<sup>10</sup> Kleindienst served as Acting Attorney General from Mar. 2, 1972 until appointed.

NOTE.—The names of Theophilus Parsons, Robert Smith, Joseph Holt, and Orville H. Browning are omitted for the following reasons:

Theophilus Parsons, of Massachusetts, was nominated on Feb. 18, 1801, as Attorney General in place of Charles Lee, and was confirmed by the Senate, but no commission was issued as he declined to accept the office. His name is sometimes erroneously included in the lists of Attorneys General.

Robert Smith, of Maryland, who had been Secretary of the Navy for 4 years, was a lawyer and was anxious to be Attorney General. Jefferson agreed to appoint him provided a suitable Secretary of the Navy could be secured. Accordingly, on Mar. 2, 1805, he nominated Robert Smith as Attorney General and Jacob Crowinshield, of Massachusetts, as Secretary of the Navy. Both nominations were confirmed and commissions were issued on March 3, but Crowinshield declined to accept the office tendered to him. Robert Smith continued to act as Secretary of the Navy, and never took the oath of office or performed any duties as Attorney General and, as a matter of fact, never held the office, though usually included in lists of the Attorneys General. Complete proof that John Breckinridge succeeded Levi Lincoln and that Robert Smith was never Attorney General is found in the following extracts from the United States reports (3 Cranch, 111). "On the 12th day of February 1808 the honorable John Breckinridge was sworn in as Attorney General of the United States in the place of the honorable Levi Lincoln, resigned."

Joseph Holt: On Dec. 1, 1804, the President appointed Joseph Holt, of Kentucky, Attorney General. Mr. Holt absolutely declined to accept the office, and on December 2, James Speed, of Kentucky, was appointed Attorney General.

Orville H. Browning: On Mar. 12, 1868, Attorney General Stanbery resigned in order to serve as one of the Counsel of President Johnson in the impeachment proceedings before the Senate. It was the President's intention to reappoint him after the trial, so instead of appointing a successor to Mr. Stanbery, he appointed Orville H. Browning, Secretary of the Interior, Attorney General ad interim, and directed him to perform the duties of that office in addition to his own as Secretary of the Interior.
