THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL OF THE SUPREME COURT OF LOUISIANA

COVER: Louisiana Supreme Court Building, New Orleans, Louisiana

Prior to the Louisiana Purchase in 1803, the courts were located in the Cabildo on Jackson Square. Subsequent moves were made to the Presbytere on Jackson Square and back to the Cabildo. In 1910, the Supreme Court, Court of Appeal, Civil District Court and First City Court moved to a new facility at 418 Royal Street. (This building now houses the Wildlife and Fisheries Commission).

The movement for a separate building for the Supreme Court was initiated by the Louisiana State Bar Association in 1953 through its Library Committee. The association participated in the planning and construction of the building through its Supreme Court Building Committee.

The building which is pictured on the cover was authorized and commenced during the Administration of Governor Robert F. Kennon in 1954 and completed under the Administration of Governor Fail K. Long in 1958.

301 LOYOLA AVE. 70112 TELEPHONE SC4 568-5707 March 1, 1981

To the Members of the Supreme Court of Louisiana To the Members of the Board of Governors of the Louisiana State Bar Association

Gentlemen:

The Judicial Council is required to make a "complete detailed report" each year to the Supreme Court and to the Board of Governors of the Bar Association. This is the twenty-fifth year, I am told, that the Judicial Council has published and distributed its report. A comparison with the early reports helps us remember the dramatic changes in the courts in the last few years.

The Council itself was formed in 1950. One of the matters considered in 1980 was its possible reorganization. That matter will continue as part of the agenda of the Council in 1981, with the object of gaining greater judge participation in planning and in the consideration of legislation affecting the courts.

This report reflects the continuing increase in the judicial business of the state; nor do numbers alone tell the whole story. The cases which reach this court reflect an ever-increasing reliance on the judicial system for decisions in matters where conflicts arise in a society daily becoming more complex.

1980 was a busy year for all the courts, and particularly for the appellate judges who, in addition to their regular judicial duties, were burdened with the problem of redistribution of the appellate workload. There is no indication that any lessening of the strain on the whole system will occur in the future. Our common object, then, is to continue to acquire information about what is happening in the system, and to plan for ways to perform more efficiently the work and accomplish the purposes of courts in Louisiana. This can be done only if we continue to exert our best efforts to solve the problems that face us in the future.

THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL

Transfer of Criminal Appellate Jurisdiction from the Supreme Court to the Courts of Appeal; a new chairman; new judgeships; new committees; new legislation; and its first woman member were all included in the recommendations and actions of the Louisiana Judicial Council in 1980.

Chief Justice John A. Dixon, Jr. takes over as Chairman of the Judicial Council . . . Transfer of criminal appellate jurisdiction is approved . . .

Chief Justice John A. Dixon became Chief Justice and chairman of the Judicial Council in March when Former Chief Justice Frank W. Summers retired. In his final remarks to the Council, chairman Summers encouraged the members to continue their efforts to find a solution to the problem of the burgeoning caseload of the Supreme Court which had again increased 15% over the previous year. Following this lead and after lengthy study, the Judicial Council voted to recommend to the state legislature that it transfer criminal appellate jurisdiction from the Supreme Court to the courts of appeal, except where the death penalty has been imposed or where a state statute has been declared unconstitutional, and that the courts of appeal be provided with all necessary help, e.g. judges, law clerks, staff and facilities to accommodate the transfer. By Act 843 of the 1960 legislature, a constitutional amendment was authorized transferring criminal appellate jurisdiction as recommended by the Judicial Council. In November, the people of the state approved the amendment.

Criteria for evaluating new judgeship requests is accepted . . .

At its January, 1980, meeting, the Judicial Council accepted the report of the Committee to Evaluate Requests for New Judgeships. This committee chaired by 22nd. Judicial District Court Judge Thomas Tanner worked for more than a year to formulate criteria for determining the merit of judgeship requests. After accepting the criteria presented by the committee, all subsequent action taken by the Council relative to judgeship requests resulted from recommendations of the Tanner Committee.

Six new judgeships are created . . .

Following the recommendations of the Judicial Council, the 1980 Louisiana State Legislature created six new judgships: two each for the 14th Judicial District Court (Calcasieu) and the 15th Judicial District Court (Acadia and Vermilion) and one each for the 13th Judicial District Court (Evangeline) and Jefferson Juvenile Court.

Proposed Legislation passes . . .

On further advice of the Louisiana Judicial Council, the legislature passed laws which: made the terms of six district judges in Orleans (four criminal and two civil) uniform with the terms of all other district judges throughout the state; split the Fourth Circuit Court of Appeal which has 1 1/2 times more appeals and writs, per judge, lodged yearly than any of the other courts of appeal* - - this recommendation ws not contingent on passage of the constitutional amendment to transfer criminal appellate jurisdiction.

Proposed Legislation fails . . .

In other action, the Council recommended: the split of the Fourth Judicial District (Morehouse and Ouachita parishes) subject to referendum by the people of the district; and legislation which would prevent alternate jurors from being discharged until the verdict is returned. These were defeated in the legislature.

JPC, Judicial Council join forces . . .

The Judicial Planning committee was designated as a special committee of the Judicial Council. Associate Justice James L. Dennis serves as Chairperson

First woman is appointed to the Judicial Council . . .

And, for the first time in its history, a woman was appointed to serve on the Council. Baton Rouge civic leader Martha McCrory received her appointment from the Supreme Court and will serve a three year term. w. L

The Judicial Council of the Supreme Court of Louisiana was established in 1950 and received its first funding by the state legislature in 1954. Its task is to evaluate and monitor the operations and procedures of the judicial system of the state. In this capacity, it serves as a clearinghouse for ideas for simplifying and expediting judicial procedures and/or correcting shortcomings in the system.

The Judicial Administrator Reports

Orderly transition plans are developed for transfer of criminal appellate jurisdiction . . .

The transfer of criminal appellate jurisdiction from the Supreme Court to the Courts of Appeal on July 1, 1982 will be a momentous event in the evolutionary history of the Louisiana judiciary. Plans for an orderly transition are in the process of development.

These include: legislation to provide adequate judicial manpower, staff, space, and operating funds for the Courts of Appeal; the assignment of Court of Appeal judges to sit with the Supreme Court on criminal cases during the transition period; formal educational seminars in criminal law for Court of Appeal judges, including a possible joint seminar with the intermediate appellate judges of Texas who have been similarly affected by a recent constitutional amendment; and a possible earlier election schedule for the new judgeships on the Courts of Appeal, to alleviate any civil appeal backlogs and so that elections to fill vacancies created by any trial judges elected to the intermediate appellate court may be completed prior to July 1, 1982, thus avoiding any interruption of judicial services in the district courts.

Legislature authorizes Judiciary Committee study of methods and criteria for creating new judgeships . . . .

A House resolution of the 1980 Legislature authorizes the Judiciary Committee to undertake a study of the methods and criteria for the creation of new judgeships, judicial districts, and courts in Louisiana. The Evalulation Committee of the Judicial Council is working closely with the House Judiciary Committee to further refine the methodology and information needed to evaluate requests for additional judgeships. The Council in recent years has vastly improved its techniques in this regard.

EUGENE J. MURRET Judicial Administrator

District Court Administrators meet; confer with Judicial Administrator . . .

The Association of Louisiana District Court Administrators, which now numbers about twelve members, meets semi-annually with staff members of my office to discuss topics of mutual interest. These informal colloquies enable the local administrators and my staff to learn from each other about court system problems and about beneficial projects existing in the different trial courts of the State and elsewhere which might be emulated. The forum also affords discussion about activities emanating from my office and from the appellate level of courts which impact the district courts.

American Bar Association Revised Standards for Criminal Justice are now available to judges . . .

The American Bar Association recently published its revised Standards for Criminal Justice. The updated Standards reflect a refinement based upon a decade of experience with the original standards developed by a diverse and highly experienced group of professionals. Intended as a resource for improvement, the Standards are designed to achieve a fair and balanced criminal justice system constitutionally responsive to current and future needs. Judges are encouraged to consult the standards as authority in deciding appropriate cases.

The Judicial Planning Committee

Demise of LEAA presents problems for JPC; for the courts . . .

Throughout 1980, the workings of the Judicial Planning Committee (JPC) were buffeted by uncertainty concerning the future of the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration (LEAA). Once it became clear that LEAA was doomed, a heavy burden fell on the JPC in trying to minimize the damage done by the uncxpected demise of LEAA.

The steering committee of the JPC, which has primary responsibility for liaison with LEAA, worked to fully utilize the options available to local courts which were suddenly faced with the prospect of a cutoff of LEAA funds. At the same time, the committee worked diligently to minimize the red tape associated with the sudden changes in plans which these courts were forced to make.

While the steering committee worked with the impact of the demise of LEAA, the JPC subcommittees continued to work on substan-tive programs designed to improve the courts of Louisiana.

The P. R. Committee . . . Judicial Media and films

Judicial/Media seminar, films explaining the courts, newsletter are all activities of Public Relations Subcommittee . . .

The Public Relations Subcommittee sponsored its third successful Judicial/Media seminar - this time in Natchitoches, La. In addition to the Small Claims Courts film produced by the Public Information Officer last year, three new films are now ready for use. They are: Your Day In Court: Civil Proceedings which describes a civil trial; Jury Duty: Criminal Proceedings which takes a juror through the paces of serving on a jury in a criminal case; Your Louisiana Courts: How they work which details the structure of the court system in Louisiana and the jurisdiction of the courts. The Louisiana Judicial Newsletter is currently in its fourth year of publication.

Survey indicates continued concern about the process of civil commitments . . .

In surveys designed to identify the problems facing Louisiana judges, the JPC discovered a significant concern about the process of civil commitments. After looking into this matter in greater depth, the civil commitment subcommittee found that there was a clear need for a comprehensive review of the role of the judge in civil commitment proceedings in Louisiana. The review has now been completed. The results, a paper entitled, "The Role of the Judge in Civil Commitment Proceedings in Louisiana," is currently awaiting full committee approval. It will be made available to the judges of the state in early 1981.

Comprehensive study of court financing in Louisiana is completed . . .

The finance and facilities subcommittee with the assistance of the National Center for State Courts has completed a comprehensive study of court financing in Louisiana. This report delineates the varied and sometimes confusing sources of court revenues. Similarly, it lists the expenses of the courts. The study goes on to discuss the problems produced by the fragmented and often inadequate funding currently being provided to courts. It concludes with concrete recommendations for improving the courts through a more systematic and equitable system of funding.

JPC free to turn full attention to developing substantive programs . . .

The demise of LEAA has produced numerous problems as the ripple effect of canceled programs and lessened communication spreads throughout the criminal justice system. However, one positive effect of this demise has been the removal of the JPC's responsibility for allocating federal money and enforcing the regulations that were attached to this money. The JPC is now free to turn its full attention to developing substantive programs which will improve the courts of Louisiana.

JPC merges with Judicial Council . . .

In order to maximize the impact of JPC programs, a JPC subcommittee (created at the request of Chief Justice Dixon) has been working on a plan to merge the capabilities of the JPC with the policy expertise of the Judicial Council. It is anticipated that the final report of this subcommittee will be ready in time for the Spring meeting of the Judicial Council.

LOUISIANA JUDICIAL COLLEGE 1980 ANNUAL REPORT

Baiamonte.

1980 was a busy year for the Louisiana Judical College.

The College continued its goal of improving and increasing judicial education on the state level through seminar's and meetings held throughout the year.

The College co-sponsored the Louisiana District Judges Association spring meeting in Lafayette as well as spring meetings for the Louisiana Council of Juvenile Court Judges, the Louisiana City Court Judges Association, and the Louisiana Conference of Court of Appeal Judges. The College planned the educational portion of the judges' meeting in Lafayette and the appellate judges' meeting in New Iberia. The College handled the major portion of the planning of these meetings.

In April the College was again involved in the Louisiana State Bar Association annual meeting where a seminar was held for judges only. "The Judicial Opinion in Louisiana" was presented and moderated by Justice Mack E. Barham, Louisiana Supreme Court, retired. Serving as panelists were: Justice Pascal F. Calogero, Jr., Louisiana Supreme Court; Judge Richard J. Garvey, Orleans Civil District Court; and Judge Pike Hall, Jr., Second Circuit Court of Appeal.

In July, 1980, the College sponsored the third annual seminar for new law clerks of the Supreme Court and Appellate Court judges. The meeting, held in Baton Rouge, was attended by some 25 clerks. A questionnaire was completed by those in attendance which will be used as an aid in the planning of future meetings.

The final meeting of the year was the Annual Fall Meeting held in New Orleans. Following tradition, the meeting was held on the first Monday and Tuesday of October and included the traditional Red Mass at St. Louis Cathedral on Jackson Square and the Memorial Service at the Supreme Court Building.

Work continued on the Louisiana Judges Bench Book. The first two volumes which were made available to state judges in the Fall of 1978 were reproduced in a more compact version and have been distributed. A third volume "Criminal Proceedings" was developed and distributed to both district and city court judges. The grant, from the Louisiana Commission on Law Enforcement and Administration of Criminal Justice, which made this project possible ended in 1980. Funding is being requested from the state legislature in the 1981-82 FY budget to continue this project.

In late 1980, the College had already begun on meetings and seminars which reach well into 1985. During the closing months of 1980 much time and energy has been spent on finding the financial support necessary to contime the exceptional programs and services offered by the Louisiana Judicial College.

Associate Justice James L. Dennis completed a three year term as chairman of the Board of Governors in 1980. Justice Dennis was the first chairman of the Louisiana Judicial College Board and much appreciation is extended to him for his interest and support. He played a significant part in the rapid growth and acceptance of the College and its programs.

Associate Justice Harry T. Lemmon was appointed by the Supreme Court to serve as the new chairman of the board and will serve in this capacity for the next three years. The

An occurrance of much regret was the resignation of Mr. Joseph J. Baiamonte. Associate Director of the College. Joe, as he is known, concluded his appointment with the Judicial College in mid October, 1980. He has assumed greater responsibility with the LSU Law Center at the request of Chancellor William D. Hawkland. Although Joe's position with the college was part-time, he will be sorely missed. His contribution to the early growth and accomplishments of the College was invaluable.

The report was prepared by Nancy Miller, Louisiana Judicial College Staff.

THE JUDICIARY COMMISSION OF LOUISIANA 1980 ANNUAL REPORT

Nineteen matters were referred to the Commission during the year and ten were pending at the beginning of the year. Of those twenty-nine matters, sixteen are pending as of the close of 1980. The other thirteen were either closed without action or otherwise resolved to the satisfaction of the Commission. Six formal investigations were ordered and conducted and two formal hearings were held.

The Judiciary Commission, was created by constitutional amendment adopted November 5, 1968. By that amendment (Article IX, Section 4, Constitution of 1921), the Commission was composed of seven members -four judges, two attorneys, and one lay citizen. The Judicial Administrator was the Chief Executive Officer.

That Article provided that "a justice or judge may be removed from office or retired involuntarily for willful misconduct relating to his official duty or willful or persistent failure to perform his duty, or habitual intemperance, or for conviction, while in office, of a felony". It also provided that "a justice or judge may be retired involuntarily for disability that seriously interferes with the performance of his duties and that is, or is likely to become, of a permanent character".

Artcle V, Section 25, Constitution of 1974, continues the Judiciary Commission as a constitutional body with the same purposes and procedures but with changes in membership and additional disciplinary powers. The membership is now nine persons: three judges appointed by the Supreme Court; three attorneys appointed by the Conference of Court of Appeal Judges; and three lay persons appointed by the Louisiana District Judges Association.

The Judicial Administrator remains the Chief Executive Officer, however, this is now provided for by Supreme Court rule under the court's authority to make rules implementing the constitutional provision.

The powers of the Commission now include to recommend, in addition to removal and involuntary retirement, censure, and suspensions with or without salary. Additional causes for disciplinary action are: persistent and public conduct prejudicial to the administration of justice that brings the judicial office into desrepute, and conduct while in office which would constitute a felony. All other matters originally provided remain the same.

Actions are pursued as a result of a complaint or on the Commission's own motion, by investigation, adversary hearings and recommendation to the Supreme Court. All Commission proceedings, evidence and documents filed with the Commission, are confidential. Proceedings before the Supreme Court on recommendation of the Commission are not confidential.

Editor's Note: Complaints may be made to the officer of the Chief Executive Officer of the Commission, Eugene J. Murret, 109 Supreme Court Building, New Orleans, Louisiana 70112, Tel: (504) 568-5747.

The year 1980 was one of achievement for the Law Library of Louisiana. It marked the end of a decade which saw the Law Library emerge into the modern library world.

Until ten years ago the library was without professional management. An excellent collection of law books had became unwieldy because of an inflexible and illogical arrangement of the books on the shelves. With the employment of a professional librarian the decision was made in early 1971 to begin classifying the collection according to the Library of Congress classification scheme. This meant that each book in the library would have its own identifying number and would shelve with other books on the same subject.

Since the card catalog also needed to be completely revised, the job was a monumental one. A professional cataloger was added to the staff, and the work began. To put the collection into a professionally-accepted arrangement meant that 100,000 volumes had to be moved and shifted. Someone said that reorganizing a library is like reorganizing a grocery store in that customers go automatically to the usual aisle for the product and upon not finding it there, become frustrated and discouraged. There were a few unhappy customers, but on the whole patrons could see the logic of the new system and accepted it once it was explained to them. Finally, on an eventful day at the close of 1980 the last unclassified American treatise was classified and shelved in its new location.

Lest it seem that the work is over, it should be mentioned that the foreign law collection awaits classification; a large part of the treatise collection still has incomplete cataloging; the state statutes, reports, and digests need revision; back holdings of periodicals need to be recorded, etc., etc., etc.

In June 1980 the state legislature approved funds which allowed the library to join the Southeastern Library Network (SOLINET), a computerized cataloging system. Being a member of SOLINET will help the library to finish the backlog of incomplete cataloging as well as speed up the process of getting new books to the shelves. With the installation of the computer display terminal, the age of library automation arrived.

Paralleling the growth of our technical services has been an expansion of the library's reference services. Since the first professional reference librarian was hired five years ago, the library has made an increased effort to locate whatever material a patron needs, going beyond the library's doors to obtain answers by telephone and printed materials by inter-library loan. The acquisition of a number of important bodies of legal source material in microform has made available to our patrons information either too scarce, too expensive, or too bulky to own in printed format. More library patrons have also been introduced to the valuable resources offered by the constantly-growing

LAW LIBRARY OF LOUISIANA

United States government documents collection.

Recent years have witnessed increased service to citizens outside of the legal profession - - both those who come in person and those who write or call for copies of legal information. Attorneys and other citizens from throughout the state, including prisoners, take advantage of our photocopying service.

Library staff members frequently conduct orientation tours of the library for law clerks, univeristy classes, teachers and school children. A list of new acquisitions and other news of library developments appear regularly in the Louisiana Judicial Newsletter,

For the past few years the library has had the responsibility for satellite libraries throughout the Supreme Court building used by the justices and supporting staff members. All ordering, recording, and maintaining of these collections is done by the library staff.

The achievements of the past have been the result of the enthusiasm, dedication, and hard work of a truly outstanding staff. Since the staff is small - - six full-time and four part-time employees - - each person is assigned sophisticated responsibilities. Unfortunately, staff salaries do not compare favorably with those in similiar institutions elsewhere. In an attempt to correct that situation, an extensive survey of salaries in twenty state law libraries was conducted last year by the reference librarian. The results of the survey were incorporated into a detailed salary plan which was submitted to the legislature with the 1980-81 budget request. It was not approved.

In retrospect these have been good years - - difficult sometimes, challenging always. The next ten years will be the exciting ones: larger quarters, automated research, greater use of microforms, extensive networking, and the possibility of extending and coordinating library service for the courts and attorneys throughout Louisiana all lie in the future.

STATISTICAL APPENDIX

INTRODUCTION TO STATISTICAL SECTION

The statistical information in this section was compiled from data submitted to the Judicial Administrator's Office by the various courts of Louisiana during calendar year 1980. These data show that the workload of the courts of Louisiana is at a record high level.

During the last ten years, filings in the Supreme Court have increased by 248%. In 1980, a record 3,339 matters were filed, an increase of 9.5% over 1979. In 1980, a record 661 appeals were filed. This represents an increase of 338% during the last ten years. A similar growth in the number of writs filed has caused the court's workload to rise to 477 filings per justice in 1980.

In the Louisiana Courts of Appeal, filings have increased from 2,036 to 3,663 during the last decade, an increase of 80%. Filings in 1980 have increased by 12.5% over 1979. In 1980, there were 2,417 appeals and 456 writ applications filed in the Courts of Appeal. Both of these figures are record highs.

The past decade has witnessed a 67% increase in filings in the District Courts of Louisiana. The 1980 filings were 191,883 greater than the filings in 1971. While 67% of this growth resulted from increased criminal filings, there has also been a significant increase in civil filings from 103,579 in 1971 to 166,553 in 1980. Total 1980 filings are 14.5% higher than the 1979 filings and represent a record workload for the district courts.

In 1980, filings in Louisiana City and Parish Courts continued to grow. The 1980 filings were 9.5% greater than 1979 and 28% greater than 1975. As in past years, the bulk of these filings (437,019) were traffic related. However, the City and Parish Courts also received a total of 225,591 filings in the areas of civil cases, juvenile cases, and criminal (non-traffic) cases.
