THE COURT OF APPEALS

Statistics found in this section of the Annual Report are generally tabulated by fiscal year although the Court of Appeals follows a year related to the Term of Court, which always begins on the second Monday in September. For each Term of Court there is a term docket which relates to appeals heard during that term. In the statistics that follow, the reader should carefully note those that are tabulated by fiscal year, and those that pertain to a particular docket of a Term of Court.

During the fiscal year July 1, 1978 through June 30, 1979, the Court of Appeals had 176 regular appeals before it for consideration. Twenty-eight of those appeals were carried over from the 1977 Term docket, while 144 were filed on the 1978 Term docket. An additional four appeals were advanced and heard from the 1979 Term docket.

One-fourth (36) of the 144 appeals on the 1978 docket originated in the Fourth Appellate Judicial Circuit. The third appellate circuit closely followed with 34, while the sixth (Baltimore City) recorded 26. The second, fifth and first recorded 19, 15, and 14, respectively.

Montgomery County noted 31 appeals, followed by Prince George's and Baltimore City with 26 each. Baltimore County tallied 17, while Anne Arundel registered 12. The combined total for these five jurisdictions was 112 or 77.8 percent of the total 1978 docket.

By the close of the 1978-79 fiscal year, the Court of Appeals had disposed of all but 40 of the regular appeals pending before it. The appeals had been heard but had not been disposed of by opinion due to the constraints of time. During 1978-79 the Court considered and decided 128 appeals, and filed 112 majority opinions in disposing of them, 106 of which were reported. Five opinions were per curiam. Members of the Court also filed 10 dissenting opinions, two concurring opinions and six opinions concurring in part and dissenting in part. Appeals on the 1978 docket averaged 3.5 months from docketing to argument and an additional 2.8 months until decision.

Of the 144 appeals on the 1978 docket, 77 were cases that by-passed the Court of Special Appeals without being heard there. Only 4.2 percent or six appeals on the 1978 docket were dismissed prior to argument or submission to the Court of Appeals.

During 1978-79, 483 petitions for issuance of Writs of Certiorari were filed in the Court of Appeals while 463 were terminated. Criminal petitions constituted 50.8 percent (235) while the remaining 49.2 percent (228) were of a civil nature. The Court granted 21.8 percent (101) of the total petitions submitted, 62 of which were civil and 39 of which were criminal.

During 1978-79, the Court of Appeals admitted 704 persons to the practice of law, including 61 attorneys from other jurisdictions. It also conducted 30 disciplinary proceedings involving members of the Maryland Bar.

THE COURT OF SPECIAL APPEALS

In studying the statistics in this section of the Report, the reader should bear in mind that the remarks as to term of court and fiscal year found in the previous section, are applicable here as well. During the fiscal year, July 1, 1978, through June 30, 1979, the Court of Special Appeals had 1,528 regular appeals before it for consideration. One hundred twelve of those were from the 1977 Term docket and had been heard during fiscal 1977-78, but were not disposed of by opinion due to the short period of time between hearing and close of the fiscal year. The remaining 1,416 were filed on the 1978 docket.

Of the 1,416 appeals on the 1978 docket, 385 (27.2 percent) originated in the Sixth Appellate Judicial Circuit (Baltimore City), followed by the third appellate circuit with 283 and the fourth with 243. The fifth, second and first circuits recorded 196, 180 and 129 appeals, respectively. Montgomery County noted 201 appeals followed by Prince George's with 180, Baltimore County with 146 and Anne Arundel with 137. The total 664 appeals from these four largest counties, when added to the 385 for Baltimore City, accounted for nearly three-fourths (74.08 percent) of the total 1978 Term docket.

At the close of the 1978-79 fiscal year, the Court of Special Appeals had disposed of 1,369 appeals, leaving only 159 to be concluded. All except one of that latter number had been argued, but had not been disposed of due to the constraints of time. The Court actually considered and decided 936 appeals and filed 911 majority opinions in their disposition. Reported opinions numbered 196 while 715 opinions were unreported. Per curiam opinions totaled 713. Members of the Court also filed six dissenting opinions and six concurring opinions. Appeals averaged 5.0 months from docketing to hearing and an additional 1.2 months until decision.

In addition to the disposition of its heavy regular appellate caseload, the Court of Special Appeals considered 173 applications for leave to appeal during 1978-79 and granted nine. It also considered 32 miscellaneous matters and granted six of them.

THE CIRCUIT COURTS

Total law, equity, juvenile and criminal case filings totaled 145,066 for the 1978-79 fiscal year. This figure also includes the 1,999 juvenile causes heard at the District Court level in Montgomery County. The total caseload for the past year consisted of 41.1 percent of the filings in equity, 26.5 percent of the filings in criminal, 17.6 percent of the filings in juvenile, and 14.8 percent in the law category.

Overall filings increased by 7.4 percent over last year. Equity filings increased by 11.2 percent over 1977-78 while criminal filings climbed by 7.8 percent. Juvenile filings increased by 3.7 percent, and law filings rose by 1.7 percent.

Terminations numbered 129,460 for the four major categories, an increase of 8.0 percent over the 119,817 tallied in 1977-78. Included in the 1978-79 figures are 2,232 terminations for juvenile causes heard at the District Court for Montgomery County. In all categories the number of filings exceeded the number of terminations.

Pending figures in Tables A-1 through A-9 reflect cases reported to the Administrative Office of the Courts since January 1975. Pre-1975 filings are not included. The beginning pending balance has been adjusted from that in last year's Statistical Abstract to equal the number of cases listed individually in the AOC record rather than an unverifiable aggregate total of historic origin.

Appeals from the District Court and administrative agencies reported by the circuit court clerks totaled 6,847 statewide, a decrease of 8.2 percent over the 7,459 appeals filed in 1977-78. Decisions appealed from administrative agencies numbered 1,834 of which 729 or 39.8 percent originated in Baltimore City. Appeals from the District Court numbered 5,013 which includes those tried de novo and on the record. Forty-four percent or 2,196 of the appeals were recorded in Baltimore City. In the previous fiscal year, 1977-78, the statewide District Court figure was 5,474 and in 1976-77, 6,168. The ratio of cases appealed compared to the caseload of the District Court has dropped to 0.4 percent. For the three previous years it had been 0.5 percent.

Law cases disposed of by trial in 1978-79 totaled 2,479, an increase of 3.6 percent over the 2,393 reported for 1977-78. Trials of law cases accounted for 12.6 percent of all law dispositions with the balance being disposed of by settlement or dismissal. Jury trials were held in 806 cases (32.5 percent) and before a court sitting without a jury in 1,673 cases (67.5 percent). A total of 976 trials was held in the four largest counties and accounted for 39.4 percent of all law trials. Baltimore City recorded 922 law trials and registered 37.2 percent of the total.

Criminal cases disposed of by trial in 1978-79 totaled 11,882. Trials of criminal cases accounted for 32.7 percent of all criminal dispositions. Jury trials were held in 1,581 cases (13.3 percent) and before a court sitting without a jury in 10,301 cases (86.7 percent). A total of 4,150 criminal trials was held in the four largest counties and accounted for 34.9 percent of all criminal trials. Baltimore City recorded 5,550 criminal trials and registered 46.7 percent of the total. During the 1978-79 fiscal year, 347 habeas corpus petitions were filed, a decrease of 134 from the previous year's total of 481. Post-convictions also dropped this year to 409 from 593.

During the year, 15,358 requests for criminal jury trials were prayed at the District Court level to the circuit court. Last year the figure was 11,999.

Applications for review of criminal sentences amounted to 251, of which 35 were withdrawn by the applicants. There were 273 applications in 1977-78 and 322 in 1976-77. This year the original sentence was decreased in 20 instances and unchanged in 212. Only one sentence was increased. Since the inception of the procedure to review criminal sentences in 1966, 3,683 applications have been filed. During this period, 238 sentences have been decreased (6.5 percent).

Divorce proceedings accounted for 51.0 percent (30,371) of the total equity filings in 1978-79. There were 15,128 total hearings in equity matters, a slight increase of 398 hearings over the 14,730 held in 1977-78.

During 1978-79, 25,486 juvenile causes were filed statewide. This includes the 1,999 juvenile causes filed in the District Court for Montgomery County. Delinquency cases totaled 22,144 of which 1,498 were from Montgomery County, and represented 86.9 percent of the workload.

The number of juvenile causes terminated was lower than the number of filings and totaled 23,492 statewide, including 2,232 juvenile causes from Montgomery County. Terminations were lower in 1978-79 by 4.6 percent over the 24,618 juvenile causes disposed of last year.

The Circuit Court for Montgomery County reported that, in exercising jurisdiction formerly held by an orphans' court, it conducted 63 hearings and signed 2,667 orders during fiscal 1979. The Circuit Court for Harford County exercises the same jurisdiction and recorded 29 hearings and 619 signed orders.

To assess the accuracy of the statistical reports prepared by the Judicial Information System Unit, the Statistical Auditing Project surveyed all circuit courts except Baltimore City Criminal and Juvenile Courts. Also surveyed was Montgomery County Juvenile Court, which, while a District Court, is included in the Juvenile Court

Statistics with the circuit courts. The findings guide corrective action and enable the user of the published statistics to evaluate the data.

The major findings were:

- Filings were reported accurately statewide. Ninety-nine percent of criminal filings and ninety-five percent of law, equity, and juvenile filings were reported.
- Dispositions were reported in about ninety percent of juvenile cases and eighty-five percent of other cases, on the average.
- Trials in criminal cases and hearings in equity and juvenile cases were not reliable as comparable figures. (Few courts had sufficient law trials among the cases sampled to warrant drawing conclusions about accuracy.) The figures suggested that varying definitions may have been used in reporting. Comparison of trial figures among courts was not recommended.
- Categories were accurately reported statewide.
- Elapsed times from filing to trial to disposition were accurately reported statewide.

In sum, the audit confirmed excellent accuracy of numbers of filings, case categories, and elapsed times. The audit showed less accuracy in numbers of dispositions, and poor accuracy in numbers of trials and hearings.

Users of the circuit court statistics should restrict their use of the less accurate statistics, particularly for comparison among courts. Users can confidently use the accurate figures both for internal use and for comparison among courts.

Juvenile case disposition types were not audited. No definitions of the types reported were available against which to check reporting. As with trials and hearings, figures were not comparable among counties.

NOTE: The survey report, "Accuracy of Statistical Reports," is available on request from the Administrative Office of the Courts. The report describes the survey method and summarizes findings by size of court.

Detailed tables of the circuit court workload follow.

These figures differ somewhat from those printed in past reports:

(1) The 1976-77 figures appearing in the 1976-77 and 1977-78 Statistical Abstract were computed excluding the shortest and lengthiest 5 percent of the cases.(2) All figures in the 1978-79 Statistical Abstract were computed by using a simple arithmetic mean, or average, but computations had the benefit of two factors not available previously:

(a) A more complete data base was used; cases closed in the report year but not reported to the AOC until a later year were included in the report year figures for 1976-77 and 1977-78 in this report.

(b) Prior computer system design did not capture case ages of more than 999 days; thus unusually lengthy cases were not included in the computations.

(3) Note that a small number of lengthy cases can greatly increase an average, particularly in a small jurisdiction. See Tables E-10, 11, 12, and 13 for a more detailed breakdown of filing-to-disposition ages.

THE DISTRICT COURT

The District Court processed a total of 1,140,951 cases during fiscal year 1978-79 including 628,408 motor vehicle cases, 88,839 criminal cases and 423,704 civil cases. Not included in these figures are 1,999 juvenile causes handled by the District Court in Montgomery County.

Criminal cases decreased in 1978-79 by 12.2 percent over the figures recorded in 1977-78 while civil cases increased by 6.4 percent for the same period. A comparison of motor vehicle cases cannot be made to the previous year due to a change in the method of counting cases in 1978-79. Previously, motor vehicle cases that had been recorded as "stet" or "nolle prosequi" were counted in the number of cases tried. This year they were not included in the cases tried category.

Statewide, 88,839 persons were charged with 133,713 criminal offenses in the District Court during 1978-79. Defendants held for action by the grand jury numbered 10,073 with an additional 6,837 defendants electing trial by jury at the circuit court level. Baltimore City registered criminal figures of 35,647 defendants and 58,961 charges while Baltimore County accounted for 12,424 defendants and 18,948 charges.

Disputes involving landlords and tenants were responsible for 70.0 percent of the civil caseload in 1978-79. Baltimore City, as expected, docketed the most civil actions with 164,623, followed by Prince George's civil actions with 164,623, followed by Prince George's County with 107,264 and Baltimore County with 55,742.

Statewide, there were 272 cases filed or processed for every one thousand people. This includes criminal, civil, and motor vehicle cases. Cecil County registered the highest ratio with 594 cases per thousand population. Allegany County recorded the smallest number with 147 cases per thousand population.

Statistical charts reflecting the caseload of the District Court will be found on the following pages.

THE COMMISSION ON JUDICIAL DISABILITIES

During fiscal year 1979, 38 complaint matters were opened by the Commission on Judicial Disabilities. Two were initiated by the Commission itself, four were filed by attorneys, and the remainder by private individuals.

While three of the complaints focused on more general judicial policy or conduct, the remainder alleged misconduct on the part of particular judges at various levels of the Maryland judiciary. Thirty complaints attacked the conduct of judges presiding at the circuit court level, four were directed at those sitting in District Court, one at an Orphans' Court judge and one at a judge sitting on an appellate court. Some complaints named more than one judge; and more than one complaint named the same judge for alleged misconduct on different occasions.

Seventeen of the complaints arose out of litigation concerning domestic issues such as divorce, child custody, visitation rights and alimony payments. Ten complaints were from criminal trial defendants and another six were the result of civil litigation. The remaining five were of a general nature not falling into any specific category.

The 38 complaints represent, however, only those allegations that are deemed to be formal matters by the Commission. Many complaints that are received both in writing and orally do not present charges that are within the Commission's jurisdiction. They are, however, answered and included as general miscellaneous items. Many individuals attempt to use the Commission as an appellate court to rehear matters already decided.

The Honorable Richard P. Gilbert was the Chairman of the Commission this year, and William L. Marbury, Esq., was the Vice Chairman. Professor Howard E. Wallin of the University of Baltimore Law School acted as the Executive Secretary. Other members were: Honorable Edward D. Hardesty, Honorable Marshall A. Levin, Dr. Morris Sumner, Nathan Patz, Esq., and the Honorable James H. Taylor.
