

Report to the United States Congress Activities of the Review Panel on Prison Rape in Calendar Year 2013

In accordance with Section 4(c)(1)(A) of the Prison Rape Elimination Act of 2003 (PREA), Public Law No. 108-79, 117 Stat. 972 (codified as amended at 42 U.S.C. §§ 15601-15609 (2012)), the Attorney General submits this report to Congress on the activities of the Review Panel on Prison Rape (Panel) in the preceding calendar year.

Panel Members

The Panel consisted of the following three members in 2013: Dr. Reginald A. Wilkinson, President and Chief Executive Officer, Ohio College Access Network; Dr. Gary E. Christensen, President, Corrections Partners, Inc.; and Ms. Anne Seymour, a victims advocate.

Purpose of the Panel

According to PREA, the duty of the Panel is to hold annual public hearings, based on data gathered by the Bureau of Justice Statistics (BJS), on the operations of the three correctional institutions with the highest incidence of sexual victimization and the two correctional institutions with the lowest incidence of sexual victimization in each category of facilities identified under Section 4(c)(4) of the statute. Id. § 15603(b)(3)(A). The purpose of the hearings is to identify the common characteristics of (1) sexual predators and victims, (2) correctional institutions with a high incidence of sexual victimization, and (3) correctional institutions with a low incidence of sexual victimization. Id.

Hearings

In June of 2013, BJS issued two reports that informed the Panel's hearings: Sexual Victimization in Prisons and Jails Reported by Inmates, 2011-12, which is available at <http://www.bjs.gov/content/pub/pdf/svpjri1112.pdf>, and Sexual Victimization in Juvenile Facilities Reported by Youth, 2012, which is available at <http://www.bjs.gov/content/pub/pdf/svjfry12.pdf>. These reports group prison, jail, and juvenile facilities according to the incidence of reported sexual victimization, and formed the basis of the Panel's decision about which facilities would be the subject of testimony. The Panel invited representatives from the following fifteen facilities to appear at public hearings on January 8-9, 2014,¹ as well as the following ten additional witnesses:
