The information in the following report was compiled by the Virginia Department of Corrections, Research and Reporting Unit. The report was prepared by Cynthia Jones, Statistician. Typesetting and graphs were done by Sharon S. O'Keefe, and Robert A. Proffitt, Jr., Graphic Artist Illustrators. The report was reviewed by Helen S. Hinshaw, Reporting Supervisor. Copies of similar reports on felons paroled and discharged are available for fiscal years 1976 through 1980.

This is the second fiscal year for which data on mandatory parolees are included. Effective July 1, 1979, legislative action (Code of Virginia, § 53-251.3) required that every person sentenced and committed to any State correctional institution be mandatorily discharged on parole by the Virginia Parole Board when six months remain in the person's sentence. Each person shall have served a minimum of three months of his sentence prior to such a "discharge on parole." Such persons who are so discharged on parole (Mandatory Parolees) are subject to a minimum of six months supervision.
