Coordinating Council to Discuss State and Local Youth Violence Prevention Efforts at Quarterly Meeting

WASHINGTON— The meeting of the Coordinating Council (the Council) on Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, led by Robert L. Listenbee, Administrator of the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention (OJJDP), will discuss the benefits of interagency work in federal, state and local youth violence prevention efforts.

The Council will hear a presentation on the Federal Interagency Working Group on Youth Programs and the youth.gov website from Cheri Hoffman, Director, and Social Science Analysts Michelle Boyd and Sarah Oberlander, of the Division of Children and Youth Policy in the Office of the Assistant Secretary for Planning and Evaluation of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.

The Council—established by the Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Act and composed of representatives from 12 federal agencies and nine practitioners—coordinates federal programs related to delinquency prevention and the detention or care of youth and missing and exploited children.

The full agenda is available at www.juvenilecouncil.gov. The meeting will be webcast at <http://doj.capitolconnection.org/index.htm>.
