PREFACE

The information in the following annual statistical report was compiled by the Virginia Department of Corrections, Research and Reporting Unit. Copies of similar annual reports on felons paroled and discharged are available for fiscal years 1976 through 1979.

This is the first fiscal year for which data on mandatory parolees are included. Effective July 1, 1979, legislative action (Code of Virginia, § 53-251.3) required that every person sentenced and committed to any State correctional institution be mandatorily discharged on parole by the Virginia Parole Board when six months remain in the person's sentence. Each person shall have served a minimum of three months of his sentence prior to such a "discharge on parole." Such persons who are so discharged on parole (Mandatory Parolees) are subject to a minimum of six months supervision.
