeals; (ii) two (2) District Judges; (iii) two (2) members of the State Bar, who have respectively practiced as such for over ten (10) consecutive years next preceding their selection; (iiii) three (3) citizens, at least thirty (30) years of age, not licensed to practice law nor holding any salaried public office or employment; provided that no person shall be or remain a member of the Commission, who does not maintain physical residence within this State, or who resides in, or holds a judgeship within or for, the same Supreme Judicial District as another member of the Commission, or who shall have ceased to retain the qualifications above specified for his respective class of membership. Commissioners of classes (i) and (ii) above shall be chosen by the Supreme Court with advice and consent of the Senate, those of class (iii) by the Board of Directors of the State Bar under regulations to be prescribed by the Supreme Court with advice and consent of the Senate, and those of class (iiii) by appointment of the Governor with advice and consent of the Senate.

(3) The regular term of office of Commissioners shall be six (6) years; but the initial members of each of classes (i), (ii) and (iii) shall respectively be chosen for terms of four (4) and six (6) years, and the initial members of class (iiii) for respective terms of two (2), four (4) and six (6) years. Interim vacancies shall be filled in the same manner as vacancies due to expiration of a full term, but only for the unexpired portion of the term in question. Commissioners may succeed themselves in office only if having served less than three (3) consecutive years.

(4) Commissioners shall receive no compensation for their services as such. The Legislature shall provide for the payment of the necessary expense for the operation of the Commission.

(5) The Commission may hold its meetings, hearings and other proceedings at such times and places as it shall determine but shall meet at Austin at least once each year. It shall annually select one of its members as Chairman. A quorum shall consist of five (5) members. Proceedings shall be by majority vote of those present, except that recommendations for retirement, censure, or removal of any person holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section shall be by affirmative vote of at least five (5) members.

(6)A. Any Justice or Judge of the Appellate Courts and District and Criminal District Courts, and any County Judge, and any Judge of a County Court at Law, a Court of Domestic Relations, a Juvenile Court, a Probate Court, or a Corporation or Municipal Court, and any Justice of the Peace, and any Judge or presiding officer of any special court created by the Legislature as provided in Section 1, Article V, of this Constitution, may, subject to the other provisions hereof, be removed from office for willful or persistent conduct, which is clearly inconsistent with the proper performance of his said duties or casts public discredit upon the judiciary or administration of justice; or any person holding such office may be censured, in lieu of removal from office, under procedures provided for by the Legislature.

B. Any person holding an office named in Paragraph A of this subsection who is eligible for retirement benefits under the laws of this state providing for judicial retirement may be involuntarily retired, and any person holding an office named in that paragraph who is not eligible for retirement benefits under such laws may be removed from office, for disability seriously interfering with the performance of his duties, which is, or is likely to become, permanent in nature.

(7) The Commission shall keep itself informed as fully as may be of circumstances relating to the misconduct or disability of particular persons holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section, receive complaints or reports, formal or informal, from any source in this behalf and make such preliminary investigations as it may determine. Its orders for the attendance or testimony of witnesses or for the production of documents at any hearing or investigation shall be enforceable by contempt proceedings in the District Court.

(8) After such investigation as it deems necessary, the Commission may in its discretion issue a private reprimand, or if the Commission determines that the situation merits such action, it may order a hearing to be held before it concerning the removal, or retirement of a person holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section, or it may in its discretion request the Supreme Court to appoint an active or retired District Judge or Justice of a Court of Civil Appeals as a Master to hear and take evidence in any such matter, and to report thereon to the Commission. If, after hearing, or after considering the record and report of a Master, the Commission finds good cause therefor, it shall issue an order of public censure or it shall recommend to the Supreme Court the removal, or retirement, as the case may be, of the person in question holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section and shall thereupon file with the Clerk of the Supreme Court the entire record before the Commission.

(9) The Supreme Court shall review the record of the proceedings on the law and facts and in its discretion may, for good cause shown, permit the introduction of additional evidence and shall order public censure, retirement or removal, as it finds just and proper, or wholly reject the recommendation. Upon an order for involuntary retirement for disability or an order for removal, the office in question shall become vacant. The rights of an incumbent so retired to retirement benefits shall be the same as if his retirement had been voluntary.

(10) All papers filed with and proceedings before the Commission or a Master shall be confidential, and the filing of papers with, and the giving of testimony before, the Commission, Master or the Supreme Court shall be privileged; provided that upon being filed in the Supreme Court the record loses its confidential character.

(11) The Supreme Court shall by rule provide for the procedure before the Commission, Masters and the Supreme Court. Such rule shall afford to any person holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section, against whom a proceeding is instituted to cause his retirement or removal, due process of law for the procedure before the Commission, Masters and the Supreme Court in the same manner that any person whose property rights are in jeopardy in an adjudicatory proceeding is entitled to due process of law, regardless of whether or not the interest of the person holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section in remaining in active status is considered to be a right or a privilege. Due process shall include the right to notice, counsel, hearing, confrontation of his accusers, and all such other incidents of due process as are ordinarily available in proceedings whether or not misfeasance is charged, upon proof of which a penalty may be imposed.

(12) No person holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section shall sit as a member of the Commission or Supreme Court in any proceeding involving his own retirement or removal.

(13) This Section 1-a is alternative to and cumulative of, the methods of removal of persons holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section provided elsewhere in this Constitution. (Added Nov. 2, 1948; as amended Nov. 3, 1970.)

Sec. 2. SUPREME COURT; JUSTICES; SECTIONS; ELIGIBILITY; ELECTION; VACANCIES. The Supreme Court shall consist of a Chief Justice and eight Associate Justices, any five of whom shall constitute a quorum, and the concurrence of five shall be necessary to a decision of a case; provided, that when the business of the court may require, the court may sit in sections as designated by the court to hear argument of causes and to consider applications for writs of error or other preliminary matters. No person shall be eligible to the office of Chief Justice or Associate Justice of the Supreme Court unless he be, at the time of his election, a citizen of the United States and of this state, and unless he shall have attained the age of thirty-five years, and shall have been a practicing lawyer, or a lawyer and judge of a court of record together at least ten years. Said Justices shall be elected (three of them each two years) by the qualified voters of the state at a general election; shall hold their offices six years, or until their successors are elected and qualified; and shall each receive such compensation as shall be provided by law. In case of a vacancy in the office of any Justice of the Supreme Court, the Governor shall fill the vacancy until the next general election for state officers, and at such general election the vacancy for the unexpired term shall be filled by election by the qualified voters of the state. The Justices of the Supreme Court who may be in office at the time this amendment takes effect shall continue in office until the expiration of their term of office under the present Constitution, and until their successors are elected and qualified. The Judges of the Commission of Appeals who may be in office at the time this amendment takes effect shall become Associate Justices of the Supreme Court and each shall continue in office as such Associate Justice of the Supreme Court until January 1st next preceding the expiration of the term to which he has been appointed and until his successor shall be elected and qualified. (As amended Aug. 25, 1945.)

Sec. 3. JURISDICTION OF SUPREME COURT; WRITS; SESSIONS; CLERK. The Supreme Court shall have appellate jurisdiction only except as herein specified, which shall be co-extensive with the limits of the State. Its appellate jurisdiction shall extend to questions of law arising in cases of which the Courts of Civil Appeals have appellate jurisdiction under such restrictions and regulations as the Legislature may prescribe. Until otherwise provided by law the appellate jurisdiction of the Supreme Court shall extend to questions of law arising in the cases in the Courts of Civil Appeals in which the Judges of any Court of Civil Appeals may disagree, or where the several Courts of Civil Appeals may hold differently on the same question of law or where a statute of the State is held void. The Supreme Court and the Justices thereof shall have power to issue writs of habeas corpus, as may be prescribed by law, and under such regulations as may be prescribed by law, the said courts and the Justices thereof may issue the writs of mandamus, procedendo, certiorari and such other writs, as may be necessary to enforce its jurisdiction. The Legislature may confer original jurisdiction on the Supreme Court to issue writs of quo warranto and mandamus in such cases as may be specified, except as against the Governor of the State.

The Supreme Court shall also have power, upon affidavit or otherwise as by the court may be determined, to ascertain such matters of fact as may be necessary to the proper exercise of its jurisdiction.

The Supreme Court shall appoint a clerk, who shall give bond in such manner as is now or may hereafter, be required by law, and he may hold his office for four years and shall be subject to removal by said court for good cause entered of record on the minutes of said court who shall receive such compensation as the Legislature may provide. (As amended Nov. 4, 1930.)

Sec. 3a. SESSIONS OF COURT. The Supreme Court may sit at any time during the year at the seat of government for the transaction of business and each term thereof shall begin and end with each calendar year. (Added Nov. 4, 1930.)

Sec. 3-b. APPEAL FROM ORDER GRANTING OR DENYING INJUNCTION. The Legislature shall have the power to provide by law, for an appeal direct to the Supreme Court of this State from an order of any trial court granting or denying an interlocutory or permanent injunction on the grounds of the constitutionality or unconstitutionality of any statute of this State, or on the validity or invalidity of any administrative order issued by any state agency under any statute of this State. (Added Nov. 5, 1940.)

Sec. 4. COURT OF CRIMINAL APPEALS; JUDGES. The Court of Criminal Appeals shall consist of five Judges, one of whom shall be Presiding Judge, a majority of whom shall constitute a quorum, and the concurrence of three Judges shall be necessary to a decision of said court. Said Judges shall have the same qualifications and receive the same salaries as the Associate Justices of the Supreme Court. They shall be elected by the qualified voters of the state at a general election and shall hold their offices for a term of six years. In case of a vacancy in the office of a Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals, the Governor shall, with the advice and consent of the Senate, fill said vacancy by appointment until the next succeeding general election.

The Judges of the Court of Criminal Appeals who may be in office at the time when this Amendment takes effect shall become Judges of the Court of Criminal Appeals and continue in office until the expiration of the term of office for which each has been elected or appointed under the present Constitution and laws of this state, and until his successor shall have been elected and qualified.

The two members of the Commission of Appeals in aid of the Court of Criminal Appeals who may be in office at the time when this Amendment takes effect shall become Judges of the Court of Criminal Appeals and shall hold their offices, one for a term of two years and the other for a term of four years, beginning the first day of January following the adoption of this Amendment and until their successors are elected and qualified. Said Judges shall by agreement or otherwise designate the incumbent for each of the terms mentioned.

The Governor shall designate one of the five Judges as Presiding Judge and at the expiration of his term and each six years thereafter a Presiding Judge shall be elected. (As amended Nov. 8, 1966.)

Sec. 5. JURISDICTION OF COURT OF CRIMINAL APPEALS; TERMS OF COURT; CLERK. The Court of Criminal Appeals shall have appellate jurisdiction coextensive with the limits of the state in all criminal cases of whatever grade, with such exceptions and under such regulations as may be prescribed by law.

The Court of Criminal Appeals and the Judges thereof shall have the power to issue the writ of habeas corpus, and under such regulations as may be prescribed by law, issue such writs as may be necessary to enforce its own jurisdiction. The Court of Criminal Appeals shall have power upon affidavit or otherwise to ascertain such matters of fact as may be necessary to the exercise of its jurisdiction.

The Court of Criminal Appeals may sit for the transaction of business at any time from the first Monday in October to the last Saturday in September in each year, at the State Capitol. The Court of Criminal Appeals shall appoint a clerk of the court who shall give bond in such manner as is now or may hereafter be required by law, and who shall hold his office for a term of four years unless sooner removed by the court for good cause entered of record on the minutes of said court.

The Clerk of the Court of Criminal Appeals who may be in office at the time when this Amendment takes effect shall continue in office for the term of his appointment. (As amended Nov. 8, 1966.)

Sec. 6. COURTS OF CIVIL APPEALS; TRANSFER OF CASES; TERMS OF JUDGES. The Legislature shall as soon as practicable after the adoption of this amendment divide the State into not less than two nor more than three Supreme judicial districts and thereafter into such additional districts as the increase of population and business may require, and shall establish a Court of Civil Appeals in each of said districts, which shall consist of a Chief Justice and two Associate Justices, who shall have the qualifications as herein prescribed for Justices of the Supreme Court. Said Court of Civil Appeals shall have appellate jurisdiction co-extensive with the limits of their respective districts, which shall extend to all civil cases of which the District Courts or County Courts have original or appellate jurisdiction, under such restrictions and regulations as may be prescribed by law. Provided, that the decision of said courts shall be conclusive on all questions of fact brought before them on appeal or error.

Each of said Courts of Civil Appeals shall hold its sessions at a place in its district to be designated by the Legislature, and at such time as may be prescribed by law. Said Justices shall be elected by the qualified voters of their respective districts at a general election, for a [a] term of six years and shall receive for their services the sum of three thousand five hundred dollars per annum, until otherwise provided by law. Said courts shall have such other jurisdiction, original and appellate as may be prescribed by law. Each Court of Civil Appeals shall appoint a clerk in the same manner as the clerk of the Supreme Court which clerk shall receive such compensation as may be fixed by law.

Until the organization of the Courts of Civil Appeals and Criminal Appeals, as herein provided for, the jurisdiction, power and organization and location of the Supreme Court, the Court of Appeals and the Commission of Appeals shall continue as they were before the adoption of this amendment.

All civil cases which may be pending in the Court of Appeals shall as soon as practicable after the organization of the Courts of Civil Appeals be certified to, and the records thereof transmitted to the proper Courts of Civil Appeals to be decided by said courts. At the first session of the Supreme Court the Court of Criminal Appeals and such of [of] the Courts of Civil Appeals which may be hereafter created under this article after the first election of the Judges of such courts under this amendment. The terms of office of the Judges of each court shall be divided into three classes and the Justices thereof shall draw for the different classes. Those who shall draw class No. 1 shall hold their offices two years, those drawing class No. 2 shall hold their offices for four years and those who may draw class No. 3 shall hold their offices for six years, from the date of their election and until their successors are elected and qualified, and thereafter each of the said Judges shall hold his office for six years, as provided in this Constitution. (As amended Aug. 11, 1891.)

Sec. 7. JUDICIAL DISTRICTS; DISTRICT JUDGES; TERMS OR SESSIONS; ABSENCE, DISABILITY OR DISQUALIFICATION OF JUDGE. The State shall be divided into as many judicial districts as may now or hereafter be provided by law, which may be increased or diminished by law. For each district there shall be elected by the qualified voters thereof, at a General Election, a Judge, who shall be a citizen of the United States and of this State, who shall be licensed to practice law in this State and shall have been a practicing lawyer or a Judge of a Court in this State, or both combined, for four (4) years next preceding his election, who shall have resided in the district in which he was elected for two (2) years next preceding his election, who shall reside in his district during his term of office, who shall hold his office for the period of four (4) years, and shall receive for his services an annual salary to be fixed by the Legislature. The Court shall conduct its proceedings at the county seat of the county in which the case is pending, except as otherwise provided by law. He shall hold the regular terms of his Court at the County Seat of each County in his district at least twice in each year in such manner as may be prescribed by law. The Legislature shall have power by General or Special Laws to make such provisions concerning the terms or sessions of each Court as it may deem necessary.

The Legislature shall also provide for the holding of District Court when the Judge thereof is absent, or is from any cause disabled or disqualified from presiding.

The District Judges who may be in office when this Amendment takes effect shall hold their offices until their respective terms shall expire under their present election or appointment. (As amended Nov. 6, 1949.)

Sec. 8. JURISDICTION OF DISTRICT COURT. The District Court shall have original jurisdiction in all criminal cases of the grade of felony; in all suits in behalf of the State to recover penalties, forfeitures and escheats; of all cases of divorce; of all misdemeanors involving official misconduct; of all suits to recover damages for slander or defamation of character; of all suits for trial of title to land and for the enforcement of liens thereon; of all suits for the trial of the right of property levied upon by virtue of any writ of execution, sequestration or attachment when the property levied on shall be equal to or exceed in value five hundred dollars; of all suits, complaints or pleas whatever, without regard to any distinction between law and equity, when the matter in controversy shall be valued at or amount to five hundred dollars exclusive of interest; of contested elections, and said court and the judges thereof, shall have power to issue writs of habeas corpus, mandamus, injunction and certiorari, and all writs necessary to enforce their jurisdiction.

The District Court shall have appellate jurisdiction and general control in probate matters, over the County Court established in each county, for appointing guardians, granting letters testamentary and of administration, probating wills, for settling the accounts of executors, administrators and guardians, and for the transaction of all business appertaining to estates; and original jurisdiction and general control over executors, administrators, guardians and minors under such regulations as may be prescribed by law. The District Court shall have appellate jurisdiction and general supervisory control over the County Commissioners Court, with such exceptions and under such regulations as may be prescribed by law; and shall have general original jurisdiction over all causes of action whatever for which a remedy or jurisdiction is not provided by law or this Constitution, and such other jurisdiction, original and appellate, as may be provided by law. (As amended Aug. 11, 1891.)

The district court, concurrently with the county court, shall have the general jurisdiction of a probate court. It shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis and common drunkards, grant letters testamentary and of administration, settle accounts of executors, transact all business appertaining to deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis and common drunkards, including the settlement, partition and distribution of estates of deceased persons and to apprentice minors, as provided by law. In any proceeding involving the general jurisdiction of a probate court, including such specified proceedings, the district court shall also have all other jurisdiction conferred upon the district court by law. The legislature, however, shall have the power, by local or general law, Section 16 of Article V of this Constitution notwithstanding, to increase, diminish or eliminate the jurisdiction of either the district court or the county court in probate matters, and in cases of any such change of jurisdiction, the legislature shall also conform the jurisdiction of the other courts to such change. The legislature shall have power to adopt rules governing the filing, distribution and transfer of all such cases and proceedings as between district courts, county courts, and other courts having jurisdiction thereof, and may provide that all appeals in such matters shall be to the courts of (civil) appeals. (This paragraph added Nov. 6, 1973.)

Sec. 9. CLERK OF DISTRICT COURT. There shall be a Clerk for the District Court of each county, who shall be elected by the qualified voters for State and county officers, and who shall hold his office for four years, subject to removal by information, or by indictment of a grand jury, and conviction of a petit jury. In case of vacancy, the Judge of the District Court shall have the power to appoint a Clerk, who shall hold until the office can be filled by election. (As amended Nov. 2, 1954.)

Sec. 10. TRIAL BY JURY. In the trial of all causes in the District Courts, the plaintiff or defendant shall, upon application made in open court, have the right of trial by jury; but no jury shall be empaneled in any civil case unless demanded by a party to the case, and a jury fee be paid by the party demanding a jury, for such sum, and with such exceptions as may be prescribed by the Legislature.

Sec. 11. DISQUALIFICATION OF JUDGES; EXCHANGE OF DISTRICTS; HOLDING COURT FOR OTHER JUDGES. No judge shall sit in any case wherein he may be interested, or where either of the parties may be connected with him, either by affinity or consanguinity, within such a degree as may be prescribed by law, or when he shall have been counsel in the case. When the Supreme Court, the Court of Criminal Appeals, the Court of Civil Appeals, or any member of either, shall be thus disqualified to hear and determine any case or cases in said court, the same shall be certified to the Governor of the State, who shall immediately commission the requisite number of persons learned in the law for the trial and determination of such cause or causes. When a judge of the District Court is disqualified by any of the causes above stated, the parties may, by consent, appoint a proper person to try said case; or upon their failing to do so, a competent person may be appointed to try the same in the county where it is pending, in such manner as may be prescribed by law.

And the District Judges may exchange districts, or hold courts for each other when they may deem it expedient, and shall do so when required by law. This disqualification of judges of inferior tribunals shall be remedied and vacancies in their offices filled as may be prescribed by law. (As amended Aug. 11, 1891.)

Sec. 12. JUDGES TO BE CONSERVATORS OF THE PEACE; STYLE OF WRITS AND PROCESS; PROSECUTIONS IN NAME OF STATE; CONCLUSION. All judges of courts of this State, by virtue of their office, be conservators of the peace throughout the State. The style of all writs and process shall be, "The State of Texas." All prosecutions shall be carried on in the name and by authority of the State of Texas, and shall conclude: "Against the peace and dignity of the State." (As amended Aug. 11, 1891.)

Sec. 13. NUMBER OF GRAND AND PETIT JURORS; NUMBER CONCURRING. Grand and petit juries in the District Courts shall be composed of twelve men; but nine members of a grand jury shall be a quorum to transact business and present bills. In trials of civil cases, and in trials of criminal cases below the grade of felony in the District Courts, nine members of the jury, concurring, may render a verdict, but when the verdict shall be rendered by less than the whole number, it shall be signed by every member of the jury concurring in it. When, pending the trial of any case, one or more jurors not exceeding three, may die, or be disabled from sitting, the remainder of the jury shall have the power to render the verdict; provided, that the Legislature may change or modify the rule authorizing less than the whole number of the jury to render a verdict.

Sec. 14. JUDICIAL DISTRICTS AND TIME OF HOLDING COURT FIXED BY ORDINANCE. The Judicial Districts in this State and the time of holding the Courts therein are fixed by ordinance forming part of this Constitution, until otherwise provided by law.

Sec. 15. COUNTY COURT; COUNTY JUDGE. There shall be established in each county in this State a County Court, which shall be a court of record; and there shall be elected in each county, by the qualified voters, a County Judge, who shall be well informed in the law of the State; shall be a conservator of the peace, and shall hold his office for four years, and until his successor shall be elected and qualified. He shall receive as compensation for his services such fees and perquisites as may be prescribed by law. (As amended Nov. 2, 1954.)

Sec. 16. COUNTY COURTS; JURISDICTION; APPEALS TO COURT OF CIVIL APPEALS AND COURT OF CRIMINAL APPEALS; DISQUALIFICATION OF JUDGE. The County Court shall have original jurisdiction of all misdemeanors of which exclusive original jurisdiction is not given to the Justices Court as the same is now or may hereafter be prescribed by law, and when the fine to be imposed shall exceed $200, and they shall have exclusive jurisdiction in all civil cases when the matter in controversy shall exceed in value $200, and not exceed $500, exclusive of interest, and concurrent jurisdiction with the District Court when the matter in controversy shall exceed $500, and not exceed $1,000, exclusive of interest, but shall not have jurisdiction of suits for the recovery of land. They shall have appellate jurisdiction in cases civil and criminal of which Justices Courts have original jurisdiction, but of such civil cases only when the judgment of the court appealed from shall exceed $20, exclusive of cost, under such regulations as may be prescribed by law. In all appeals from Justices Courts there shall be a trial de novo in the County Court, and appeals may be prosecuted from the final judgment rendered in such cases by the County Court, as well as all cases civil and criminal of which the County Court has exclusive or concurrent or original jurisdiction of civil appeals in civil cases to the Court of Civil Appeals and in such criminal cases to the Court of Criminal Appeals, with such exceptions and under such regulations as may be prescribed by law.

The County Court shall have the general jurisdiction of a Probate Court; they shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis and common drunkards, grant letters testamentary and of administration, settle accounts of executors, transact all business appertaining to deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis and common drunkards, including the settlement, partition and distribution of estates of deceased persons and to apprentice minors, as provided by law; and the County Court, or judge thereof, shall have power to issue writs of injunctions, mandamus and all writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of said Court, and to issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the County Court, or any other Court or tribunal inferior to said Court. The County Court shall not have criminal jurisdiction in any county where there is a Criminal District Court, unless expressly conferred by law, and in such counties appeals from Justices Courts and other inferior courts and tribunals in criminal cases shall be to the Criminal District Court, under such regulations as may be prescribed by law; and in all such cases an appeal shall lie from such District Court to the Court of Criminal Appeals. When the judge of the County Court is disqualified in any case pending in the County Court the parties interested may, by consent, appoint a proper person to try said case, or upon their failing to do so a competent person may be appointed to try the same in the county where it is pending in such manner as may be prescribed by law. (As amended Aug. 11, 1891.)

Sec. 17. TERMS OF COUNTY COURT; PROSECUTIONS; JURIES. The County Court shall hold a term for civil business at least once in every two months, and shall dispose of probate business, either in term time or vacation as may be provided by law, and said court shall hold a term for criminal business once in every month as may be provided by law. Prosecutions may be commenced in said court by information filed by the county attorney, or by affidavit, as may be provided by law. Grand juries empaneled in the District Courts shall enquire into misdemeanors, and all indictments therefor returned into the District Courts shall forthwith be certified to the County Courts or other inferior courts, having jurisdiction to try them for trial; and if such indictment be quashed in the County, or other inferior court, the person charged, shall not be discharged if there is probable cause of guilt, but may be held by such court or magistrate to answer an information or affidavit. A jury in the County Court shall consist of six men; but no jury shall be empaneled to try a civil case unless demanded by one of the parties, who shall pay such jury fee therefor, in advance, as may be prescribed by law, unless he makes affidavit that he is unable to pay the same.

Sec. 18. DIVISION OF COUNTIES INTO PRECINCTS; ELECTION OF CONSTABLE AND JUSTICE OF THE PEACE; COUNTY COMMISSIONERS AND COUNTY COMMISSIONERS COURT. Each organized county in the State now or hereafter existing, shall be divided from time to time, for the convenience of the people, into precincts, not less than four and not more than eight. Divisions shall be made by the Commissioners Court provided for by this Constitution. In each such precinct there shall be elected one Justice of the Peace and one Constable, each of whom shall hold his office for four years and until his successor shall be elected and qualified; provided that in any precinct in which there may be a city of 8,000 or more inhabitants, there shall be elected two Justices of the Peace. Each county shall in like manner be divided into four commissioners precincts in each of which there shall be elected by the qualified voters thereof one County Commissioner, who shall hold his office for four years and until his successor shall be elected and qualified. The County Commissioners so chosen, with the County Judge as presiding officer, shall compose the County Commissioners Court, which shall exercise such powers and jurisdiction over all county business, as is conferred by this Constitution and the laws of the State, or as may be hereafter prescribed. (As amended Nov. 2, 1954.)

Sec. 19. JUSTICES OF THE PEACE; JURISDICTION; APPEALS; EX OFFICIO NOTARIES PUBLIC; TIMES AND PLACES OF HOLDING COURT. Justices of the Peace shall have jurisdiction in criminal matters of all cases where the penalty or fine to be imposed by law may not be more than for two hundred dollars, and in civil matters of all cases where the amount in controversy is two hundred dollars or less, exclusive of interest, of which exclusive original jurisdiction is not given to the District or County Courts; and such other jurisdiction, criminal and civil, as may be provided by law, under such regulations as may be prescribed by law, and appeals to the County Courts shall be allowed in all cases decided in Justices' Courts where the judgment is for more than twenty dollars exclusive of costs; and in all criminal cases under such regulations as may be prescribed by law. And the justices of the peace shall be ex officio notaries public. And they shall hold their courts at such times and places as may be provided by law.

Sec. 20. COUNTY CLERK. There shall be elected for each county, by the qualified voters, a County Clerk, who shall hold his office for four years, who shall be clerk of the County and Commissioners Courts and recorder of the county, whose duties, perquisites and fees of office shall be prescribed by the Legislature, and a vacancy in whose office shall be filled by the Commissioners Court, until the next general election; provided, that in counties having a population of less than 8,000 persons there may be an election of a single Clerk, who shall perform the duties of District and County Clerks. (As amended Nov. 2, 1954.)

Sec. 21. COUNTY ATTORNEYS; DISTRICT ATTORNEYS. A County Attorney, for counties in which there is not a resident Criminal District Attorney, shall be elected by the qualified voters of each county, who shall be commissioned by the Governor, and hold his office for the term of four years. In case of vacancy the Commissioners Court of the county shall have the power to appoint a County Attorney until the next general election. The County Attorneys shall represent the State in all cases in the District and inferior courts in their respective counties; but if any county shall be included in a district in which there shall be a District Attorney, the respective duties of District Attorneys and County Attorneys shall in such counties be regulated by the Legislature. The Legislature may provide for the election of District Attorneys in such districts, as may be deemed necessary, and make provision for the compensation of District Attorneys and County Attorneys. District Attorneys shall hold office for a term of four years, and until their successors have qualified. (As amended Nov. 2, 1954.)

Sec. 22. CHANGING JURISDICTION OF COUNTY COURTS. The Legislature shall have power, by local or general law, to increase, diminish or change the civil and criminal jurisdiction of County Courts; and in cases of any such change of jurisdiction, the Legislature shall also conform the jurisdiction of the other courts to such change.

Sec. 23. SHERIFFS. There shall be elected by the qualified voters of each county a Sheriff, who shall hold his office for the term of four years, whose duties and perquisites, and fees of office, shall be prescribed by the Legislature, and vacancies in whose office shall be filled by the Commissioners Court until the next general election. (As amended Nov. 2, 1954.)

Sec. 24. REMOVAL OF COUNTY OFFICERS. County Judges, county attorneys, clerks of the District and County Courts, justices of the peace, constables, and other county officers, may be removed by the Judges of the District Courts for incompetency, official misconduct, habitual drunkenness, or other causes defined by law, upon the cause therefor being set forth in writing and the finding of its truth by a jury.

Sec. 25. RULES OF COURT. The Supreme Court shall have power to make and establish rules of procedure not inconsistent with the laws of the State for the government of said court and the other courts of this State to expedite the dispatch of business therein. (As amended Aug. 11, 1891.)

Sec. 26. CRIMINAL CASES; NO APPEAL BY STATE. The State shall have no right of appeal in criminal cases.

Sec. 27. TRANSFER OF CASES PENDING AT ADOPTION OF CONSTITUTION. The Legislature shall, at its first session, provide for the transfer of all business, civil and criminal, pending in District Courts, over which jurisdiction is given by this Constitution to the County Courts, or other inferior courts, to such County or inferior courts, and for the trial or disposition of all such cases by such County or other inferior courts.

Sec. 28. VACANCIES IN JUDICIAL OFFICES. Vacancies in the office of judges of the Supreme Court, the Court of Criminal Appeals, the Court of Civil Appeals and the District Courts shall be filled by the Governor until the next succeeding General Election; and vacancies in the office of County Judge and Justices of the Peace shall be filled by the Commissioners Court until the next succeeding General Election. (As amended Nov. 4, 1958.)

Sec. 29. COUNTY COURT; TERMS OF COURT; PROBATE BUSINESS; COMMENCEMENT OF PROSECUTIONS; JURY. The County Court shall hold at least four terms for both civil and criminal business annually, as may be provided by the Legislature, or by the Commissioners' Court of the county under authority of law, and such other terms each year as may be fixed by the Commissioners' Court; provided, the Commissioners' Court of any county having fixed the times and number of terms of the County Court, shall not change the same again until the expiration of one year. Said court shall dispose of probate business either in term time or vacation, under such regulation as may be prescribed by law. Prosecutions may be commenced in said courts in such manner as is or may be provided by law, and a jury therein shall consist of six men. Until otherwise provided, the terms of the County Court shall be held on the first Mondays in February, May, August and November, and may remain in session three weeks. (Added Aug. 14, 1883.)

Sec. 30. JUDGES OF COURTS OF COUNTY-WIDE JURISDICTION; CRIMINAL DISTRICT ATTORNEYS. The Judges of all Courts of county-wide jurisdiction heretofore or hereafter created by the Legislature of this State, and all Criminal District Attorneys now or hereafter authorized by the laws of this State, shall be elected for a term of four years, and shall serve until their successors have qualified. RECENT COURT DECISIONS

Selected Decisions Affecting Court Operations

During 1975

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

A county court-at-law is a court of general jurisdiction in eminent domain matters, and such jurisdiction, by necessary implication, includes the right to try and decide all questions which may arise in such controversies, including the right to determine whether existing facts authorize exercise of the power thus conferred. County court's jurisdiction in a condemnation suit attaches immediately on filing of a petition containing statutory allegations requisite to condemn property. Once such jurisdiction attaches, such court is the only tribunal with authority to determine in the first instance any objections raised in connection with the condemnation proceedings. Vernon's Civil Statutes Arts. 3264, 3268, subd. 3. A district court was therefore without jurisdiction to enjoin a condemnation proceeding in county court-at-law on the ground that the city did not have the power or authority to condemn the property, in that once the county court's jurisdiction had been invoked, it had exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether the city had authority to condemn the property for such purposes. City of Garland v. Mayhew, 528 S.W.2d 305 (Tex. Civ. App. Tyler 1975)

A divorce action was pending in the 159th District Court of Angelina County, but the judge disqualified himself. The judge of the 88th District Court heard the case by agreement in Hardin County. Divorce was granted and all proceedings were carried under Angelina County numbers, etc. When the wife later sought to hold the husband in contempt, the judge of the 159th District Court again disqualified himself. The judge of the 88th District Court ordered the clerk of the 159th to issue notice compelling appearance of the husband before him in Hardin County and the husband was found in contempt. Art. V, Sec. 7 of the Texas Constitution requires that a district court conduct proceedings in the county in which the case is pending, unless otherwise provided by law. The judge of the 88th District Court was not assigned to the case as provided for in Art. 1919, Sec. 2, Vernon's Civil Statutes, and he did not exchange benches and sit in Angelina County. Only the 159th District Court had continuing jurisdiction over the minor children involved in the contempt proceedings. The constitution requires the proceeding to be held at the county seat of Angelina County and there was no law authorizing it to be held elsewhere. The contempt order was functus officio and void. Ex Parte Lowery, 518 S.W.2d 897 (Tex. Civ. App. Beaumont 1975)

Under the Texas Constitution Art. V, Sec. 19, a justice of the peace court has jurisdiction to try a criminal case which arises in another precinct. Art. 4.12, Code of Criminal Procedure provides generally for trial in the precinct where the offense was committed, but this is merely a venue requirement and does not limit the jurisdiction of the justice court. Art. 4.12 designates the place where the case may be tried and does not limit the power of a justice court to try a particular case. Contrary to attorney general's opinion C-602, Art. 4.12 is therefore constitutionally valid. The determination of proper venue involves judicial discretion rather than being a ministerial act and a writ of mandamus is therefore not the proper remedy with which to compel a transfer. Bradley v. Swearingen, 525 S.W.2d 280 (Tex. Civ. App. Eastland 1975)

SERVICE

Service by publication of a non-resident is sufficient to confer jurisdiction on a district court to enter a judgment of divorce and to award custody of a child. Service by publication, however, did not confer jurisdiction of non-resident husband to support a money judgment against him for child support. Constructive service on a non-resident, such as service by publication, will not confer jurisdiction on a court to enter a personal judgment against a party, as opposed to a judgment in rem. The non-resident cannot later be held in contempt for failure to make payments which were ordered by a court who had no personal jurisdiction over him. Ex Parte Limoges, 526 S.W.2d 707 (Tex. Civ. App. Austin 1975)

There is no procedure in Texas for a default judgment for plaintiff following service by publication. The trial court is under a duty to appoint an attorney to defend the case and to approve and sign a statement of the evidence. Failure of the judge to do the above is reversible error on a direct appeal. McCarthy v. Jesperson, 527 S.W.2d 825 (Tex. Civ. App. El Paso 1975)

Because she had been duly certified by the trial court as an indigent, plaintiff should be allowed to initiate her divorce action without payment of court costs. Such costs include a fee for service of citation by publication. The sheriff is to comply with provisions of Rules 116, et. seq., by having citation in this case duly served by publishing the same in a newspaper published in the county, providing costs therefor, and to return such citation following the service, in the manner provided by law. Cook v. Jones, 521 S.W.2d 335 (Tex. Civ. App. Dallas 1975, writ ref'd n.r.e.)

RECORD ON APPEAL

As an incident to his right to review of evidentiary points of error, an appellant is ordinarily entitled to a record showing the evidence upon which the appealed from judgment is based. While a civil litigant is entitled to have the official court reporter, if available, record the testimony of witnesses in question-and-answer form, that right can be waived, if an alternative statement of facts (such as a narrative) is supplied. A defendant's conscious disregard of the trial setting and failure to be present at the time of trial amounted to a waiver of his right to have a court reporter to record the evidence and a consequent waiver of his right to a question-and-answer statement of facts. Brown v. Brown, 520 S.W.2d 571 (Tex. Civ. App. Houston 1975)

A default judgment in an action for breach of contract would be reversed and case remanded, where the record showed that the judgment debtor had been denied a statement of facts through no fault or want of diligence on his part. Where there is no court reporter's transcription of the testimony available, there is no need to comply with Rule 377 of the Rules of Civil Procedure. Therefore, failure to comply with Rule 377 does not affect the right to reversal where the statement of facts cannot be obtained because testimony was not transcribed by the court reporter. Mitchell, d/b/a National Whirlpool Bath Corp. v. Hunsaker Mfg., Inc., 520 S.W.2d 796 (Tex. Civ. App. Waco 1975)

A party is entitled to a complete statement of facts in question and answer form, and if through no fault of his own (such as when the court reporter loses the testimony of certain witnesses) he is unable to procure such a statement of facts, his right to have the cause reviewed on appeal can be preserved to him in no other way than a reversal and retrial of the case. A narrative form prepared by the court would amount to no more than a translation by an intermediary and such a translation would be inherently permeated by the personal interpretation of the translation. Regardless of his honesty and integrity, the trial judge is subject to all weaknesses of human nature and frailities of the human mind in reproducing from memory the testimony introduced in a trial. Goodin, d/b/a Troy Goodin Used Cars v. Geller, 521 S.W.2d 158 (Tex. Civ. App. Waco 1975, writ ref'd n.r.e.)

The absence of a court reporter in a civil case is not a fundamental error, but must be objected to at trial level if error is to be preserved for review on appeal. However, proceedings involving constructive contempt are criminal in nature and compliance with Art. 2324, Vernon's Civil Statutes (requiring attendance of a court reporter at all sessions of court) is mandatory and failure to comply is fundamental error. Ducoff v. Ducoff, 523 S.W.2d 264 (Tex. Civ. App. Houston (14th District) 1975)

Where appellant does not show good cause for failure to timely file the record in the court of civil appeals, the waiver or stipulation of opposing counsel to extend the 60-day period for filing the record, standing alone, is not sufficient reason for granting an extension of time to file the record as required by Rule 386, Rules of Civil Procedure. Daniels, d/b/a Pronto Drive-In Grocery v. Texas Alcoholic Beverage Commission, 528 S.W.2d 119 (Tex. Civ. App. Corpus Christi 1975)

GUILTY PLEAS

Where there is no showing that a defendant was prejudiced or injured by failure of the trial court to fully comply with Art. 26.13, Code of Criminal Procedure, in taking a guilty plea, and where no objection is made to such failure at the time the plea is accepted or by motion for new trial, that failure to comply will not constitute reversible error on appeal. All cases in conflict with the holding (such as Toombs v. State, 514 S.W.2d 259, Wade v. State, 511 S.W.2d 7; and other case cited in opinion) are overruled. Guster v. State, 522 S.W.2d 494 (Tex. Crim. App. 1975)

Failure of the trial court to comply with the exact wording of Art. 26.13, Code of Criminal Procedure, in admonishing a defendant on entry of a plea of guilty is not a basis for reversible error in absence of evidence that defendant was misled to his prejudice thereby.

Where the trial court improperly advised defendant that the possible punishment range was lower than it actually was, but assessed punishment below either the maximum possible or the maximum mentioned by the trial court, the error of the trial court was harmless. Tellez v. State, 522 S.W.2d 500 (Tex. Crim. App. 1975)

The trial court, in accepting a guilty plea, can accept a written statement from the defendant saying that he was uninfluenced by fear, persuasion, or delusive hope of pardon as evidence that it plainly appeared to the trial judge that defendant was uninfluenced by such factors. Toombs v. State, 514 S.W.2d 259, is overruled. Williams v. State, 522 S.W.2d 483 (Tex. Crim. App. 1975)

Though the admonishment given at the time he entered his pleas of guilty to a charge may not have been in full compliance with statutory requirements, where relief by way of collateral attack upon the plea was no longer available, and he made no objection to the admonishment given, either at the time the plea was taken or by motion for new trial, there was no reason for the Court of Criminal Appeals to consider the voluntariness issue on its own motion, absent a showing of prejudice or injury to him. Williams v. State, 522 S.W.2d 488 (Tex. Crim. App. 1975)

A total failure to explain or even mention the range of punishment to defendant at the time of his guilty plea requires reversal even though defendant is not misled to his prejudice and did not object. Walker v. State, 524 S.W.2d 712 (Tex. Crim. App. 1975)

A trial judge who accepted a plea of guilty from a defendant did not enter into plea discussions by his offer to write a letter recommending early parole of defendant, in that such a letter was in no way conditioned on defendant's plea of guilty.

The proper practice, however, is for a trial judge to carefully avoid participation or appearance of participation in plea discussions or negotiations until such time as agreement has been reached. It is only after the trial judge has passed on the evidence and the plea of defendant that he can allow himself to express a personal offer of assistance to defendant. Ex Parte Shuflin, 528 S.W.2d 610 (Tex. Crim. App. 1975)

MISCELLANEOUS (CRIMINAL)

The trial of a criminal case involving a potential jail sentence before a non-attorney judge does not violate the due process clause of the United States Constitution. Although an accused is entitled to counsel to defend him in our adversary system, the function of the court is not to defend or prosecute him but to decide fairly and impartially. The fact that the accused needs a lawyer to defend him does not mean that he needs to be tried before a lawyer judge.

There is also no constitutional or statutory requirements in Texas that a county judge be an attorney. The only qualification concerning legal knowledge or training is that a county judge be "well informed in the law of the State," Texas Constitution, Art. 5, Sec. 15, Vernon's Civil Statutes, and it has been held that it does not mean that county judges need be lawyers. However, the Texas Constitution does require that judges in courts higher than county courts be attorneys. Ex Parte Ross, 522 S.W.2d 214 (Tex. Crim. App. 1975)

It is not improper for a different judge than one who presided at the guilt-innocence stage of the trial to sit at the punishment hearing. This is true, absent an abuse of discretion, even if an objection is made. Hogan v. State, 529 S.W.2d 515 (Tex. Crim. App. 1975)

A two and one-half month delay between the commission of the alleged offense and defendant's arrest on the charge does not deprive him of his sixth amendment right to a speedy trial. The sixth amendment right to a speedy trial does not attach until the putative defendant becomes the accused. While a lengthy pre-arrest delay could amount to a denial of due process in some circumstances, it does not outweigh all other considerations, such as the need to protect the anonymity of an undercover agent. Hernandez v. State, 530 S.W.2d 563 (Tex. Crim. App. 1975)

Denial of defendant's request to have reshuffled the names of a panel of jurors assigned to the case is reversible error. The right to have the jury panel which is assigned to a case redrawn is clearly provided for in Art. 35.11, Code of Criminal Procedure. Defendant does not have to show that he suffered injury by failure of the court to follow the statutory method. Woerner v. State, 523 S.W.2d 717 (Tex. Crim. App. 1975)

Even though a jury panel has been seated and the lists prepared, a defendant is entitled to have his motion to shuffle the panel and draw names granted as long as the motion is made before voir dire begins. Art. 35.11, Code of Criminal Procedure. To obtain a reversal, defendant does not have to show that he was forced to take an objectionable juror. Alexander v. State, 523 S.W.2d 720 (Tex. Crim. App. 1975)

Under the provision of Art. 40.09, Sec. 4, Code of Criminal Procedure, the judge of a constitutional county court was required to appoint, when requested to do so, a court reporter to report all trial proceedings in a criminal case which was appealable by law to the Court of Criminal Appeals. To the extent that Herbort v. State, 422 S.W.2d 456 (Tex. Crim. App. 1968), is in conflict, it is overruled.

Upon a request for a court reporter to take trial proceedings, Art. 40.09, Sec. 4 becomes mandatory and there should be no difference in the test applied merely because the request is to take the voir dire examination rather than the trial on the merits. The same portion of a statute should not be divided and given different interpretations. Cartwright v. State, 527 S.W.2d 535 (Tex. Crim. App. 1975)

Art. 15.17, Code of Criminal Procedure, requires that an arrested person shall without unnecessary delay be taken before some magistrate of the county in which the arrest takes place. This duty is to be performed by the person making the arrest, or he shall have it done. In Texas, a failure of the arresting officer in this regard may give rise to an action for false imprisonment. Perry v. Jones, etal. 506 F2d 778 (5 Cir. 1975)

MISCELLANEOUS (CIVIL)

An official court reporter has the duty to record testimony in all matters before the court in which testimony is heard, and the trial court has the responsibilities to see that this duty is performed, regardless of whether the parties are willing to dispense with it. Ex Parte Thompson, 520 S.W.2d 955 (Tex. Civ. App. Dallas 1975)

Sec. 5 of the Texas Probate Code, Vernon's Civil Statutes, which provides for appeals from county courts to courts of civil appeals in probate matters, became effective in November 1973. When the constitutional amendment to Art. V, Sec. 8, was adopted, Sec. 28 of the Probate Code insofar as it conflicted with Sec. 5 was repealed by implication. Rules relating to appeals to courts of civil appeals govern appellate steps to be taken and district courts have no jurisdiction over an attempted appeal to their court. Butts v. Ailshie, 521 S.W.2d 155 (Tex. Civ. App. El Paso 1975)

The procedure to be followed in taking an appeal from probate court to a court of civil appeals is not governed by Rules 333 and 336 of the Rules of Civil Procedure which govern appeals from probate courts to district courts, but are governed by Rules 354 and 386 of the Rules of Civil Procedure which are applicable to other civil cases appealed to the court of civil appeals. By enactment of the new Sec. 5 of the Probate Code, Rules 333 and 336 are no longer applicable to such appeals. Drake v. Muse, ____ S.W.2d ____ (Tex. Civ. App. Dallas 1975)

Local district courts can establish reasonable rules to require due diligence of parties seeking relief, for the purpose of avoiding delay and promoting justice. Where the trial court follows these rules, and the plaintiff had notice and a full opportunity to explain the cause for delay, but made no showing of good cause for failure to meet requirements of court rules, the trial court may properly dismiss for want of prosecution. Southern Pacific Transportation Co. v. Stoot, ____ S.W.2d ____ (Tex. 1975)

RECENT ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OPINIONS

Selected Opinions Affecting Court Operations

During 1975

The authorization for the rendition of advisory opinions by the Attorney General is found in Section 22 of Article IV of the Texas Constitution and has been more specifically defined in Article 4399, V.A.T.S. This is a quasi-judicial function, Glimpse v. Bexar County, 160 S.W. 2d 996 (Tex. Civ. App. San Antonio 1942, writ ref'd), and while the opinions do not have the force of law, they are entitled to be given considerable weight in determining proper construction of statutes. City of Houston v. Southern Pac. Transp. Co. 504 S.W. 2d 554 (Tex. Civ. App. Houston (14th) 1973, writ ref'd n.r.e.).

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

H-487 January 7, 1975 Jurisdiction over a minor between 14 and 17 years old for a violation of fish and game misdemeanor offenses is in the Juvenile Courts. The procedure for handling these minors can involve taking the minors into custody. Alternatively, a law enforcement agency may adopt guidelines for disposition of cases involving children without referral to the juvenile court, which guidelines must be approved by the juvenile court of the county. If the minor is taken into custody, the officer, without unnecessary delay, shall take the action specified in Article 52.02 of the Family Code.

H-500 January 20, 1975 Complaints for Class A and Class B misdemeanors may be made before a justice of the peace. The justice may docket such complaints and issue warrants of arrest thereon. After arrest, the arrested persons may be admitted to bail by the justice of the peace. Such complaints, bail bonds and other companion papers may be transferred to the county court, and the county attorney may then file an information based on the complaint.

H-671 August 21, 1975 A justice of the peace may hold court for any other justice whose precinct is in the same county. He may hold court in his own precinct or in the precinct of the second justice. Article 2393a, Vernon's Civil Statutes.

JUDGES, RETIREMENT

H-526 February 13, 1975 A retired judge who does not accept assignment under Section 7(a) of Article 6228b is not an "elected officer" under Article 6252-9b and is not required to file financial reports.

A retired judge who accepts assignment under Section 7(a) of Article 6228b to one of the courts covered by Section 2(2) of Article 6252-9b, is an "elected officer" and must comply with that statute's financial disclosure requirements.

H-537 February 21, 1975 Article 6228b, Section 2 (a), Vernon's Civil Statutes provides for an addition of ten percent of a judge's salary to his retirement benefits for judges who:

(1) are eligible for retirement under any provisions of this Act as amended who retire at or before age seventy (70);

(2) are not eligible by length of service to retirement benefits at age 70 but who retire immediately upon becoming eligible; and

(3) are in office on September 1, 1967, who then are or during their current term of office will be seventy (70) or more years of age and who retire at or before the end of their current term of office; . . .

If the judge does not fit one of the three above categories, he is not eligible for the additional ten percent.

H-667 August 18, 1975 Beginning September 1, 1975 judges must contribute 6% of their annual compensation paid by the State to the Judicial Retirement System. Section 5 of Article 6228b, Vernon's Civil Statutes.

JUSTICES OF THE PEACE, OFFICE AND OPERATION

H-538 A corporation may appear in a small claims court through an employee, whether or not he is an attorney.

LA-106 May 23, 1975 Under Article 5, Section 1 of the Texas Constitution, a justice of the peace is an officer of the judicial branch of government, while a public school teacher, according to Attorney General's opinion A-6 (1973), is employed in the executive branch. Since Article 2, Section 1 of the Texas Constitution requires a separation of powers between the executive and judicial branches, a school teacher may not also hold the office of justice of the peace.

H-564 March 25, 1975 The commissioners court may create an entirely new justice of the peace precinct from an existing precinct and may fill by appointment the vacancy in the office created, provided that the incumbent's term of office is not affected.

H-572 April 1, 1975 A county may not lower the salary of a justice of the peace below its level as of the date upon which Article 3912K became applicable to justices of the peace.

MISCELLANEOUS

H-499 January 20, 1975 The commissioners court of a county is under a duty to budget and order paid the amount of any reasonable attorney's fee properly set by a criminal court judge pursuant to Article 26.05, Texas Code of Criminal Procedure, for the representation of indigent defendants. The trial judge's order can be overturned only on a showing that it was so arbitrary, unreasonable and capricious as to amount to an abuse of discretion. This office cannot resolve disputed fact issues of this type which involve the question of the reasonableness of the fees set.

H-508 January 28, 1975 Correspondence by a lawyer to a grand jury on behalf of his client, where the communication is addressed to the panel as a whole and a copy is given to the prosecuting attorney, and where there is no "threat" against the grand jury contained in the correspondence, is not conduct prohibited by Articles 36.03(a)(1) or 36.04(a), nor by any other Section of Chapter 36, Texas Penal Code.

H-546 March 5, 1975 The voter registration lists of each county are the "sole and mandatory source" of the jury wheel under Article 2094, Vernon's Civil Statutes. Names of registered voters who are not yet 18 years of age should be placed in the jury wheel, but should be excused if they are called before they reach 18.

H-569 March 31, 1975 The judge of a county court is required by Article 40.09, Texas Code of Criminal Procedure, in all cases appealable by law to the Court of Criminal Appeals, to appoint a court reporter to transcribe all trial proceedings when requested to do so by either party to a criminal case.

H-573 April 2, 1975 Under Article 40.09, Section 5, Code of Criminal Procedure, the fee to be charged by a court reporter for preparing a transcript for an indigent defendant is to be set by the trial judge. A separate statement certifying the validity of the amount charged is not necessary if the court reporter's bill sufficiently identifies the reason for the charge and is signed by the judge. In signing said bill, the judge need not designate his official capacity, although such a practice would be desirable.

H-603 May 12, 1975 Where not provided for in the sentence, a sheriff may not permit a defendant to serve his time during off-work hours and on weekends. The trial court may, however, modify the sentence to provide for service on off-work hours and on weekends during term time, but not after the term has expired.

H-609 Rule 171, Texas Rules of Civil Procedure, authorizes the appointment of a master in chancery only in exceptional cases and for good cause. Court congestion is not sufficient in itself to warrant such appointment.

PROFILES OF TRIAL JUDGES

(Information As Of March 11, 1976)

Early in 1975, the Texas Judicial Council sent to each of the trial judges in the State (except municipal judges in cities of less than 5,000 population) a questionnaire requesting certain basic information shown below. The information was updated as new judges assumed office.

The responses indicate that the median age of the judges was late forties or early fifties, except justices of the peace, whose median age was 61. District judges had been on that bench an average of 7 years and 2 months. At other levels, the average length of service was about 6 years. Two-thirds of the district and county court at law judges first assumed the office by appointment rather than election.

All of the district, domestic relations, juvenile and county court at law judges are licensed to practice law. Thirty per cent of the county judges, 7 per cent of the justices of the peace and 66 per cent of the municipal judges are lawyers.

Half or more of the judges above the county court level had had experience as a prosecutor. Thirty-four per cent of the district judges had presided over a lower court.

JUDICIAL QUALIFICATIONS COMMISSION

The State Judicial Qualifications Commission was created by Constitutional Amendment adopted by the electorate November 2, 1965, and covered Justices and Judges of the District, Criminal District, and Appellate Courts. An Amendment to the Constitution, adopted in the General Election of 1970, increased the jurisdiction of the Commission to include all Justices and Judges of the state and added the sanction of censure, after a hearing, or private reprimand.

The Constitution empowers the Commission to consider complaints against any Justice or Judge concerning acts or conduct, which are clearly inconsistent with the proper performance of his duties or which cast public discredit upon the judiciary or administration of justice. The Commission may, if it deems necessary, initiate removal proceedings or take actions for the involuntary retirement of Justices or Judges who are disabled to the extent that they are unable to perform their duties or when their disability is likely to become permanent in nature.

Members of the Commission consist of two Appellate Justices, two District Judges, two attorneys and three lay members. The Judicial members are appointed by the Supreme Court of Texas, the attorneys by the State Bar of Texas, and the lay members by the Governor of Texas, all with the advice and consent of the Senate. No two members may serve from the same Supreme Judicial District.

The Commission operates under RULES FOR THE REMOVAL OR RETIREMENT OF JUDGES, Adopted and Promulgated by the SUPREME COURT OF TEXAS, and provides staff, confidentiality, and a hearing agency to receive, screen, and investigate complaints. The Commission is authorized to hold adversary hearings which are confidential. This provides a calm atmosphere for fact-finding and the procedural protections necessary to insure the respondent Justice or Judge a fair hearing. As an alternative to the recommendation for removal or retirement, the Commission may choose the less harsh remedy of censure.

It is the policy of the Commission to work with members of the judiciary to improve their image and service to the people of Texas, and a recommendation of removal is resorted to only as a last measure when the problem cannot be resolved in a more constructive way.

In addition to the duties set forth in the Constitution, the Judicial Qualifications Commission serves as a repository for the financial records required by Canon 6, Section C, of the Code of Judicial Conduct which became effective Sept. 1, 1974.

Total	38	33	1	1	73

During 1975 the Commission held two hearings. Final disposition of these two cases was pending at the close of business Dec. 31, 1975.

Although 38 cases were ultimately dismissed, this does not mean that they were without merit. Action was taken at the Commission level to remedy all matters where there appeared to be a breach of judicial ethics on the part of the judge.

Many complainants are not too familiar with the legal procedure or how the courts operate, the jurisdiction of the judge, their right of appeal, and other aspects of the judicial system. They know only that they are unhappy with the system and want someone to hear their complaint. Usually, by letting them have all the time they need, and then explaining to them why the judge acted or ruled as he did, they are mollified somewhat. The tremendous caseload of the courts and the demand on the time of a judge does not permit him to give to these people the time they feel that they deserve. To the individual, his case is the only one, to the judge it is one among hundreds of a similar nature.

By serving as an intermediary, taking remedial action when necessary, the Commission feels that it negates much of the animosity toward the judicial system, and provides the lay person a better understanding of the judiciary.

CRIMINAL APPELLATE STUDY

(1971, 1972, 1973, 1974)

This report was prepared from individual case data on criminal cases appealed to and filed in the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals in the years 1971, 1972, 1973, and 1974. The analysis consists of four major subject areas viewed on a state and county level.

(1) Case type—an analysis of the basic kinds of appeals;
(2) Regular appeals—an analysis of the most common type of criminal offenses and the disposition of same;
(3) Time studies—an analysis of the time required to complete each procedural stage of the appellate process;
(4) Bonds—a study of the size of bond set for the particular offenses included in this study.

Table 1 indicates the number of appeals filed with the Court of Criminal Appeals from 1920 to 1975.

CASES FILED 1920-1975
Court of Criminal Appeals

 New Code of Criminal Procedure became effective January 1, 1966. Article 40.09 of the new code provides for the filing of appellate briefs with the trial court and empowers the trial judge to grant extensions on the filings of these briefs.*

THE CASELOAD OF THE COURT

Case Type

Of those cases docketed for consideration by the Court of Criminal Appeals of Texas, the vast majority in any given year will be appeals from convictions of guilt at the trial level. These cases are referred to as regular appeals to distinguish them from docketed habeas corpus appeals, revocation of probation appeals, an appeal made when a bond is forfeited, extradition cases and, finally, appeals of mandamus orders. The dominance of regular appeals in the court's filings did not vary significantly from 1971 through 1974.

There is a steady increase in the number of regular appeals filed from 1971 to 1974. This was also true for revocation appeals, the second most common docketed case type, until a slight dip in the rise occurred in 1974. In other categories the change in caseload has fluctuated. This is perhaps attributable to the small number of such cases and their respective insignificance on the court's overall workload.

Table 2 indicates the percentage of cases filed in each category for the year in question. The similarity which is apparent in the percentage of case types in the four years suggests no significant changes and certainly no trends which would indicate variance in the composition of the caseload of the Court of Criminal Appeals. This fact does, however, add significance to the changes discussed in other areas of this analysis as those changes cannot be attributed to differences in caseload.

It should be emphasized that these figures only relate to cases actually placed on the docket for a written opinion. Several hundred habeas corpus cases are disposed of each year without a hearing or written opinion. In 1971, there were 517 such cases; 912 in 1972; 720 in 1973; and 763 in 1974.

Regular Appeals

Table 3 separates the regular appeals to the Court of Criminal Appeals into categories according to the decision reached in the state court of final jurisdiction in criminal cases. The first two categories represent an affirmance of the trial court's or trial jury's finding of guilt. The third category (dismissal) usually indicates that an appeal has not been perfected to the court leaving it without jurisdiction to decide the case. It may be possible to cure the defect and appeal the case at a later time. The fourth and fifth categories (reversed and remanded, reversed and dismissed) represent a finding contrary to the trial court's. The sixth category may also indicate jurisdictional difficulties as the defendant may be incompetent, deceased, etc.

The final category listed indicates the number of per curium opinions. These are opinions signed by the court as opposed to a judge or commissioner. The term as applied by the Court of Criminal Appeals does not mean that the case did not require lengthy deliberation and an extensive written opinion. These cases are so labeled because significant new law was not made.

The disposition of regular appeals, like case type, did not change appreciably in the four years. Over 80% of these cases were affirmed in each year. Close to 10% of regular appeals on the average are reversed. However, there appears to be a slight decrease in reversals over the years from 1971 to 1974. The most striking change in disposition has occurred in the area of per curium opinions. Per curiums increased from approximately one-third of the cases in 1972, to one-half of the cases in 1973, to over two-thirds of the cases in 1974.

Offense-Regular Appeals

Table 4 indicates the type of charges brought in cases appealed to the Court of Criminal Appeals. Twelve categories were chosen which represent about 90% of all regular appeal offenses. Drug cases were the most prevalent in each year except 1974 when robbery rose from second to first place. There was some slight variation in ranking from third to twelfth position, but overall the variance was slight for the four years.

Of particular interest here is the percentage of reversals by offense and the changes apparent from 1971 to 1974. Table 6 ranks offenses for 1971, 1972, 1973, and 1974 in order by those most frequently reversed and remanded.

Only those offenses with a significant number of cases on appeal were considered and when the percentages were equal they were ranked by most filings.

There is no pattern for any of the offenses. Drug cases were reversed most often in the three year period from 1971 to 1973 and ranked at the top (or near) in each of those years by percentage of reversals, but in 1974 that category dropped drastically in the rankings.

THE APPELLATE TIMETABLE

Perhaps the most common area of concern and criticism in any judicial process involves the length of time for a case to reach final disposition. Table 7 was taken from the counties in 1971, 1972, 1973, and 1974 which had five or more regular appeals to the Court of Criminal Appeals.

These counties are listed below and ranked according to the number of filings of each year.

The regular appeals in these counties were divided into time categories and an average length of time (in days) calculated for each. Table 8 reflects the time categories for regular appeals filed in the Court of Criminal Appeals in 1971, 1972, 1973, and 1974.

This chart takes a criminal case from indictment or information to disposition in the Court of Criminal Appeals. In 1971 this process took an average of almost two years. In 1972 the average time required jumped to almost two and one-half years. In 1973 the total time required was reduced to less than two years. The total time required in a criminal case was further reduced in 1974. This fact is perhaps more impressive. considering the increase in caseload for the Court of Criminal Appeals in 1973 and again in 1974.

Looking at the individual time categories, it is evident that the first, third and ninth stages represent two-thirds of the total time required. Bringing a case to trial after indictment or information, preparing a statement of facts, and disposition in the appellate criminal court would be expected to require significantly more time than other procedural steps.

The most improvement made over the four year period has been in the time required for a decision by the Court of Criminal Appeals. This fact is apparently directly related to the overall increase in efficiency in 1973 and 1974.

Extensions

A separate analysis was prepared concerning the effect of extensions requested and granted to prepare statements of fact and appellate briefs. Table 9 shows the length of such extensions and their effect on the appellate timetable.

For each year extensions accounted for only 6% or less of the total time in processing a case. These figures are reflected in tne time chart which indicates the relatively insignificant effect of brief filing on the overall process. To the extent that the preparation of a statement of facts delays the process, apparently extensions do not appreciably delay that process.

The most significant contribution of extensions came in 1973 and 1974 for defendants' briefs. Here extensions accounted for almost one-half of the total time used in that stage. As the total time for filing of defendant's brief decreased in 1973 and 1974, this comment on extensions may be deceptive. Trial judges may have been stricter in enforcing compliance while granting more extension time.

This general comment concerning the effect of extensions does not change the fact that there are consistent delays in preparing statements of fact and briefs. Art. 40.09 of the Code of Criminal Procedure allows 90 days from notice of appeal to notice of completion of the statement of facts. In each year studied, 120 days and more were used. Thirty days are allowed for briefs and in each year defendant' brief took 45 days or more.

BOND INFORMATION

In those transcripts of regular appeals where bond information was included, that data was collected by amount and offense. It must be emphasized that there is no accurate means by which to calculate the significance of the data as a sample of all bonds set in criminal cases. With this caveat, Table 10 was prepared to depict the range of bonds for offenses.

The data seems to follow the expected pattern of higher bonds for more serious crimes. It is interesting to note, however, that bonds in drug cases are distributed in much the same way as the more serious crimes of violence.

For the four years, sexual assault cases carried the most consistently high bond settings and DWI cases the lowest.

Some overall inflation in bond amounts occurred from 1971 to 1972 but this trend did not continue into 1973 or 1974.

CAPITAL MURDER STUDY

The United States Supreme Court, in the case of Furman v. Georgia, 408 U.S.238(1972), and its companion Texas case, Branch v. Texas, 447 S.W.2d 932 (Tex. Crim. App. 1969) held Article 1189 of Vernon's Texas Penal Code (1961) unconstitutional as being cruel and unusual punishment in violation of the eighth and fourteenth amendments of the United States Constitution. The Texas statutes authorized the imposition of the death penalty, upon conviction of murder, rape or robbery by firearms, Arts. 1189, 1257, 1408 V.T.P.C.(1) Between February, 1924 and July 30, 1964, the date of the last execution in Texas, 360 convicted persons were executed. Although no person has been executed in this state since July 30, 1964, the Texas capital punishment statutes continued to place convicted felons on death row until 1972.

Prior to the Furman case in 1972, the United States Supreme Court held in McCautha v. California, 402 U.S.183(1971) that California and Ohio procedures, allowing juries the absolute discretion to give life or death sentences, did not violate the due process requirement of the fifth and fourteenth amendments. The argument that capital punishment violated the eighth amendment's prohibition against cruel and unusual punishment, however was neither presented in their brief or arguments nor was it addressed in the court's decision.

In the Furman case, the court appears to suggest that it was the "uncontrolled discretion" placed in the sentencing authority by the statutes before the court which was the major reason for striking down the statutes. While two of the opinions written in this case appear to indicate that the death penalty itself is unconstitutional per se, as being violative of the eighth and fourteenth amendments, most analysts interpret Furman as requiring only that the death penalty be evenhandedly and non-arbitrarily applied and if the sentencing authority (either judge or jury) is to have any discretion over the imposition of the death penalty, standards must exist to govern the ultimate decision. Thus, the majority of the opinions in this case seem to suggest that a statute carefully drafted to prevent the past "arbitrariness" of the sentencing authority resulting in the death penalty being so ". . . wantonly and freakishly imposed . . ." could possibly pass constitutional muster.

As of April 29, 1975, 31 state legislatures, as well as Congress, had enacted new capital punishment statutes designed to establish valid procedures under Furman v. Georgia. In its response to Furman, the Texas legislature amended the previous capital murder statutes and reinstated the death penalty in 1973 (Texas Penal Code Art. 1257, as amended, Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 1122, Ch. 426, Art. 1, Sec. 1, eff. June 14, 1975). Texas Penal Code Art. 1257 was shortly thereafter superceded by a substantially similar provision in the state's new penal code; Texas Penal Code Section 19.03 (Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., Ch. 399, eff. Jan. 1, 1974).(2) Under the provisions of these new statutes, only a murder committed under certain aggravating circumstances listed in Sec. 19.03 is punishable by death.

In addition to finding a defendant guilty of murder under one of the aggravating circumstances, the jury must also unanimously answer in the affirmative all three questions which are considered in the separate punishment phase of the trial before the death penalty

---

(1)The punishment for murder shall be death or confinement in the penitentiary for life or for any term of years not less than two. Art. 1257, Vernon's Texas Penal Code.

A person guilty of rape shall be punished by death or by confinement in the penitentiary for life or any term of years not less than five. Art. 1189, Vernon's Texas Penal Code.

When a firearm or other deadly weapon is used or exhibited in the commission of the offense (robbery), the punishment shall be death or confinement in the penitentiary for any term not less than five years. Art. 1408, Vernon's Texas Penal Code.

(2)A person commits an offense if he commits murder as defined under Section 19.02(a) (1) of this code and:

(1) the person murders a peace officer or fireman who is acting in the lawful discharge of an official duty and who the person knows is a peace officer or fireman;

(2) the person intentionally commits the murder in the course of committing or attempting to commit kidnapping, burglary, robbery, aggravated rape, or arson;

(3) the person commits the murder for

can be imposed.[3] If the jury finds the defendant guilty of capital murder and unanimously answers "yes" to the three questions, the dealth penalty is mandatory. If one of the questions is answered "no" by at least 10 jurors, then a sentence of life imprisonment is mandatory.

The Texas Court of Criminal Appeals upheld the constitutionality of the new capital punishment statutes in Jurek v. State, 522 S.W.2d 934 (1975). The court held that the new statute complied with the requirements of Furman v. Georgia and, therefore, did not violate the eighth amendment's prohibition against cruel and unusual punishment, holding that the limitation of the death penalty to certain aggravating circumstances insured that capital sentences would be imposed uniformly and only for the most serious crimes. The special sentencing procedure of Art. 37.071, Texas Code of Criminal Procedure, was viewed as providing the necessary standards of limiting and guiding the jury's discretion and thus preventing the arbitrary and standardless imposition of the death penalty which Furman condemned.

remuneration or the promise of remuneration or employs another to commit the murder for remuneration or the promise of remuneration;

(4) the person commits the murder while escaping or attempting to escape from a penal institution; or

(5) the person, while incarcerated in a penal institution murders another who is employed in the operation of the penal institution.

An offense under this section is a capital felony.

If the jury does not find beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant is guilty of an offense under this section, he may be convicted of murder or of any other lesser included offense.

[3]Upon a finding that the defendant is guilty of a capital offense, the court shall conduct a separate sentencing proceeding to determine whether the defendant shall be sentenced to death or life imprisonment. The proceeding shall be conducted in the trial court before the trial jury as soon as practicable. In the proceeding, evidence may be presented as to any matter that the court deems relevant to sentence. This subsection shall not be construed to authorize the introduction of any evidence secured in violation of the Constitution of the United States or of the State of Texas. The state and the defendant or his counsel shall be permitted to present argument for or against sentence of death.

On conclusion of the presentation of the evidence, the court shall submit the following issues to the jury;

(1) Whether the conduct of the defendant that caused the death of the deceased was committed deliberately and with the reasonable expectation that the death of the deceased or another would result;

(2) Whether there is a probability that the defendant would commit criminal acts of violence that would constitute a continuing threat to society; and

(3) If raised by the evidence, whether the conduct of the defendant in killing the deceased was unreasonable in response to the provocation, if any, by the deceased.

The state must prove each issue submitted beyond a reasonable doubt and the jury shall return a special verdict of "yes" or "no" on each issue submitted.

The court shall charge the jury that:

(1) it may not answer any issue "yes" unless it agrees unanimously; and

(2) it may not answer any issue "no" unless 10 or more jurors agree.

If the jury returns an affirmative finding on each issue submitted under this article, the court shall sentence the defendant to death. If the jury returns a negative finding on any issue submitted under this article, the court shall sentence the defendant to confinement in the Texas Department of Corrections for life.

The judgment of conviction and sentence of death shall be subject to automatic review by the Court of Criminal Appeals within 60 days after certification by the sentencing court of the entire record unless time is extended an additional period not to exceed 30 days by the Court of Criminal Appeals for good cause shown. Such review by the Court of Criminal Appeals shall have priority over all other cases, and shall be heard in accordance with rules promulgated by the Court of Criminal Appeals.

The Texas Judicial Council has undertaken a study of the new capital punishment statutes and the results of that study are published herein. Questionnaires were directed, on February 4, 1976, to each prosecutor in the state who had jurisdiction of felony cases. The prosecutors were requested to indicate if any capital murder cases had gone to trial (a witness testified before a jury) in their respective jurisdictions between June 14, 1973 (the effective date of the current capital murder statute) and the date of the study. The prosecutors were further requested to complete a report on each case which had gone to trial between those dates. Cases in which an indictment for capital murder may have been disposed of by some means other than a jury trial are not included in this study, e.g.—defendant pleaded guilty to the court.

Responses were received from 69 Constitutional District Attorneys, 27 Criminal District Attorneys, and 28 County Attorneys with jurisdiction of felony cases. This accounts for all of the 254 counties in the state. The responses indicate that 74 capital murder cases went to trial in 31 counties and that the remaining 223 counties had no capital murder trials.

A review of the appellate status of these cases indicates that 13 of them have reached the Court of Criminal Appeals for review. Four of the cases reaching the court had been disposed of as of February 20, 1976 (2 affirmed and 2 reversed and remanded), while 9 were pending on the docket.

RESULTS OF THE STUDY

CONVICTIONS

The death penalty was assessed in 42 cases and life imprisonment in 18 cases for a total of 60 cases in which defendants were convicted of capital murder. Of the remainder, 6 cases resulted in convictions of a lesser included offense, 5 resulted in mistrials because of hung jurys, and 3 verdicts of not guilty were returned.

SENTENCES

In the 60 cases which resulted in a conviction of capital murder, special issues inquiring as to whether or not (1) the defendant's conduct had been deliberate and with the expectation of death and (2) there was a probability that the defendant would commit violent acts in the future were submitted. Both issues (1) and (2) were answered in the negative in 3 cases and in 12 cases issue (2) only was answered "no." In three cases, the defendant agreed to a life sentence following a conviction of capital murder by a jury. This accounts for the 18 life sentences. A third special issue, whether or not the defendant's action had been unreasonable in response to provocation, was submitted in a total of 27 cases and answered in the affirmative in every case.

OFFENSE CHARGED

The most common offense charged under the capital murder statute was murder during the commission of a robbery. This category accounted for 26 of the 42 death sentences and 15 of the 18 life imprisonment sentences. Cases involving the murder of a peace officer or fireman resulted in 6 death and 2 life sentences. Table A shows the type of dispositions associated with each of the offenses charged.

Of the 52 cases in which capital murder during a robbery was charged, the responses indicate that at least 28 of these involved commercial establishments of which at least 9 were convenience food stores. The deaths of 6 city policemen, 2 state highway patrolmen, 1 deputy sheriff and 1 fireman were involved in the 10 cases in which capital murder of a peace officer or fireman was charged.

REPRESENTATION OF DEFENDANTS

Defendants charged with capital murder were represented by court appointed attorneys in 42 cases and by retained attorneys in 31 cases. The rate for conviction of capital murder of defendants represented by court appointed attorneys was 93% (39 convictions out of 42 cases), while the corresponding rate for those represented by retained counsel was 65% (20 convictions out of 31 cases). Once convicted of capital murder, the defendants represented by court appointed attorneys received the death sentence in 79% of the cases (31 out of 39) while defendants represented by retained counsel received the death sentence in 55% of the cases (11 out of 20). Tables B and C shows the dispositions of cases involving appointed and retained attorneys.

RACE/ETHNIC BACKGROUND OF DEFENDANTS

There were 33 white, 30 black, and 11 Spanish surnamed defendants brought to trial before a jury on the charge of capital murder. There appears to be no significant correlation between a defendant's race/ethnic background and the probability that he will be convicted once he has been charged with capital murder. It also appears that there is no correlation between race/ethnic background and the probability of a defendant receiving the death penalty once he has been convicted of capital murder. Comparisons of race/ethnic background and disposition are presented in Table D.

RACE/ETHNIC BACKGROUND OF VICTIMS

Only 9 of the 74 cases involved non-white victims. The death penalty was assessed in one of the 6 cases involving black victims and in all 3 cases involving victims with Spanish surnames. There is no attempt at further analysis because of the relatively small number of cases involving non-white victims.

RACE/ETHNIC BACKGROUND OF JURORS

In a significant number of cases (15), information regarding the race/ethnic background of the jurors was not available. Based on the available data, of the 16 black defendants sentenced to death, 9 cases had all white juries and 4 cases had blacks on the jury. Of the 7 defendants with Spanish surnames sentenced to death, 2 of the juries included jurors with Spanish surnames while 1 jury was all white. All white juries returned the death sentence in 58% of the cases that they heard (15 out of 26) while non-all white juries returned the death sentence in 55% of the cases (18 out of 33). Table E shows the dispositions by race/ethnic background of the juries.

STATISTICS AND ANALYSES OF COURT ACTIVITY

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT

Perhaps more caution should be used in drawing general conclusions from court statistics than from statistics on other subjects. The included data do not attempt to portray everything courts or judges do, or how much time is spent on court-related activities not represented by these court statistics.

Regarding appellate courts, temporary emergencies such as illness of a judge or unusually burdensome cases may distort the statistical picture. In addition, there is no reliable way to ascertain the time spent by appellate or trial judges in study or research in the composing of their opinions and decisions.

At least two factors are not represented in the district court statistics presented and should be borne in mind when evaluating judicial output:

1. One very complicated case may consume an inordinate amount of time compared to less complicated or lengthy cases.
2. The judges of district courts in most non-metropolitan areas spend more time traveling between different counties comprising a single district than do their metropolitan counterparts, and a metropolitan complex of many judges of identical jurisdiction permits judicial efficiencies not available in non-metropolitan areas.

Particularly the county court judges, justices of the peace, and municipal court judges spend a large amount of time counseling with the people in their communities, and as a result of this counseling, many cases are not filed. In addition, many of these judges have non-judicial responsibilities as a result of their position in the community which are not reflected in these statistics.

SUPREME COURT

The Supreme Court of Texas is composed of the Chief Justice and eight associate justices. It is the highest state court for civil appeals and promulgates the rules of civil procedure for the courts of the State.

Although the number of applications for writs of error increased 18 per cent over 1974, the general level of activity of the Court has remained comparatively steady over the past ten years. In 1975, 104 new "regular causes"—primarily cases in which the court hears oral argument and delivers an opinion—reached the docket, compared to 96 in 1974, and the ten-year average of 98. Applications for writs of error increased from 564 in 1974 to 668 in 1975—8 per cent higher than the ten-year average of 616. New civil mandamus matters increased from 72 to 91, criminal mandamus matters decreased from 112 to 101 and habeas corpus matters decreased from 10 to 9.

In 1975, the Supreme Court disposed of 80 per cent of the regular causes docketed during 1975 or carried over from 1974, compared to 81 per cent in 1974. Eighty-five per cent of the applications for writs of error were disposed of during the year, the same as during 1974.

The Court delivered 103 deciding opinions in 1975 compared to 109 in 1974. A total of 112 opinions was written (including Rule 483 per curiam opinions), an average of 12 per justice.

The Supreme Court disposed of 672 applications for writs of error from decisions of the Courts of Civil Appeals, compared to 586 in 1974—an increase of 15 per cent. Thirteen per cent of these writs were granted. Of the granted writs, the Court of Civil Appeals was reversed in 78 per cent of the cases for an effective reversal rate of the Courts of Civil Appeals of 10 per cent.

Twenty-six regular causes were pending at the end of 1975—one more than at the end of 1974 but 10 cases less than the ten-year average. The number of applications for writs of error remaining on the docket at the end of 1975 was 96—4 less than at the end of 1974 but 6 more than the ten-year average of 90.

[1] "Regular Causes" are reported in a separate category because they are the cases which pass through most, if not all, of the steps of the regular appellate decision-making process. "Regular Causes" are cases in which oral argument of counsel in open court is received (unless waived) and in which the court's decision is usually reported in a written opinion. Most are reviewed in conference by the Supreme Court, before oral argument and decision, upon application for writ of error, with three or more of the justices voting that the decision of the Court of Civil Appeals was erroneous and that the writ therefore should be granted. A similar procedure is followed regarding petitions for original mandamus and habeas corpus, which become "Regular Causes" only after review and vote in conference.

Cases other than "Regular Causes" include such actions as the court's rejection in conference of an application for writ of error or application to file a petition for original mandamus or habeas corpus. This category is obviously larger than that of "Regular Causes".

COURT OF CRIMINAL APPEALS

The Court of Criminal Appeals is the highest state court for criminal appeals and is composed of a presiding judge, four judges and two permanent commissioners. In addition, pursuant to Art. 1811e, V.A.T.S., three special commissioners served the Court at various times during the year. These special commissioners included two retired judges and one justice of a court of civil appeals.

The Court of Criminal Appeals faced a record caseload in 1975. The 1,864 new cases docketed in the Court represent a 21 per cent increase over the 1,546 cases docketed in 1974 and were 20 per cent higher than the five-year average of 1,552.

Undocketed habeas corpus and mandamus cases showed an increase from 812 in 1974 to 839 in 1975, and were 8 per cent higher than the five-year average. The Court handled only 283 motions for rehearing in 1975, compared to 436 in 1974.

Ten per cent of the cases appealed to the Court in 1975 involved sentences of less than two years imprisonment. Fourteen per cent of the cases arose from marijuana, heroin and other drug related offenses.

Six decisions invoking the death penalty were filed for review, compared to 3 in 1974. Life imprisonment had been imposed in 199 cases, compared to 145 the previous year.

In 1975, the Court of Criminal Appeals disposed of 71 per cent of the cases docketed during the year or carried over from 1974, compared to 80 per cent the previous year. Seventy-six per cent were disposed of by per curiam opinions, up from 59 per cent in 1974.

One thousand eight hundred sixty-nine opinions (including dissents and concurrences) were written in 1975, 3 per cent fewer than the 1974 total of 1,933. Thirty-two per cent of these were authored opinions.

The Court of Criminal Appeals affirmed the trial court's decision in 82 per cent of the cases reviewed and dismissed the appeal in an additional 5 per cent. The other 13 per cent were disposed of in various ways.

Six hundred ninety-six docketed cases were pending at the end of 1975—50 per cent higher than a year ago and 6 per cent higher than the five-year average of 655.

Based on the service of five judges and four fulltime commissioners, the caseload per judge in the Court of Criminal Appeals was higher than that of the other appellate courts. The number of cases docketed per judge or commissioner increased to 211 in 1975 from 176 in 1974.

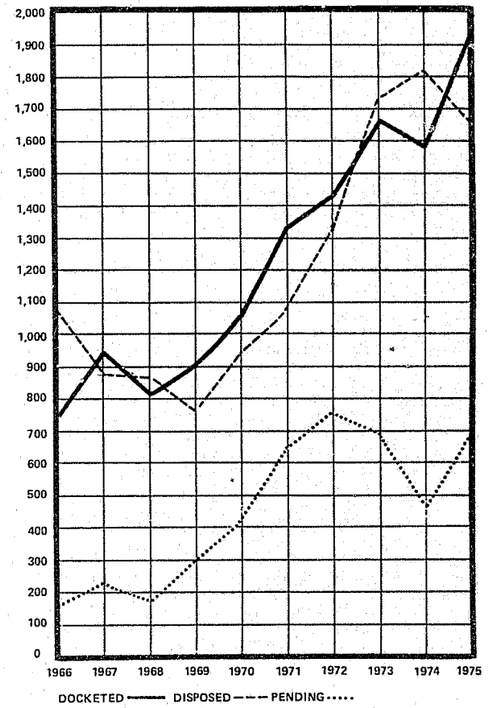
Cases docketed, disposed and pending 1966-1975



The intermediate state appellate courts in Texas do not have criminal jurisdiction. As a result, appeals in criminal cases are directly to the Court of Criminal Appeals from the district and county courts. Due to the absence of an intermediate appellate court system for criminal cases, the Court of Criminal Appeals hears cases which in other states would be heard by one or more intermediate courts. Awarding of criminal jurisdiction to the Courts of Civil Appeals is a frequently suggested solution to easing the workload of the Court of Criminal Appeals.

The Court of Criminal Appeals is also burdened by the provision of Article 44.24 of the Code of Criminal Procedure which requires the Court to deliver a written opinion in each case it decides. This rule resulted in the five judges and four commissioners of the Court writing an average of 208 opinions during 1975. In 1974, the five judges and four commissioners wrote an average of 215 opinions each.

COURTS OF CIVIL APPEALS

The 14 Courts of Civil Appeals exercise intermediate appellate jurisdiction in civil cases. Each court has geographic jurisdiction in a Supreme Judicial District. Each of the courts has three justices, for a total of 42 intermediate appellate justices in the state.

Cases filed in all the Courts of Civil Appeals during 1975 increased 17 per cent over 1974 and were 33 per cent higher than the ten-year average. More new cases were filed in 1975 than in 1974 in all but one court (Eastland). Of the courts with increased filings, the Austin Court experienced the largest precentage increase—51 per cent (58 cases)—and the Fourteenth Court at Houston, the largest increase in actual number of filings—70. The Dallas Court continued to receive more new filings than any of the other courts—301 compared to the average of 126. (Figure 5) The two courts at Houston, each of which have jurisdiction over the same geographic area, received a total of 420 new cases, 27 per cent more than in 1974.

In 1975, the Courts of Civil Appeals together disposed of 66 per cent of the cases filed during the year or carried over from 1974, a decrease of 2 per cent. The 1,608 dispositions were 22 per cent higher than the ten-year average of 1,321, and 16 per cent higher than 1974's 1,383 dispositions. The First and Fourteenth Courts at Houston had the highest number of dispositions, 178 and 183 respectively, compared to the average for the 14 courts of 115. All but the San Antonio Court disposed of more cases in 1975 than in 1974.

In 1975, a total of 1,484 opinions were written by the Courts of Civil Appeals, compared to 1,315 in 1974. The Fourteenth Court at Houston wrote the largest number of opinions, 157, compared to the average per court of 106 (up from 94 in 1974).

The average number of written opinions per justice for all courts of civil appeals was 35, up from 31 in 1974.

The Courts of Civil Appeals reversed, at least in part, the decision of the trial court in 25 per cent of the cases disposed.

At the end of 1975, 847 cases remained on the Courts of Civil Appeals dockets for subsequent disposition, a 26 per cent increase over the previous year. The number of cases pending at the end of 1975 was 38 per cent higher than the ten-year average. Of the 847 cases pending December 31, 1975, 104 had been on the docket six to twelve months and 12 had been pending more than a year.

Eighty-six cases were pending on the docket of the Fourteenth Court at Houston at the close of the year and 85 in the San Antonio Court. The number for the other courts ranged down to 42 at Eastland and El Paso. The average number pending for all courts was 61, up from 48 at the end of 1974.

The average lapse of time between the filing of a case in a court of civil appeals and its disposition ranged from 2.5 months in the Dallas Court to 6.7 months in the Amarillo Court. The average for all courts was 4.9 months, a few days longer than the average in 1974. The average disposition time was longer than in 1974 in all but two of the courts (Austin and Dallas).

While the 14 Courts of Civil Appeals operate to a large extent as autonomous courts in specific geographic areas, some highly desirable aspects of unification are achieved by monthly transfers among the courts by order of the Supreme Court pursuant to Article 1738, V.A.T.S. The Supreme Court transferred 260 cases during 1975, compared to 218 in 1974.

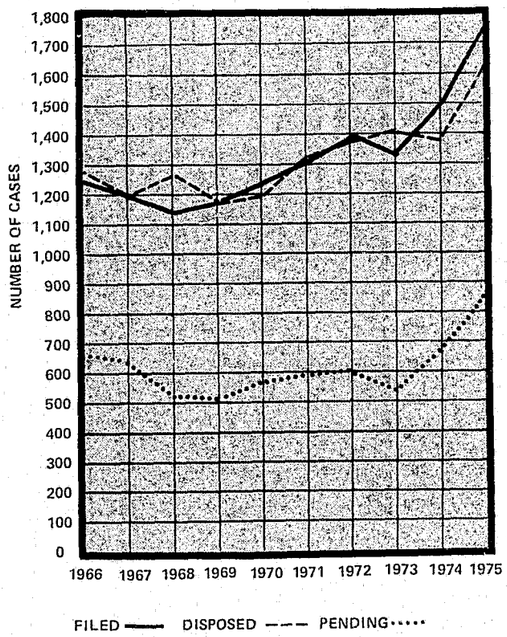
Cases filed, disposed and pending 1966-1975



The Dallas Court received the most attention from these transfers: of the 260 cases transferred to other courts (disregarding transfers between the two Houston courts), 146 were transferred from the Dallas Court. The Waco Court received the most transferred cases—70.

The net result of these transfers for the years 1971-1975 is shown in Figure 4. The workload of the courts after the transfers were made is shown by the total bar above the center line. This workload ranged from 332 cases at El Paso to 840 in the First Court at Houston, a range considerably narrower than the range of filings (240 at Eastland to 1,238 at Dallas) over the same five years. The average workload for all courts during this period was 522 cases.

DISTRICT COURTS

The 261 district, domestic relations and special juvenile courts experienced a 9 per cent increase in new cases filed—to 338,145 from 308,966 in 1974. The trend of filings is shown by Figure 9.

New civil cases filed increased 10 per cent over 1974, criminal cases increased 9 per cent and juvenile cases increased 7 per cent.

Civil cases, as in 1974, continued to account for 73 per cent of the new cases filed in 1975. Forty-five per cent of the civil cases were divorce or annulment actions. Personal injury cases (including workmens compensation) comprised 9 per cent and tax cases 8 per cent of the civil cases filed.

Juvenile cases (Title 3 of the Texas Family Code) accounted for 3 per cent of the total cases filed in district courts.

Criminal cases accounted for 21 per cent of the total new cases filed in 1975. Of the criminal cases, 22 per cent involved a charge of burglary, 17 per cent theft, 7 per cent robbery, 5 per cent felony D.W.I. and 14 per cent drug offenses, including marijuana. Fifteen per cent of the criminal cases filed in district court were by information, the remainder by indictment.

The number of all categories of cases filed in the eight Texas counties with 1970 population over 200,000 increased 9 per cent while in all other counties, cases filed increased 11 per cent. These eight large population counties (Harris, Dallas, Bexar, Tarrant, El Paso, Travis, Jefferson and Nueces) had 51 per cent of the state's population in 1970 and 58 per cent of the total cases filed during 1975. Changes in total case filings in the eight counties from 1974 range from an increase of 15 per cent in El Paso County to an increase of 3 per cent in Tarrant County.

Considering criminal cases only, filings increased 8 per cent in the eight urban counties and 10 per cent in all other counties. In the urban counties, the changes from 1974 ranged from an increase of 52 per cent in Travis County to a decrease of 15 per cent in El Paso County. Civil case filings increased in all urban counties, the greatest in El Paso County, with a 22 per cent increase.

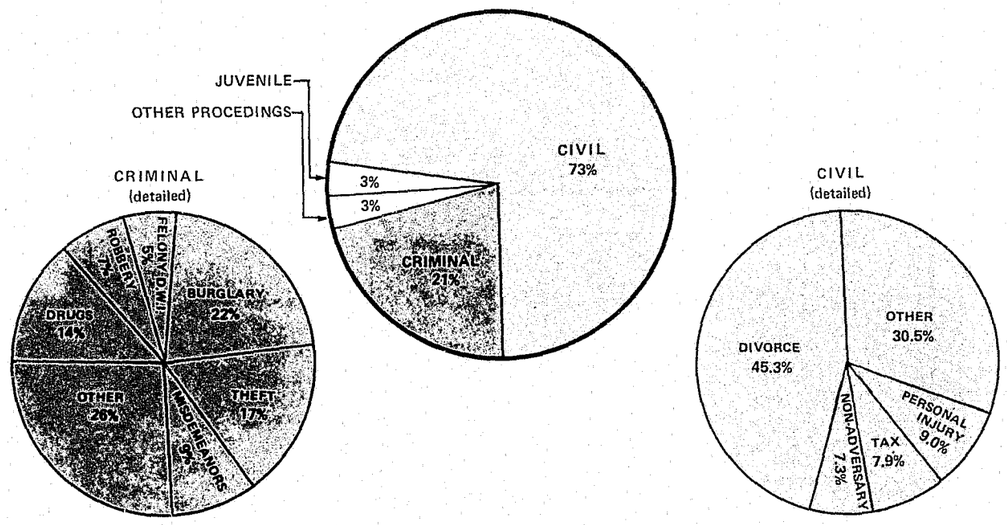
Categories of cases filed 1975



In 1975, the district courts of the state disposed of 49 per cent of the total cases on their dockets (filed in 1975 or carried over from 1974). The district courts in the eight counties with population over 200,000 disposed of 53 per cent. In all other counties, 44 per cent were disposed of. In all counties, 54 per cent of the criminal cases and 47 per cent of the civil cases on docket were disposed of during the year.

In the eight urban counties the disposition rate of criminal cases averaged 57 per cent, ranging from 71 per cent in Nueces County to 50 per cent in Jefferson County. The disposition rate of criminal cases in counties under 200,000 population averaged 51 per cent.

Comparable figures for civil cases showed an average disposition rate of 51 per cent in the eight urban counties and 41 per cent in the rest of the state. The range was from 65 per cent in Dallas County to 43 per cent in Harris and Nueces Counties.

An average of 1,236 cases per judge were disposed of in 1975, compared to 1,122 in 1974, an increase of 10 per cent. The dispositions per judge in the eight counties with population over 200,000 increased from 1,576 to 1,582 cases while in all other counties increased 25 per cent—from 754 to 946.

Forty-nine per cent of all civil cases were disposed of by non-jury trials. (Seventy-one per cent of these non-jury trials were in divorce cases.) Fifteen per cent each were dismissed for want of prosecution and at the request of the plaintiff.

Of the 74,310 criminal cases disposed of, in 55 per cent the defendant had entered a guilty plea. Including these pleas, the defendant was convicted in 59 per cent of the cases and acquitted in 1.1 per cent. Thirty-seven per cent of the criminal cases were disposed of by dismissal. Of those cases dismissed, 25 per cent were because of insufficient evidence and 20 per cent because the defendant was convicted in another case. In the cases in which the defendant pleaded not-guilty and which were disposed of by jury verdicts, the defendant was found guilty in 82 per cent of the cases and was acquitted in 18 per cent. In trials before the judge alone on not-guilty pleas, convictions resulted in 65 per cent of the cases and acquittals in 35 per cent. The defendeant was convicted of a lesser offense than that originally filed in 17 per cent of the cases resulting in convictions.

Among the criminal cases, the highest rate for disposition by dismissal was in theft (49 per cent) and delivery of marijuana (46 per cent). Conversely, the lowest rate of dismissal was for felony D.W.I.—14 per cent were dismissed and 85 per cent went to trial.

Twenty-eight death sentences and 296 life sentences were assessed in the district courts during 1975. Five thousand three hundred three persons were committed to the Texas Department of Corrections, 1,900 to local jails and $2,834,100 in fines were assessed.

In the juvenile cases handled by the district courts, a finding of delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision was entered in 49 per cent of the cases disposed of. The defendant was found not to have engaged in the proscribed conduct in 2 per cent and 49 per cent of the dispositions were by dismissal.

Texas courts granted 12 per cent more divorces in 1975 than in 1974. In 1975, 110,492 divorce cases were disposed of—34 per cent of all cases handled by district courts. Seventeen per cent were dismissed for want of prosecution.

Tax cases tend to stay on the docket for long periods of time compared to other categories. Only 23 per cent of the tax cases filed in 1975 or carried over from 1974 were disposed of by the district courts in 1975. Of those dispositions, 38 per cent were dismissed by the plaintiff and another 38 per cent were default judgments.

Thirty-four per cent of the personal injury cases ended in agreed judgments and 29 per cent were dismissed by the plaintiff.

The total number of cases pending in the district courts at the end of 1975—337,641—was 8 per cent higher than the 312,665 pending at the end of 1974.

Another way to look at the volume of cases pending December 31, 1975, is to assume that no new cases are filed in 1976 and that the district judges dispose of cases at the same rate as during 1975. At that rate, it would take an average of 382 days to dispose of the cases pending at the end of the year. The average for the eight counties with population over 200,000 would be 323 days; for all other counties, 464 days.

COUNTY COURTS

The county clerk in each of Texas's 254 counties is supplied forms by the Judicial Council for reporting the judicial activity in the county-level courts (county courts, county courts at law, probate courts, etc.). For 1975, the clerks in 245 counties reported all twelve months, 3 others reported fewer than twelve months' activity and 6 submitted no reports at all. Statewide, the Council received 2,954 reports out of a possible 3,048 for the twelve-month period (97 per cent).

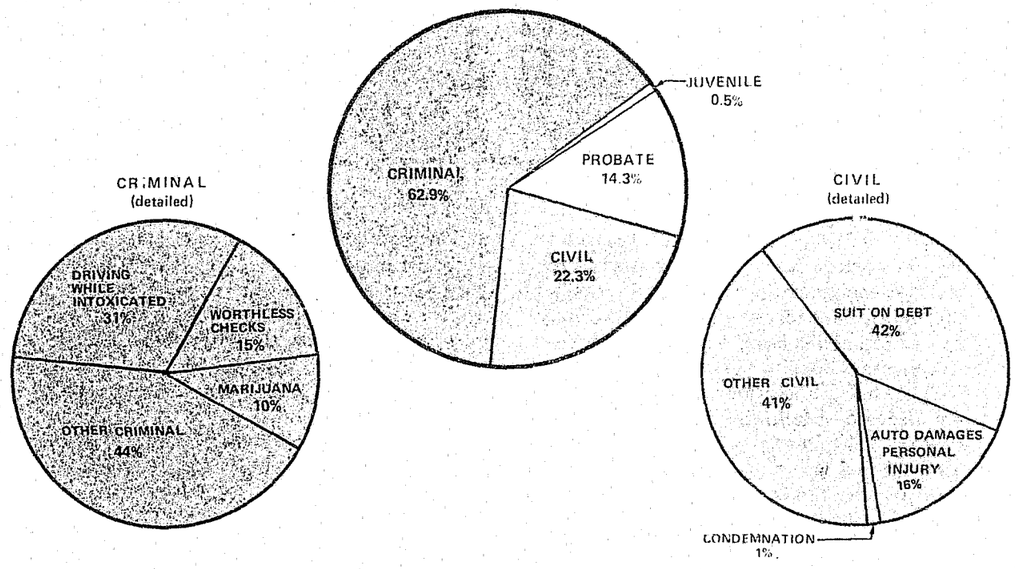
Categories of cases filed 1975



In terms of numbers of cases, criminal cases constituted 63 per cent of the 327,669 new cases filed or appealed from lower courts. Civil cases accounted for 22 per cent and probate 14 per cent. New juvenile cases filed were one-half per cent of the total.

Concerning the criminal cases only, 31 per cent (64,410) of those filed or appealed to the county courts from lower courts were for driving while intoxicated. Fifteen per cent (31,382) were for worthless checks and 9 per cent (19,427) for violations of law concerning marijuana possession or delivery.

Again concerning criminal cases, only 13 per cent of the cases added to the county court dockets came by way of appeal from justice of the peace or municipal courts rather than being filed originally in the county court.

Of the new civil cases docketed, 42 per cent were classified as a suit on debt. Sixteen per cent concerned automobile-related damage suits and 1 per cent were condemnation actions.

During the twelve-month reporting period, the county courts of the state disposed of 48 per cent of the total criminal, civil and juvenile cases on their dockets (filed during 1975 or carried over from 1974) No statistics on the disposition of probate cases are recorded. This disposition rate was highest for juvenile cases (59 per cent). Fifty-two per cent of the criminal cases on the docket were disposed of and 39 per cent of the civil cases. Within the criminal cases category, 66 per cent of the marijuana charges were disposed of but only 37 per cent of the worthless check cases were disposed.

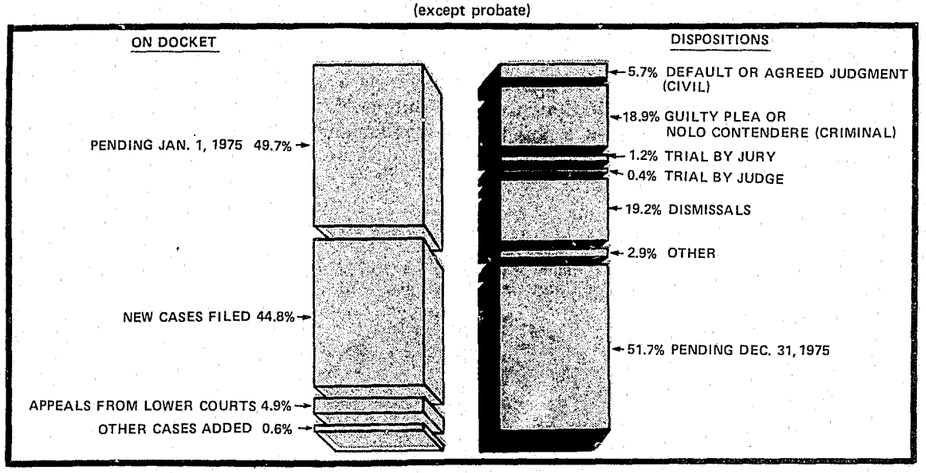
All cases on docket 1975
(except probate)



Comparing cases filed to cases disposed, the county courts disposed of more cases than were filed in the worthless check, condemnation and juvenile categories. Looking at all cases (except probate), the county courts disposed of 272,684 cases, which is 96 per cent of the 284,089 cases added to the dockets.

Fifty-two per cent of the criminal cases in county courts were disposed of following a plea of guilty or nolo contendere. Thirty-nine per cent were dismissed. Trials were held in 2 per cent of the criminal cases, 2,934 before the judge alone and 1,604 before a jury.

The highest percentage of dismissals occurred in the worthless check cases—76 per cent of the dispositions were by dismissal. Pleas of guilty or nolo contendere accounted for 79 per cent of the driving while intoxicated and 70 per cent of the marijuana dispositions.

The methods of disposition of civil cases parallels those for criminal cases except that a higher percentage of cases involved a trial. Six per cent of the civil cases were disposed of following a trial, 654 before a jury and 3,325 before the judge alone. Forty-seven per cent of the civil cases were disposed of following a default or agreed judgment and 42 per cent were dismissed.

The county courts disposed of fewer cases than were added to their dockets during 1975 and the cases pending on the dockets increased 4 per cent from the first to the end of the year—280,682 on January 1 and 292,087 on December 31. (This does not include probate cases.) Seven per cent more civil cases and 2 per cent more criminal cases were left pending December 31 than on January 1.

JUVENILE ACTIVITY

Total 1975 Reported Activity

Section 51.04 of the Texas Family Code provides for the designation of a court or courts in each county as the juvenile court, to hear proceedings under Title 3 of the Family Code. The court(s) designated must be either a district, criminal district, domestic relations, county court at law or constitutional county court. If the designated judge is to preside over adjudication, disposition or certification hearings, the section provides that he also must be licensed to practice law in the state. The designation is to be made by the juvenile board in each county, or if there is none, by the judges of the above-mentioned types of courts in the county.

Juvenile court activity is therefore reported to the Judicial Council by either the district clerk, or the county clerk, or both, depending on which courts have been designated under Section 51.04. During 1975, juvenile court activity was reported by the district clerk in 143 counties, by the county clerk in 39 counties and by both clerks in 9 counties. In 63 counties there was no reported juvenile activity.

Looking at total statewide activity, it appears that about 89 per cent of the juvenile cases in the state were handled by district-level courts (district, criminal district, domestic relations or statutorily created Juvenile Courts) and the remaining 11 per cent were handled by county-level courts (county courts at law or constitutional county courts).

Combining the reports from both sources produces the table shown below. Statewide, 13,446 new juvenile cases were docketed during 1975. The courts disposed of 13,936 cases. Findings of delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision were entered in 48 per cent of the dispositions and a finding of no delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision was entered in 3 per cent. Forty-nine per cent were dismissed.

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE COURTS

From various sources, the Judicial Council determined that there were 903 justices of the peace in Texas during 1975 Each justice was asked to submit a one-page monthly report to the Council on activity in his court. All twelve months' activity for 1975 was reported by 512 justices of the peace, 235 others reported fewer than twelve months' activity, and 156 submitted no reports at all. Statewide, the Council received 7,527 reports out of a possible 10,836 for 1975 (69 per cent).

In terms of numbers of cases, traffic cases comprised 69 per cent of the cases filed in the reporting courts. Nearly 832,000 traffic cases were filed in these courts during 1975. Non-traffic criminal cases and civil cases (including "small claims" cases) provided 18 and 13 per cent of the new cases filed, respectively.

In addition, the reporting courts received 9,712 peace bond applications and held 6,843 hearings to determine if a peace bond should be issued. In the justice of the peace's capacity as a state magistrate, the reporting judges accepted 29,295 complaints within the jurisdiction of county courts and 79,774 within the jurisdiction of district courts (felonies). Twelve thousand nine hundred forty-one examining trials (preliminary hearings of district or county court cases) were held, and 8,817 inquests were conducted. Drivers license suspension hearings totaled 35,432. Five thousand one hundred eighty-eight search warrants were issued and 73,150 defendants charged with county or district court offenses were given statutory warnings.

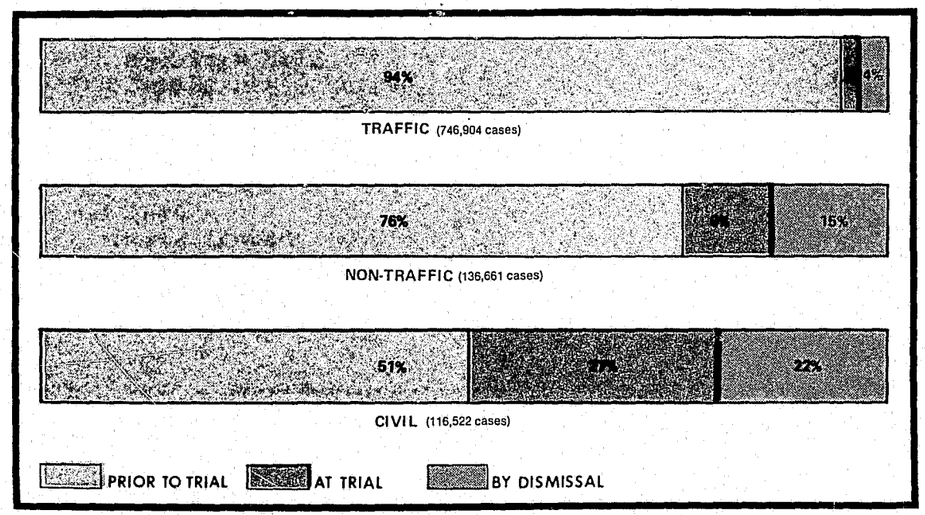
Types of disposition of cases 1975



Justices of the peace reported the disposition of cases in three categories: prior to trial, at trial and dismissed. Eighty-seven per cent of all cases were disposed of before trial, 6 per cent at trial and 7 per cent were dismissed.

Looking at traffic cases only, 94 per cent were disposed of prior to trial, practically all by payment of fine. Of the 2 per cent that went to trial, 94 per cent of the cases were tried before the judge alone and the remaining 6 per cent were tried before jury. When traffic cases went to trial, the defendant was found guilty in 85 per cent of the cases tried before the judge alone and in 68 per cent of the cases tried before a jury.

Concerning non-traffic criminal cases, 76 per cent were disposed of prior to trial. Nine per cent went to trial. Of those that went to trial, 97 per cent were before the judge without a jury. Guilty findings were made in 83 per cent of the trials before a judge alone and in 50 per cent of the jury trials.

A much higher percentage (27 per cent) of civil suits went to trial than criminal cases. Fifty-one per cent of the civil suits were settled before trial and 22 per cent were dismissed. Of the cases that went to trial, 97 per cent were before the judge alone and the remainder before a jury.

The courts reported disposing of 1,000,087 cases, which is 83 per cent of the 1,199,091 filed.

Nine thousand one hundred thirty-eight cases were appealed from the justice of the peace courts, or less than 1 per cent of the cases disposed of.

Total revenue collected by the reporting courts during 1975 was $22,719,133. This revenue becomes part of the treasury of the county where the court is located except for a $2.50 court cost on each case which is remitted to the state Criminal Justice Planning Fund.

MUNICIPAL COURTS

The municipal courts in the 214 cities with population of 5,000 or greater were asked to submit a one-page monthly report to the Council on activity in their court. The residents of these cities represent 71 per cent of the population of the entire state, according to the 1970 census. All twelve months' activity for 1975 was reported by 135 of the courts, 51 others reported fewer than twelve months' activity, and 28 submitted no reports at all. Statewide, the Council received 1,947 reports out of a possible 2,568 for the year (76 per cent).

In terms of numbers of cases, traffic cases comprised 86 per cent of the cases filed in the reporting courts. Nearly 2,000,000 traffic cases were filed in these courts during 1975. Non-traffic criminal cases provided the other 14 per cent of the new cases filed.

In addition to those cases, 2,259,417 parking citations were received by the courts and 1,160,307 parking offenses were disposed of. In the municipal judge's capacity as a magistrate, the reporting judges accepted 7,433 complaints within the jurisdiction of county courts and 3,354 within the jurisdiction of district courts (felonies). Two hundred seven examining trials (preliminary hearings of district or county court cases) were held, and 22 inquests were conducted. Drivers license suspension hearings totaled 15,830. Two thousand eight hundred sixty-four search warrants were issued and 48,491 defendants charged with county or district court offenses were given statutory warnings.

Municipal courts reported the disposition of cases in three categories: prior to trial, at trial and dismissed. Seventy-seven per cent of all cases were disposed of before trial, 8 per cent at trial and 15 per cent were dismissed.

cent that went to trial, 99 per cent of the cases were tried before the judge alone and the other 1 per cent before a jury. When traffic cases went to trial, the defendant was found guilty in 72 per cent of the cases tried before the judge alone and in 67 per cent of the cases tried before a jury.

Concerning non-traffic criminal cases, 73 per cent were disposed of prior to trial. Thirteen per cent went to trial and 14 per cent were dismissed. Of those that went to trial, 99 per cent were before the judge without a jury. Guilty findings were made in 80 per cent of the trials before the judge alone and in 67 per cent of the jury trials.

The courts reported disposing of 2,059,568 cases, which is 92 per cent of the 2,240,395 filed.

Twenty-two thousand sixty-five cases were appealed from the municipal courts, or a little over 1 per cent of the cases disposed of.

Total revenue collected by the reporting courts during 1975 was $37,090,262. This revenue becomes part of the treasury of the city where the court has jurisdiction except for a $2.50 court cost on each case which is remitted to the state Criminal Justice Planning Fund.
