Ensure Rights, Access to Services, and Equity for All Victims of Crime

The Crime Victims Fund (CVF) is a critical source of funding to support crime victims.

- State victim compensation programs
- State victim assistance programs
- New and innovative discretionary programs that address the changing needs of crime victims, especially those in communities that are underrepresented and underheard
- National-scope training and technical assistance

The FY2024 Budget requests a total annual cap of $1.2 B for CVF programs:

- Approximately $1.1 B for formula and discretionary programs
- Up to $60.0 M (5% set-aside) for tribal victim assistance grants
- Consistent with FY2023, OVW will be funded by direct appropriations in FY2024

The FY2024 Budget also requests $107.0 M for anti-trafficking programs.
